JOB AND CARD PRINTING promptly executed

Morning Chronicle.

REV. WM. ARTHUR, of Ireland, who is now in this country to raise money to sustain Protestantism in his own land, preached in the Bromfield street Methodist Church, Boston, on Sunday afternoon. After his sermon, he stated the particular object of his visit to America. He desired to obtain the sympathy and "material aid" of Americans for the Protestant cause in Ireland. In that oppressed and priest-ridden island are some nineteen thousand Methodists, and they constitute the entire leaven of active Protestantism existing there. Emigration and poverty has so reduced the means of this little band, that in many parishes no minister could be supported. The masses of population are therefore left to the control of priestcraft and superstition. It is also the policy of Romish priests to keep the people uneducated; one proof of which is, that in seventy Irish towns and villages, there is not a single bookstore. To dispel the dark cloud of ignorance by the light of the "preached word" the churches in Ireland had raised seventy thousand dollars, and called upon their American brethren to aid them in the work. It was thought that $100,000 might be obtained in the United States. New York had responded liberally, and the preacher hoped Boston would do something that would make Ireland remember our fair city with joy. At the close of these remarks, subscription cards were circulated among the congregation, and upwards of $3000 subscribed.—Transcript.

SUGAR.—The imports of sugar into Great Britain for the first eight months of the present year amount to only 232,100 tons against 317,500 in the same period of last year.

Of the quantity imported thus for the present year, 92,000 tons came from the British West Indies, 52,200 tons from Mauritius, 27,800 tons from Bengal and Madras, 17,000 tons from Java and Manilla, and 43,100 tons from the Spanish West Indies and Brazil.—Nearly 50,000 tons of the deficiency is from these last named places, 18,000 tons deficiency from Mauritius, and 17,000 from the British West Indies. Bengal and Madras show a slight increase, and Java and Manilla a slight falling off. The rise in price in England from the 1st of April to the middle of November was about 2 cents a pound. Since then a decline equal to about 2 3 4 cents a pound has taken place. Many speculators in Europe, the West Indies and Brazil, and some in the United States will be ruined, if there is not again a reaction in the European markets, and that very speedily.—Newburyport Herald.

Robert S. Dickson, Councilman elect in New York, was knocked down and run over by a "masheen" while on his way to a fire on Christmas night, and injured so that there are little or no hopes of his recovery.

Mr. Elijah Dana, of Goffstown, N. H., was run over by a horse in Manchester, on Thursday, and a gash was cut in the top of his skull, and his skull fractured. He will probably recover.

A daughter of Hon. Mike Walsh, who is now in Europe, died in New York on Sunday, at the age of seventeen She was receiving her education at a Catholic seminary.

Minnie Myrtle closes her last letter as follows: I heard one lady say she married for no other reason than to obtain a baggage master! and he, of course, married for the sake of the baggage he was to superintend.

The mammoth California tree, which has been exhibited several months in New York, was destroyed by fire on Sunday night, in the stable in which it was stored. It was valued at $7,000

On Saturday afternoon an Irish lad named Fanning, about 13 years old and blind, being taken upon the ice, at Bangor, to skate, in the temporary absence of his friends, got into the open water and was drowned.

Morning Chronicle.

TUESDAY, JANUARY 1, 1856.

THE NEW YEAR.

We have really passed the bourne of 1855—and this Morning's Chronicle bears the date of New Year's Morn, 1856. 'Tis well that we pause here one moment;—not feeble of purpose nor faint of heart,—but deliberate, calm, fixed, trusting in Him who feels no change of years—but fills his own Immortal Now, and sees our ages waste! Yes, let us pause and remember that on the last new year's day there were with us the old man full of days,—who, as he had lived on and on, beyond man's common bound, seemed to be in some sort immortal; but who has now departed. And we have had also with us the young and vigorous man, and the young and beautiful maiden—on whom our eyes may look no more. There were also the brave and the strong, the skilful and tried men in middle life—and the matron too, who made the home and blessed it,—but whom we have seen go the way of all the earth.

It is well that we remember them—well that they have lived and done their work—well and wisely has the Judge of all the earth decided that they die And now that the survivors of all these classes pass on to another year, what lesson shall we learn from their departure—what purpose shall we form?

The lesson of utter uncertainty as to life's tenure—and the purpose of daily duty.

A being, finite, of a day—as weak as he is short lived—surely should not trust merely in himself, or in his fellows, who are neither wiser, nor stronger, nor better than he. Their breath is in their nostrils, and they are crushed before the wrath.

But he may and he should trust in the Lord Jehovah, in whom is everlasting strength,—and whose wisdom and goodness are as superhuman as his power and might.

With this trust, let us move on, in hope, in duty and in zeal; not counting it a strange nor too sad a thing that many of us may close this life before the year—but looking forward and upward to reunion with our friends in scenes of sweeter bliss and brighter glory than those of earth.

WASHINGTON NEWS.

A special dispatch from a Washington correspondent of the Boston Courier, (on Sunday,) says:

Our relations with England are not so free from difficulty as the lovers of peace would wish. There is no doubt that Mr. John F. Crampton, the British Minister, will either be recalled by his own government or dismissed by ours. He maintains at present neither diplomatic nor even social relations with the members of our government—a state of things which cannot last long, nor be amended.—There is a graver charge against him than the attempt to enlist soldiers for the Crimean war in violation of our laws. Not wishing to publish a matter which might appear, in its diffusion, a breach of confidence, I can only say that he has proved himself more unworthy of the high station he holds than by his infringement of our laws.*

The administration, indeed, should have promptly dismissed him in August last—for there is positive proof that he disregarded our neutrality laws—and doubtless it would have done so, but from the anxiety of the President and his Cabinet to avoid even the appearance of hasty action. From facts, however, that have since come to the knowledge of the Executive, I believe his dismissal then would have prevented that embarrassment in our diplomatic relations with England which unfortunately now exist, and which, unless that government exhibits more sensibility to our just causes of complaint, threatens to grow more serious.

I am of opinion that Mr. Banks will, finally, be elected Speaker of the House. His friends are united and determined.

The Washington correspondent of the Journal of Commerce telegraphs that Banks has reached his highest vote, and the plurality rule cannot be adopted while he is the leading candidate.

* What does this mean? Is the man a swindler or a thief, a tippler or a seducer?

SUIT AGAINST THE BOSTON AND MAINE RAILROAD.—In noticing a call for a meeting of the stockholders of the Danvers road, the Salem Register says:—

"We are informed that a suit has already been commenced by the Danvers railroad, against the Boston and Maine railroad for breaches of agreement, and the damages laid at $100,000; and this meeting is called to take measures to secure the Danvers railroad against the effect of a contract which the Boston and Maine railroad has recently made with the Eastern railroad, which if carried out, may seriously conflict with the duties of the Boston and Maine railroad towards the Danvers railroad, under their previous contracts."

PERU.—Accounts from Callao of Nov. 25th inform us that the Peruvian Convention was still in session, and had before it three projects. One was a plan to free the nation from debt by the disposal of its rich deposits of guano at the Chincha Islands, by a grand auction; one to suppress free masonry; and another to expel the Jesuits. None of them had been acted upon.

FROM KANSAS.

The Chicago Journal of the 20th has late intelligence, received from a gentleman direct from Kansas:

"In an interview with a committee from the people of Lawrence, Gov. Shannon acknowledged that he had been entirely mistaken in the facts upon which he had based his proclamation! He promised them that he would forthwith send the Missourians home. Communicating his determination to the latter, they demurred unless the people of Lawrence would agree to give up their arms. This the committee positively refused to do, replying that their arms were their own private property, as sacred as their lives, and that the Missourians could not take the one without first taking the other."

Lawrence, Dec. 10.—When Gov. Shannon went back to the camp, on the Wakarusa, there was an awful disturbance. A large number wanted to come up and "whip the Abolitionists any how." Col. Boone of Westport, who had been a party to the negotiation, though not in signature, urged compliance with the treaty. Even Senator Atchison, who had been in the camps, and hovered around Lawrence for a week, made a speech in favor of the Missourians going home.—"The position of Gen. Robinson," he said, "is impregnable; not in a military point of view, but his tactics have given him all the advantage as to the cause of the quarrel. If you attack Lawrence now, you attack it as a mob, and what would be the result? I tell you it would cause the election of an Abolition President, and the ruin of the Democratic party. Wait a little—now you cannot destroy these people without losing more than you would gain." Such were the leading features of his "peace speech." Other things had a happy effect on the negotiations.—Whiskey had been exhausted in the camp below, and provisions were growing scarce. On Saturday night we had a tremendous storm of wind, with sleet and rain; it was almost impossible to have fires, or be near them. And next day the men disbanded, and went home very fast, swearing vengeance on Gov. Shannon. The Missourians carried with them three dead bodies; one of these had been shot by their own guard, who mistook him for a Free State man; one was killed in a drunken row, and one shot himself accidentally; several others were wounded in the same way by themselves. All the blood spilt has been shed by the invaders. Two Free State men are known to have been shot, and both were deliberate and cold blooded murders.

A letter from Lawrence to the New York Times, gives other particulars:

Dec. 12.—Last evening a large military ball came off at the Free State Hotel, in which nearly all our men participated. Speeches were made by several of our most prominent citizens. Sheriff Jones had been invited by our Commander, but several of the companies refused to participate if he did. Quite an excited state of feeling prevailed on this question. Mr. Jones did not appear in the hall on this account.

To-day I visited the camp ground of the Missourians. It looked much as I should suppose a battle field looks after an engagement had taken place and the dead buried.—Acres and acres of land were trodden down as hard as our roads. The smouldering camp fires—the fallen trees and one six pound cannon left by them because they dared not take it back as it is stolen property, all reminded one that Kansas had been invaded by an armed force, while the most fearful apprehensions filled my mind that her liberties are to be fought for yet on her lovely plains. This invasion and its present adjustment are only the prelude to something more serious. We feel so here. Atchison is not going to tamely submit. Some better pretext will be sought next time, and a way will not be left open for any settlement as it was this time.

The patriotic leaders of the border ruffians seem to have had the chills and fever at the idea of meeting Sharp's Rifles, without any whiskey as a stimulant for courage, or as a balm for their wounds. There's no telling what they would have done, if the whiskey had held out, or if the Kansas men had had no rifles.

MUSICAL CONVENTIONS.—The New York Musical Review says, recently;

The Richmond (Va.) Musical Convention held by Messrs Mason and Root, was a very interesting one, we hear. The clergymen of that city especially took great interest in the proceedings. Ministers must take hold of the work, if church music is to be improved; some are already waking from their apathy, and we hope the day will come when they as a body will become conscious of the fact that "praise" is as important a part of worship as "prayer."

SHAWLS.—The Brooklyn Eagle thinks shawls should be worn by the masculine gender, for the following rhyming reasons:

"If you want to be in fashion, wear a shawl; if to ladies an attraction, wear a shawl; if to sheep and cows a terror, or like shanghais in full feather, or even range upon the heather, wear a shawl; if your hips are badly moulded, or your shirt and vest unfolded or unpleasant to behold, wear a shawl; if you're courting some fine linnet, wear a shawl—you might wrap your lassie in it—in your shawl. It's like charity on pins, and hides a multitude of sins—although it causes grins—does your shawl. If you wish to be a dandy, wear a shawl. In a word, it is a most useful article—and may wrap your feet, head, body, knees, make a seat, a blanket, a muff, a pillow, a wrap-rascal or a Scotch plaid of your shawl."

☞ The New York Musical Review commences its seventh volume with the new year. Published fortnightly, by Mason Brothers, at $1 per year. Well worth it.

INQUEST.—Coroner Smith, of Boston, on Saturday finished investigating the circumstances attending the death of Joanna Gulliver, the jury returning a verdict that she was suffering with inflammation of the lungs, which with the violent beating of her father, caused her death.

LOCAL.

THE CITY MISSION.

On Sunday evening last, the new North Church was filled with people to hear Mr Amos Abbott, the City Missionary, read his Annual Report, and to listen to remarks on the Mission, by some of our city pastors. The pastors who made remarks were Messrs. Holman of the Methodist, Lamson of the Baptist, and Whiting of the Orthodox, Churches. Mr Patterson of the Universalist church occupied the pulpit with the others, but took no part in the exercises.

Rev. Drs. Burroughs and Peabody are sincere friends and liberal contributors to the mission,—which therefore is eminently un-sectarian—and the report, which was carefully prepared, showed fidelity and care in the execution of an important trust.

Important—not in the sense of a large pecuniary responsibility—for the amount of money actually expended in distribution of needful aid to the poor through this channel, was small,—somewhat less than $200.

And is this all? some reader or hearer may say: Do you pay a man six or eight hundred dollars a year just to give away two hundred?

By no means. This limited almsgiving, though not to be despised, is yet the least important of his duties,—and could be done indeed without expense, after a careless fashion which might probably do more harm than good.

We have before stated it as our belief, that the vigilant faithfulness of the city missionary, and his co-operation with the Howard Society, with the overseers and others who care for the poor, have almost broken up street begging among us, and greatly diminished those abuses of charity which flow out of careless giving, in which the noisiest beggars receive and squander those supplies which in justice and mercy belong to the more modest and deserving class of sufferers.

Yet many persons suppose that the chief, if not the sole employ of the city missionary, is the little almsgiving mentioned. And one or two persons have added to this mistake another, which partakes of the ludicrous,—viz. that of supposing that the city missionary is paid his salary by the city government, out of our annual appropriation for city expenses!

Intelligent men will laugh: but the statement has been made by at least two tax-payers: one of whom would hardly take No for an answer.

Rev. Mr Whiting had the right view of the mission, when he spoke of the two forces in every benevolent and useful work, viz. the negative or prohibitory, which restrains and checks evil; and the positive and encouraging, which aids and stimulates the good.

The city mission exerts both these forces—and we may add, exerts them often and strongly, unseen and unobserved by any persons, except such as are at once interested in charity, and possessed of excellent means of information.

We believe it is not too much to say, that the city missionary in this city for the past two years, has been a very effectual preventive policeman, without a commission; and that all our charities, individual and municipal, are managed more economically, as well as more efficiently, in consequence of the mission.

Its religious aspects are quite obvious—and the fact that only half the children of proper age in this city attend Sunday schools, is commended to ministers and teachers.

☞ The lecture before the Mercantile Association this evening is to be by Arthur Gilman, Esq., on the "Characteristics of New England Humor." The same lecture was delivered in Boston on Friday evening. The Bee says:

The lecture on the "Characteristics of New England Humor," delivered last evening at Music Hall, by Arthur Gilman, Esq., drew a large audience, and gave the greatest satisfaction. It was a continued feast of fun, set in caskets of solid thought and keen criticism. We regard this as one of the very best lectures ever delivered to a Boston audience.

☞ The November term of the Court of Common Pleas adjourned to meet in this city on Monday, at which time, the Judge not being present, it was again adjourned to this morning at 10 o'clock.

After all, we doubt exceedingly whether such a thing as a "Sharpe rifle" has ever found its way to Kansas by "Emigrant Aid" convey. The whole of this monstrous sputter about that terrible weapon, it is more than probable, is only "such stuff as dreams are made of"—tales gotten up in Abolition sanctums and put forth merely for effect.—Petersburg (Va.) Intelligencer.

The "effect," it seems, has been most excellent. And if the Missouri slave driving braggarts were frightened at the mere rumor of Sharpe's Rifles, what terror would have seized them, if they had encountered the weapon itself.—Telegraph.

Some wise man said, years ago: "If you want to learn human nature, get married to a spunky girl, move into a house with another family, and slap one of the young ones, and then you'll learn it."

ABSCONDED.—A correspondent of the Boston Herald, at Waterville, Me., writes that an extensive dry goods dealer of that place has absconded. His liabilities are over twenty thousand dollars, and he is supposed to have gone to California.

of Sacred and Secular Music.

ALL Singers and Players, whether living in Rockingham County or not, are cordially invited to attend and join in the exercises. Those who play well are requested to bring their Instruments, as it is designed to form an Orchestra.

The Convention will be under the direction of

Prof. B. F. BAKER, of Boston,

With able Assistants; though it is designed to have all the exercises, including the Concert, carried through as far as possible, by the volunteer members of the Convention.

It is designed to impart such information and instruction as shall tend to the improvement of Singing, especially Sacred Music; and all, at home or abroad, are invited.

Clergymen, Choristers, and others interested in music, in the neighboring towns, are respectfully urged to aid in securing the attendance of a delegation from each town.

Half-price will be charged to Members of the Convention on all the Railroads leading into Portsmouth—those having certificates of attendance being passed free on their return home during that week.

A Chorus of two or three hundred is expected; and no effort will be spared to render the occasion one of social and musical enjoyment and improvement.

TICKETS, admitting gentlemen to all sessions of the Convention, and the Concerts, $1 each, will be sold at the Chapel door, to pay the necessary expenses. ☞ Lady singers admitted free of charge.

☞ The Book used at the Convention, will be "Baker's Church Music," copies of which may be had of Mr. Pearson, or at the Convention. Those having copies of the old Carmina Sacra, are requested to bring them.

CONGRESS.

SATURDAY, Dec. 29.

The House has voted six times for Speaker to-day. On the second vote Mr Banks received 103 votes; Richardson 68; Fuller 32; Pennington 3; scattering 5. On the last vote Banks had 100; Richardson 68; Fuller 30; Pennington 5; scattering 5.

Mr Smith of Virginia, made a statement showing that Banks left the American party for the express purpose of resisting what he denominates the aggressions of slavery He wished the country to understand the character of the man.

Mr Grow, in reply, said that those voting for Mr Banks understood their duties without instructions or advice from the other side of the House.

Mr Smith responded, saying he wished the country to understand the character of the man the Fusionists were voting for.

Two other ballots were then had, the result being as follows:

Whitney, Powell, Williams, and Orr, received one each.

It was now half-past 5, when Mr Marshall moved an adjournment, which was negatived by 47 majority.

At 6 o'clock, P. M., the motion to adjourn was renewed by Mr Orr, and carried by 10 majority.

CONGRESS.—The episode in the House on Thursday, when Mr Millward of Pennsylvania, a Fuller man, declared that he had been offered the bribe of a chairmanship of a committee, by Mr Pearce, his colleague, to induce him to vote for Mr Banks, was rather an amusing one, as the committee on "engraving," the head of which was to be given to the stolid Pennsylvanian for his vote, has, it is said, no existence; and though he was told by his attempted seducer that he might "make a good thing out of it," yet he found that it was like Sancho Panza's island, a mere creature of the imagination, and hence his wrath and exposure.—Boston Chronicle.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 29.—Mr Banks last week on one or two occasions obtained precisely votes enough for the election of a Speaker, but before the result could be announced several gentlemen who had been sent for, hurriedly entered the house and cast their votes for another candidate, thus turning the scale.

NEW YORK, Dec. 29.—The United States District Attorney having called the attention of the Collector of Customs to the fact that Messrs. Hall, Addison & Farnsworth are under arrest for their participation in the Nicaraguan scheme, they have been informed that their future services will be dispensed with.

It is stated that President Pierce, as Commander-in-Chief of the Navy, and Hon. John McKeon, will be legally proceeded against by the Nicaraguan Transit Company for the illegal detention of their steamship, the Northern Light.

MIDDLETOWN, CONN., Dec. 30.—The gas works took fire about two o'clock this morning, from the purifier. The chain to which was attached the weight broke; the weight fell upon the purifier, making a hole letting off the gas, and a terrific explosion followed, tearing off the roof, and forcing the wall.

MARSHAL WEAVER OF BANGOR.—The Bangor Journal states that on Thursday Marshal Farnham seized some four or five thousand gallons of liquor, which Marshal Weaver had accumulated during his official career, and recently removed to a store in Exchange street, where it was suspected he was disposing of them on his private account. Mr. Weaver made no settlement with the city after his return, and on Christmas morning left the city with his family, as is supposed for good, although he has not "met those editors" yet.

THE NEW HAVEN MURDER.—Thankful S. Hersey, who is charged as an accessory, is well known in this city. She was for many years considered one of the most exemplary members of the Old South Church. She formerly taught a private school in Bigelow's Court, and became at that time a convert to the doctrines of the "Second Adventists," as they are called, and went away in company with one of the ministers of that faith by the name of Starkweather, in the capacity of a spiritual wife.—Worcester Spy.

THE MURDER IN EAST GREENWICH, R. I.—Shubael Baker, who was arrested on the charge of having murdered Gen. Arnold Lewis, of Exeter, has confessed his guilt. The Providence Journal says that Baker interrupted his return in the evening, and killed him by beating him on the head with a stick of wood. Baker is but eighteen years of age.

Mr Botts, of Virginia, has addressed a letter to the Know Nothings, proclaiming certain defeat for them in the national election, unless they mend their hand and settle their party disputes. He advises them to give up all platforms, but if they don't do that, substitute a new one for that made at Philadelphia, and leave out all reference to the slavery question.

RECENT DEATHS.—Hon. Joseph B. Wells, of Chicago, Illinois, died at the Astor House, New York, on Wednesday evening. Mr. Wells was a native of New Hampshire, and brother of Hon. Samuel Wells, of Maine, and John S. Wells, of New Hampshire. Mr. W. has long resided in the West. His position as Attorney for the State of his adoption, Lieutenant Governor and Canal Commissioner, gave him an extended reputation, and his manly qualities of head and heart, won for him the love and respect of a wide circle of friends.

Judge Dorsey, formerly Chief Justice of Maryland, died on Wednesday at his residence in that State. His disease was paralysis.

BREAK DOWN.—We met our friend John G. Saxe on Saturday, on his way home, broken in health from a recent attack of paralysis, which has occasioned him to forfeit many of his lecture engagements. He says he has seventy appointments ahead, and hopes by a few days repose to be able to resume his labors. God speed the genial man, genius poet.—Boston Bee.

Singer's Sewing Machines.

THESE Machines have long sustained the highest reputation in the United States.
The First Prize---A Gold Medal,
Has recently been awarded to them at the Palace of Industry in Paris, and thus they have the WORLD'S VERDICT OF SUPERIORITY.
The Inventor has just added to these superior Machines an improvement whereby they can work on any kind of
FAMILY SEWING,
From a coarse Cotton fabric to the finest Linen Bosom, in such a perfect manner as no other Machine professes.
They will also Bar and close all kinds of Kid Boots and Shoes, and stitch the finest Gaiter Boots in every part without a skip—making them the most desirable for girls to use at home, or for any who wish to do more than one kind of work.
These Machines are warranted to do all kinds of work in a manner far superior to any other machine in use.
They run without noise, with ease to the Operator, and at double the ordinary speed, so that
Twice as much Work can be done in a Day.
The greatest Shoe Manufacturing and Clothing Establishments in the country use these Machines exclusively, having tried other Machines and found them entirely unfit for their use.
They are simple, and cost scarcely anything to to keep them in repair, and can be operated by a child twelve years old.
These Machines may be had at Manufacturers' prices, of
THOMAS S. NOWELL,
Local Agent for New Hampshire, at his Shoe Manufactory, McDonough street, Portsmouth, where they may be seen in operation. d29

Harrison's Columbian Ink, Black.
FOR the National Government, State Legislatures, Courts of Record, Banks, Railroads, Post Offices, Insurance Offices, Editors, Authors, Lawyers, Doctors, Clergymen, Commercial and Business men of every sort, Colleges, Academies and Schools, and that great class who sustain all, the Farmers—the GREAT INK of the country. 644,678 bottles sold in 1854, is significant that the AMERICAN PEOPLE appreciate THE AMERICAN INK, made by HARRISON THE AMERICAN MANUFACTURER, and determine its great superiority over all foreign inks. It is at wholesale and retail by d10 GEO. W. TOWLE, 3 Congress Block.

Harrison's Blue Black Writing Fluid.
PROGRESS in the arts has revealed a Writing Fluid which does not, as other Writing Fluids do destroy the points of gold pens, actively corrode steel pens, or chemically decompose the paper or its coloring. I have seen paper where every letter written with English Fluids was eaten entirely through, and a delicate blue tint changed to a dirty yellow. The best make of gold pens have been condemned for losing their points, and the best manufactures of paper returned upon the dealer, where these Fluids were extensively used. Harrison's Fluid is subject to none of these evils. It writes a beautiful blue, and soon turns a jet black, and remains permanent HARRISON'S is AMERICAN, made by an AMERICAN, and worthy the use of all Americans. It is wholesaled and retailed by

G. W. STONE'S Cough, Consumption, and Bronchitis ELIXIR.

THE Proprietor would respectfully call the attention of the public to his invaluable Remedy for all Affections of the Throat and Lungs and begs of those who are undecided what to select, from the numerous medicines advertised, and recommended for such complaints, to give his ELIXIR a trial. Having done so, they will no longer hesitate what to take themselves, or recommend to others A single trial will prove to them that this is the most valuable remedy ever discovered for the various affections of the Throat and Lungs; it will immediately relieve the most violent Cough, and in a few hours completely cure the most severe Cold As a Preventive and Cure for Consumption it has no equal.—It is perfectly Vegetable, contains no poisonous ingredients, is quite agreeable to the taste, and may be given with perfect safety to the most delicate child The numerous testimonials received almost daily from those who have been cured by it, fully justify the assertion that no family should be without this Medicine: let Mothers give it to their Children who have the Whooping Cough or Croup, and they will allevate at once the sufferings of their little ones. Price 50 cts.

Call for G. W. Stone's Cough Elixir, and see that his name, and Cough Elixir, with the words Boston, Mass, are blown upon the Bottle, without which none will be genuine.

DR. BURLEIGH SMART'S Cough Medicine.

DR. BURLEIGH SMART, of Kennebunk, Me. was well known throughout the New England States, as a Physician whose treatment of Lung Diseases was attended with almost miraculous success. Very few Physicians ever enjoyed a more enviable reputation, or acquired a more extended practice. The Medical Journal, in speaking of him soon after his death, says:

"A man liberally educated, of acute perception, superior judgment, untiring perseverance, and arduously devoted to his profession, Dr. Burleigh Smart was eminently worthy of the enviable position which he held in the estimation of the Medical Faculty at the time of his death. Although skilful in every branch of the Medical Science, for many years his attention was given to DISEASES OF THE LUNGS, in the treatment of which he proved himself the most successful Physician who ever practiced in New England."

This medicine was first compounded and made use of by him, and is substantially the same great agent by means of which he accomplished so many wonderful cures of Pulmonary Disease. Its efficacy having been most thoroughly tested, in thousands of cases, by an eminent Physician, all we can say in its praise must, of course, be superfluous. It is offered to the public in its present form, with the most implicit confidence in its powers—a confidence based not wholly upon the above, but upon actual trials of its virtues, the testimony of hundreds of our citizens in its favor and a knowledge of its ingredients severally considered, as regards their curative properties Its formula has been submitted thoroughly tested, to the most distinguished chemists in this country, who unite in pronouncing it "A beautiful combination of the most reliable and valuable remedial agents used in treating diseases of the Lungs and other Respiratory Organs."

Unlike all other medicines of the same nature, it immediately allays the Cough, and so operates on the Blood as to remove the Cause, thus effecting a permanent cure. In this respect it is without a parallel in the preparations. By its use the strength of the patient is sustained, tone and vigor imparted to the system, the blood purified, disease subverted, and a healthy action of all the organs attained. In compounding it, the greatest care is observed, every bottle being separately prepared with chemical accuracy, of uniform strength, and in strict accordance with the original recipe. No poisonous drugs are used to give it a beautiful color, and impair its virtues, as in many of all other Cough Medicines, and in every instance the patient can rely on its doing all that medicine can do.

To secure the public against counterfeits, we have the bottles made expressly for us, with the words "Dr. BURLEIGH SMART'S COUGH MEDICINE, SHAW & CLARK, BIDDEFORD, ME., U. S. A." blown in the glass. Every bottle is enclosed in a wrapper of red enameled paper, printed in the English, French, Spanish and German languages, from a costly engraved plate, of which the copyright has been secured. An inside wrapper, containing full directions for using the Medicine, and a valuable treatise on Diseases of the Lungs, with directions for the cure of Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis and Consumption, compiled from the most reliable medical authorities by a distinguished physician, also accompanying each bottle.

CELEBRATED SMOKE

Consuming Patent

LAMPS.

REQUIRING only the poorest oil, lard, tallow or grease, producing a light Unsurpassed, at an expense of less than half a cent per hour. Adapted for the Parlor, Kitchen, and Workshop; also a valuable Study Lamp: It is fast superseding all other lamps. The principle of the lamp is such that PERFECT COMBUSTION is secured. Therefore it is inodorous because smokeless. It is more easily managed than any known lamp, and the vast number of them in successful operation sufficiently attest its merits.

We have kindly been permitted to peruse a letter received at the Missionary Rooms from H. G. O. Dwight, at Constantinople. He says: "I am exceedingly pleased with the Lamp you sent me, manufactured by the Uffords' 117 Court street, Boston, and can recommend it to all who are seeking, as I was, for a clear, strong, steady and economical light. It saves my eyes from much wearing labor in preparing Armenian manuscript for the press," &c.

John G. Whittier, the gifted poet, says, in a note to the manufacturers: "It is, beyond comparison, the best lamp I ever used—have just purchased one for my sister as the most useful present I could make her." Price of the Lamp, $1.25.

Toe the Mark.—The Expositor, the pure liquor paper in Portland, cracks the whip over the half and half men, after the following fashion:

It is true there are some doubting minds that hope, and even desire, that the Maine Law will not undergo an outright repeal; but that it will be partially changed, only, and not enough to offend the few tender footed whigs and democrats, who have an inkling for temperance fanaticism, yet long to keep in sight of the flesh pots of democratic rule.

Now we boldly say that no tampering policy on this subject will be tolerated, much less approved by the people of Maine.

The odium of having originated this pulley system of legislation is upon the ; and the glory of first wiping out such legislation, the people of the State at the last election, intended to achieve. And woe be to that politician who shall stand before the people with the treachery fastened upon him, of having, in any degree, winked at the further preservation of a solitary provision of the existing Maine Law. There is no one act of omission or of commission, now capable of perpetration, that would so effectually damn all popular confidence in the State Senators and Representatives elect as a single day of hesitancy upon this subject. In the popular mind it stands first and foremost for legislative action. Let not the popular mind be betrayed, or disappointed, nor the majesty of it be offended by pusillanimous counsels. The people have led off, and party politicians should be advised and admonished by this expression of the people.

Fever and Ague.—The following is an extract of a letter from a young man belonging in Amherst, to his brother, and published in the Amherst Express. The letter was writ ten in Dexter, Michigan:

"Mr. Fever and Ague calls upon me about half past ten o'clock every other day, and engrosses my attention pretty closely until the next morning. In the first place he sets me shaking with the cold for about an hour, in which time he changes my face to near the color of a corpse, and my lips and nails to a whetstone blue, and after he has frozen me to his liking, despite all my attemps to get warm, he turns his hot or 'Sunny Side,' which is ten times hotter than any fever which your humble servant ever experienced before—so hot as to deprive him of reason for five or six horns—and accompanied with hard rheumatic pains in all parts of the body, and more especially in the chest and kidneys. Not being content with this, after he removes his fever, he leaves him to sweat all night from head to foot,—enough to wet the bed-clothes through from top to bottom—which leaves your humble servant about as weak as he can well be—and he must keep dosing with quinine, calomel, and other nostrums, until he happens to find out something which will cure him—a medicine which cures one, may have no effect at all upon another. This fever takes a man's flesh away as quick as any fever that I know of. I should think that half the town, at least, had got it. I never supposed the fever and ague was what it is until I came to have it. I shall stay in this State until it is convenient to leave, and no longer."

Mr Sharp was sick. Well nign to death's door was Sharp. He knew it, and was prepared for his "last operation," as he called it: for Sharp was a broker and a wag. He called to his son, who came by his bedside with a look of sorrow. Sharp reached out his thin fingers and touched his son's hand tenderly. "My boy," said he, "I am going to leave you something." The son thought it likely, as he never dreamt of his father's taking it all with him, but he looked sadly and properly down, at a section of the calico quilt about as big as a dollar. "Bring me the tin box on the mantlepiece," said Sharp. His son obeyed. "There," said Sharp, taking therefrom three slips of paper, "that's something to remember me by when I am gone. Don't look at it till then." Three days after Sharp departed. His son, with filial regard, did not open the papers t'll that time, when he found them to be three second mortgage bonds of the Vermont Central Railroad. He blessed his father,s memory for leaving him something no one would take from him.—Boston Post.

To the Aged.—We take the following extract from the Age's report of Prof. Shepard's lecture in Augusta:—

"The conclusion was an admirable exhortation to the old to labor. The idea that men begin to dry up at forty, at fifty come to a stand still, and are only fit to be kicked out at sixty, was ridiculous, though prevalent.—Cowper did not appear in print until nearly half a century had gone over his head. Chaucer wrote his greatest work at sixty-five.—John Quincy Adams never showed the deep and vast volcano of his soul till past seventy, when he buried whole ranks of adversaries beneath eruptive fires."

Statistics of Gold and the Harvest.—The annexed statistics, in regard to gold and the harvest, were presented to the New York Historical Society, on the 12th inst., by Mr Osgood:—

I.—STATISTICS OF GOLD.

Previous to the California discoveries, the gold in the United States was	$86,000,000
From California, in the years 1849-1854,	291,000,000
To date in 1855,	45,000,000
Imported in six years from elsewhere,	33,000,000
Total,	$455,000,000
Remitted abroad in six years ten months,	214,000,000
Left in the country,	$241,000,000

II.—ESTIMATE OF HARVEST OF 1855.

Wheat, bu., from 168,000,000 to	185,000,000
Indian Corn,	2,000,000
Oats,	400,000,000
Rice,	225,000,000
Rye, from 16,000,000 to	18,000,000
Barley,	7,500,000
Potatoes,	115,000,000
Beans and Peas,	9,400,000
Sugar, lbs.,	545,000,000
Cotton, bales, from 3,000,000 to	3,500,000
Hay, tons,	15,000,000

"It will be seen," says Mr Osgood, "that our crop of Indian corn, if we value it at but one-half the present market price, amounts to more than all the gold from California, and that our wheat crop, at the most moderate estimate, is worth as much as all the gold in the country; while the moderate growth of oats, with all reasonable allowances for exaggeration, more than equals any two years' produce of the California mines.—N. Y. Mirror.

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 2, 1856.

MESSAGE.

We give only an abstract of the Message, consistent with our limited space, and with the fact that most of our readers like short talks.

The introduction is very brief, merely mentioning the delay of organization, expressing the President's duty to send in a message, and saying:

It is a matter of congratulation that the Republic is tranquilly advancing in a career of prosperity and peace.

Then come Foreign Relations, and first of these, Great Britain, connected with Central America.

The following are the cardinal points of the negotiation. Marcy in June of 1854, declares in a despatch to Buchanan that this government can never yield to the British pretension that the Clayton-Bulwer treaty was only prospective in its operation. After some spicy diplomatic censure of her conduct in this negotiation, he closes by declaring that if Great Britain persists in holding Ruatan in defiance of all right, we shall understand that she purposes to hold it simply as a naval or military station to affect injuriously our interest. A predetermination to interfere with our affairs thus manifested will render precarious the continuance of our amicable relations with her. On the sixth of August last, Marcy again urges the immediate settlement of this question before Buchanan should retire from London, and the latter is instructed to ask Great Britian distinctly whether she intends to insist on holding Ruatan; and is further instructed to insist on her abandoning her pretensions there. Buchanan addressed a note accordingly, and on the 28th of October, Clarendon replied, declining to reopen the general discussion, and stating that the British Government adheres to its previous positions.

The President also complains, very justly, of the British Recruitment in this country.

The ordinary steps were immediately taken to arrest and punish the parties concerned. The matter acquires additional importance by a disclosure of the fact that these enlistments were prosecuted upon a plan devised by official authority.

On the British American Colonies, the President recommends a commission to survey the Boundary between British America and Washington Territory,—and says:

Misunderstanding exists as to the extent, character, and value of the possessory rights of the Hudson Bay Company and the property of the Puget Sound Agricultural Company, reserved in our treaty with Great Britain, relative to the territory of Oregon. I have reason to believe that a cession of the rights of both companies to the United States, which would be the readiest means of terminating all questions, can be obtained on reasonable terms; and with a view to this end I present this subject to the attention of Congress.

Newfoundland—The Fisheries.—The Colony of Newfoundland, having enacted the laws required by the treaty of the 5th of June, 1854, is now placed on the same footing, in respect to commercial intercourse with the United States, as the other British North American Provinces. The commission which that treaty contemplated, for determining the rights of fishery in rivers and mouths of rivers on the coast of the United States and the British North American Provinces, has been organized and has commenced its labors, to complete which there is need of further appropriation for the service of another season.

The matter of the Sound Dues is still unsettled. Our relations with France, Greece and Spain, are represented as most friendly.

With Spain peaceful relations are still maintained, and some progress has been made in securing the redress of wrongs complained of by this government. * * * * I do not abandon the hope of concluding with Spain some general arrangement, which, if it does not wholly prevent the recurrence of difficulties in Cuba, will render them less frequent, and whenever they shall occur, to facilitate their speedy settlement.

Mexico.—The interposition of this government has been invoked by many of its citizens, on account of injuries done to their persons and their property, for which the Mexican republic is responsible. The unhappy situation of that country for some time past has not allowed its government to give due consideration to claims of private reparation, and has appeared to call for and justify some forbearance in such matters on the part of this government. But if the revolutionary movements which have lately occurred in that republic should be successful, and result in the organization of a stable government, urgent appeals to its justice will then be made, and it may be hoped with success, and the redress of all complaints to our citizens.

Central America.— * * * Thus it is that the distracted internal condition of the state of Nicaragua has made it incumbent on me to appeal to the good faith of our citizens to abstain from unlawful intervention of its affairs, and to adopt preventive measures, to the same end which on a similar occasion had the best results in reassuring the peace of the Mexican States of Sonora and Lower California.

Treaties.—Since the last session of Congress a treaty of amity, commerce, and navigation, and for the surrender of fugitive criminals, with the Two Sicilies; a treaty of friendship, commerce, and navigation with Nicaragua; and a convention of commercial reciprocity with the Hawaiian kingdom have been negociated. The latter kingdom and the state of Nicaragua, have also acceded to a declaration recognizing as international rights the principles contained in the convention between the United States and Russia of the 22nd of July, 1854. These treaties and conventions will be laid before the Senate for ratification.

Treasury.—The receipts during the last fiscal year ending July, 1855, from all sources, were sixty-five million three thousand nine hundred and thirty dollars, and the public expenditures for the same, exclusive of payments on account of the public debt, amounted to fifty-six million three hundred and sixty-five thousand, three hundred and ninety-three dollars. During the same period the payments made in the redemption of the public debt, including the interest and premium, amounted to nine million eight hundred and forty-four thousand five hundred and twenty-eight dollars. The balance in the treasury at the beginning of the present fiscal year, July 1st, 1855, was eighteen million nine hundred and thirty-one thousand nine hundred and seventy-six dollars. The receipts for the first quarter and the estimated receipts for the remaining three quarters, amount together to sixty-seven million nine hundred and eighteen thousand seven hundred and thirty-four dollars, thus affording in all, as the available resources of the current year the sum of eighty-six million eight hundred and fifty-six thousand seven hundred and ten dollars. If to the actual expenditures of the first quarter of the current fiscal year be added the probable expenditures for the remaining three quarters, as estimated by the Secretary of the Treasury, the sum total will be seventy-one million two hundred and twenty six thousand eight hundred and forty-six dollars, thereby leaving an estimated balance in the treasury on July 1st, 1856, of fifteen million six hundred and twenty-three thousand eight hundred and sixty-three dollars and forty-one cents. In the above estimated expenditures of the present fiscal year are included three million dollars to meet the last instalments of the ten million provided for in the late treaty with Mexico, and seven million seven hundred and fifty thousand dollars appropriated on account of the debt due to Texas, which two sums make an aggregate amount of ten million seven hundred and fifty thousand dollars, and reduce the expenditures actual or estimated for ordinary objects of the year to the sum of sixty million four hundred and seventy-six thousand dollars. The amount of the public debt at the commencement of the present fiscal year was forty million five hundred and eighty-three thousand six hundred and thirty-one dollars; and deduction being made of subsequent payments—the whole public debt of the Federal Government remaining at the time, is less than forty million dollars. The remnant of certain other Government stocks, amounting to two hundred and forty-three thousand dollars referred to in my last message as outstanding, has since been paid.

He praises our present Treasury system.

I renew, however, the recommendation heretofore made by me, of the enactment of a law declaring it felony on the part of public officers to insert false entries on their books, of record or account, or to make false returns; and also requiring them, on the termination of their service, to deliver to their successors all books and records, and all other objects of a public nature in their custody.

The surplus revenue, he says,—

Cannot fail to suggest the propriety of an early revision and reduction of the tariff of the duties on imports. It is now so generally conceded that the purpose of revenue alone can justify the imposition of duties on imports, that in readjusting the import tables and schedules which unquestionably require essential modification, a departure from the principles of the present tariff is not anticipated.

The Army is praised, and the Navy very briefly mentioned.

An appropriation is recommended for the construction of the six steam sloops of war. In regard to the steps taken in execution of the act of Congress to promote the efficiency of the Navy, it is unnecessary for me to say more than to express entire concurrence in the observations on that subject presented by the Secretary in his report.

Poss Office.—It will be perceived by the report of the Post Master General that the gross expenditure of the Department for the last fiscal year was $9,968,342, and the gross receipts $7,342,136, making an excess of expenditure over receipts $2,626,206. That the cost of mail transportation during that year was $674,952 greater than the previous year. Much of the heavy expenditures to which the Treasury is thus subjected, is to be ascribed to the large quantity of printed matter conveyed by the mails, either franked or liable to no postage by law, or to very low rates of postage compared with that charged on letters, and to the great cost of mail service on railroads and by ocean steamers. The suggestions of the Post Master General on the subject, deserve the consideration of Congress.

Kansas.—In the territory of Kansas there have been some acts prejudicial to good order; but as yet none have occurred under circumstances to justify the interposition of the Federal Executive,—that could only be in case of obstruction to the Federal law, or of organized resistance to Territorial law; assuming the character of insurrection, which, if it should occur, it would be my duty promptly to overcome and suppress. I cherish the hope however, that the occurrence of any such untoward event will be prevented by the sound sense of the people of the territory, who by its organic law, possessing the right to determine their own domestic institutions are entitled, while deporting themselves peacefully to the free exercise of it without interference on the part of the citizens of any of the States.

Under the heads of Constitutional Theory of Government, and of Constitutional Relations of Slavery,—

He eulogises popular sovereignty, gives a history of the formation of the Union, and expatiates on State rights, with particular reference to slavery and the Fugitive Slave Law.

The President regards the agitation of slavery as dangerous to the durability of the Union, and regrets to see the States disregard their constitutional obligations and refuse to obey the laws of Congress.

He denies that the South has obtained advantages over the North in the Federal Government, and proceeds to refer to the ordinance of 1787 and the acquisition of Louisiana and to illustrate the balance of power between freedom and slavery.

He comes down to the annexation of Texas, the repeal of the Missouri Compromise, and argues that the South has got no more than belongs to her.

He gives an elaborate defence of the principles of the Nebraska bill, and indignantly denies that it is a breach of faith.

The two latter heads, both of which are devoted to the interests of Slavery, are purely Southern, and occupy a quarter part of the message; and they close with expressions of strong hope that the Union will survive the attacks of fanaticism. The message closes thus:—

I know that the Union is stronger a thousand times than all the wild and chimerical schemes of social change which are generated one after another in the unstable minds of visionary sophists and interested agitators.

I rely confidently on the patriotism of the people, on the dignity and self-respect of the states; on the wisdom of congress, and above all on the continued gracious favor of Almighty God to maintain against all enemies, whether at home or abroad, the sanctity of the Constitution and the integrity of the Union. FRANKLIN PIERCE.

Washington, Dec. 31st, 1855.

REPORT OF THE SECRETARY OF WAR.—The Secretary of War urges an increase of compensation to army officers, and the revision of the law respecting their allowances; also, that the provision of the last Congress increasing the pay of the rank and file be extended to all enlisted men. He recommends an increase of the medical corps, and an addition of five military store keepers. He recommends the judicious continuance of sea-coast defences, and especially renews his suggestion for the defence of Ship Island, to protect the approaches to New Orleans. He presents also a neat and forcible argument in favor of the Pacific Railroad, as a means of defence, but avoids expressly recommending its construction by governmental aid, although he distinctly intimates a disposition to favor such aid.

REPORT OF THE SECRETARY OF THE NAVY. The report of the Secretary of the Navy recommends the construction of additional steam sloops of war. It expresses entire satisfaction with the result of the apprenticeship system and with the legislation of the last Congress in behalf of the Navy. It maintains the abolition of corporal punishment and recommends an increase of the marine corps and an increase of seamen to 10,000 men. The Secretary sustains the general action of the Naval Retiring Board, but intimates his readiness to aid in restoring any officers in special cases, who have been unjustly treated.

REPORT OF THE POSTMASTER GENERAL.—The Postmaster General suggests that the franking privilege be restricted to public documents, and letters on public business merely; also the charge of full rates upon newspapers in all cases, instead of half rates when paid quarterly in advance. He recommends compulsory prepayment by postage stamps on books, pamphlets, circulars and all other transient matter. He again urges the six months' notice to the Collins steamers of discontinuance of the extra compensation voted them in July, 1852. He presses this subject at some length.

MILFORD, MA.—In Milford, says the Boston Telegraph, by the aid of the law which is now upon the statute book, that populous and enterprising town has rid itself of some fifty grog-shops, many of which have been of the very vilest and lowest kind.

DEATH BY SUFFOCATION.—The Rockland (Me.) Democrat states that a man named Colson, belonging in that place, and a negro, name unknown, were suffocated one night last week, in the cabin of the schooner Ophir, lying in the harbor of Rockland, by the fumes of lime which was burning in the hold of the vessel.

HONORARY.—At the late commencement of the Castleton Medical College, the honorary degree of M. D. was conferred upon Rev. James M. Hartwell of Whitefield. His high standing, his varied attainments and his devotion to science render Mr. H. worthy of any honors that may be conferred upon him.—N. H. Patriot.

BRATTLE SQUARE CHURCH, BOSTON.—A fire broke out in this church about 10 o'clock Saturday night, having caught from the furnace in the cellar, but was subdued by the firemen in about one hour. The floor was burned and one of the columns considerably damaged; the pew furniture and carpets in the immediate vicinity were also much injured by water—the whole damage being some $500, which is fully insured.

ACCIDENT ON THE SOUND.—The steamer Plymouth Rock went ashore at Hart's Island in the storm of Sunday morning. Her passengers were all rescued by the steamer Bay State, of the Fall River line. At the time of the disaster the Plymouth Rock was at anchor in company with the other Sound boats, when a schooner, also at anchor near by, got loose and drifting into the steamer, tripped her chain and anchor, and set her at the mercy of the storm.

ALLEGED FRAUD IN THE SALE OF BRANDY.—In the Boston Police Court, Saturday, George S. and Sewell Buffum, of No. 28 Charlestown street and 64 Union street, were brought up on the complaint of Mr. John H. Davis, charging them with fraud. He alleges that they sold him twenty-thtee gallons of brandy, which they asserted was the imported article, of the value of $4.25 per gallon, whereas it was of domestic manufacture and worth only about 80 cents per gallon. Before an examination of the case was gone into, Mr. F. Sohier, counsel for the defence, inquired of the Court if a charge of fraud in the sale of liquor could be maintained where the sale of the article was by law illegal. The Court reserved the point for consideration, and the defendants were ordered to give bail in $250 each for their appearance on Thursday.—Transcript.

COURT OF COMMON PLEAS.

TUESDAY, Jan. 1.

The case Dr. Perry vs. Samuel Treat, was before the Court, and the testimony for the plaintiff mostly put in—but on account of the illness of a witness was postponed to Wednesday morning at half past 8, to which time the Court adjourned.

☞ The lecture on Tuesday evening before the Mercantile Library Association, was by Arthur Gilman, Esq., of Boston—a pleasant essay on Wit and Humor generally, and especially as exhibited in the Yankee character, illustrated with numerous jokes and stories, old and new.

It was preceded by music on the Grand Piano, by Mr. Pearson. The whole entertainment was favorably received by a numerous audience.

JULLIEN'S BURLESQUE OPERA TROUPE.—Our citizens will recollect a first-rate Concert, vocal and instrumental, given in this city a couple of years ago, by this large and talented band. They are said to have improved much since that time, and meet with much applause wherever they perform. It will be seen by our advertising columns, that they are to give two of their popular entertainments here this week. We copy the following notice of these excellent musicians from the Worcester Journal:—

Last evening this inimitable musical troupe whose performances have elicited such unbounded praise from the press, in every section of the Union, gave one of their unique entertainments at Brinley Hall. Despite the storm, the hall was crowded, and more good, soul-stirring music, laughable feats, and perfect burlesques, were never crowded into an evening's entertainment. The audience were at one moment in tears, and in the next they were bursting their sides with laughter. The "Penny Trumpet Solo," a burlesque on Jullien himself, is one of the most amusing, comical and laughable things we ever saw, and the uproarious laughter and applause of the audience, told fully how perfectly it was done. If any of our readers think it wicked to "laugh and grow fat," they had better not go to these Concerts, but if they do not, and they want to enjoy themselves, just go and hear this troupe, but be sure and fasten on the buttons to your vest. Aside from their merry-making burlesques, they are musical artists of the first stamp, and you will hear from them music that will repay you four-fold for your attendance.

OLD FOLKS' CHOIR.—The next rehearsal will be on Friday evening, Jan. 4, at 7 oclock.

Grand Musical Festival.

THE ROCKINGHAM COUNTY MUSICAL ASSOCIATION

Will hold a

PUBLIC MUSICAL CONVENTION,

AT HANOVER STREET CHAPEL,

Portsmouth, N. H.,

Commencing on Tuesday, Jan. 8, 1856,

To continue three or four days, and close with at least one of Sacred and Secular Music.

GRAND CONCERT

ALL Singers and Players, whether living in Rockingham County or not, are cordially invited to attend and join in the exercises. Those who play well are requested to bring their Instruments, as it is designed to form an Orchestra.

The Convention will be under the direction of

Prof. B. F. BAKER, of Boston,

With able Assistants; though it is designed to have all the exercises, including the Concert, carried through as far as possible, by the volunteer members of the Convention.

It is designed to impart such information and instruction as shall tend to the improvement of Singing, especially Sacred Music; and all, at home or abroad, are invited.

Clergymen, Choristers, and others interested in music, in the neighboring towns, are respectfully urged to aid in securing the attendance of a delegation from each town.

Half-price will be charged to Members of the Convention on all the Railroads leading into Portsmouth—those having certificates of attendance being passed free on their return home during that week.

A Chorus of two or three hundred is expected; and no effort will be spared to render the occasion one of social and musical enjoyment and improvement.

TICKETS, admitting gentlemen to all sessions of the Convention, and the Concerts, $1 each, will be sold at the Chapel door, to pay the necessary expences. ☞ Lady singers admitted free of charge.

☞ The Book used at the Convention, will be "Baker's Church Music," copies of which may be had of Mr. Pearson, or at the Convention. Those having copies of the old Carmina Sacra, are requested to bring them.

CONGRESS.

MONDAY, Dec. 31.

SENATE.—The President's Message was read. After the reading of the message a debate sprung up on the Central American question, in which Messrs. Clayton, Seward, Weller, Cass and others participated. The ground taken by the President was generally endorsed.

Adjourned until Thursday.

HOUSE.—In the House this morning, Sydney Webster, Private Secretary of the President, entered, announcing a written message. Great excitement ensued

Mr Clingman moved that it be read.

Mr Morgan called for the yeas and nays, and several members struggled fiercely to get the floor. After a very animated debate and much confusion it was decided, 87 against 126, that the message should not be read, and the whole subject was laid on the table.

Adjourned until Wednesday.

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 28.—Later from Kanzas—More Outrages.—The Lexington (Missouri) Herald, of the 23d, says: On the 15th, the Free State constitution of the Topeka Convention was voted for, when a collision occurred at Leavenworth between the pro and anti-slavery parties. The ballot boxes were destroyed by the mob, voting stopped, and an anti-slavery man's house burned. A person charged with the last outrage was arrested and lodged in jail. His friends broke open the jail, released the prisoner, and then burnt down the building. Great excitement existed, and both sides had sent for assistance.

CHICAGO, Dec. 31.—A letter from Westport, dated the 18th, states that on election day, the border Missourians mobbed various voting places on the Missouri river, and at several points would not allow the polls to be opened. A large mob destroyed the ballot boxes at Leavenworth, and maltreated the judges of the election.

The New Haven Register says that Mrs Wakeman has been carrying on her pretended revelations from heaven for many years. As far back as 1832 she accused her husband with being the "man of sin," and, with other fanatics, made an attack upon him which endangered his life.

Singer's Sewing Machines.

THESE Machines have long sustained the highest reputation in the United States.

The First Prize—A Gold Medal,

Has recently been awarded to them at the Palace of Industry in Paris, and thus they have the WORLD'S VERDICT OF SUPERIORITY.

The Inventor has just added to these superior Machines an improvement whereby they can work on any kind of

FAMILY SEWING,

From a coarse Cotton fabric to the finest Linen Bosom, in such a perfect manner as no other Machine professes.

They will also Bar and close all kinds of Kid Boots and Shoes, and stitch the finest Gaiter Boots in every part without a skip—making them the most desirable for girls to use at home, or for any who wish to do more than one kind of work.

These Machines are warranted to do all kinds of work in a manner far superior to any other machine in use.

They run without noise, with ease to the Operator, and at double the ordinary speed, so that

Twice as much Work can be done in a Day.

The greatest Shoe Manufacturing and Clothing Establishments in the country use these Machines exclusively, having tried other Machines and found them entirely unit for their use.

They are simple, and cost scarcely anything to to keep them in repair; and can be operated by a child twelve years old.

Medical Notice.

THE subscriber having completed arrangements, with DR. MAFFITT HILL, an experienced Apothecary, in the superintendence of the Medical department of his business; and having also replenished and added to his former Stock of DRUGS, MEDICINES and CHEMICALS, respectfully solicits from his friends and the public generally a continuance of the patronage heretofore so generously bestowed.

As every article composing my stock has been selected with special reference to purity and freedom from adulteration, I can with confidence assure my patrons of entire satisfaction in their purchases.

In dispensing Medicines, and in the compounding of Physicians' Prescriptions, the greatest care will be used, guarding strictly against all errors.

Harrison's Blue Black Writing Fluid.

PROGRESS in the arts has revealed a Writing Fluid which does not, as other Writing Fluids do destroy the points of gold pens, actively corrode steel pens, or chemically decompose the paper or its coloring. I have seen paper where every letter written with English Fluids was eaten entirely through, and a delicate blue tint changed to a dirty yellow. The make of gold pens have been condemned for losing their points, and the best manufactures of paper returned upon the dealer, where these Fluids were extensively used. Harrison's Fluid is subject to none of these evils. It writes a beautiful blue, and soon turns a jet black, and remains permanent HARRISON'S is AMERICAN, made by an AMERICAN, and worthy the use of all Americans. It is wholesaled and retailed by

DEATH OF A NOTORIOUS WOMAN.—A letter from Paris, in a New York paper, states that Kate Hastings died recently in the Charity Hospital of that city. She was well known in New York—having kept three of the most notorious and gorgeous of the many houses of ill fame which disgrace the city. She added greatly to her notoriety some four years since, by cowhiding "Ned Buntline," in Broadway, for some remarks displeasing to her, which he saw fit to make in "His Own" paper. She left shortly afterwards for California, where she resided for a short time, and again returned to this city, where she married a German tailor, and accompanied him to Europe. Her husband, it is said, after getting hold of all her property—a considerable sum—deserted her, and refused to give her even means to return to this country. She died a pauper in the Charity Hospital of Paris.

Dr. John Pilsbury, of Rochester, while temporarily deranged took an over-dose of morphine on Thursday last, and soon expired. He was fifty years of age, and removed to Rochester from Lowell a year ago.

AMERICAN AND FOREIGN OFFICE.
76 State st, oppo. Kilby st, Boston.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO INVENTORS. The Subscriber (late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, under the Act of 1836) determined to present a business agency, fully equal, if not superior to those offered inventors by others, has made arrangements whereby on applications prepared and conducted by him, THIRTY DOLLARS (instead of twenty, as paid back by others,) will be required by him in case of failure to obtain a patent, and the withdrawal through him within thirty days after the rejection. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments and all necessary papers and drawings, for procuring patents in this and foreign countries prepared, and advice rendered on legal and scientific matters respecting inventions, and infringement of patents.

Inventors can not only here obtain their specifications on the most reasonable terms, (generally about $5 per sheet less than others in the profession,) but can here avail themselves of the experience of 20 years' practice, his visits to the Patent Office, an extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and correct account of patents granted in this and other countries; besides being saved a journey to Washington, the usual great delay there, as well as all personal trouble in obtaining their patents. Copies of claims of any patent furnished by remitting one dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington. Patents in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries, secured through agents of the highest respectability.

R. H. EDDY,
Solicitor of Patents.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent Office, and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."
From the present Commissioner.

AUGUST 17, 1855.—During the time I have held the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, has been extensively engaged in the transaction of business with the Office, as a Solicitor. He is thoroughly acquainted with the law, and the rules of practice of the Office. I regard him as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse.

DR. BURLEIGH SMART'S
Cough Medicine.

DR. BURLEIGH SMART, of Kennebunk, Me. was well known throughout the New England States, as a Physician whose treatment of Lung Diseases was attended with almost miraculous success. Very few Physicians ever enjoyed a more enviable reputation, or acquired a more extended practice. The Medical Journal, in speaking of him soon after his death, says:

"A man liberally educated, of acut perception, superior judgment, untiring perseverance, and ardently devoted to his profession, Dr. Burleigh Smart was eminently worthy of the enviable position which he held in the estimation of the Medical Faculty at the time of his death. Although skillful in every branch of the Medical Sciences, for many years his attention was given to DISEASES OF THE LUNGS, in the treatment of which he proved himself the most successful Physician who ever practiced in New England."

This medicine was first compounded and made use of by him, and is substantially the same great agent by means of which he accomplished so many wonderful cures of Pulmonary Disease. Its efficacy having been most thoroughly tested, in thousands of cases, by an eminent Physician, all we can say in its praise must, of course, be superfluous. It is offered to the public in its present form, with the most implicit confidence in its powers—a confidence based not wholly upon the above, but upon actual trials of its virtues, the testimony of hundreds of our citizens in its favor and a knowledge of its ingredients severally considered, as regards their separate properties. Its formula has been submitted to several of the most distinguished chemists in this country, who unite in pronouncing it "A beautiful combination of the most reliable and valuable remedial agents used in curing diseases of the Lungs and other Respiratory Organs."

Unlike all other medicines of the same nature, it immediately allays the Cough, and so operates on the Blood as to remove the Cause, thus effecting a permanent cure. In fact, it is infinitely superior to all other preparations. By its use the strength of the patient is sustained, tone and vigor imparted to the system, the blood purified, disease subverted, and a healthy action of all the organs attained. In compounding it, the greatest care is observed, every bottle being separately prepared with chemical accuracy, of uniform strength, and in strict accordance with the original recipe. No poisonous drugs are used to give it a beautiful color, and impair its virtues, as in nearly all other Cough Medicines, and in every instance the patient can rely on its doing all that medicine can do.

To secure the public against counterfeits, we have the bottles made expressly for us, with the words "DR. BURLEIGH SMART'S COUGH MEDICINE, SHAW & CLARK, BIDDEFORD, ME., U. S. A." blown in the glass. Every bottle is enclosed in a wrapper of uncommonly fine engraved paper, in English, French, Spanish and German languages, from a costly engraved plate, of which the copyright has been secured. An inside wrapper, containing full directions for using the Medicine, and a valuable treatise on Diseases of the Lungs, with directions for the cure of Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis and Consumption, compiled from the most reliable medical authorities by a distinguished physician, also accompanying each bottle.

UFFORD'S
CELEBRATED SMOKE
Consuming Patent
LAMPS.

REQUIRING only the poorest oil, lard, tallow or grease, producing a Light Unsurpassed, at an expense of less than half a cent per hour. Adapted for the Parlor, Kitchen, and Workshop; also a valuable Study Lamp. It is fast superseding all other lamps. The principle of the lamp is such that PERFECT COMBUSTION is secured. Therefore it is inodorous because smokeless. It is more easily managed than any known lamp, and the vast number of them in successful operation sufficiently attest its merits.

We have kindly been permitted to peruse a letter received at the Missionary Rooms from H. G. O. Dwight, at Constantinople. He says; "I am exceedingly pleased with the Lamp you sent me, manufactured by the Uffords' 117 Court street, Boston, and can recommend it to all who are seeking, as I was, for a clear, strong, steady and economical light. It saves my eyes from much wearing labor in preparing Armenian manuscript for the press," &c.

John G. Whittier, the gifted poet, says, in a note to the manufacturers: "It is, beyond comparison, the best lamp I ever used—have just purchased one for my sister as the best present I could make her." Price of the Lamp, $1.25.

THE UNION SLIDING.

Union Saving, as an occupation, seems to be profitable to some tricksters:—but as a bugbear cry, the word disunion now provokes laughter and derision, rather than alarm. The Newburyport Herald, whose Unionism has never been disputed, says:

Some of Mr Banks' opponents in Congress, say that he ought not to be Speaker, because in a speech, last summer, he said—"the Union could not stand, and ought not to stand, if its great object was only the perpetuation and maintenance of chattel slavery." Certainly most northern men would agree with Mr Banks, that if that was the only object, "it might slide." But it seems curious to see how zealous some of the Southerners have become in defence of the Union, when for that reason they will not support Mr Banks, while on a hundred occasions they have declared themselves ready to dissolve the Union; and every week you will see some of their legislatures or conventions resolving, under certain contingencies, to dissolve it. Suppose the question was reversed, and the only object of the Union was made to be the abolition and extinction of chattel slavery, how many of the south would then support it? The truth is, our dear Southern brethren are mighty free with their lips in denouncing anti-Slavery and abolitionists, and to get clear of these they would abolish heaven and earth; but when northerners censure slavery and slave holders the bull is goring the wrong ox. We don't know that Mr Banks is the best man for speaker, and certainly do not approve of his talking of dissolving the Union under any circumstances. That is a matter that never never should be named, no more than dissolving the relations between the head and heart of a live man, but the south have no reason to complain. If there is pleasure in threatening to dissolve, as would seem from their action, they can't expect to have it exclusively to themselves, and as the free States grow stronger, they will find if they continue that tune, that others will sing it as well as they.

The safety of the South is not in electing Presidents, or Speakers favorable to slavery; for if that can be done, others may be elected opposed to it; it is not in having the institution endorsed by conventions and supported by the national administration, for other conventions may repudiate, and the government that has power to sustain can abolish; but to admit it to be, and keep it, a local question; and protect it under State Rights. So long as there is a party that wants the nation to aid slavery, so long there will be an anti-slavery party: and the party of freedom will at last triumph and trample it down; but if it keeps at home, within the States, and claims to live simply upon municipal law, it may remain forever, and no outside power can place its hand on it. Slavery is a moral evil and wrong, and like all other moral evils it must sooner or later die; and the more it seeks to perpetuate its existence, the sooner in fact it will come to an end. Every effort to strengthen slavery in the United States, in the last twenty years, has left it weaker; and the slaveholders to-day are doing more for the eventual overthrow of slavery itself, than all the abolitionists can do.

LAW FOR VOLUNTARY ENSLAVEMENT.—The Senate of Virginia, we are informed by the Richmond Dispatch, have lately passed a bill for the voluntary enslavement of a free negro of Southampton county. "He is an old man, sixty years of age, has been lately emancipated, but is anxious to remain in a condition of servitude, which he knows by his own experience and observation, is the best and happiest condition for his race. So numerous are applications of this character," says the Dispatch, "that it has been found necessary to introduce a general law into the Legislature for the voluntary enslavement of free negroes of the Commonwealth."

And such a law will be needed, we suppose, as long as popular policy and personal safety demand that negroes, bond or free, shall be held in utter ignorance of everything pertaining to education. It is singular, however, to find freemen seeking the delights of slavery.—N. Y. Sunday Mercury.

Very singular no doubt: and we shall be very much surprised when we see the free negroes or free men of any color, rushing toward the South in a general stampede, to get into that best and happiest condition!

But the whole thing has a prodigious smell of gammon about it.

An old negro of 60 years is freed—but he can't provide for his wants,—and he claims, before the legislature, the right of maintenance from his late owner. The legislature grant his claim; pass a bill giving him the right; and while they are about it, pass a general law of the same sort, giving any negro, whom the chivalry have nominally freed, but really turned out to die,—the power to claim protection and support as slaves.

This is all—and a very proper law it is.—And now why can't they go one step further—and when any slave voluntarily wishes to be a freeman—let him do that also.

Shaving, Hair Dressing, &c.
HENRY S. HARTSHORN would respectfully inform his friends and the public, that he has taken the spacious Room in the western corner of CITY HOTEL building, No 20 Congress street, and fitted and furnished it in the best manner, as the

THURSDAY, JANUARY 3, 1856.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

Various opinions are expressed on the President's Message. We copy some of them.

1. Newburyport Herald.—The message will compare favorably with those that have preceded it, and can not be otherwise than satisfactory to the country generally. * * * *

A large portion of the message is occupied in a consideration of the slavery question, and is worthy of a careful perusal. Probably the opinions advanced will be more popular south than in New England, yet the question of State Rights, State Equality, and Squatter Sovereignty are deserving of the careful consideration he gives them. Though President Pierce asserts that the South have made no aggressions upon the North, yet there may have been more aggression on both sides than was favorable to a peaceful perpetuity of the Union.

2. Boston Times.—We cannot reserve our commendation of its spirit and tone, from beginning to end. This Message will stand with others, breathing the same lofty National spirit; and it will be read by the American people, and cherished by them, as a document enunciating true and pure political doctrines in conjunction with a lucid and comprehensive exposition of the condition of the country.

3. Boston Bee.—A well-prepared, statesmanlike document, and will be read with interest. We cannot assent to all that it contains, though the exceptionable points are very few.

4. Boston Mail.—Generally considered an inferior State paper, as vacillating and undecided upon important issues, as it is one sided and truckling to the pro-slavery sentiment.

The President, after a lame apology for forcing his bantling upon Congress, declares "it is a matter of congratulation that the Republic is tranquilly advancing in a career of prosperity and peace." We are heartily glad to hear it, and trust it will long continue so, but can hardly hope it from the dogged despotism exhibited in some parts of the Message. * * * * * *

The balance of the Message is devoted to an essay on the "constitutional theory of government," and a long, pro-slavery, Union-saving, Southern-vote bidding lecture upon the iniquities of agitation. He goes into a long defence of the Kansas-Nebraska measure, repeal of the Missouri Compromise, &c., apparently with a view of crushing out the Republican sentiment of the North. It is so heartless, so fiendish in its advocacy of the Southern "institution," that we feel ready to endorse even the Telegraph's assertion that "the Message is the most infamous document that has ever issued from any of our Presidents."

5. Boston Transcript.—THE SLAVERY QUESTION.—The President takes an ultra Southern view upon this topic.

6. Boston Courier.—That portion which occupies so large a part of it—the relations of the United States with foreign governments—is written with great clearness and perspicuity, and * * * We see not a word in this part of the message which any American would desire him to take back, and which is not manly, dignified, and entirely and aptly applied to the purpose which it discusses.

* * * * * * *

The latter part of the President's message—and a very large part—is devoted to a mere lawyer's argument with regard to the relations which subsist between the North and South upon the question of slavery, in which the former is assailed and condemned in every manner in which its legislative, political or personal action can be reached, and the latter is held totally harmless and guiltless. It is a new thing for the President of the United States to enter the forum and make a special plea to Congress, arraigning one portion of the country upon questions in which it may have been partly wrong, and besslavering another portion with all the slime and slaver of parasitical adulation. The South will not thank President Pierce for his uncalled for allusions to its home affairs, and the North will only meet his impertinent suggestions with scorn and derision.

7. Boston Telegraph.—The Message is the most infamous document that has ever issued from any of our Presidents. From a quarter to a third of it is occupied with a false, malicious and slanderous attack upon the people of the Northern States, who in the exercise of their right of suffrage, have with the greatest unanimity, condemned the course of the Administration in sanctioning the Repeal of the Restriction of 1820 against the extension of Slavery. From beginning to end, this part of the message is one mass of falsehood and misrepresentation—false in general and false in detail; even the language of the Constitution itself is garbled to suit the President's purposes. * * * * * *

He evidently calculates that the ultra slavery doctrines of the message will give him the Southern vote in the Cincinnati convention, while the Greenes, Hallette, Peasleys, &c. &c., who make up the delegations already chosen in the North, will give him the supremacy.—But he reckons without his host. The author of this message cannot get the electoral vote of a single Northern State, and this fact being made manifest to the slaveholders, they will have no hesitation in disposing of him in the way they have disposed of their other worthless tools, after they have done using them for their violent and usurping purposes.

The President flatters himself too much when he thinks that the Nebraska Bill "marked the final consummation and complete recognition of the principle that no portion of the United States shall undertake through assumption of the powers of general government to dictate to the social institution of any other portion"—if he means by this that there will be no further attempt to counteract the effect of himself and his slave mongering brethren to extend human bondage. The condition of affairs in the House of Representatives should have taught him a lesson on this point. His doctrines and his conduct as a President, have been CONDEMNED by the people.

8. Boston Atlas.—The subjects treated of are so many, and the tone and sentiment of the message are so totally different and conflicting in speaking of some, from those conveyed in treating of others, that it will not be amiss to leave our readers, to some extent, to make their own estimate of this singular and inconsistent document.

☞ The North American Review for January, 1855, is laid on our table by the editor. The Contents are:—

1. Life, Services, and Works of Henry Wheaton: 2. Bartol's Pictures of Europe: 3. Statistics of Insanity in Massachusetts: 4. Sydney Smith: 5. The Romish Hierarchy: 6. History of the Jacobin Club: 7. Vernon's Memoirs: 8. The Pacific Railroad: 9. American Poetry: 10. German Emigration to America: 11. Critical Notices.

The article on Sydney Smith, is favorable, genial, and true: And that on the Romish Hierarchy, by far the most interesting article in the number, to the general reader. It is in the form of a review of Dr. Edward Beecher's book against the papacy; its spirit can be inferred from an extract:

It is not necessary to our purpose, which is simply to show that the papal hierarchy has always been hostile to freedom of thought and to intellectual progress, that we should enumerate the several particulars of its tortuous ascent to the pinnacle of power; but it may be expedient to give enough of its history to show the development of its character. It sought constantly to strengthen itself by espousing, in the continual contests between different kings, or between a king and a pretender to his throne, the cause of the party who would engage, in case of success, to wear the crown as a feudatary of Jesus Christ, and to acknowledge the Pope as his vicar-general on earth. It seldom failed of success. The Pope, as its chief, had but to fulminate his anathems against the king he had determined to oppose, and every believing subject dropped his weapons of war, or used them against his former sovereign. The papal curse severed the tie of allegiance; the papal blessing attached the ligament to another sovereign.

NEWSPAPER CHANGES.—On New Year's Day the Boston Times came out in a new dress, and looked very neatly. Geo. Roberts goes out and John A. French and Alfred B. Ely come in. Mr Ely, it is understood, is editor.

The Boston Chronicle has a salutatory from Hon. Chas C. Haswell, who is understood to have bought into the paper. It is to be "independent" and eclectical.

☞ Messrs. Joseph B. Morss and Wm. H. Brewster, editors and proprietors, have retired from the Newburyport Herald,—and it is now published by Huse & Co.

It has been ably and successfully managed by the retiring firm, for many years,—and will, we presume, preserve its good standing under the new dynasty, as we perceive Mr. Morss is to assist in the shipping and commercial news department—and as others of the editors are practical and able men in their line.

MARRIAGE AND DIVORCE.—The Hon. Mrs. Norton has written a letter, addressed to Queen Victoria, on Lord Chancellor Cranworth's Marriage and Divorce bill, of which a London paper says:—

Although discussing a subject of great public interest, it is so full of private griefs, and the expression of opinion is throughout so tinged with the anguish and agony of trials and sufferings of which the world has already heard too much, that we feel it impossible to deal with it without entering upon topics which are not suited for the columns of a public journal. We cannot, indeed, but regret that the fine genius of the authoress should be thus diverted from those paths of literature where she would meet with honor and fame. However much we may deplore the appearance of this pamphlet, it is but just to her to add that it is distinguished by a vigor, an eloquence, and a masculine power of style, which very few writers even of the opposite sex could rival.

GALLANTRY AND LEGALITY.—It is stated by the Norwalk (Conn.) Gazette, that the New York and New Haven Railroad Company, have laid an attachment upon the homestead of Lewis O. Wilson, worth $100,000 or more, for alleged damage to a car door, which Mr. Wilson pushed in, breaking the catch, in order to accommodate some ladies with seats. Twenty-five cents would have repaired the damage.

If the thing is correctly stated, no decent jury will give them a dime.

RECRUITS FOR WALKER.—The San Francisco Sun of Dec. 5th, has the following paragraph:—

"It is said that at least five hundred men will sail on the Sierra Nevada to-day, to join Gen. Walker in Nicaragua. Among them are Messrs. Adolphus Sutter, James McNab, and Capt. Coy. If these reinforcements continue for any time, the General will find himself in a position to dictate terms not only to Nicaragua, but also to extend his conquests to Southern Mexico, which we hold to be the apex of his ambition."

☞ Joanna Galliver, a young woman in Boston, whose father beat her so that she died a few days ago,—was proved before the jury to have been drunk herself, and her father also, when the beating took place.

BIG PIG.—Berry Nason, Esq., of North Berwick, on New Year's day, killed a pig 7 1-2 months old, which weighed 382 lbs.

We learn that the body of young Coffin, who was drowned at Presumpscott Falls, has been found. His skull, one arm and one leg were broken. The shawl of the young lady who was also drowned, has been discovered, but no trace of her remains. The life of her sister, who was thrown upon the rocks, is despaired of.—Portland Argus.

LOCAL.

COURT OF COMMON PLEAS.

WEDNESDAY, Jan. 2.

The Court was occupied most of the day in the trial of the case Perry vs Treat, which was given to the jury about 4 P. M.

☞ Let no lover of Music, no votary of the droll burlesque, forget that the Jullien Burlesque Opera Troupe of Vocalists and Instrumental Performers, will give one of their Grand Concerts at the Temple this evening.

Their last Concert which they gave in this city, was one of the best we ever heard;—and among all the listeners we remember no note of dissatisfaction from any.

Their music is worthy of a crowded house.

THE OLD FOLKS' CHOIR in this city have voted to give a Concert, some evening in the third week in January. Their next rehearsal is on Friday evening of the present week, at Exchange Hall. John Christie, Esq., is conductor, as heretofore.

DEATH BY A SINGULAR POISON.—A young Irish woman, a dressmaker, from Lowell, while on a visit to her friends in this city, who reside on Main near Harvard street, died yesterday from taking a quantity of "Parsons's Rat and Cockroach Extermiuator." She purchased, on Wednesday last, a box of this article, which is said by the manufacturer to be free from danger to human life, with the express purpose of committing suicide. She took during the day a large portion of it, and soon began to feel its effects. Medical aid was called, but was unable to save her; she lingered in great distress till yesterday, when she died.—Cambridge Chronicle.

The Salem Register says that Geo. Peabody, the London Banker, has made an additional donation of fifteen thousand dollars to the Peabody Institute at Danvers. It is given for the purchase of estates adjoining and situated on each side of the Institute, and for improving and beautifying the grounds connected therewith. On the estates are two commodious dwelling houses, the income of which is to be appropriated for the benefit of the Lyceum and Library. This makes $45,000 which Mr. Peabody has given to his native town, for the establishment and support of one of the best Institutes in the state. Besides he has had purchased and forwarded for the Library, twenty-five hundred voumes of valuable books.

FOREIGN MUSICAL.—Madame Jenny Lind Goldschmidt appeared on Monday evening, the 10th instant, singing in Haydn's "Creation," after an absence from England of six years. One of the London journals says she is somewhat thinner and more serious-looking than Jenny Lind, but the voice, which she has, in every sense of the word, used so well, remains still fresh and unapproachably beautiful. Madame Goldschmidt was to appear again in "Elijah."

The spot where the remains of Mozart lie at Vienna, has been discovered, and a monument is about to be erected on it, and a medal struck for the hundredth anniversary of his birthday. A "monster concert" is to be given.

A PROTESTANT PIG.—An Irish woman in Bristol, a few days since, missed her pig, and after diligent inquiry learned that in was in possession of a highly respectable citizen of the town. She called straightway upon him, when he informed her that the pig had broken through a window in the Episcopal church, where his pigship was found, and if she would pay five dollars damages she could have the pig. She replied, "The pig and the church may go to the divil. I'll pay no five dollars for him if he has turned Protestant."—Providence Post.

THE TRUE SECRET.—Those who have used Dr. Rogers' Liverwort, Tar, and Canchalagua for Consumption, or any form of Lung Disease, can attest the superior efficacy of this medicine. Its health restoring and tonic qualities not being subject to any reaction from Opium, or any of its preparations, is the true secret of its great success. All Druggists sell it

Capt. Elijah Barnum, of Duxbury, Conn., was sitting in his wagon, conversing with a gentleman in the road, when a pedlar rose up suddenly from the roadside, with a pack upon his shoulder, which made Mr B.'s horse give a sudden start, throwing him violently out of the wagon and rupturing a blood vessel; he died in ten minutes.

Monday morning, (says the Manchester American) a horse team belonging to John Proctor, who lives in Youngsville near Massabesic Pond, was crossing the pond, when the ice broke, and the horses and sled, loaded with a cord and a half of wood, sunk, and the horses were drowned. The driver came near sinking through the ice, but escaped. He sank to his knees once, but succeeded in getting upon the firm ice. His loss is about $300.

Mr Ordway, a large, healthy, enterprising man, of Chelsea, Vt., took great pains to drown himself in the only hole to be found in the Worcester Branch at Montpelier. In his pocket was found a good note for $1000 which he held against a gentleman in Chelsea, payable Jan. 1.

The Lowell News says that Wm. Trow, Jr., of Tewksbury, was thrown from his sleigh and his head dashed against a stone wall, on the 29th, breaking his skull and killing him instantly. The horse was frightened by another one attempting to pass him.

John Bruce, about forty years of age, belonging to Oxford, was found dead in the highway, a short distance west of Oxford Centre, on Monday evening. Exposure to the cold, while in a state of intoxication, caused his death.

The Syracuse Chronicle says two hundred fugitive slaves have passed through that city the past year, and thirteen within the less twelve days.

Grand Musical Festival.

THE ROCKINGHAM COUNTY MUSICAL ASSOCIATION

Will hold a

PUBLIC MUSICAL CONVENTION,

AT HANOVER STREET CHAPEL,

Portsmouth, N. H.,

Commencing on Tuesday, Jan. 8, 1856,

To continue three or four days, and close with at least one

GRAND CONCERT

of Sacred and Secular Music.

ALL Singers and Players, whether living in Rockingham County or not, are cordially invited to attend and join in the exercises. Those who play well are requested to bring their Instruments, as it is designed to form an Orchestra.

The Convention will be under the direction of

Prof. B. F. BAKER, of Boston,

With able Assistants; though it is designed to have all the exercises, including the Concert, carried through as far as possible, by the volunteer members of the Convention.

It is designed to impart such information and instruction as shall tend to the improvement of Singing, especially Sacred Music; and all, at home or abroad, are invited.

Clergymen, Choristers, and others interested in music, in the neighboring towns, are respectfully urged to aid in securing the attendance of a delegation from each town.

Half-price will be charged to Members of the Convention on all the Railroads leading into Portsmouth—those having certificates of attendance being passed free on their return home during that week.

A Chorus of two or three hundred is expected; and no effort will be spared to render the occasion one of social and musical enjoyment and improvement.

TICKETS, admitting gentlemen to all sessions of the Convention, and the Concerts, $1 each, will be sold at the Chapel door, to pay the necessary expenses. ☞ Lady singers admitted free of charge.

☞ The Book used at the Convention, will be "Baker's Church Music," copies of which may be had of Mr. Pearson, or at the Convention. Those having copies of the old Carmina Sacra, are requested to bring them.

CHARLESTON, Dec. 30.—Attack on United States Troops.—Advices from Fort Brooke, Florida, Dec. 23, state that an exploring party, under the command of Lieut. George L. Harkuff, 2d artillery, consisting of one sergeant, one corporal, and seven privates, were suddenly attacked by a party of Seminole Indians, at daylight on the 20th inst., near Fort Myers. At the time of the attack the party were engaged in making a re-examination of that portion of the big Cypruse Swamp examined by the troops last winter. Three of the men arrived at Fort Myers on the 21st. It is supposed that Lieut. Hartstuff and the remainder of his party have been killed. Lieut. H., when last seen, had one arm broken and is supposed to have been wounded in the side. Most of the animals attached to the expedition were shot down. The Indians who made the attack were some 25 or 30 in number.—Two companies of the 2d artillery were to leave Fort Myers on the morning of the 22d inst. in search of Lieut. Hartstuff and the missing members of his party. The movements of the troops in the vicinity of the battle ground were ordered immediately on the receipt of the information concerning the attack.

HOMICIDE IN WATERTOWN, MS.—On Sunday, in Watertown, near the Mount Auburn depot of the Boston and Fitchburg Railroad, an Irishman, whose name we have not learned, was killed during a melee, and Coroner Adolphus Smith, of Newton, was called to hold an inquest on the body. Upon learning the facts the coroner ordered the arrest of a man named Michael Follen, to await the result of the coroner's inquest. Dr Hosmer, of Watertown, will make a post mortem examination of the body. So far as we can ascertain, the deceased was killed in an attempt to put a man out of the house where the fatal affray occurred, rum having some agency in the tragedy.

SUICIDE AT LEWISTON, ME.—A man by the name of Putnam, belonging in Lewiston, Me., threw himself from the railroad bridge between Lewiston and Auburn, about 4 o'clock on Sunday afternoon last, and his body was at once carried down the stream under the ice. The deceased went to work very coolly, deliberately taking off his coat, vest and hat, and depositing them upon the railroad track before taking the fatal leap. We learn that he had been suffering with the delirium tremens for a week previous to his death, and within a few days his wife had been obliged to separate herself from him. The deceased was between thirty-five and forty years of age.

The Boston Herald learns the particulars of a sad affair that occurred at Jackson, Carroll county, N. H., on the night of the 20th.—Mr. Charles Patrick, with his wife and a little girl ten years old, lived in a house by themselves, half a mile from any other dwelling. In the middle of the night the girl woke up and found the house in flames. She escaped and ran in her night clothes to the neighbors for assistance, and when they reached the house it was in ruins. Mr. and Mrs. Patrick perished in the flames. He was about eighty years old, and his wife fifty. They leave a large family of children, who are in deep affliction. The cause of the fire is unknown. The furniture was all destroyed, together with some $200 in gold.

There are hints of incendiaries,—as there was a lawsuit about the property.

The correspondent of the New York Herald telegraphed on Saturday evening:—"The President will recommend the Democratic members, provided an organization is not effected on Wednesday, to adopt the plurality rule, which will settle the vexed question.—The unsettled and precarious condition of affairs is the cause assigned."

PITTSBURG, (Pa.) Jan. 1.—Fatal Railroad Accident.—At Darlington summit, at half-past four yesterday afternoon, the 3 o'clock passenger train going west on the Ohio and Pennsylvania Railroad, came in collision with a freight train coming east, which was out of time, the conductor probably endeavoring to reach the switch which is but a short distance from where the collision occurred, whereby four persons were instantly killed and sixteen more or less dangerously wounded, among them the engineer of the express train and the fireman. The locomotives and cars were smashed, both trains being under full headway. The watch of the conductor of the freight train was found to be three quarters of an hour too slow.

ASSAULT AND BATTERY.—John Chout, Postmaster at Underhill Centre, was arrested on the 27th inst. and brought before Justice Hollenbeck, charged with assault and battery on his daughter, a young lady of 30 years of age. The offence committed by the young lady, for which she was beaten by her father, as appeared before the Court, was the reading of Know Nothing papers. He plead guilty, and was fined four dollars and costs.—Burlington Free Press.

NEW BRUNSWICK ITEMS.—The prohibitory liquor law having been signed by the Queen, the law goes into operation on the 1st of January. Two young sons of Wm. J. Eastabrook, of Canning, were drowned last week, while skating. On Friday night last, a barn adjoining the Yorkshire Tavern, at St. John, with a bowling alley and a fine grove of trees, belonging to Mr Stephen Nason, was destroyed by fire. In the barn were four horses, two cows, two sheep, twelve tons of hay, and a quantity of grain—all destroyed.

The remainder of the Norfold and Portsmouth relief contributions is becoming a bone of contention in the Virginia Legislature. It being proposed to employ this sum in the endowment of a philanthropic institution, a question has arisen as to what party should be entrusted with its administration.

A citizen of Franklin, N. H., was on the evening of the 25th, assailed in the street in the West Village, by three English operatives in the Stocking Mill, and his head so mangled that it was at first supposed he could not survive.

Punch says "men never begrudge the money they spend on dinners, nor women on pastry."

PRINCE & CO'S IMPROVED Patent Melodeons.

The oldest Establishment in the United States and the largest in the world.

Between 17,000 and 18,000 of these Instruments have been finished and are now in use.

The latest improvement in our Melodeons is the

DIVIDED SWELL,

Secured to us by Letters Patent, 22d May, 1855. By means of this swell Solo Passages may be played with the full power of the Instrument, while the accompaniment is soft and subdued.—Hereafter, all Melodeons made by us will be furnished with this attachment WITHOUT EXTRA CHARGE.

[Extract from the Com. Advertiser, July 27th.]

"Messrs Prince & Co. could realize a handsome fortune by disposing of rights to other manufacturers to use their new improvement, but as they prefer to make it a feature in their Instruments, it can only be obtained by purchasing one of their manufacture."

The styles and prices are—

IN PORTABLE CASE:

4 octave Melodeon, extend'g frm C to C.....$45
4½ octave, " " C to F.....60
5 octave Melodeon, " " F to F.....75

Singer's Sewing Machines.

THESE Machines have long sustained the highest reputation in the State.

The First Prize—A Gold Medal,

Has recently been awarded to them at the Palace of Industry in Paris, and thus they have the WELD'S VERDICT OF SUPERIORITY.

The inventor has just added to these superior Machines an improvement whereby they can work on any kind of

FAMILY SEWING,

From a coarse Cotton fabric to the finest Linen Bosom, in such a perfect manner as no other Machine professes.

They will also Bar and close all kinds of Kid Boots and Shoes, and stitch the finest Gaiter Boots in every part without a skip—making them the most desirable for girls to use at home, or for any who wish to do more than one kind of work.

These Machines are warranted to do all kinds of work in a manner far superior to any other machine in use.

They run without noise, with ease to the Operator, and at double the ordinary speed, so that

Twice as much Work can be done in a Day.

The greatest Shoe Manufacturing and Clothing Establishments in the country use these Machines exclusively, having tried other Machines and found them entirely unfit for their use.

They are simple, and cost scarcely anything to keep them in repair; and can be operated by a child twelve years old.

These Machines may be had at Manufacturers' prices, of

THOMAS S. NOWELL,

Local Agent for New Hampshire, at his Shoe Manufactory, Molt Block, State street, Portsmouth, where they may be seen in operation. d29

Harrison's Columbian Ink, Black.

FOR the National Government, State Legislatures, Courts of Record, Banks, Railroads, Post Offices, Insurance Offices, Editors, Authors, Lawyers, Doctors, Clergymen, Commercial and Business men of every sort, Colleges, Academies and Schools,—and that great class who sustain all, the Farmers—the quantity of INK of the country, 644,678 bottles sold in 1854, is significant that the AMERICAN PEOPLE appreciate THE AMERICAN INK, made by HARRISON THE AMERICAN MANUFACTURER, and determine his great superiority over all foreign Inks. It is at wholesale and retail by

Harrison's Blue Black Writing Fluid.

PROGRESS in the arts has revealed a Writing Fluid which does not, as other Writing Fluids do destroy the points of gold pens, actively corrode steel pens, or chemically decompose the paper or its coloring. I have seen paper where every letter written with English Fluids was eaten entirely through, and a delicate blue tint changed to a dirty yellow. The points of gold pens have been condemned for losing their points, and the best manufactures of paper returned upon the dealer, where these Fluids were extensively used. Harrison's Fluid is subject to none of these evils. It writes a beautiful blue, and soon turns a jet black, and remains permanent. HARRISON'S is AMERICAN, made by an AMERICAN, and worthy the use of all Americans. It is wholesaled and retailed by

G. W. STONE'S

LIQUID CATHARTIC,

OR

Family Physic.

The most important discovery ever made in Medical Science, being a compound of Barks and Roots, which forms the most powerful, safe and agreeable Physic ever offered to the public.

THE necessity of such a Medicine has long been felt both by the heads of families and Physicians. Its advantages over cathartics given in the form of Pills or Powders, must be obvious to every intelligent person. It operates more immediately and efficiently upon the system, and at the same time is infinitely less difficult to administer, being quite agreeable to the taste. It not only produces all the effects where physic is required, but completely removes habitual Costiveness, leaving the bowels perfectly free. It expels all humors from the blood, is a certain cure for the Piles, regulates the action of the Liver, frees the Stomach from Bile, invigorates the whole Nervous System, and removes the cause of all local pains, such as

It may also be relied upon in all diseases of the Bowels, Dysentery, Diarrhea and Cholera Morbus yield at once to its magic influence. Again we repeat, TRY IT!—It needs no other recommendation. No family will be without it after they have properly tested its merits. Reader, if you have tried other remedies, without avail, this is not—relief is now at hand. Are you suffering with scrofula, six bottles of my Liquid Cathartic will cure you. Would you be relieved from habitual Costiveness?—three bottles will effect all that you desire. If you are afflicted with Rheumatism, Neuralgia, or other local pains, two bottles will free you from them. All humors will be eradicated from the blood by the use of from one to six bottles. In short, if you require a physic for any purpose, this is the most reliable, safe and agreeable to the taste that has ever been placed within the reach of the public.

PRICE $1.00.

Patents.

AMERICAN AND FOREIGN OFFICE.

Agency for business with U S Patent Office, Washington,

70 State st., opp. Kilby st. Boston.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO INVENTORS The Subscriber (late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, under the Act of 1837) determined to present advantages in applying for Patents, superior to those offered by others, has made arrangements whereby on applications prepared and conducted by him, THIRTY DOLLARS (instead of twenty as paid back by others,) will be remitted by him in case of failure to obtain a patent, and the withdrawal through him within thirty days after the rejection. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments and all necessary papers and drawings, for procuring patents in this and foreign countries prepared, and advice rendered on legal and scientific matters respecting inventions, and infringement of patents.

Inventors can not only here obtain their specifications in the most reasonable terms, (generally about 30 per cent less than others in the profession,) but can here avail themselves of the experience of 20 years' practice, his visits to the Patent Office, an extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and correct accounts of patents granted in this and other countries; besides being saved a journey to Washington, the usual great delay there, as well as all personal trouble in obtaining their patents. Copies of claims of any patent furnished by remitting one dollar.—Assignments recorded at Washington. Patents in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries, secured through agents of the highest respectability.

R. H. EDDY,

Solicitor of Patents.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent Office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,

Late Commissioner of Patents."

From the present Commissioner.

AUGUST 17, 1855.—During the time I have held the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq. of Boston, has been extensively engaged in the transaction of business before the Office, as a Solicitor. He is thoroughly acquainted with the law, and the rules of practice of the Office. I regard him as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse.

DR. BURLEIGH SMART'S

Cough Medicine.

DR. BURLEIGH SMART, of Kennebunk, Me. was well known throughout the New England States, as a Physician whose treatment of Lung Diseases was attended with almost miraculous success. Very few Physicians ever enjoyed a more enviable reputation, or acquired a more extended practice. The Medical Journal, in speaking of him soon after his death, says:

"A man liberally educated, of great perception, superior judgment, untiring perseverance, and ardently devoted to his profession, Dr. Burleigh Smart was eminently worthy of the enviable position which he held in the estimation of the Medical Faculty at the time of his death. Although skillful in every branch of the Medical Sciences, for many years his attention was given to DISEASES OF THE LUNGS, in the treatment of which he proved himself the most successful Physician who ever practiced in New England."

This medicine was first compounded and made use of by him, and is substantially the same great agent by means of which he accomplished so many wonderful cures of Pulmonary Disease. Its efficacy having been most thoroughly tested, in thousands of cases, by an eminent Physician, all we can say in its praise must, of course, be superfluous. It is offered to the public in its present form, with the most implicit confidence in its powers—a confidence based not wholly upon the above, but upon actual trials of its virtues, the testimony of hundreds of our citizens in its favor and a knowledge of its ingredients severally considered, as regards their curative properties. Its formula has been submitted to several of the most distinguished chemists in this country, who unite in pronouncing it "A beautiful combination of the most reliable and valuable remedial agents used in treating diseases of the Lungs and other Respiratory Organs."

Unlike all other medicines of the same nature, it immediately allays the Cough, and so operates on the Blood as to remove the cause, instead of being a palliative cure. In this respect it is infinitely superior to all other preparations. By its use the strength of the patient is sustained, tone and vigor imparted to the system, the blood purified, disease subdued, and a healthy action of all the organs attained. In compounding it, the greatest care is observed, every bottle being separately prepared with chemical accuracy, of uniform strength, and in strict accordance with the original recipe. No poisonous drugs are used to give it a beautiful color, and impair its virtues, as in nearly all other Cough Medicines, and in every instance the patient can rely on its doing all that medicine can do.

To secure the public against counterfeits, we have the bottles made expressly for us, with the words "DR BURLEIGH SMART'S COUGH MEDICINE, SHAW & CLARK, BIDDEFORD, ME., U. S. A." blown in the glass. Every bottle is enclosed in a wrapper of an enameled paper, printed in the English, French, Spanish and German languages, from a costly engraved plate, of which the copyright has been secured. An inside wrapper, containing full directions for using the Medicine, and a valuable treatise on Diseases of the Lungs, with directions for the cure of Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis and Consumption, compiled from the most reliable medical authorities by a distinguished physician, also accompanying each bottle.

Consuming Patent

LAMPS.

REQUIRING only the poorest oil, lard, tallow or grease, producing a Light Unsurpassed, at an expense of less than half a cent per hour. Adapted for the Parlor, Kitchen, Workshop, also a valuable Study Lamp.) It is fast superseding all other lamps. The principle of the lamp is such that PERFECT COMBUSTION is secured. Therefore it is inodorous because smokeless. It is more easily managed than any known lamp, and the vast number of them in successful operation sufficiently attest its merits.

We have kindly been permitted to peruse a letter received at the Missionary Rooms from H. G. O. Dwight, at Constantinople. He says: "I am exceedingly pleased with the Lamp you sent me, manufactured by the Ufords' 117 Court street, Boston, and can recommend it to all who are seeking, as I was, for a clear, steady, safe and economical light. It saves my eyes from much wearing labor in preparing Armenian manuscript for the press," &c.

John G. Whittier, the gifted poet, says, in a note to the manufacturers: "It is a second comparison, the best lamp I ever used—have just purchased one for my sister as the most useful present I could make her." Price of the Lamp, $1.25.

DEGRAND'S LIBERAL BEQUESTS.—The late P. P. F. Degrand, Esq., by his last will, has given added proof of his liberality and public spirit. John Eliot Thayer, Esq., is the executor, and is directed from the income of the estate to pay annuities to certain of Mr Degrand's relatives and friends. The estate is estimated at from a hundred to a hundred and twenty thousand dollars. The annuities only reach about thirty-four hundred dollars annually, which will not be one half of the income from the property, so that the estate will go on increasing in value, not only by the accumulation of interest, but by the decrease of the number of annuities, occasioned by the death of the recipients. After the death of all the parties having an annual income from the estate, the whole large property is to be divided into twelve equal parts and distributed among the nine public institutions named below. Harvard College receives one-quarter of the whole. The deceased evinced his regard for the orphans of foreign parentage by his bequest to the Catholic orphan asylum, in charge of the Sisters of Charity in Boston. As several of the parties having annuities are quite young children, many years will probably elapse before the funds will be transferred to the institutions named. We copy from the will the whole of that portion which relates to the public bequests of the deceased.

"After the decease of all the persons for whose benefit the income of my estate is appropriated as above, I direct my executor to pay the net proceeds of my estate as follows:

To the University at Cambridge, Mass., three-twelfths in trust, the income of which is to be by them employed in French works and periodicals on the Exact Sciences, and on Chemistry, Astronomy, and other Sciences applied to the Arts and to Navigation.

Association for the Relief of Aged Indigent Females.
Boston Lying-in Hospital.
Boston Female Orphan Asylum.
Fatherless and Widows' Society.
Female Medical Education Society.
Howard Benevolent Society.
Humane Society.
St. Vincent de Paul Female Orphan Asylum; and to the 'City of Boston' for amusing picture books for Infant Schools."—Trans.

A SHORT HONEYMOON.—On the 20th inst. we published the following:

Married, on the 19th inst., at the house of his brother, Mark Beaubien, Esq., by Justice Lamb, General J. B. Beaubien to Miss Kate L. Penneau, all of this city.

On the 22nd we were called upon to insert this:—

Notice.—All persons are forbid trusting my wife, Kate Louisa, on my account, as she has left my bed and board without cause or provocation, and I shall pay no debts of her contracting.

Dec. 21. JOHN B. BAUBIEN.

Miss Kate must be exceedingly hard to please. Gen. Baubien is known to our first citizens for the past eighty years, and has ever been most highly esteemed, both as a soldier and civilian. He represented the town of Leyden in our last Board of Supervisors with credit to himself and honor to his constituents and holds a high military post in the State. What more could a woman wish for in a husband than honors, fame, wealth, age and respectability? For our part, we hope that if Miss Kate lives to be wooed and won by a man as much younger than she, as she is younger than the General, she will not be deserted so early in the delightful period of the honeymoon, as our poor old friend the General so cruelly finds himself at the present moment.—Chicago Democrat.

A YOUNG MAN BY THE NAME OF GREEN.—"Is there a young man in your office by the name of Green?" asked a fine old gentleman of us the other day. We wondered why he asked. "Well," he continued, "a young man by the name of Green called at my store to get some little information, and, by way of showing his authority for asking it, left his card, upon the corner of which the name of your paper and office was imprinted. I found him at my house a few days afterwards. He had been introduced to my daughter. I was so well pleased with him that I invited him to stay to tea. After tea he interested us a great deal by narrating the course of his duties in your office, and as he confessed he was a little cramped, I lent him $10 which he was to repay me next morning. Did you say there was no such man in your office?" We assured our benevolent friend that our office had never been blessed with the presence of any young man by the name of Green, and received assurances in return that our questioner was not of that name—however much he might be deserving of it. He left us smiling, but confident that he should never again lend $10 to the meekest looking stranger by the name of Green, even though he had the enterprise to write the name of the best of dailies on the corner of his card.—N. Y. Times.

Shaving, Hair Dressing, &c.

HENRY S. HARTSHORN would respectfully inform his friends and the public, that he has taken the spacious Room in the western corner of CITY HOTEL building, No 20 Congress street, and fitted and furnished it in the best manner, as the

and will be most happy to wait on his patrons with less delay than has sometimes been necessary in his old Saloon.

His old place of business will be under his charge, also, as heretofore.

With his increased facilities for performing every operation pertaining to the removal or Dressing of the Human Hair, he feels prepared to give the fullest satisfaction to all who may call on him.

While returning most grateful thanks for the very liberal patronage with which he has ever been favored in Portsmouth, he would solicit a continuance of nhe same.

INDEPENDENT PAPERS.

The Boston Chronicle, originally set up as the organ of the liquor interest in Boston, has been in the hands of its present owners eight months.—In a New Year article, said to be written by Mr. Hasewell, the editors say of their own paper, many things that are true of all papers really independent; almost all of which we can heartily adopt.

It is free to treat all subjects alike in the most independent manner. It has no connection with any party, and owes no allegiance to any body of men, but can comment on occurrences with entire independence. Were we troubled with a desire to meddle with party politics, we should be puzzled how to select our position. Something of good is to be found in all political organizations, and they are in the main composed of good men, there being less selfishness than is generally supposed, so far as the mass of men are concerned, in party movements. Perhaps it is to be regretted that the masses are not more selfish on this point than they are, as then they would not be so ready to submit to the dictation of leading men as they now are, and as they are likely to remain; for though there is a more independent spirit among the people than there used to be, it has not spread to such an extent as to create the impression that it can now materially influence events. It has rather weakened the power to oppose than the power to coerce. The chief objection to party allegiance on the part of journalists is to be found in the tyranny that is exercised over them by a few men, and by whom they are compelled to do things for which they have no taste. They are not allowed to make selections of points of support, but must do all that is required of them by a few leaders, who have nothing in view but their own advancement, and who care not whom they may ruin in effecting that end. Self respect does not admit, so readily as was once the case, of submission on the part of journalists to these fellows. Hence the number of independent papers that now exist, most of which are in prosperous circumstances. They are the organs of men who will no longer be used by those whose business is politics, and are not the less read by party men because they are not party hacks. They have already had much effect on our country, but the party which has felt their labors the least is that which has needed them the most. The next generation will probably see this form of the power of the press completely developed, and producing effects of much consequence to the world's government. This is no unreasonable supposition. Much of the old party machinery has already been set aside. The national convention system for the manufacture of Presidents of the United States is fast passing to that Limbo to which that of the congressional caucus long since departed. A portion of that system is the control of the press, and it must all go together. The change from the rule of party papers to the just influence of an independent press will make an era in history second in importance only to that which was created by the invention of the newspaper itself.

While we shall endeavor to conduct our paper in a spirit of independence, we shall make no attempt to play the part of a neutral. If we understand the position of a neutral paper, it is one that will not admit any thing of a political character into its columns, beyond the most common place facts, such as the names of candidates, election returns, and similar things, which come under the head of news, and which cannot be excluded from any journal that pretends to any life at all. We have no desire to perform any such spiritless part as that. We shall speak of political matters just as much as we please, without any regard to parties. We shall comment on party movements, on nominations, on the course and results of political contests, with perfect freedom, as under independent colors we shall have a perfect right to do, whereas a neutral paper could not do so without forfeiting the privileges of the position assumed. The mere party papers have no right to monopolize politics, and it would be an evil day to the country on which they should be allowed to do so. Politics never ought to be the business of any man, and least of all should it be that of the journalist. * * * *

We would not have the reader infer that we intend to smother him under a load of political matter. Quite the contrary. Something we must do in the way of speaking on political subjects. That is unavoidable. What we mean is, that when discharging this duty, we shall do so without being dictated to by political managers. But there are other things to be treated of besides those that come under the head of politics, and they are more to our taste than the latter. We shall spare no exertions to make of the Chronicle a good news and miscellaneous journal.

☞ It seems to be almost impossible to teach some folks the difference between a neutral and an independent newspaper—one without political opinions, and one without party trammels. The new and spirited editor of the Newburyport Herald, in reference to a rumor that it was to be neutral, says:

"The Herald has not been, and we hope it never may be, a neutral paper. We shall do what we can to prevent its becoming so, and to make it independent. Having a proper regard to the opinions of others, it will stand disconnected from parties, sects or cliques, aiming nevertheless to inculcate a sound national feeling—an equal love for the whole Union, with a deep interest in the State where we live, and a particular regard for the welfare of this city. Parties may be necessary, if there are not too many of them, and they all contain something of good and truth, but in the imperfect condition of the race, far too much of selfishness and error."

Advices from Porto Rico to the 24th ult., mention the gradual spread of cholera in Nuevitas. In one district ten thousand villages, 600 cases and 280 deaths have been reported.

MORE OPINIONS

FROM VARIOUS PAPERS, ON THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE.

9. New Hampshire Patriot.—Having received it but three hours before our usual time of going to press, we have not been able to read it except in "proof," and are therefore not prepared to express any opinion of its merits. But we hazard nothing in saying that it will be found an able, sound and patriotic document, worthy of the Chief Magistrate of this great country, and calculated to enhance the high reputation of its distinguished author.

10. Boston Journal.—We should be reluctant to believe that the President really desired to sacrifice the priceless blessings of peace and to plunge this nation into a war with a European power; but there is far too much of the spirit of an Irishman at Donnybrook fair pervading his message. "Past eleven o'clock and no fight yet! Will any gentleman tread on the tail of me coat?" might be parodied to read, "Three years gone and no glorious war. Will Great Britian or Denmark give us a pretext?" A foreign war may be a very convenient way of quieting the slavery agitation this administration has incited, but we trust in the good sense of the American people, that they will take from the bold, unscrupulous, and bad men at the head of the government, the power to do mischief. * * * *

He has descended from his official position to enter the ring of sectional strife. * *

He enlists in the ranks of the Southern secessionists and fire-eaters, throws off his coat, tucks up his sleeve, and deals his feeble blows against that section of the Union which gave him birth, and whose cause should have had his warmest sympathies. He makes a special plea which for the hackneyed style of its argument, would disgrace the most obscure country lawyer, in behalf of the South, and against the North. * * *

But the worst feature of this sectional argument is its gross and palpable injustice and misrepresentation. The President assumes that those who are opposing the extension of slavery into new territories, are "engaged in the offensive and hopeless undertaking of reforming the domestic institutions of other States." With this lie as a text, he reads to the North a homily upon its aggressive spirit. * * * * *

If the slaveholders do not appreciate this last and most abject bid for the next Presidency— * * * When the impartial historian writes the history of his administration, he will accord to him the bad preeminence of being the first President to light a torch of discord between the different sections of the Union, and he will give him the merited title of the first sectional President.

NEWBURYPORT ITEMS.—The Herald of Thursday has many items of interest concerning home matters, of which we copy a part. Thirteen ships and two barques have been launched during the past year, having an aggregate tonnage of 11,000 tons; and four ships are now in course of erection, whose aggregate tonnage is about one third of the above. "The ships for the past year have not been so large as the year previous; and the same has been the case throughout the country."

The Herald states that "one of the most liberal and public spirited merchants of that city, has obtained as a very acceptable present for the New Year, a profit of about $15,000 on an invoice of East India merchandize. Another merchant in the trade, there, has made a still larger sum."

At the annual session of the Grand Lodge of Free Masons, in Boston, last week, Mr Isaac P. Seavey, formerly of this city, now residing in Newburyport, was installed Deputy Grand Master for District No. 2. Several new Lodges have been established during the past year, and about 900 members admitted to the Order.

This is the hundredth year since the building of the Presbyterian meeting-house on Federal street, Newburyport, and sometime during the summer, that society will have a centennial celebration. On two accounts that church is worthy of notice. It is the last resting place of Whitefield, and has a whispering gallery that is excelled by no one in this country, and only equalled in Great Britain by the celebrated gallery of St. Paul's, in London. It was in the broad aisle of that church, too, that men came forward on Sunday, in the days of the revolution, at the call of their pastor, and enlisted in the war for independence.

The Newburyport Public Library continues to increase in interest and usefulness. At the close of December, the whole number of volumes was 5750, and the whole number of accounts opened with individuals, 1824. During the month 2,157 books had been withdrawn from use, and the 149 new subscribers for the benefits of the Library had come in.

The friends of Rev. D. P. Pike, to the number of two hundred, visited his residence on Tuesday evening, making a very pleasant social party.

The increase of the debt of Newburyport, the past twelve months, was just $12,000, or $1000 per month.

Sixty-three persons died of consumption in Newburyport, last year.

TWO CHILDREN BURNED TO DEATH.—Pittsburg, Jan. 2—The dwelling house of John Cregan, near this city, was destroyed by fire last evening. Two children perished in the flames. Two other children were saved by being thrown out of the window by their grandmother, who escaped herself in the same manner.

It is ascertained that the Galena and Chicago Railroad Company has a surplus of upwards of $300,000, after making provision for the last year's dividend of 22 per cent., just declared.

GYMNASIUM.

"Ill fares the land, to hastening ill a prey,
Where wealth accumulates, but man decay."

Messrs. Editors:—In these days of increasing intelligence, in relation to the importance of schools for the young, and education for every body, it may be that the importance of physical development is overlooked in the great efforts that are making for the development of mind. Now the latter is so constituted, as to be greatly dependent for its soundness and health, upon the condition of the former. The mind that works in a weakly constituted, or debilitated body, cannot but partake of that weakness and debility. It is prevented from its fullest development by the want of a proper and healthy channel through which to perform its functions; so that it becomes one of the first objects at the very starting point of education, to have such arrangements for ventilation of the breathing places, and for the exercise and regulation of the student, as shall keep the body in its fullest health, whilst the mind within is in the pursuit of knowledge.

In this view it may not be ill-timed, when our city has just erected a spacious and costly building for educational purposes, to suggest that a little more than usual attention be given to the arrangements for the exercise of the pupils of our schools, on some proper system.

At a very slight cost every school yard may be supplied with a simple shed to screen the pupil from the severity of the storm, or heat of sunshine; and beneath this canopy may be placed a few simple fixtures for gymnastic exercises. Such an arrangement could not but be a source of pleasure to the scholars, of a much more dignified character than many of the senseless out-door plays that are often adopted by youths, left to find their sports as their own untaught tastes may dictate. It could not but be a great auxiliary in the promotion of education. We ought to be spared the pain of seeing so many of our young men and young women pining with weakness, and becoming ready victims to that disease which is the scourge of our New England cities—for the want of a well grounded constitution founded upon early training in the gymnasium.

If the teachers of the several schools would consider this subject, and urge the necessity of its adoption, there can be no doubt that our intelligent city fathers will make an appropriation,—(it will require but a small one)—for such purposes, and in the hands of a proper committee it would not fail to prove of incalculable value.

The want of a public Gymnasium in our city is much deplored by many of our young men whose sedentary employments give them but little exercise; and the time is coming when such an institution will be established among us. With a little more enlightenment upon the laws of health, it will be seen that churches, school houses, lecture and music halls, are not more important to a certain class of our citizens than the gymnasiums. There are hundreds of strong and healthy men in our cities who would long since have been in their graves, but for the health-giving exercises of the gymnast;—and the individuals who will devote their time and means to the establishment of such a place of resort in our city, will receive the blessings of generations yet unborn, for such a praiseworthy effort.

HYGEIA.

SHOES FOR THE POOR.—Messrs. Editors:—I find in this city a number of little bare feet with toes as red as cherries. Some of these little boys and girls do not seem to mind it much, but they are in several instances kept from school. Now who is responsible for this? The parents say they cannot shoe their children. I would gladly do it, but I find that the funds of the mission to aid the poor, are minus about fifteen dollars. Will any person have compassion on the poor little ones?

A. ABBOTT.

LECTURES ON TEMPERANCE.—We are glad to see that clergymen and other persons of influence in this city, have undertaken the task of arranging a series of half a dozen Temperance Lectures, to be given by speakers of ability; and that the first lecture will be delivered next Monday evening, at the Temple. It is a subject which interests men of all classes, all opinions, and all habits. We presume the course will be well attended.

I. O. OF O. F.—At the regular meeting of New Hampshire Lodge, No. 17, I. O. of O. F., held on Wednesday evening last, the following officers were installed to serve during the current term:—George T. Huff, N. G.; Wm. Rand, V. G.; Andrew Huff, Treas.; Thomas Kennedy, Sec.

☞ The Portland State of Maine learns from its Augusta correspondent, that the caucuses for nominations agreed upon their respective candidates without difficulty. Resolutions were unanimously passed, recommending Rev. W. A. P. Dillingham as candidate for Chaplain of the Senate, and Rev. Wm. E. Armitage as candidate for Chaplain of the House. Both these gentlemen would undoubtedly be chosen; and it is a rather singular coincidence that both of them should have happened to be ministers in Portsmouth, Mr Dillingham at the Universalist, and Mr Armitage in the Episcopal church.

Notice.

AT a recent meeting, held by the clergymen and others in this city to see what further can be done to promote temperance, it was agreed to have a series of weekly lectures or addresses from the most able and effective speakers from abroad and from the clergymen in our city, and a Committee was chosen to make the arrangements for carrying the measure into effect.

That Committee have now to announce that they have engaged the services of the Rev. Mr. RICE, of Boston, to give the first lecture on MONDAY next, Jan. 7, at the Temple. Mr. Rice's reputation is such that the Committee can bespeak for him a full house and an interested audience.

CONGRESS.

WEDNESDAY, Jan. 2.

HOUSE.—In the House, this morning, Mr Giddings moved to correct the journal of Mondays's proceedings, in effect denying that the President's Message was received by the House, and asserting that it was announced and delivered to the Clerk by the President's Private Secretary, without permission.

Mr Knight offered a resolution to elect a Speaker by a plurality vote.

Mr Phelps moved to lay it on the table, which motion was carried by 12 majority.—After rejection of the plurality resolution, the House proceeded to vote for Speaker.

First vote—Banks 103, Richardson 72, Fuller 32, Pennington 6, scattering 5.

Mr Millson moved that the President's Message be read.

Mr Stanton objected; he thought the President had been guilty of indecency in thrusting his message in the face of the members. It was a most disreputable document, falsifying truth and the history of the Government from its commencement till now. He raised the points that no cognizance whatever could be taken of the message until the organization. The motion was tabled by 27 majority. The second vote stood—Banks 101, Richardson 71, Fuller 30, Pennington 6, scattering 5. Adjourned.

MASSACHUSETTS LEGISLATURE. — This body met on Wednesday. In the Senate, E. C. Baker of Middlesex, (Am.) had 28 votes of 37, for President, and Peter Cox of Lynn, of the same party, was chosen Clerk by 28 votes. In the House the Speaker was chosen on the first ballot.

Whole number of votes	312
Necessary for a choice	157
Charles A. Phelps of Boston (am.) had	164
John G. Thurston of Lancaster (whig)	65
Putnam W. Taft of Worcester (rep.)	60
Gayton P. Osgood of Andover (n.dem.)	20
Henry D. Devereaux of Salem	3

and there was one blank and two votes for Clerk, not counted.

W. E. P. Haskell (Am.) was chosen Clerk by 174 votes of 310,—and there were two votes for Speaker and one blank, which were not counted.

Nobody was disappointed in the result, and all were anxious to have a choice effected upon the first trial, which was done. The Speaker's address of acknowledgement was pertinent and appropriate.

After the adjournment, the two Houses, accompanied by the Governor, the members of the Executive departments, formed a procession, and, under the escort of the Independent Cadets, marched to the Old South Church, to attend public worship. The discourse was preached by Rev. R. H. Seeley of Springfield.

MAINE LEGISLATURE.—Augusta, Jan. 2.—The Maine State Legislature convened here to-day, and promptly organized. The Senate elected Lott M. Morrill of Augusta, (Democrat) President, and William G. Clark of Sangerville, (Straight Whig) Secretary. The House chose Josiah Little of Portland (Straight Whig) Spesker, and David Dunn of Poland (Democrat) Clerk. The union between the Old Line Democrats and the Straight Whigs seem to be complete.

N. B.—No fusion, no coalition, only a union.

HARRISBURG, Jan. 2.—Pennsylvania Legislature.—The Pennsylvania Legislature organized yesterday. William M. Pratt was chosen Speaker of the Senate and Richardson L. Wright of the House, both Democrats.

A bill fixing the 14th of January for the election of a U. S. Senator passed the House to-day, and a similar bill has been introduced into the Senate.

A bill to repeal the liquor law has been introduced into both Houses.

NEW YORK LEGISLATURE.—Albany, Jan. 3.—In the afternoon session of our Legislature one ballot was taken for Speaker without change in the result. Adjourned. The American members hold a caucus to-night.

ELECTION RIOTS IN KANSAS.—Chicago, Jan. 2.—A letter dated Leavenworth, Kansas, 18th ult., says:—The Polls were not opened at some places on account of the fear of violence from Missourians. At Leavenworth the ballot boxes and poll books were destroyed, and some of the Clerks of election nearly killed. Threats were made to destroy the Register office.

In several counties no election was held, the citizens being overawed by Missourians.

SINGULAR AND FATAL ACCIDENT.—Upon the arrival of the Fall River cars in Boston about 6 o'clock Wednesday morning, the train stopped on the railroad bridge between the city proper and South Boston, at a place where there is no railing. One of the passengers, supposing that the cars had reached the depot, stepped from the cars and fell directly overboard into the water and was drowned. The name of the deceased was not known, and at last accounts his body had not been recovered.

Abel De Forest, a soldier of the Revolution, died at Binghampton on the 29th ult., aged ninety-four years and eight months. He was for a time captain of a West India vessel, and he who afterwards became Commodore Hull, was one of his crew.

PRINCE & CO'S IMPROVED Patent Melodeons.

The oldest Establishment in the United States and the largest in the world.

Between 17,000 and 18,000 of these Instruments have been finished and are now in use.

The latest improvement in our Melodeons is the
DIVIDED SWELL,
Secured to us by Letters Patent, 22d May, 1855. By means of this swell Solo Passages may be played with the full power of the Instrument, while the accompaniment is soft and subdued.—Hereafter, all Melodeons made by us will be furnished with this attachment WITHOUT EXTRA CHARGE.

[Extract from the Com. Advertiser, July 27th.]
"Messrs Prince & Co. could realize a handsome fortune by disposing of their rights to other manufacturers to use their new improvement, but as they prefer to make it a feature in their Instruments, it can only be obtained by purchasing one of their manufacture."

The styles and prices are—

IN PORTABLE CASE:

4 octave Melodeon, extend'g frm C to C	$45
4½ octave, " " C to F	60
5 octave Melodeon, " " F to F	75
5 octave, double reed, " " F to F	120

IN PIANO CASE:

5 octave Melodeon, extend'g frm F to F	$100
6 octave " " " F to F	130
6 octave, double reed, " " F to F	150
Organ Melodeon (for churches,) five octaves, 8 stops, 1½ octave pedals, 4 setts of reeds	350

Agents for the sale of our Melodeons may be found in all the principal cities and towns of the United States and the Canadas.

Singer's Sewing Machines.

THESE Machines have long sustained the highest reputation in the United States.

The First Prize—A Gold Medal,

Has recently been awarded to them at the Palace of Industry in Paris, and thus they have the WORLD'S VERDICT OF SUPERIORITY.

The inventor has just added to these superior Machines an improvement whereby they can work on any kind of
FAMILY SEWING,
From a coarse Cotton fabric to the finest Linen Bosom, in such a perfect manner as no other Machine professes.

They will also Bar and close all kinds of Kid Boots and Shoes, and stitch the finest Gaiter Boots in every part without a skip—making them the most desirable for girls to use at home, or for any who wish to do more than one kind of work.

These Machines are warranted to do all kinds of work in a manner far superior to any other machine in use.

They run without noise, with ease to the Operator, and at double the ordinary speed, so that
Twice as much Work can be done in a Day.

The greatest Shoe Manufacturing and Clothing Establishments in the country use these Machines exclusively, having tried other Machines and found them entirely unfit for their use.

They are simple, and cost scarcely anything to to keep them in repair; and can be operated by a child twelve years old.

These Machines may be had at Manufacturers' prices, of
THOMAS S. NOWELL,
Local Agent for New Hampshire, at his Shoe Manufactory, McDonough street, Portsmouth, where they may be seen in operation. d29

Harrison's Columbian Ink, Black.

FOR the National Government, State Legislatures, Courts of Record, Banks, Railroads, Post Offices, Insurance Offices, Editors, Authors, Lawyers, Doctors, Clergymen, Customers and Business men of every sort, Colleges, Academies and Schools, and that great class who sustain all, the Farmers—the GREAT BEE of the country. 644,573 bottles sold in 1854, is significant that the AMERICAN PEOPLE appreciate THE AMERICAN INK made by HARRISON THE AMERICAN MANUFACTURER, and determine its great superiority over all foreign inks. It is at wholesale and retail by d10 GEO. W. TOWLE, 3 Congress Block.

Harrison's Blue Black Writing Fluid.

PROGRESS in the arts has revealed a Writing Fluid which does not, as other Writing Fluids do destroy the points of gold pens, actively corrode steel pens, or chemically decompose the paper or its coloring. I have seen paper where every letter written with English Fluids was eaten entirely through, and a delicate blue tint changed to a dirty yellow. The best make of gold pens have been condemned for losing their points, and the best manufactures of paper returned upon the dealer, where these Fluids were extensively used. Harrison's Fluid is subject to none of these evils. It writes a beautiful blue, and soon turns a jet black, and remains permanent. HARRISON'S is AMERICAN, made by an AMERICAN, and worthy the use of all Americans. It is wholesaled and retailed by

G. W. STONE'S

LIQUID CATHARTIC,

Family Physic.

The most important discovery ever made in Medical Science, being a compound of Barks and Roots, which forms the most powerful, safe and agreeable Physic ever offered to the public.

THE necessity of such a Medicine has long been felt both by the heads of families and Physicians. Its advantages over cathartics given in the form of Pills or Powders, must be obvious to every intelligent person. It operates more immediately and effectually upon the system, and at the same time is infinitely less difficult to administer, being quite agreeable to the taste. It not only produces all the effects where physic is required, but completely removes habitual Costiveness, leaving the bowels perfectly free. It expels all humors from the blood, is a certain cure for the Piles, regulates the action of the Liver, frees the Stomach from Bile, invigorates the whole Nervous System, and removes the cause of all local pains, such as RHEUMATISM, NEURALGIA, TIC DOLOREUX, GOUT, PAIN IN THE HEAD, SIDE, BACK, &c.

It may also be relied upon in all diseases of the Bowels; Dysentery, Diarrhea and Cholera Morbus yield at once to its magic influence. Again we repeat, TRY IT!—it needs no other recommendation. No family will be without it after they have properly tested its merits. Reader, if you have tried other remedies, without success, despair not—relief is now at hand. Are you suffering with Scrofula, six bottles of my Liquid Cathartic will cure you. Would you believe that habitual Costiveness!—three bottles will effect all that you desire. If you are afflicted with Rheumatic, Neuralgic, or other local pains, two bottles will free you from them. All humors will be eradicated from the blood by the use of from one to six bottles. In short, if you require a physic for any purpose, this is the most reliable, safe and agreeable to the taste that has ever been placed within the reach of the public.

Patents.

AMERICAN AND FOREIGN OFFICE.

Agency for business connected with US Patent Office, Washington,

76 State st, oppo. Kilby st. Boston.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO INVENTORS. The subscriber (late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, under the act of 1836), determined to present advantages in applying for Patents, superior to those offered inventors by others, has made arrangements whereby on applications prepared and conducted by him, THIRTY DOLLARS (instead of twenty as paid by others), will be remitted by him in case of failure to obtain a patent, and the withdrawal through him within thirty days after the rejection. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments and all necessary papers and drawings, for procuring patents in the U. S. and foreign countries prepared; and advice rendered on legal and scientific matters respecting inventions, and infringement of patents.

Inventors can not only here obtain their specifications on the most reasonable terms, (generally about 20 per cent less than others in the profession,) but can here avail themselves of the experience of 20 years' practice, his visits to the Patent Office, an extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and correct accounts of patents granted in this and other countries; besides being saved a journey to Washington, the usual great delay there, as well as all personal trouble in obtaining their patents. Copies of claims of any patent furnished by transmitting one dollar.—Assignments recorded at Washington. Patents in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries, secured through agents of the highest respectability.

R. H. EDDY,
Solicitor of Patents.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent Office, and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."

From the present Commissioner.

AUGUST 17, 1855.—During the time I have held the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq. of Boston, has been extensively engaged in the transaction of business with the Office, as a Solicitor. He is thoroughly acquainted with the law, and the rules of practice of the office. I regard him as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse.

DR. BURLEIGH SMART'S Cough Medicine.

DR. BURLEIGH SMART, of Kennebunk, Me. was well known throughout the New England States, as a Physician whose treatment of Lung Diseases was attended with almost miraculous success. Very few Physicians ever enjoyed the enviable reputation, or acquired a more extended practice. The Medical Journal, in speaking of him soon after his death, says:

"A man liberally educated, of acute perception, superior judgment, untiring perseverance, and paradently devoted to his profession, Dr. Burleigh Smart was eminently worthy of the enviable position which he held in the estimation of the Medical Faculty at the time of his death. Although skillful in every branch of the Medical Sciences, for many years his attention was given to DISEASES OF THE LUNGS, in the treatment of which he proved himself the most successful Physician who ever practiced in New England."

This medicine was first compounded and made use of by him, and is substantially the same great agent by means of which he accomplished so many wonderful cures of Pulmonary Disease. Its efficacy having been thoroughly tested, in thousands of cases, by an eminent Physician, all we can say in its praise must, of course, be superfluous. It is offered to the public in its present form, with the most implicit confidence in its powers—a confidence based not wholly upon the above, but upon actual trials of its virtues, the testimony of hundreds of our citizens in its favor and a knowledge of its ingredients severally considered, as regards their curative properties. Its formula has been submitted to several of the most distinguished chemists in this country, who unite in pronouncing it "A beautiful combination of the most reliable and valuable remedial agents used in treating diseases of the Lungs and other Respiratory Organs."

Unlike all other medicines of the same nature, it immediately allays the Cough, and so operates on the Blood as to remove the Cause, thus effecting a permanent cure. In this respect it is unlike any other Cough Preparations. By its use the strength of the patient is sustained, tone and vigor imparted to the system, the blood purified, disease subverted, and a healthy action of all the organs attained. In compounding it, the greatest care is taken, every bottle being separately prepared with chemical accuracy, of uniform strength, and in strict accordance with the original recipe. No poisonous drugs are used to give it a beautiful color, and impair its virtues, as is nearly all other Cough Medicines, and in every instance the patient can rely on its doing all that medicine can do.

To secure the public against counterfeits, we have put bottles made expressly for us, with the words "DR BURLEIGH SMART'S COUGH MEDICINE, SHAW & CLARK, BIDDEFORD, ME., U. S. A." blown in the glass. Every bottle is enclosed in a wrapper of RED enameled paper, printed in the English, French, Spanish and German languages, from a costly engraved plate, of which the copyright has been secured. An inside wrapper, containing full directions for using the Medicine, and a valuable treatise on Diseases of the Lungs, with directions for the cure of Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis and Consumption, compiled from the most reliable medical authorities by a distinguished physician, also accompanying each bottle.

LAMPS.

REQUIRING only the poorest oil, lard, tallow or grease, producing a Light Unsurpassed, at an expense of less than half a cent per hour. Adapted for the Parlor, Kitchen and Workshop; also a valuable Study Lamp.) It is fast superseding all other lamps. The principle of the lamp is such that PERFECT COMBUSTION is secured. Therefore it is inodorous because smokeless. It is more easily managed than any known lamp, and the vast number of them in successful operation sufficiently attest its merits.

We have kindly been permitted to peruse a letter received at the Missionary Rooms from H. G. O. Dwight, at Constantinople. He says: "I am exceedingly pleased with the Lamp you sent me, manufactured by the Uffords' 117 Court street, Boston, and can recommend it to all who are seeking, as I was, for a clear, strong steady and economical light. It saves my eyes from much wearing labor in preparing Armenian manuscript for the press," &c.

John G. Whittier, the gifted poet, says, in a note to the manufacturers: "It is, beyond comparison, the best lamp I ever used—have just purchased one for my sister as the most useful present I could make her." Price of the Lamp, $1.25.

ROMANCE WITHOUT FICTION.—The Chicago Times relates the following:

In a small town in the interior of Ohio, lived a beautiful young woman, whose father dying, left her the whole of a large fortune, which she was to inherit when twenty-one years of age, on condition that she should remain single until that time. She obeyed the injunction for some years, but her young affections became at length—and some three years previous to the expiration of the time named in the will—the prey of an artful man, of showy address, who removed from another place, and took up his residence in the village where the young heiress resided, for the purpose of laying seige to her heart. He succeeded too well; and under pretense that he was wealthy himself, and did not require the young woman's fortune in order to live in ease and elegance, induced her to consent to a secret marriage. The wary fortune hunter had been duped by his own urgency, in pursuit of the large property which the young and credulous wife was supposed to inherit unconditionally on coming to the age prescribed. He made known the marriage, and at once was undeceived by the guardian of the lady, who announced to him that the fortune was lost to him and his wife forever, as by the terms of the will, the marriage of the daughter gave the property to another branch of the family. Maddened by the destruction of his hopes, the rascal denounced his wife for deception, although she had endeavored to make him understand the real facts, and as she fell fainting, he left the house and village.

Years afterwards, the abandoned bride received a letter from her husband, who had learned that she had become possessed of the property designed for her by her father, on the annulment of the marriage, and trusting to her retaining a lingering affection for him, hoped that he might still gain the prize he had coveted. He had not misjudged the strength of the young woman's affection. She responded to the letter, offering to unite her fate to his, and saying that she could now give him the inheritance that caused them so much trouble. In order that her guardian and family should not know her conduct she sent the letter to the office by a servant girl, who took with her a little girl, as a companion, and allowed her to carry the letter. The child, attracted by the bright color of the stamp, removed it, and the letter deposited in the office, was sent to the dead letter office at Washington. She of course received no reply. But a month later her guardian received a newspaper from Chicago, containing a political speech, which a friend in the city desired him to read. He laid down the paper, and the lady took it.—Her eye glanced first at the marriages; and there she saw the announcement of the marriage of her husband. She fell to the floor in a swoon, and lingered only a few days, when she died—the victim of unscrupulous avarice.

DRUNKENNESS IN THE CRIMEAN ARMY.—We (United Service Gazette) have learned with much satisfaction that the chaplain-general, the Rev. G. R. Gleig, has submitted to the Government a plan which, if adopted, will probably check the amount of drunkenness that has for some time unhappily prevailed among our troops serving at the seat of war, and which, if unrestrained, must inevitably lead to the most disaitrous results. It is proposed that every suttler or camp follower who shall be convicted of having supplied to any individual belonging to, or serving with the British Army, a sufficient quantity of intoxicating liquor to any description to make the individual inebriated,—shall be at once and summarily expelled from the camp, into which the said suttler or camp follower is never to be permitted thereafter to enter under any circumstances. As a subsidiary regulation, libraries and coffee-houses are to be established, so as to promote among our army rational amusements during their hours of recreation. This suggestion, like many others of a similar nature, having the common object of ameliorating the condition of the British soldier, originated, we are proud to learn, with "The Soldiers' Friend," Florence Nightingale, who in a letter recently received, writes, "as for the amount of drunkenness and consequent immorality that now unfortunately pervades the British soldiery in the Crimea, it is at once equally incredible and dreadful."

John McPherson Berrien, who was Gen. Jackson's first Attorney General, and went out when the kitchen cabinet of that day prevailed over the regular advisers of the President, and afterwards became a Whig politician of great note—who may be remembered as a visitor of the Clay Club of Boston in 1844, and who has been a distinguished member of the U. S. Senate—died at Savannah, Georgia, January 1, after an illness of four days. We are not certain that he was an American by birth, but one of his last public acts was the assuming the Chairmanship of the late State American Convention in Milledgeville.—Boston Courier.

DARING OUTRAGE IN WINCHENDON.—We learn from the Fitchburg Reveille that Levi Bosworth, J. Relle, Bowman Lincoln, John Lowell, Chauncey Bosworth, Alfred Clark and Geo. P. Sherwin of Winchendon, were examined in that place Friday and Saturday, before D. H. Merriam, Esq., of Fitchburg, for forcibly entering the house of Horace Bosworth, in Robbinsville, and committing an aggravated assault on Wm L. Chutterbuck, a young man of 19, and Miss Frances D. Bennett, a young lady of 16. One of the parties seized Miss Bennett, threw her over his shoulder, and carried her out of the house, choking her at the same time to prevent her cries of murder from being heard by the neighbors. The rest seized Chutterbuck, the young lady's lover, dragged him out some forty or fifty rods from the house, where they stripped off his coat and vest, daubed him with black paint, struck and beat him severely, and left him on the ground, bleeding, faint and disabled. Jealousy was the origin of the affair, and as the outrage was of a very aggravated character, the State Prison will be likely to be the scene of the finale.

Wally Mason, keeper of a porter house in New York, died on Monday of "a heart disease," superinduced by a beating he received eighteen months ago from the late William Poole and others.

Morning Chronicle.

SATURDAY, JANUARY 5, 1856.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

11. Eastern Argus, Portland.—The Message has been read with great satisfaction as well as interest. * * * *

That part of the Message which relates to the structure of our Government, is full of truth, and of truth well expressed. * * * In the light of these principles, the crude notions of Abolition are exposed in all their deformity. * * * *

We hope, especially, that they [the people] will all concur with the President in his hearty dislike of sectional fanaticism, and his patriotic love of the American Union.

12. Boston Chronicle.—Were there any thing grand or high-toned in the Message, there would be some excuse for the President's action; but it is as destitute of any high qualities, as its author's conduct has been intrusive and impertinent. It is the small production of a small minded man. * * * The man who has reduced the party that elected him in 1852 so triumphantly, to its present wretched condition, and who cannot rally to his support the third of the House of Representatives, can be no authority with any one, unless it be some ridiculous madman.

* * * He knows that he has forfeited the confidence of the North, and so he shrieckingly calls upon the South to come to his rescue; and to prove his worthiness of its support, "he goes the whole hog, and acts the hog he goes," in behalf of slavery. We do not believe the South will do any such foolish thing. It is the condition of the South's existence, that she shall side with the strongest party in the North, and that party is not the faction which "goes in" for the nomination of Pierce.

13. Nashua Gazette.—In relation to the principles involved in the Kansas-Nebraska bill, the President makes an elaborate argument in their defence, and examines the slavery question, the Missouri Compromise question, and kindred topics, with masterly power.

14. Salem Register.—The President, having good ground for beleiving that his message would not keep much longer, delivered himself of the vile stuff on Monday last—and surely a more atrocious document no National Executive ever insulted the country with. False to his own pledges, false to the North, false to the principles of Liberty, and falsifying historical facts, the President displays himself as the veriest doughface that ever made a bid for a Southern vote. Nay, worse, he has thrown himself body and soul into the embrace of the most ultra Slaveocracy, selling his birthright for the poor chance of a re-nomination;—and then, turning about, misrepresents, abuses and insults the North, making the people of this section of the country sinners of the blackest dye, and those of the South guileless and innocent, and wronged beyond endurance. We defy any Northern man to read carefully that portion of the Message, and not feel his inmost soul glow with indignation, from a sense of the injustice and treachery of this most demented of Presidents. His few partizans may shout Hosannas in public, but even they must blush in secret at so contemptible a demonstration from a man born and bred on this side of Mason and Dixon's line. No wonder that Senator Mason had the hardihood to insinuate that the people of the Free States had degenerated in the air of Freedom, if he took President Pierce for his pattern of a Northern man.

15. N. H. Gazette.—But the message, viewed in any light, is a good one.

* * * As a literary production, it is, like all of President Pierce's state papers, of the first merit.

Upon the Kansas question, the President reasons at some length, strongly supporting the late territorial legislation. * * * To this portion of the message, as well as to that which immediately follows, upon the constitutional relations of slavery, we would invite the particular attention of our readers. Language could not be more explicit or reasoning more conclusive as to the impolicy and danger of the anti-slavery and abolition movements of the day.

16. State of Maine.—The matter of most interest in the Message is the reference to the territorial question, or the constitutional relations of slavery. On this question the President adopts the New Hampshire Resolutions of Nov. 14 last, which declared that Congress had no power to impose upon new States coming into the Union any condition or restrictions as to their domestic institutions.

The doctrine of squatter sovereignty may after all work out results favorable to freedom in Kansas and disappoint its authors. But the doctrine itself is absurd. Congress has exclusive control of the territories as much as it has over the public buildings at Washington.

If freebooters or cannibals, Chinese, Hindoos or Mormons, get possession of a territory of the United States, and claim to establish their own peculiar institutions, allowing plurality of wives, requiring the burning of widows or the disfiguring of the females,—according to the doctrine of the Message, Congress cannot interfere, but the new State must come into the Union, though every member of Congress should be at heart opposed to it. The sovereign power which has heretofore been regarded as entrusted to Congress has, by some mysterious principle, been suddenly transferred to the squatter population of some remote region of the Rocky Mountains. The doctrine is too absurd to call for argument.

17. Newburyport Herald.—We perceive by our exchanges, that the President's message is almost universally approved. A few of the New England presses and those having a free soil tendency, denounce it; but in addition to the democratic papers, the independent press and the national whig and Americans treat it with great respect.

If by great respect, the Herald means approval, we respectfully suggest that the Boston Journal, Boston Courier, Salem Register, and State of Maine, have been generally considered whig papers; and that the Boston Chronicle, and Mail, claim to be independent. And yet all these papers have spoken in plain terms of disapproval.

"FUN" IN NEW YORK.—On New Year's evening, in New York, while Mr. Thomas Mains was standing conversing with a few friends, he was seized from behind by a fellow named William Curran, who drew a knife across his throat several times, and then inflicted several stabs in his back. Mr. Mains fell bleeding to the gr und, and Curran tried to escape, but was seized by Mr. Mains' enraged friends, who gave him a terrible beating, and afterwards handed him over to the police. Anthony Dugro, one of the Governors of the Almshouse, got involved in a fight with a party of Germans, in the upper part of the city, on New Year's night, during which he was stabbed in the breast and badly beaten. John Erebach and John Smith were soon after arrested by the Seventeenth Ward police, charged with being parties to the affair. Officer Tracy of the Fourteenth Ward, while walking his beat in Centre, near Canal street, about one o'clock on Tuesday morning, was set upon by a gang of men, who wrenched from him his club, and with it beat him severely. His watch was also jerked from his fob, and the chain to which it was attached broken.—Michael Murray, James Gallagher and Wm. Cummings were arrested, charged with being the perpetrators. In a dance house, Martin Karnes nearly cut off the head of Wm. Ruff with a knife. The murderer was arrested.—This is the way they celebrate the first of the year in New York!—Boston Courier.

It is well known that New Year in New York is the calling Holiday of the year, when gentlemen go from house to house, and ladies stay at home and deal out cake, wines and liquors freely to all comers. It is, in short, the Saturnalian day of the year among the genteel, and among those who ape gentility. And while these classes go into elegant excesses, others indulge in the excess without the gentility.

From this cause, by a process as simple as the running of water down hill, comes the effect above named, bloodshed and murder.

A VERY ECCENTRIC OLD MAN, AND A YOUNG MAN FOLLOWING.—Last night, at the Boston Theatre, while Caliban (Mr Gilbert) was plotting the destruction of his master Prospero, an eccentric old gentleman from Northampton, who, it should seem, had been taking that which gave him language, which he uttered thus—"There, John, there Gilbert, take that,"—and so saying, he tossed a ten dollar gold piece at the feet of the actor. Soon after, in the fourth act, he made another display of his humor, by throwing two ten dollar gold pieces at the feet of Mrs John Wood. That lady, like Caliban, pocketed the jokers. The funny old fellow then retired to the vestibule, the observed of many observers. He gloried in what he had done, and said he "had a good mind to give 'em more." Somebody said, "Go it, old brick," and at this he started to repeat the shower of gold; but was advised to desist. By this time, a young gentleman of this city, in quite as eccentric a manner, threw an eagle and three half eagles at the feet of Mrs Barrow, which Ariel, with great civility, took up and placed in the lap of her sister actress. So we suppose, as the falling of the curtain obscured a clear view. The recipients were very merry over their gifts, and there can be little doubt that they would have no objection to a repetition of the "joke" by the eccentric old man and his young rival.—Boston Courier.

If we understand the above, it means that the old man was somewhat drunk, and the young one not very sober, at the time they threw away their gold.

CRUELTY.—A woman has been arrested and fined $50 in Buffalo, for scalding intentionally a little girl, by pouring boiling hot water down her back. The girl was playing at the door, and this mean woman was resorted to to drive her away. African slavery does not exist in Buffalo, and therefore this act of barbarous cruelty has not attracted the attention of "the North," which is so often aroused at relations of the cruelties experienced by negroes at the South. By the way the Buffalo Republic recently "held" Senator Douglas "responsible" for the black eyes which an Abolitionist received in a fight in Kansas. Why should he not be held responsible for this scalding affair? Both events have happened since the passage of the Nebraska act.—Chicago Times.

We copy the above, as a fair specimen of the distressing wit and doleful logic usually employed by northern apologists for slavery. If any readers can swallow such stuff, they are entirely welcome: no one should disturb their repast.

FAST LEGISLATION.—By an amendment of the Constitution of Massachusetts, passed last winter, "no person shall be entitled to vote in the Commonwealth, unless he shall have been a resident within the jurisdiction of the United States twenty one years, and legally naturalized."

That is, native born citizens cannot vote at all.

It must needs be amended again.

FRANK LESLIE'S GAZETTE OF FASHION FOR JANUARY.—While this work tells all about the latest fashions, and uses terms which are "Greek" to masculine readers, this is not its chief recommendation. It is a useful magazine, containing in every number much information respecting health, the table and domestic comfort generally. It would do good in every family. The present number is equal to any of its predecessors,—and the embellishments are numerous and costly. Price 30 cts. per number.

Frank Leslie, New York, is the enterprising publisher, of this and several other valuable periodicals.

At this season of the year you can tell where the good and benevolent people live in passing their houses and finding the ice well covered with ashes.

CITY MISSION.—The receipt of $3 from J. H. T. for the "red toes," is hereby acknowledged. Also the sum of $5, the "widow's mite," for the "cherry toes, enclosed in the accompanying lines found below. Bless the little "cherry toes." A. ABBOTT.

January 4, 1856.

The fragrant snows of smiling May
Rich promise give of ruddy fruit,
With names so varied, tempting, gay,
As must the most fastidious suit.

But winter's blooms, so stiff with sleet,
Of bumbler, sadder fruitage, tell:—
Of shivering forms—of freezing feet—
Of "cherry toes"—the name is well!

"My 'cherry toes'—who'll buy? who'll buy?"
God's poor continually do cry!
A "widow's mite" is lent the Lord—
His smile the coveted reward.

SLEIGHING.—The snow storm on Thursday made the sleighing of the first quality, and all who enjoy that kind of pleasure travel should take advantage of this opportunity, as shortly the January thaw will overtake them. Some of the best and most elegant single sleighs can be procured at C. H. Sides & Co.'s stable, where fast and handsome teams may be found.

For parties, Dennett & Sides, in Vaughan street, have every convenience. Their numerous Hacks are always in readiness for the use of the public, and they have recently procured a large and beautiful open sleigh, capable of carrying a dozen or more persons, which, with with their quartette of cream-colored horses, make a beautiful turn-out for families, or large parties of friends. Be sure and give them a call before the sleighing is gone.

A large party of ladies and gentlemen from Great Falls, friends of J. M. Edmonds, Esq., of this city, paid him a visit on Friday afternoon and evening. They came down in double sleighs, and made a fine appearance.—Great Falls is hard to beat on teams, and the party attracted some attention about town.

☞ The celebrated Jullien Burlesque Operatic Troupe perform for the last time this evening, at the Temple, being the benefit of H. Jarard, the great Summersault Dancer.

LIFE IN THE GROGGERY.—The Boston Courier says, a band of blackguards assembled in G. Cummings' grog shop, 143 Fulton street, on Thursday, and amused themselves by assaulting a poor Irishman in a brutal manner. They kicked him and thumped him to their hearts' content, then pitched him into the street.

☞ Rev. Mr Stone, of Manchester, has accepted an agency in the west—salary $1000 per year for three years—and will close his labors with the Piscataquog Congregational Society on the first of February next.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—On Thursday evening last, as Messrs Ebenezer Gordon and Jethro R. Furber, of Dover, were returning from a visit to the country, where they had been to buy live stock, an accident occurred which resulted in the death of Mr. Gordon. While ascending Swain's hill in Barrington, which was steep and slippery, the sleigh struck a rock, which caused it to sheer off to the side of the road and upset. Mr. Gordon was thrown out, while Mr. Furber clung to the sleigh and was dragged about twenty rods.—Extricating himself as soon as possible he ran back and found Mr. Gordon in an insensible condition. His head had struck upon a rock, and was badly bruised and bloody. He was taken up and removed to the house of Mr. Daniel Hall, and on examination by a physician it was found that he had sustained a severe concussion of the brain. He lived until Saturday noon in an unconscious state, when he died. Mr. Gordon's age was 59;—he was one of our most active business men, and his death will be deeply felt by his family and the community generally.—Dover Enquirer.

It is a fact that two citizens of Concord have been for some time in the habit of insulting ladies, in the cars of the Fitcburg Railroad, when they happen to be without a protector. These men are season ticket holders, prominent and influential citizens of their town, and profess to be gentlemen. If either one of them shall again repeat the offence, and it comes to our knowledge, the public shall know his name and the particulars.—Fitchburg Reveille.

Who are they? Pass them round.

The New York Assembly is in the same condition with the National House of Representatives; they can't elect a Speaker. There are four parties; and after several days of balloting no choice has been effected. The Americans lead, and the Republicans came next. The Hards and Softs refuse to coalesce.

Col. Savory of Georgetown, who was sentenced to the State Prison for complicity with rogues in his neighborhood, has been pardoned out, after an imprisonment of three years—half the term of sentence. He is in good physical health, but is much shattered in mind as he was before his trial.—Newburyport Herald.

The Boston Pilot appears in a new suit, and looks very neatly.

AUGUSTA, Me., Jan. 3d.—The Senatorial vacancies were filled to-day, and Judge Wells elected Governor. In the House the vote stood—Reed, (Straight Whig) 90; Wells, (Dem.) 88; Morrill, (Rep.) 60; Morse 46, Holmes 9—and the names of Reed and Wells were sent up to the Senate.

There is a good deal of speculation as to the firmness of Mr Banks's friends, and it is now asserted that there are ninety of his supporters who will never desert him.—Boston Courier.

SALT.—Advices from Turks Island of Dec. 17, report salt to be very scarce and high. None to be had either at Grand Turk or East Caicos. The last cargo was sold at 38 cents per bushel.

CONGRESS.

THURSDAY, Jan. 3.

SENATE.—Mr Hale, at the opening of the Senate to-day, denounced the President's course in sending in his Message before the House was organized. He ridiculed the proceedings in strong terms.

Mr Wilson offered a resolution calling for information relative to the troubles in Kansas.

The resolution was laid over, when the Senate adjourned until Monday.

HOUSE.—Mr Walker offered a resolution declaring Mr Boyce Speaker pro tem. The resolution was laid on the table by 60 majority.

Three ballotings were had for Speaker. On the last vote Mr Banks lacked six votes of an election.

NEW YORK, Jan. 4.—The Courier's Washington correspondent telegraphed last evening, that great efforts were being made to induce Mr Pennington to decline longer being a candidate for the Speakership. The Democrats are alarmed at the Southern American party movements in favor of Mr Boyce; but the authority of the caucus will be sustained. No organization of the House expected for two weeks.

STEAM FRIGATE ROANOKE UNINJURED.—Norfolk, Jan. 2.—The board of Naval Constructors convened here to examine and report upon the injuries said to have been sustained by the frigate Roanoke, at her launch recently. The government is satisfied that the ship is unharmed, and has ordered the board to make a formal official report, to be filed in the Navy Department, for vindication of the ship and her constructor.

THE POISONING CASE AT FARMINGTON.—The examination before the Justice continued through the first four days of last week, and then adjourned to Wednesday of this week. The testimony for the Government is not closed, and it will probably take three or four days longer to finish the examination. We learn that nothing direct has yet been found against the prisoners, and nothing which ought to hold them. The appearance of several circumstances looks somewhat against them, but it is said that these circumstances will all be explained by the witnesses for the defence. Dr Hayes of Boston, the Chemist who examined the pear sauce and the contents of the stomach of the deceased, has testified. He found no traces of poison in the sauce, but found arsenic in the stomach. Question—how came it there? Did she take it intentionally, and commit suicide, or was it administered through the agency of some other person. Every article of food which was upon the table when the deceased was taken ill, has been eaten by others, and the tea remaining in the teapot has been drank. The tea remaining in the cup and saucer was thrown away and not examined.—Dover Enq.

FIRE AND LOSS OF LIFE.—A correspondent at Hillsborough Bridge says the steam mill of G. F. Judkins, situated in Windsor, was burned with all its contents on Saturday night. Mr. Benjamin Case, one of Mr. Judkin's hired men, who slept in the mill, was found a few rods from the ruins burned in a shocking manner. His hair was burned off, his neck badly burned, and his fingers and nails badly scorched. The breath of life was in him when found, but he was speechless and senseless. It is conjectured that Mr Case fell asleep, as his rest had been broken previously, and that the fire overtook him while asleep, and that he rushed through the fire and dropped for want of strength.—Manchester American.

THE HOG MARKET.—There is no animation in the market, and little inquiry for hogs. We hear, however, of a sale of 1000 head at $ 5 50 net; also, sales of various small lots, amounting to about 1000 Hogs, at $5 75, short time. The receipts are not large at present, and the packers have but few left over in pen at night. The total number slaughtered up to last evening, including New Albany, was fully 237,606. This is an excess over the same period last season.—Louisville Courier, 29th.

SUDDEN DEATH.—Mrs Wyman, wife of Dr. Samuel W. Wyman, of Newburyport, died very suddenly yesterday morning, without any previous illness to excite fears. When the Doctor was dressing in the morning, she spoke intelligently and with apparent health; but a moment after he perceived that she was dying, and instantly she departed without a struggle. She had previously been subject to paralytic attacks, and probably died in one of these.—Herald.

ACCIDENT.—An accident, almost fatal in its result, occasioned by the slippery travelling of last week took place at Strafford on Wednesday. Mr Cornelius E. Caswell of that town, was thrown from his sleigh, and severely injured. The sleigh was upset, and Mr C. thrown against a stone wall; his head coming violently in contact with a large stone, cutting two gashes, one measuring four inches, the other three. His back and one side were also injured. One of his neighbors passing, found him insensible under the wall. He was taken home and is now improving with a good prospect of recovery.—Dover Enquirer

FATAL ACCIDENT.—Oliver Hanson of Gorham, while driving from Saccarappa to Scarboro, Saturday evening last, with a horse team, was thrown from his loaded sled, by its upsetting, and killed.—Portland Argus.

THE LEMMON SLAVE CASE.—The Richmond Inquirer states that the Governor of Virginia has appointed Andrew Stevenson, Esq. the associate counsel with the Attorney General, to prosecute before the Supreme Court of the State of New York, the appeal taken from the decision of a Judge in that State, by which Jonathan Lemmon, a citizen of Virginia, was deprived of his slaves. The case will be ready for argument at the January term of the Court.

Drowned, while skating on Artichoke River, near Curson's Mills, Sunday, 23d ult, Alexander Nelson, aged 14 years. He went to the assistance of a younger brother who was with him, who first fell into the water; but while the younger brother succeeded in getting out safely, the other was drowned.—Newburyport Herald.

PRINCE & CO'S IMPROVED Patent Melodeons.

The oldest Establishment in the United States and the largest in the world.

Between 17,000 and 18,000 of these Instruments have been finished and are now in use.

The latest improvement in our Melodeons is the DIVIDED SWELL.

Secured to us by Letters Patent, 22d May, 1855. By means of this swell Solo Passages may be played with the full power of the Instrument, while the accompaniment is soft and subdued.—Heretofore, all Melodeons made by us will be furnished with this attachment WITHOUT EXTRA CHARGE.

[Extract from the Com. Advertiser, July 27th.] "Messrs Prince & Co. could realize a handsome fortune by disposing of rights to other manufacturers to use their new improvement, but as they prefer to make it a feature in their Instruments, it can only be obtained by purchasing one of their manufacture."

The styles and prices are—

IN PORTABLE CASE:

4 octave Melodeon, extend'g frm C to C.....$45
4½ octave, " " C to F.....60
5 octave Melodeon, " " F to F.....75
5 octave, double reed, " " F to F.....130

IN PIANO CASE:

5 octave Melodeon, extend'g frm F to F.....$100
6 octave " " " F to F.....130
5 octave, double reed, " " F to F.....150
Organ Melodeon (for churches,) five octaves, 8 stops, 1½ octave pedals, 4 setts of reeds.....350

Agents for the sale of our Melodeons may be found in all the principal cities and towns of the United States and the Canadas.

Singer's Sewing Machines.

THESE Machines have long sustained the highest reputation in the United States.

The First Prize—A Gold Medal,

Has recently been awarded to them at the Palace of Industry in Paris, and thus they have the WORLD'S VERDICT OF SUPERIORITY.

The Inventor has just added to these superior Machines an improvement whereby they can work on any kind of

FAMILY SEWING,

From a coarse Cotton fabric to the finest Linen Bosom, in such a perfect manner as no other Machine professes.

They will also Bar and close all kinds of Kid Boots and Shoes, and stitch the finest Gaiter Boots in every part without a skip—making them the most desirable for girls to use at home, or for any who wish to do more than one kind of work.

These Machines are warranted to do all kinds of work in a manner far superior to any other machine in use.

They run without noise, with ease to the Operator, and at double the ordinary speed, so that

Twice as much Work can be done in a Day.

The greatest Shoe Manufacturing and Clothing Establishments in the country use these Machines exclusively, having tried other Machines and found them entirely unfit for their use.

They are simple, and cost scarcely anything to keep them in repair; and can be operated by a child twelve years old.

THOMAS S. NOWELL,

Harrison's Columbian Ink, Black.

FOR the National Government, State Legislatures, Courts of Record, Banks, Railroads, Post Offices, Insurance Offices, Editors, Authors, Lawyers, Doctors, Clergymen, Commercial and Business men of every sort, Colleges, Academies and Schools, and that great class who sustain all, the Farmers—the GREAT INK of the country. 644,578 bottles sold in 1854, is significant that the AMERICAN PEOPLE appreciate THE AMERICAN INK made by HARRISON THE AMERICAN MANUFACTURER, and determine its great superiority over all foreign Inks. It is at wholesale and retail by

d10 GEO. W. TOWLE, 3 Congress Block.

Harrison's Blue Black Writing Fluid.

PROGRESS in the arts has revealed a Writing Fluid which does not, as other Writing Fluids do destroy the points of gold pens, actively corrode steel pens, or chemically decompose the paper or its coloring. I have seen paper where every letter written with English Fluids was eaten entirely through, and a delicate blue tint changed to a dirty yellow. The best make of gold pens have been condemned for losing their points, and the best manufactures of paper returned upon the dealer, where these Fluids were extensively used. Harrison's Fluid is subject to none of these evils. It writes a beautiful blue, and soon turns a jet black, and remains permanent. HARRISON'S is AMERICAN, made by an AMERICAN, and worthy the use of all Americans. It is wholesaled and retailed by

G. W. STONE'S

LIQUID CATHARTIC,

AND

Family Physic.

The most important discovery ever made in Medical Science, being a combination of Barks and Roots, which forms the most powerful, safe and agreeable Physic ever offered to the public.

THE necessity of such a Medicine has long been felt both by the heads of families and Physicians. Its advantages over cathartics given in the form of Pills or Powders, must be obvious to every intelligent person. It operates more immediately and effectually upon the system, and at the same time is infinitely less difficult to administer, being quite agreeable to the taste. It not only produces all the effects where physic is required, but completely removes habitual Costiveness, leaving the bowels perfectly free. It expels all humors from the blood, is a certain cure for the Piles, regulates the action of the Liver, frees the Stomach from Bile, invigorates the whole Nervous System, and removes the cause of all local pains, such as

RHEUMATISM, NEURALGIA, TIC DOLOREUX, GOUT, PAIN IN THE HEAD, SIDE, STOMACH, &c.

It may also be relied upon in all diseases of the Bowels; Dysentery, Diarrhea and Cholera Morbus yield at once to its influence. Again we repeat, TRY IT!—it needs no other recommendation. No family will be without it after they have properly tested its merits. Reader, if you have tried other remedies, without success, despair not—but try this one. Are you suffering with Scrofula, six bottles of my Liquid Cathartic will cure you. Would you be relieved from habitual Costiveness?—three bottles will effect all that you desire. If you are afflicted with Rheumatism, Neuralgia, or other painful pains, two bottles will free you from them. All humors will be eradicated from the blood by the use of from one to six bottles. In short, if you require a physic for any purpose, this is the most reliable, safe and agreeable to the taste that has ever been placed within the reach of the public.

PRICE $1.00.

Patents.

AMERICAN AND FOREIGN OFFICE.

Agency for business with US Patent Office, Washington,

70 State st., oppo. Kilby st., Boston.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO INVENTORS. The Subscriber (late Agent of the U. S. Patent office, under the Act of 1837) determined to present advantages in applying for Patents, superior to those offered inventors by others, has made arrangements whereby their applications prepared and conducted by him, THIRTY DOLLARS (instead of twenty, as paid back by others,) will be remitted by him in case of failure to obtain a patent, and the withdrawal through him within thirty days after the rejection of the Claims. Specifications, Assignments and all necessary papers and drawings, for procuring patents in this and foreign countries prepared, and advice rendered on legal and scientific matters respecting inventions, and infringement of patents.

Inventors can not only here obtain their specifications on the most reasonable terms, (generally about 20 per cent less than others in the profession,) but can here avail themselves of the experience of 8 years' practical duties with the Patent Office, an extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and correct accounts of patents granted in this and other countries; besides being saved a journey to Washington, the usual great delay there as well as all personal trouble in obtaining their patents. Copies of claims of any patent furnished by remitting one dollar.—Assignments recorded at Washington. Patents in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries, secured through agents of the highest respectability.

R. H. EDDY,

Solicitor of Patents.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business as a solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent Office, and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,

Late Commissioner of Patents."

From the present Commissioner.

AUGUST 12, 1855.—During the time I have held the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq. of Boston, has been extensively engaged in the transaction of business with the Office, as a Solicitor. He is thoroughly acquainted with the law, and the rules of practice of the Office. I regard him as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse.

Just Published: A New Discovery in Medicine!

A FEW WORDS ON THE RATIONAL TREATMENT, without Medicine, of Nervous Debility, Low Spirits, Lassitude, Weakness of the Limbs and Back, Indisposition and Incapacity for Study and Labor, Dullness of Apprehension, Loss of Memory, aversion to Society, Love of Solitude, Timidity, Self-Distrust, Dizziness, Head Ache, Pains in the Side, Affection of the Eyes, Pimples on the Face, and other infirmities in man.

FROM THE FRENCH OF Dr. B. DE LANEY.

The important fact that these alarming complaints may easily be removed WITHOUT MEDICINE, is, in this small tract clearly demonstrated; that the new and highly successful treatment, as adopted by the Author, fully explained, by means of which every one is enabled to CURE HIMSELF PERFECTLY, AND AT THE LEAST POSSIBLE COST, avoiding thereby all the advertised nostrums of the day.

Sent to any address, gratis, and post free by remitting (post paid) two postage stamps to Dr. B. DE LANEY, No 17 Lispenard Street, New York City. s12 d&w6m*

DR. BURLEIGH SMART'S

Cough Medicine.

DR. BURLEIGH SMART, of Kennebunk, Me. was well known throughout the New England States, as a Physician whose treatment of Lung Diseases was attended with almost miraculous success. Very few Physicians ever enjoyed a more enviable reputation, or acquired a more extended practice. The Medical Journal, in speaking of him soon after his death, says:

"A man liberally educated, of acute perception, superior judgment, untiring perseverance, and evidently devoted to his profession, Dr. Burleigh Smart was eminently worthy of the enviable position which he held in the estimation of the Medical Faculty at the time of his death. Although skilful in every branch of the Medical Sciences, for many years his attention was given to DISEASES OF THE LUNGS, in the treatment of which he proved himself the most successful Physician who ever practiced in New England."

This medicine was first compounded and made use of by him, and is substantially the same great agent by means of which he accomplished so many wonderful cures of Pulmonary Disease. Its efficacy having been most thoroughly tested, in thousands of cases, by an eminent Physician, all we can say in its praise must, of course, be superfluous. It is offered to the public in its present form, with the most implicit confidence in its powers—a confidence based not wholly upon the above, but upon actual trials of its virtues, the testimony of hundreds of our citizens in its favor and a knowledge of its ingredients severally considered, as regards their curative properties. Its formula has been submitted to several of the most distinguished chemists in this country, who unite in pronouncing it "A beautiful combination of the most reliable and valuable remedial agents used in treating diseases of the Lungs and other Respiratory Organs."

Unlike all other medicines of the same nature, it immediately allays the Cough, and so operates on the Blood as to remove the Cause, thus effecting a permanent cure. In this respect it is infinitely superior to all other preparations. Try it: use the strength of the patient is sustained, tone and vigor imparted to the system, the blood purified, disease subverted, and a healthy action of all the organs attained. In compounding it, the greatest care is exercised, every bottle being separately prepared with chemical accuracy, of uniform strength, and in strict accordance with the original recipe. No poisonous drugs are used to give it a beautiful color, and impair its virtues, as in nearly all other Cough Medicines, and in every instance the patient can rely on its doing all that medicine can do.

To secure the public against counterfeits, we have the bottles made expressly for us, with the words "Dr Burleigh Smart's Cough Medicine, Shaw & Clark, Biddeford, Me., U. S. A." blown in the glass. Every bottle is enclosed in a wrapper of red enameled paper, printed in the English, French, Spanish and German languages, from a costly engraved plate, of which the copyright has been secured. An inside wrapper, containing full directions for using the Medicine, and a valuable treatise on Diseases of the Lungs, with directions for the cure of Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis and Consumption, compiled from the most reliable medical authorities by a distinguished physician, also accompanying each bottle.

CELEBRATED SMOKE

Consuming Patent

LAMPS.

REQUIRING only the poorest oil, lard, tallow or grease, producing a light Unsurpassed, at an expense of less than half a cent per hour. Adapted for the Parlor, Kitchen, and Workshop; also a valuable Study Lamp.) It is fast superseding all other lamps. The principle of the lamp is such that PERFECT COMBUSTION is secured. Therefore it is inodorous because smokeless. It is more easily managed than any known lamp, and the vast number of them in successful operation sufficiently attest its merits.

We have kindly been permitted to peruse a letter received at the Missionary Rooms from H. G. O. Dwight, at Constantinople. He says: "I am exceedingly pleased with the Lamp you sent me, manufactured by the Ufords' 117 Court street, Boston, and can recommend it to all who are seeking, as I was, for a clear, strong, steady and economical light. It saves my eyes from wearing labor in preparing Armenian manuscript for the press." &c.

John G. Whittier, the gifted poet, says, in a note to the manufacturers: "It is, beyond comparison, the best lamp I ever used—have just purchased one for my sister as the most useful present I could make her." Prices of the Lamp, $1.25.

Harrison's Columbian Ink, Black.

FOR the National Government, State Legislatures, Courts of Record, Banks, Railroads, Post Offices, Insurance Offices, Editors, Authors, Lawyers, Doctors, Clergymen, Commercial and Business men of every sort, Colleges, Academies and Schools, and that great class who sustain all, the Farmers—the GREAT INK of the country. 644,578 bottles sold in 1854, is significant that the AMERICAN PEOPLE appreciate THE AMERICAN INK, made by HARRISON THE AMERICAN MANUFACTURER, and determine its great superiority over all foreign Inks. It is at wholesale and retail by

Harrison's Blue Black Writing Fluid.

PROGRESS in the arts has revealed a Writing Fluid which does not, as other Writing Fluids do destroy the points of gold pens, actively corrode steel pens, or chemically decompose the paper or its coloring. I have seen paper where every letter written with English Fluids was eaten entirely through, and a delicate blue tint changed to a dirty yellow. The best make of gold pens have been condemned for losing their points, and the best manufactures of paper refunded upon the dealer, where these Fluids were extensively used. Harrison's Fluid is subject to none of these evils. It writes a beautiful blue, and soon turns a jet black, and remains permanent HARRISON'S is AMERICAN, made by an AMERICAN, and worthy the use of all Americans. It is wholesaled and retailed by

G. W. STONE'S

Cough, Consumption, and Bronchitis

ELIXIR.

THE Proprietor would respectfully call the attention of the public to his invaluable Remedy for all Affections of the Throat and Lungs and begs of those who are undecided what to select, from the numerous medicines advertised, and recommended for such complaints, to give his ELIXER a trial. Having done so, they will no longer hesitate what to take themselves, or recommend to others A single trial will prove to them that this is the most valuable remedy ever discovered for the various affections of the Throat and Lungs; it will immediately relieve the most violent Cough, and in a few hours completely cure the most severe Cold. As a Preventive and Cure for Consumption, it has no equal.—It is purely Vegetable, contains no poisonous ingredients, is quite agreeable to the taste, and may be given with perfect safety to the most delicate child. The numerous testimonials received almost daily from those who have been cured by it, fully justify the assertion that no family should be without this Medicine: let Mothers give it to their Children who have the Whooping Cough or Croup, and they will alleviate at once the sufferings of their little ones. Price 50 cts.

Call for G. W. Stone's Cough Elixir, and see that his name, and Cough Elixir, with the words Boston, Mass., are blown upon the Bottle, without which none will be genuine.

Morning Chronicle.

MONDAY, JANUARY 7, 1856.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS
ON THE MESSAGE.

18. Dover Gazette.—It is undoubtedly one of the most important documents which has ever emanated from the Executive Department; and one, moreover, of which every American Patriot will be proud.

19. Salem Gazette.—We have neither room nor inclination to go at length into a review of this, humiliating document; but it is our duty to say, that in that portion of the Message referring to the repeal of the Missouri Compromise, the President has falsified the whole record of history. The Boston Journal, in an able Review of the Message, condemns its sectionalism.

20. Nashua Telegraph.—We have no doubt that some people think the President can make a better paper than we can. We have given him a chance to try. The document will surprise nobody. It is thoroughly southern in its tone, and may be a successful bid for the nomination for the Presidency. In that part which relates to our own national affairs, it is vastly more like a stump speech, advocating the southern aspect of the slave question, than a message of the President of the United States. Upon other matters its tone is more worthy of the occasion, and is quite as good as we could expect.

WASHINGTON.—The disorganization of the House has almost ceased to be the leading topic at the capitol. The message and the reports of the Secretaries are dividing attention. In some quarters the manner of its exodus, rather than the matter of the President's message, is discussed. "Inspector" of the New York Courier & Enquirer writes:—

In respect to the authorship of the message, the impression is general that it was edited by the President, but that it was written in scraps by the members of the Cabinet and other persons attached to the administration. The first part, which treats of foreign affairs, is attributed to Governor Marcy; the closing division, referring to Federal politics, to General Cushing; In reference to the sectional part of it, Hon. G. W. Jones of Tennessee remarked that the President had got farther South than he had ever gone.

The Evening Post says that the President's message was in type for a month, during which it was diminished by one-third.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR.—Mr McClelland devotes a large space of his report to a consideration of the Indian question. His views are clearly expressed, and a number of recommendations are submitted.

The Indian chiefs and warriors, addicted to drinking and gambling, are made the dupes of evil-disposed persons. The system of granting licences to traders is indicated as the basis of all the evils of which complaint is made. It is necessary to abolish the cash system of payments, and enable the Indian to obtain all he requires at cost price, if we mean to remedy the trouble, or to civilize and enlighten the savage. A study of the history of the Indians, in connection with the conduct of the whites toward them, reveals the fact that the Indian disturbances are too often traceable to the indiscretions and aggressions of the white men. Upon this point the report enlarges. Never before has the Indian been subjected to such severe trials and hardships; the offences of which he is guilty are often palliated by extreme want.

All this impresses the necessity of kindness and forbearance; and accordingly the Secretary suggests the propriety of attempting to civilize and christianize the Red Man. He alludes to the amount of good that has been effected by missionary enterprise, and discovers in the Indian a susceptibility of improvement and civilization, which renders it a duty to persevere in all humane efforts to preserve the race from extinction. In this particular, Mr McClelland and Col. Davis are of two minds.

It was the policy of Jefferson and Crawford to civilize and teach the Indians.

The modern policy has rather been to subdue and exterminate them.

GEN. PHILIP SCHUYLER.

The following account of a Revolutionary Patriot and his heirs, from the Boston Bee, will interest all lovers of Revolutionary History.

Mr Seward brought to the notice of the U. S. Senate, on the 11th ult., a claim on the government which we hope to see promptly acknowledged and paid. It was in the form of a memorial from Mrs Catherine Van Rensselaer Cochran, now in her 79th year, sole surviving child of General Philip Schuyler and his immediate representative. Gen. Schuyler was one of the principal New York Whigs of the Revolution, and acted a prominent part in the mighty drama of our heroic age. He belonged to one of those great aristocratical families which were so numerous in New York in the colonial times, and whose vast possessions and ancient descent, caused them to occupy a sort of baronial dignity in that part of British North America. Several of these families sided with the crown, and lost their estates, but Philip Schuyler was a patriot of the purest character, and of the most eminent liberality. His services commanded the admiration of his cotemporaries, and form a brill ant page in our revolutionary history. He was a sufferer in various ways by the invasion of Burgoyne, in 1777. While on his retreat, the British commander ordered the mansion-house, mills and other property of General Schuyler, that lay in his way, to be destroyed. The manner in which the owner of the destroyed property spoke of its destruction, when Burgoyne alluded to the act, personally, was eminently chivalrous. He attributed it all to the fortune of war, and sought to soothe the unhappy royal general, then a prisoner. Burgoyne estimated the value of the property thus sacrificed at ten thousand pounds sterling, or almost fifty thousand dollars, a great sum seventy-eight years ago, and quite equal to double the amount in this age.

During the early part of the campaign, and when General Schuyler was in command of the American army, it was found necessary to construct a bridge over the Hudson river, the whole cost of which, and the bridge was half a mile in length, was paid by the General. Mrs Cochran states these losses and expenditures in her memorial, and also that she is poor, and has an invalid and helpless son dependant upon her. She trusts that Congress will recognize the justice of her claim; and, surely, never was there a claim preferred to that body which better deserved to meet with instant recognition and prompt payment. The nation ought to be delighted with an opportunity to liquidate a debt that has stood so long only because General Schuyler would never ask anything of his country. His daughter would have been as forbearing as himself, only that the sternest of all pressures, that of poverty, bears with its relentless force upon her in her extreme old age, so that the night of her life—the evening of it was over long ago—has come down upon her in clouds and thick darkness. This is a sad contrast with the morning of her existence, when she belonged to a family at once eminent for its wealth, its political connections and power, and the political services of its chief.

After the Revolution her father was a distinguished leader in the politics of New York, and of the nation. He was one of the earliest members of the U. S. Senate, and was a vigorous supporter of those principles the success of which led to the establishment of a proper government for the American nation. Her eldest sister, Elizabeth Schuyler, was married to Alexander Hamilton, and died but a year or two since, at the age of almost a century, having survived her illustrious husband nearly fifty years.

We are not apt to be much affected by the decline of great families, and their being swallowed up in the immense ocean of common life; but the case of Mrs Cochran strikes us as being of a peculiar character, and it affects alike the imagination and the reason. What she asks is, not that a favor shall be granted to her, but that a debt shall be paid. We, the richest nation on earth,—our available means considered,—owe this last survivor of a Revolutionary family, this representative of a Revolutionary general and patriot, a large sum of money, and as a mere matter of justice the debt ought to be paid. We are not called upon to be generous, but only to be just. Shall it be said, in history, that the call was made in vain? We most sincerely hope not, and we trust that the press will do its part in urging the justice of the claim on Congress.

SAMUEL GREGG.

Mr. Samuel Gregg of Boston, the oldest of the sons of New Hampshire in that city, died there a few days ago, aged 83 years. He was the son of Major Gregg, of Peterboro', N. H., known for his valor and services in the French and Revolutionary wars, and was highly respected for his own virtues. At the meeting of the sons of New Hampshire in Boston in 1849, Mr. Gregg made some remarks, which will illustrate the manner of life in early times. The printed report of that meeting had the following:

The oldest son of New Hampshire, who attended the festival, was Mr. Samuel Gregg, 18 Leverett street. He was born in Peterboro', New Hampshire, in 1772, and has resided in Boston constantly for the last half century.—Among the first settlers in his native town were his mother and father. The latter, subsequently known as Major Samuel Gregg, was a native of Londonderry. Joining, at the early age of seventeen, the English army in the old French war, he was at the capture of Louisburg, and on the plains of Abraham, with the brave Gen. Wolfe, whose great victory there united the Canadas to the British Empire. When the Revolution broke out he refused to act under his commission of Lieutenant in the King's service, took up arms for his countrymen, and, with his wife, who was born in Haverhill, Mass., staked all for the cause of independence. The following, related by their son, the present Samuel Gregg, will give some idea of the necessities and toils of some of the first founders of the Granite State. "My parents planted themselves in Peterboro'," remarked Mr. Gregg, "about one hundred years ago, on the banks of the Contoocook. At that period there was not a settler nor a single improvement between their house and Canada, and it was years afterwards before they had one neighbor, and for a long time but one between them on the North and the boundaries of that Province. On a cold winter's day my mother threw on her cloak of scarlet cloth, such as the great-great-grandmothers of the rising generation were accustomed to wear, and, with her husband, went out upon the ice down the Contoocook, to see the family of their nearest Northern neighbor, in Antrim, twelve miles off by land, and some fifteen miles by the river. They arrived about noon, but found their neighbor, Mr. James Aiken, had gone with his wife to make a call on some of their relatives twenty-five or thirty miles distant at the East. Miss Aiken, their little daughter, then about twelve years old, made a cup of tea for my mother. After which the two disappointed travellers retraced their steps over the ice to their dwelling, which they reached in the evening. That night there fell a rain so heavy as to break up the frozen stream; and had they not returned as they did, they could not have reached home for less than four or five weeks, as there were no roads, and the snow was three or four feet deep in the woods. In those days there was not a cart nor a vehicle on wheels nor a highway in the whole town of Peterboro'; and my ancestor was obliged to take his grain four miles to mill and bring the meal back upon a rude cart composed of poles, fastened lengthways to a cross-piece, the front being elevated by the oxen, and the rear drawn over the ground somewhat like a sled."

Rev. Mr. Rice, of Grace Church, New Bedford, does not accept the increase of salary voted him by his society.

LOCAL.

COURT OF COMMON PLEAS.

SATURDAY, Jan. 5.

In the case Willey vs. City of Portsmouth, for damage by a bad hole alleged to be in the highway—the jury did not agree. The doubt was, whether it was a highway or not.

Court adj. to meet on Monday P. M. at half past 2 o'clock.

☞ We are requested to state that the Temperance lecture which was to be delivered this evening, at the Temple, is necessarily postponed till next Monday evening, January 14th, on account of the indisposition of the lecturer.

A FULL HOUSE.—A call of charity, made in this city last week, disclosed the fact, that in one house, 50 feet by 40 and two stories high, there were 11 families containing 40 persons, and a few transient boarders, or callers. The reader will of course understand that these families are not Americans by birth.

MUSICAL CONVENTION. — The second annual session of the Rockingham County Musical Association, will commence at the beautiful and convenient Hanover street Chapel, in this city, on the morning of Tuesday next, Jan. 8th. The Convention will continue through at least three days and evenings—including a grand Concert (at the Temple) on Thursday evening; and (should the Association then deem advisable,) will be continued through Friday, with a second Concert on that evening.

The musical exercises will be under the direction of Prof. B. F. BAKER, of Boston,—one of the most able and popular teachers in the country. He will be accompanied by Mr. Henderson, a skillful pianist; and other attendants, if the Association desire them, after meeting.

The business of the Convention (by vote of last year,) is in charge of the officers of the Association. John Christie, Esq the President, is well known to the musical public, as formerly President of the Portsmouth Sacred Music Society, and now leader of Old Folks' Choir—and is a thorough gentleman, of much musical ability, and well deserved popularity. Mr. A. Pearson, Vice President, was mainly instrumental in getting up the first Convention, last year. He has been located in Portsmouth, as a teacher of music, for a year or two; and has won general favor. He is an excellent teacher, a good singer, fine player, and spares no efforts for the general diffusion of musical knowledge and interest. Mr. Frank W. Miller, the Secretary, was the originator of the successful Old Folks' Concerts here, last winter; and is well acquainted with managing such affairs.

This Committee have spared no pains to render this Convention interesting and instructive; and as the object is to improve in singing, especially church music, we hope it will be largely attended. The receipts at the Convention and Concert, last year, were much less than the expenses—so that the Committee of Arrangements were obliged to pay a considerable sum from their own pockets. It seems to be nothing more than fair to wish that the increased receipts at both, this year, may pay up all arrears.

THE NAVY YARD.—The present Captain Commandant of our Navy Yard is John Thos. Newton, Esq. from New York, who took command of this station the past season. In accordance with the good fashions of the commercial metropolis, the Commandant on New Year's day held an open mansion to all the Naval and Civil officers, master mechanics and quartermen of the Yard, as well as to the ladies. At noon a large number were in attendance and after an interchange of the courtesies of the day, the company partook of the liberal hospitality of the Commandant, which was made more pleasant by the social and gentlemanly manner in which the whole was arranged and conducted by himself and lady. Com. Newton is a man of liberal views, and is very popular here. The work of the yard was suspended not only on the day in which Thanksgiving was observed in Maine—but, also on the day in which it was observed in New Hampshire—thus holding out no inducements for men to work on the occasions.—Work was also suspended on Christmas day.

The following is the present list of Naval and Marine officers at the Yard:—John Thos. Newton, Capt. Commandant; Charles W. Pickering, Commander; A.G. Cleary, Leonard Paulding, Lieutenants; M. G. Delaney, Surgeon; Joseph Wilson, Purser; John Bates, Boatswain; Benjamin Bunker, Gunner; Wm. D. Jenkins, Carpenter; John W. North, Sail Maker; Horace Parker, Purser's Assistant; John R. Reding, Naval Storekeeper; Wm. L. Hanscom, Naval Constructor; Benjamin F. Chandler, Civil Engineer; Charles G. Bellamy, Inspector of Timber; Samuel Spinney, Superintendent of Dry Dock; William Hammond, Clerk of the Yard; John Christie, Commandant's Clerk; Charles G. Smith, Storekeeper's Clerk; Ichabod Cole, Constructor's Clerk; Oliver Philbrick, Porter. Captain and Brevet Maj. N.S. Waldron, Marine Guard.—Journal.

☞ The north east snow storm which visited us on Saturday night was the most severe of the season; and to vessels on the coast must have been a season of great suffering. The thermometer stood but about 10° above 0, and the wind blew a gale. As has been found to be the case, the storm commenced to the south west of us, and worked to windward, —beginning in Boston at least two hours before it did here. The last train from Boston, due here on Saturday evening at 7 1-2 o'clock, did not arrive here until 10 1-2 o'clock. The 5 o'clock train from this city for Boston, had not arrived at Salem on Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

MAINE SHIP FOR AFRICA.

The friends of the Liberian Colony, and the advocates of Colonization, are numerous in Maine, and somewhat able also. They have been devising liberal things, viz.: the building of a ship for the American Colonization Society, and the devotion of this vessel to Colonization purposes. It now appears that this enterprise is not likely to be a failure. Many generous contributions have been received, as the Argus informs us, in Portland, and others are expected. The Mirror gives the following statement, from which it is plain the ship will be built—relying on the friends of the cause to make up all deficiencies.

The Committee on the subject of building a ship for the American Colonization Society met on the 28th ult., at Bath. A letter was received from the Rev. J. W. Chickering, enclosing a resolution of the Executive Committee of the Maine Colonization Society, auth rizing the Chairman of this Ship Committee to pledge on certain conditions the State Society for such sums as might be deficient in the required sum of thirty thousand dollars. After a free and full conversation in regard to the state of the subscription and the prosperity of the enterprise, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

The Committee on the Colonization Ship consider the pledge of the Executive Committee of the Maine Colonization Society, to make up what is deficient in the sum of thirty thousand dollars, as a valid ground of confidence, that this pledge will be speedily redeemed by the liberality of the good people of the State, and therefore Resolve, to go forward and build the ship, fully expecting to be sustained by their fellow citizens of Maine, and the friends of the Colonization Society throughout the Union.

Resolved further, that in adopting the preceding Resolution the Committee feel that they assume a heavy responsibility, from which they confidently rely upon their fellow citizens promptly to relieve them by subscribing the few thousand dollars now deficient, and the Committee add that proposals will hereafter be made for the construction of the ship.

On motion of Samuel Tyler, Capt. G. F. Patten, Major Thomas Howard, of Bath, and Wm. Chase, Esq., of Portland, were appointed to conduct and superintend the building of this ship.

CONGRESS.

FRIDAY, Jan.

HOUSE.—Mr Boyce of South Carolina made a personal explanation; he had thought and had frequently expressed the opinion that circumstances are at work which are hurrying us, almost irresistibly, to a disruption of the Union. He saw with most profound regret a great party formed at the North based on the single idea of hostility to the domestic institutions of the South, and avowing the dogma that freedom is national and slavery sectional. As the constitution recognized slavery, if that party should ever get possession of the government, and he thought they would, disunion must follow. He did not desire this. God forbid.

Mr Allison of Pennsylvania replied, saying he had no disposition to war on slavery in the states, but was opposed to its farther extension.

The House then proceeded to vote for Speaker.

91st Ballot.—The same.

Necessary to a choice 111.

Mr Dunn appealed to the Massachusetts men to surrender their personal preference, which stands in the way of their effecting their great end, and unite on Mr Leiter of Ohio, whom he eulogised as eminently qualified for the Speakership.

Mr Knowlton replied that Massachusetts alone does not ask the election of Mr Banks, but the great spirit of freedom has a hand upon him. He said that Mr Dunn and a few other gentlemen elected on the Anti-Nebraska issue could, if they would, relieve the House from its entanglement.

Mr Houston regarded Mr Dunn's resolution, declaring Mr Leiter Speaker, as nothing more than a nomination, and denied the right to nominate, and required the House to vote for or against.

The resolution was tabled by 160 against 39.

Mr Underwood presented a resolution which must, he said, necessarily result in an election—namely, that the first gentleman named on the list of members be put in nomination, and failing to receive a majority of a quorum, the next member be voted for, and so on, until an election be effected. This also was tabled.

The 92nd vote was then taken, with precisely the same result as the previous. Adjourned.

WASHINGTON NEWS.—New York, Jan. 5. The Herald's Washington correspondent telegraphed last evening. The twelfth section man had a consultation this morning previous to the meeting of the House, as to what course they should pursue, providing a new man for speaker should be presented. They determined to adhere to Fuller for the present

The Democrats intend to have another caucus to-morrow evening, to see if they can make some arrangements to effect an organization.

The following California appointments were to-day made by the President: Jas. McDuffie, vice General Richardson, deceased. John Watson, Collector Los Angelos. James A. Patterson, Indian Agent.

Capt. Brage (of a little more grape celebrity,) has resigned.

BALTIMORE, Jan. 4.—Maryland State Legislature.—The Maryland State Legislature organized yesterday. The House elected Mr. Traverse (American) Speaker. Mr. Gather, President of the last Senate, called that body to order.

The message of the Governor was sent to the Legislature to-day. It treats almost exclusively of State affairs. The State finances are represented as being in a very favorable condition. The total debt of the State is $15,132,000; the interest on $5,700,000 is paid by the corporations for which that portion of the debt was assumed. The Governor advises the establishment of a competent school system for the State; opposes the reduction of taxes, but recommends the abolition of the stamp tax. He also denounces secret political associations, and endorses the Nebraska bill.

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 4.—A letter published in the St. Louis Democrat, dated Leavenworth, Dec. 28, says that the "Territorial Register," an administration paper, was mobbed, the type thrown into the river, and a lot of paper burned. The mob was composed principally of Missourians.

The Free State party, at their Convention on the 22d of December, nominated Charles Robinson for Governor, N. Y. Roberts for Lieutenant Governor, and M. W. Delaney for Congress. The election takes place on the 2d Tuesday in January. Col. Lane, who was Mr. Robinson's opponent for the nomination, was defeated by a vote of 55 to 22.

NEW YORK GENERAL ASSEMBLY.—Twelve ballots have been taken for Speaker of the New York Assembly without effecting a choice. The Senate was promptly organized. The Governor's message is thus delayed. There seems to be little prospect of a compromise. Rumors were current, however, of negotiations between the Hard Shells and Know Nothings on the one hand, and the Know Nothings and Black Republicans on the other. Whether this coquetting will lead to a union is doubtful.

The Knickerbocker says that parties are so queerly divided in Albany, that unless somebody sells out and leaves the country, there can be no organization.

AUGUSTA, Jan. 4.—Governor Wells was inaugurated to-day. In his message he expresses no opinion on the policy of the Nebraska bill, but recommends acquiescence in it. He takes strong ground against the liquor law, and recommends a license system. He also recommends the establishment of a Court of Common Pleas; condemns the alien and naturalization laws, and the personal liberty act; suggests attention to education; opposes the sale of timber lands, unless money is needed; praises the Reform School; and advocates an improvement in the militia system.

BODY IDENTIFIED.—The body of the man found upon the cow-catcher of the locomotive of the Boston and Maine Railroad, was that of Patrick Powers, an Irishman, of Melrose, 22 years of age. He was a married man.

DEATH OF THE LITTLE PRIZE BOY.—Benjamin Franklin Leman, the beautiful little boy who drew a prize at the late exhibition of children in Boston, died at the residence of his parents, at Dorchester Lower Mills, on Sunday evening last. His age was about four and a half years, and he was severely ill for two weeks from disease of the brain.—Transcript.

PRINCE & CO'S IMPROVED
Patent Melodeons.

Between 17,000 and 18,000 of these Instruments have been finished and are now in use.

The latest improvement in our Melodeons is the
DIVIDED SWELL,
Secured to us by Letters Patent, 22d May, 1855. By means of this swell Solo Passages may be played with the full power of the Instrument, while the accompaniment is soft and subdued.—Hereafter, all Melodeons made by us will be furnished with this attachment WITHOUT EXTRA CHARGE.

[Extract from the Com. Advertiser, July 27th.] "Messrs Prince & Co. could realize a handsome fortune by disposing of rights to other manufacturers to use their new improvement, but as they prefer to make it a feature in their Instruments, it can only be obtained by purchasing one of their manufacture"

The styles and prices are—

IN PORTABLE CASE:
4 octave Melodeon, extend'g frm C to C.....$45
4½ octave, " " C to F.....60
5 octave Melodeon, " " F to F.....75
5 octave, double reed, " " F to F.....130

IN PIANO CASE:
5 octave Melodeon, extend'g frm F to F.....$100
6 octave " " " F to F.....130
5 octave, double reed, " " F to F.....150
Organ Melodeon (for churches,) five octaves, 8 stops, 1½ octave pedals, 4 setts of reeds.....350

Agents for the sale of our Melodeons may be found in all the principal cities and towns of the United States and the Canadas.

Singer's Sewing Machines.

THESE Machines have long sustained the highest reputation in the United States.

The First Prize—A Gold Medal,

Has recently been awarded to them at the Palace of Industry in Paris, and thus they have the WORLD'S VERDICT OF SUPERIORITY.

The Inventor has just added to these superior Machines an improvement whereby they can work on any kind of
FAMILY SEWING,
From a coarse Cotton fabric to the finest Linen Bosom, in such a perfect manner as no other Machine professes.

They will also Bar and close all kinds of Kid Boots and Shoes, and stitch the finest Gaiter Boots in every part without a skip—making them the most desirable for girls to use at home, or for any who wish to do more than one kind of work.

These Machines are warranted to do all kinds of work in a manner far superior to any other machine in use.

They run without noise, with ease to the Operator, and at double the ordinary speed, so that
Twice as much Work can be done in a Day.

The greatest Shoe Manufacturing and Clothing Establishments in the country use these Machines exclusively, having tried other Machines and found them entirely unfit for their use.

They are simple, and cost scarcely anything to keep them in repair; and can be operated by a child twelve years old.

These Machines may be had at Manufacturers' prices, of
THOMAS S. NOWELL,
Local Agent for New Hampshire, at his Shoe Manufactory, McDonough street, Portsmouth, where they may be seen in operation. d29

G. W. STONE'S

LIQUID CATHARTIC,

OR

Family Physic,

The most important discovery ever made in Medical Science, being a compound of Barks and Roots, which forms the most powerful, safe and agreeable Physic ever offered to the public.

THE necessity of such a Medicine has long been felt both by the healing profession and Physicians. Its advantages over cathartics given in the form of Pills or Powders, must be obvious to every intelligent person. It operates more immediately and effectually upon the system, and at the same time is infinitely less difficult to administer, being quite agreeable to the taste. It not only produces all the effects where physic is required, but completely removes habitual Costiveness, leaving the bowels perfectly free. It expels humors from the blood, is a certain cure for the Piles, regulates the action of the Liver, frees the Stomach from Bile, invigorates the whole Nervous System, and removes the cause of all local pains, such as

It may also be relied upon in all diseases of the Bowels, Dysentery, Diarrhea and Cholera Morbus yield at once to its mild influence. Again we repeat, TRY IT!—It needs no other recommendation. No family will be without it after they have properly tested its merits. Reader, if you have tried other remedies, without success, despair not! If more than a dozen years you have suffering with Scrofula, six bottles of my Liquid Cathartic will cure you. Would you be relieved from habitual Costiveness?—three bottles will effect all that you desire. If you are afflicted with Rheumatism, Neuralgia, or any local pains, two bottles will free you from them. All humors will be eradicated from the blood by the use of from one to six bottles. In short, if you require a physic for any purpose, this is the most reliable, safe and agreeable to the taste that has ever been placed within the reach of the public.

PRICE $1.00.

Patents.

AMERICAN AND FOREIGN OFFICE.

Agency for business with US Patent Office, Washington, 75 State st., opp. Kilby st., Boston.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO INVENTORS. The subscriber (late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, under the Act of 1837) determined to present advantages in applying for Patents, superior to those offered inventors by others, he made arrangements whereby on applications prepared and conducted by him, THIRTY DOLLARS (instead of twenty, as paid back by others,) will be remitted by him in case of failure to obtain a patent, and the withdrawal through him within thirty days after the rejection. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments and all necessary papers and drawings, for procuring patents in this and foreign countries prepared, and advice rendered on legal and scientific matters respecting inventions, and infringement of patents.

Inventors can not only here obtain their specifications on the most reasonable terms, (generally about 30 per cent less than others in the profession,) but can here avail themselves of the experience of 20 years' practice with the Patent Office, an extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and correct accounts of patents granted in this and other countries; besides being saved a journey to Washington, the usual great delay there, as well as all personal trouble in obtaining their patents. Copies of claims of any patent furnished by remitting one dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington. Patents in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries, secured through agency of the highest respectability.

R. H. EDDY,
Solicitor of Patents.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents, there were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent Office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the first informed and most trustworthy Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."

From the present Commissioner of Patents.

AUGUST 17, 1854.—"Mr. Eddy, since I have held the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq. of Boston, has been extensively engaged in the transaction of business with the Office, as a Solicitor. He is thoroughly acquainted with the law, and the rules of practice of the Office. I regard him as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse.

DR. BURLEIGH SMART'S

Cough Medicine.

DR. BURLEIGH SMART, of Kennebunk, Me. was well known throughout the New England States, as a Physician whose treatment of Lung Diseases was attended with almost miraculous success. Very few Physicians ever enjoyed a more enviable reputation, or acquired a more extended practice. The Medical Journal, in speaking of him soon after his death, says:

"A man liberally educated, of acute perception, superior judgment, untiring perseverance, and ardently devoted to his profession, Dr. Burleigh Smart was eminently worthy of the enviable position which he held in the estimation of the Medical Faculty at the time of his death. Although skilful in every branch of the Medical Sciences, for many years his attention was given to DISEASES OF THE LUNGS, in the treatment of which he proved himself the most successful Physician who ever practiced in New England."

This medicine was first compounded and made use of by him, and is substantially the same great agent by means of which he accomplished so many wonderful cures of Pulmonary Disease. Its efficacy having been most thoroughly tested, in thousands of cases, by an eminent Physician, all we can say in its praise must, of course, be superfluous. It is offered to the public in its present form, with the most implicit confidence in its power—a confidence based not wholly upon the above, but upon actual trials of its virtues, the testimony of hundreds of our citizens in its favor and a knowledge of its ingredients severally considered, as regards their curative properties. Its formula has been submitted to several of the most distinguished chemists in this country, who unite in pronouncing it "A beautiful combination of the most reliable and valuable remedial agents used in treating diseases of the Lungs and other Respiratory Organs."

Unlike all other medicines of the same nature, it immediately allays the Cough, and so operates on the Blood as to remove the Cause, thus effecting a permanent cure. In this respect it is infinitely superior to all other preparations. By its use the strength of the patient is sustained, tone and vigor imparted to the system, the blood purified, disease subverted, and a healthy action of all the organs surrounding and surrounding it, the greatest care is observed, every bottle being separately prepared with chemical accuracy, of uniform strength, and in strict accordance with the original recipe. No poisonous drugs are used to give it a beautiful color, impair its virtues, as in nearly all other Cough Medicines, and in every instance the patient can rely on its doing all that medicine can do.

To secure the public against counterfeits, we have the bottles made expressly for us, with the words "DR. BURLEIGH SMART'S COUGH MEDICINE, SHAW & CLARK, BIDDEFORD, ME., U. S. A." blown in the glass. Every bottle is enclosed in a wrapper of gilt-enameled paper, printed in the English, French, Spanish and German languages, from a costly engraved plate, of which the copyright has been secured. An inside wrapper, containing full directions for using the Medicine, and a valuable treatise on Diseases of the Lungs, with directions for the cure of Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis and Consumption, compiled from the most reliable medical authorities by a distinguished physician, also accompanying each bottle.

UFFORD'S

CELEBRATED SMOKE

LAMPS.

REQUIRING only the poorest oil, lard, tallow or grease, producing a Light Unsurpassed, at an expense of less than half a cent per hour. Adapted for the Parlor, Kitchen, and Workshop; also a valuable Study Lamp. It is fast superseding all other lamps. The principle of the lamp is such that PERFECT COMBUSTION is secured. Therefore it is inodorous because smokeless. It is more easily managed than any known lamp, and the vast number of them in successful operation sufficiently attest its merits.

We have kindly been permitted to peruse a letter received at the Missionary Rooms from H. G. O. Dwight, at Constantinople. He says: "I am exceedingly pleased with the Lamp you sent me, manufactured by the Uffords' 117 Court street, Boston, and can recommend it to all who are seeking, as I was, for a clear, strong, steady and economical light. It saves my eyes from much wearing labor in preparing Armenian manuscript for the press," &c.

John G. Whittier, the gifted poet, says, in a note to the manufacturers: "It is, beyond comparison, the best lamp I ever used—have just purchased one for my sister as the most useful present I could make her." Price of the Lamp, $1,25.

Harrison's Blue Black Writing Fluid.
PROGRESS in the arts has revealed a Writing Fluid which does not, as other Writing Fluids do destroy the points of gold pens, actively corrode steel pens, or chemically decompose the paper or its coloring. I have seen paper where every letter written with English Fluids was eaten entirely through, and a delicate blue tint changed to a dirty yellow. The best make of gold pens have been condemned for losing their points, and the best manufactures of paper returned upon the dealer, where these Fluids were extensively used. Harrison's Fluid is subject to none of these evils. It writes a beautiful blue, and soon turns a jet black, and remains permanent. HARRISON'S is AMERICAN, made by an AMERICAN, and worthy the use of all Americans. It is wholesaled and retailed by

G. W. STONE'S
Cough, Consumption, and Bronchitis ELIXIR.
THE Proprietor would respectfully call the attention of the public to his invaluable Remedy for all Affections of the Throat and Lungs and begs of those who are undecided what to select, from the numerous medicines advertised, and recommended for such complaints, to give his ELIXIR a trial. Having done so, they will no longer hesitate what to take themselves, or recommend to others A single trial will prove to them that this is the most valuable remedy ever discovered for the relief and cure of Affections of the Throat and Lungs; it will immediately relieve the most violent Cough, and in a few hours completely cure the most severe Cold. As a Preventive and Cure for Consumption, it has no equal.—It is purely Vegetable, contains no poisonous ingredients, is quite agreeable to the taste, and may be given with perfect safety to the most delicate child. The numerous testimonials received almost daily from those who have been cured by it, fully justify the assertion that no family should be without this Medicine: let Mothers give it to their Children who have the Whooping Cough or Croup, and they will alleviate at once the sufferings of their little ones. Price 50 cts.
Call for G. W. Stone's Cough Elixir, and see that his name, and Cough Elixir, with the words Boston, Mass., are blown upon the Bottle, without which none will be genuine.

Morning Chronicle.

TUESDAY, JANUARY 8, 1856.

NOTIONS.—The Boston Telegraph cautions a cotemporary against the notion that the slavery question is one of those topics which "political adventurers" have got up for their own purposes; that it is a flame that can be made to burn fiercer, or be snuffed out, at the pleasure of a few men styled "agitators."—The Telegraph says:

"This idea is a very prevalent one among noodles, but men of sense know better. There has been no time during the last dozen years when the "agitators" of to-day could have hindered the discussion, if they had tried to do so. Every attempt to put down agitation only increases it. Why, in 1850, the politicians, the business men, and a great proportion of the religious men were determined to put down the discussion by a final "adjustment." For a time they thought they had done so.—The national conventions, whig and democratic, both voted that they would not discuss, and would not allow others to discuss the question of slavery. Every attempt they made to stop excitement only increased it.—Events, which no man or set of men, can control, COMPEL the discussion, and he who supposes that it is to be stopped by agreements is simply an incorrigible dunce, and nothing less nor more.

Nor is this state of things to be deplored.—If it does not continue, "the result must be disastrous to our hopes as a nation." The problem has got to be solved, the question whether this shall be a Republican government, or a slaveholding oligarchy, has got to be settled before any peace can come, and the sooner the doughfaces who try to avoid this subject, are made aware of this fact, the sooner will the agitation cease and time be afforded for other subjects of debate.

Slavery is aggressive all the time, and there has not been a moment when resistance was not in order. Consider the present state of affairs. It is now a year and a half, or more, since the slaveholders and doughfaces passed the Nebraska bill, the sole object of which was to extend slavery; and from the day of its passage there has not been an hour when the struggle has ceased. It is to-day as fierce as ever, and as unsettled, and it is this contest, worthy of the best energies of all good men, which is now convulsing Congress and the country. It is no paltry question about men; but a question of principles; Liberty or Slavery is the issue

In all discussion about these questions, one fundamental idea should always be present to a true Freeman,—viz.: Freedom is a right.—and therefore has rights, that may be claimed; and that Slavery is a wrong, from beginning to end, and therefore can have no rights. Yet some who call themselves freemen, prate away as if the two things were equal:—as if the one might be as well defended as the other.

THE PROGRAMME.—The Portland Expositor of Jan. 2, thus points out the course for the Maine Legislature and Executive.

To each and all of these places, the people have demanded, and they expect new men, at once—that is as soon as these places can be reached by a vacating power

The next primary act, looked for with earnestness and determination by the people, is strictly legislative. It is a repeal, unqualified and unhesitatingly, of all the liquor laws that have been enacted since the general revision of the Statutes in 1840.

The rights and privileges of both buyers and sellers of spirituous liquors are expected to be restored back to the condition they were in at that healthful epoch.

If subsequent experience has developed any practical defect, for all the purposes of the public health and quiet, new legislation is invoked on this subject by all, to that extent, and no more.

But the laws of fanaticism enacted since 1848 are not deemed suitable trunks upon which to engraft any of the new fruits of sound advocatesand the true temperance cause. * * *

An absolute, unmistakable repeal of the pulley-laws of Mr Dow, and of his dishonored followers is expected; and any short coming, in this respect will give rise to a new storm of public disappointment and indignation, such as delinquent parties in the Legislature will find it most difficult to scull against, in the future.

A FIERY ANSWER.—When Col. Boone, of the Missouri mob, told Col. Lane that he was instructed to demand the delivery of the Sharp's rifles in the possession of the defenders of Lawrence, the latter gentleman made the following reply—both parties standing on an eminence, overlooking the city:

"Col. Boone, you see those men at work in the trenches; not one of them, if he had ten thousand lives, but would freely sacrifice them all rather than deliver a single gun. As for myself, sir, if I had ten thousand lives, ten thousand wives, and each wife ten thousand children, I would see them all sunk into the middle of a burning hell rather than permit the surrender of the smallest part of the most useless gun we have."

"FOREST BUDS."—Respecting this volume of poems, the Boston Transcript of Saturday says:

"As an evidence of the merits of these poems we will mention that we recently copied one of the pieces, and laid aside the journals in which it was copied. In twenty days we had twenty-two exchange papers containing the gem. Mrs. Taylor, the authoress, will have numerous patrons, for her poems have appeared in the Portland Transcript, which stands quite at the head of the weekly papers in New Eng. and, on the score of literary taste and ability."

Van Dieman's land exists no longer, the Queen having acceded to a petition from the colony praying that the name of Van Diemen's Land should be changed to "Tasmania."

SHARP'S RIFLES.—This new fire arm has become quite noted of late. We learn from the Boston Courier, that this weapon was invented about five years ago at Hartford, where it is now wholly made, by a gentleman whose name it bears. Its merits are so obvious, that in a comparison of seven kinds of rifles before a commission appointed by the United States government, it was placed at the head of the list. It was immedietely put into the hands of our troops on the Texan frontier—while large numbers have been sent abroad for the European war. Its owners claim for it an equality with ten ordinary muskets even with bayonets; inasmuch as at a distance of one hundred feet the rifle can be discharged at least ten times before the bayonet could be used.

The Courier gives the following description of the structure and powers of the rifle:

"It has the moderated groove, is a foot shorter than the United States rifle, and can readily be fired ten times per minute, and from this to sixteen times by a practical hand. It is loaded at the breech, which receives the cartridge by an operation not unlike that of opening a pair of scissors, and with nearly the same facility. It carries the ball with great precision and force. The full explosive power of the powder is availed of in this rifle. Much of the effect of windage is obviated by the shape of the ball, as well as by its positive motion when it leaves the muzzle of the piece; in this it resembles the Minie. It is not complicated in its construction, is easily cleaned, and suffers no injury from damp weather. These peculiarities of the Sharp rifle render its use especially convenient for mounted men. The small carbine now used by the United States Dragoons throws a ball with deadly accuracy from a quarter to half a mile.

The small pocket pistols are calculated to throw a Minie ball one hundred yards; a cavalry pistol with a range of five hundred yards; a rifle suitable for infantry with a range of one mile; and a large gun will throw a two ounce ball, or a small shell, one mile and a half, or as far as a man or horse can be seen to advantage. It is claimed for this latter weapon that it will set on fire a house or a ship at a distance of nearly two miles, and prevent the use of field artillery by killing the horses before the guns are brought within good range.

Among the performances with this weapon we are enabled to state that a gentleman who had some experience with the piece fired at a target four feet square, at a distance of half a mile, thirty times, one half at random, the other at rest, and hit the mark twenty times in the thirty, within a space of three feet in diameter. A better marksman than the above fired with one of these rifles one hundred times at the distance of one third of a mile, and hit it ninety-seven times."

AARON SIAS TO BE DISCHARGED.—The Boston Traveller understands that in the case of Aaron Sias, who has been in jail since the 17th of March last on the charge of murdering his wife, the counsel for the prisoner have received notification that they need not prepare a defence, as it is the intention of Government to abandon the prosecution.

This was the case where a wife was found dead in bed at the Central House, of which Sias was landlord, under circumstances that led to the suspicion that he might have killed her.

The failure of the medical testimony is the reason assigned for the abandonment of the case.

RESIGNED.—We learn that Hon. Walter Harriman has resigned his clerkship at Washington, and his numerous friends here will be pleased to learn that he is about to resume his residence in this State.—Patriot

To prevent misconstruction, and save his "numerous friends" from "building their hope to high," it may be proper to add that he only proposes to stay in the State "until after election," when he is expected to "resume" his present office or a better one. In the mean time his pay is to go on, while the "benighted regions" are made to re-echo to the sound of his smiling voice, and bask in the light of his eloquent countenance. Walter did a world of good on the stump, last year. What won't he do this?—Independent Democrat.

☞ Steamer Arago, arrived at New York, brings London dates to the 19th December.—New rumors of peace negotiations are promulgated,—and any quantity of speculations,—but the news is not of great moment.

GEN. CANROBERT.—General Canrobert, as I am told, is about to marry the daughter of one of the physicians of the Emperor, a beautiful lady, 32 years of age, who has hitherto rejected all proposals of marriage, and who will bring to General Canrobert, as a dowry, an income of 150,000 francs. This is a match of the Emperor's making. He has made several such matches for his friends and former companions of his political vicissitudes, often making additions to their dowry from his private treasury. General Canrobert merits such favors. Everybody knows with what praiseworthy self-denial he resumed command of a division in the Crimea, leaving to General Pelissier the burden of the cheif command, which which, it must be admitted, he was not strong enough to continue. Canrobert, together with General Cavaignac, and a few others, is one of those rare personages, honest and worthy, which we occasionally meet in these times, when talents are as common as characters are rare.—Cor. N. Y. Post.

CONVICT ESCAPED.—On Thursday night, a colored convict in the State Prison at Charlestown, named Wilson, effected his escape by scaling the wall. He probably managed to secret himself in the yard previous to the cells being closed for the night, and by way of signalizing his departure he took a nice wolf skin overcoat from one of the sentry boxes on the wall. About midnight, a negro wearing a wolf-skin overcoat was seen crossing Warren bridge to Boston, and is supposed to have been the fugitive.

COURT OF COMMON PLEAS.

MONDAY, Jan 7.

The case No 185 Henry P. Daniels vs. Simeon Brown and als. was presented to the jury on Monday afternoon. The action is trespass for breaking and entering the Plf's enclosure in Nottingham, and taking and carrying away the plf's cow and other property The amount of damages claimed is $300.

This case will probably occupy the jury up to Wednesday noon.

ROCKINGHAM BANK.—At a meeting held yesterday, of the Stockholders of the Rockingham Bank, the following gentlemen were chosen:

Directors—J. M. Tredick, Samuel Sheafe, Edward F. Sise, James Kennard, George W. Haven, Wm. P. Jones.

The two latter gentlemen fill the vacancies in the Board of Directors, caused by the decease of Robert Rice and Wm. Jones.

At a subsequent meeting of the Directors, Jonathan M. Tredick was re-elected President and John J. Pickering, Cashier.

ECONOMY—TAXES.

Messrs. Editors:—I put these words together, because our town taxes are supposed to be diminished by good economy, and increased by extravagance—though I believe it is wise, sometimes, to spend money on good objects, rather than to hoard it up, or to put it into Mills that don't go, or into Railroads that don't pay.

I am induced to say such things by reading a piece in my N. H. Gazette, all about "Know Nothing extravagance," wherein the following assertions are made:

Had the present city government levied a tax to pay the amount of their expenditures, which have undoubtedly been considerably lessened by the vigilance of some of the members of the minority party, the citizens would have expressed at the polls at the next election, their opinion of such extravagance.

Even so, Messrs. Editors, it is quite likely they would, and very properly too, if the City Government were such ninnies as to think of paying in one year for a permanent and costly school house which (aside from fire) ought to last a hundred years. But we did not pay off our great debt of $30,000 or more, for our Town Farm and Alms House, in one year.

The expenditure is none the less so for the reason of its being quietly turned into a loan, the interest of which must be paid yearly, and the principal at some day not far distant.

No, Messrs. Editors, extravagance is extravagance, whenever we pay for it: but the burden is much more equitably borne, when a durable public building is paid for by instalments, than when paid for in a lump.

Our debt has the effect to reduce the value of our property, and drive from among us many persons who otherwise might seek a residence here. There are few cities whose ratio of taxation is larger than our own, and according to previous indications, it must increase for years to come, if the present tendency to extravagance is not nipped in the bud.

I go for economy and not for extravagance—therefore I read the piece in the Gazette with great attention,—and with the enquiry, What shall we do to stop the great leak that is wasting our money?

The piece in the Gazette advises us, in company with "many of our best citizens, among them some of our largest tax payers, who have heretofore voted with the whigs, to support at the coming election, the candidates of the Democratic party."

For this advice, these reasons are offered in the Gazette. "The known economy of the former democratic municipal officers, and their known hostility to the waste of the peoples' money, as seen in the present city government, assures every one that if we wish to keep our city debt," [from growing so as to ruin our credit] "we must have a change, and the city government must be placed in the hands of those persons who will guard against encumbering the city with debt and its accompanying evils."

I wish we could get a board of city officers who would build good school houses for half the money that they commonly cost;—but so far as my remembrance serves me, the cheap school houses, like many other cheap affairs, have turned out the dearest of any.

There is the Plains School House, built of brick, only about ten or eleven years ago, under a strictly Democratic Board of Town Officers, and built very cheap,—it is out of repair, but is said to be not worth repairing.

It ought to be rebuilt this year. Shall it be rebuilt cheap, so as to last ten years? or shall it be built well and thoroughly, to last a hundred?

There is the Cabot street School House—also of brick, built not more than forty years ago; was always more or less leaky, damp and unwholesome;—a cheap, poor building; always needing some tinkering, but never in first rate order.

Shall we rebuild this in a cheap style? or durably and comfortably?

To save expense we are advised to put in a city government of the Democratic party,—because, as we are told, some members, (one Alderman from Ward Three,) of that party, have been vigilant to lessen expenditures,—by voting against some important improvements.

But I understand, Messrs. Editors, that some other members of the same party, (the other Alderman from Ward Three,) voted for the improvements throughout, in all their forms, however costly.

I am free to say that I wish for economy in the next year's expenses; but if the only two Aldermen of a given party are equally divided on a question of mere economy, having no reference to parties, I do not see exactly how future questions of the same sort are to be settled by a party vote or a party name.

If we must have a change, so be it: but not deceive ourselves with the idea of an economical party—nor yet with the notion that saving money is always economy, nor that spending it is always extravagance.

A TAX PAYER.

For the Chronicle.

MODERN EXTRAVAGANCE.

Dear Uncle Toby,—Everything will go to rack and ruin if our extravagance keeps on unchecked. Here we have bought a great Town Farm and built a great Alms-House, when the old Alms-House was good enough and a good deal too good. This was done on credit. Then we threw away the old court-house which had lasted our fathers a hundred years, and built a new one. Then we built,—let us see,—what did we build next? We built a new brick school house in School St., and threw away the old wooden one; a new brick one on La Fayette road; one (a poor one,) on the Training Field; one on Christian Shore; the Haven School (a dreadful costly job) at the South end; the Woodbury School at Gravelly Ridge—and last but not least, the New High School in Daniel and Chapel streets. We have also built three or four engine houses, and put a new top on the Brick Market—all within twenty-five years.

The town, I beg pardon, the city,—will be ruined, if things go on in this way—the taxes will rise, the people will move away,—the city will break itself up by new school houses—exactly as our parishes here have broken themselves up by building new churches,—and we shall all have to go off, to Boston, or New York, or Portland, or somewhere, where they don't build any new school houses, nor new churches, nor new engine houses, and where they never spend half so much money to fix up their markets, nor ever give them such extravagant and splendid eaves.

Only think of it: What will the town do without us? and what will it be without any people in it? Your friend,

SOLOMON SLOW.

THE MUSICAL CONVENTION opens this forenoon, at Hanover Street Chapel, on the arrival of the first train from Boston. The Committee have endeavored to make every arrangement for the enjoyment and improvement of all who attend—and a large gathering is expected. All singers and players are invited to join in the exercises, and thus become members of the Rockingham County Musical Association. The various clergyman in this city, and others from abroad, are expected to make brief addresses, during the Convention.

A grand Concert will be given by the Association, at the Temple on Thursday evening next, in which the Convention will join, with a full orchestra and the Grand Piano for accompaniment. Prof. Baker will have direction of the whole.

ADMISSION TO THE CONVENTION.—To prevent misapprehension, the following particular statement is offered.

GENTLEMEN'S SEASON TICKETS, (admitting to all Sessions of the Conventions, and the Concerts,) $1 each.

LADY SINGERS' SEASON TICKETS, (admitting to all Sessions of the Convention, and the Concert,) furnished without charge.

SINGLE TICKETS, (admitting a lady or gentlemen spectator to any one Session of the Convention,) 10 cts. each.

Tickets to Concert, 25 cents.

☞ Rev. Israel W. Putnam, D. D., of Middleborough, Mass., has recently presented a beautiful silver cup to the North Church in this city, of which Church he was the pastor for the 20 years between 1815 and 1835. The cup was presented as a New Year's gift, and first used at the Communion on Sunday afternoon, Jan. 6, 1856, when an appropriate and affectionate letter from the donor was read to the congregation by the new pastor, Mr Whiting, who has also lately made a similar present to the same church. The two gift cups stood side by side on the communion table, with the rich old service which has come down from the fathers.

Commencing on Tuesday, Jan. 8, 1856,

To continue three or four days, and close with at least one

GRAND CONCERT

of Sacred and Secular Music.

ALL Singers and Players, whether living in Rockingham County or not, are cordially invited to attend and join in the exercises. Those who play well are requested to bring their Instruments, as it is designed to form an Orchestra.

The Convention will be under the direction of

Prof. B. F. BAKER, of Boston,

With able Assistants; though it is designed to have all the exercises, including the Concert, carried through as far as possible, by the volunteer members of the Convention.

It is designed to impart such information and instruction as shall tend to the improvement of Singing, especially Sacred Music; and all, at home or abroad, are invited.

Clergymen, Choristers, and others interested in music, in the neighboring towns, are respectfully urged to aid in securing the attendance of a delegation from each town.

Half-price will be charged to Members of the Convention on all the Railroads leading into Portsmouth—those having certificates of attendance being passed free on their return home during that week.

A Chorus of two or three hundred is expected; and no effort will be spared to render the occasion one of social and musical enjoyment and improvement.

TICKETS, admitting gentlemen to all sessions of the Convention, and the Concerts, $1 each, will be sold at the Chapel door, to pay the necessary expenses. ☞ Lady singers admitted free of charge.

☞ The Book used at the Convention, will be "Baker's Church Music," copies of which may be had of Mr. Pearson, or at the Convention. Those having copies of the old Carmina Sacra, are requested to bring them.

Notice.

AT a recent meeting, held by the clergymen and others in this city to see what further can be done to promote temperance, it was agreed to have a series of weekly lectures or addresses from the most able and effective speakers from abroad and from the clergymen in our city, and a Committee was chosen to make the arrangements for carrying the measure into effect.

That Committee have now to announce that they have engaged the services of the Rev. Mr. RICE, of Boston, to give the first lecture on MONDAY next, Jan. 14, at the Temple. Mr. Rice's reputation is such that the Committee can bespeak for him a full house and an interested audience.

CONGRESS.

SATURDAY, Jan. 5.

The last vote, the 93d, stood :—Banks, 98 ; Richardson, 72 ; Fuller, 29 ; Pennington, 6 ; scattering 4. Necessary to a choice, 105.

The House then adjourned.

☞ The snow storm of Saturday night and Sunday morning detained the trains on Monday, so that we received the morning papers from Portland at 4 P. M., and from Boston at half-past 6.

The storm extended from Baltimore, where it prevailed all day Saturday, to Halifax, where it began on Sunday morning :—showing it to be a very extensive as well as severe North Easter.

Much damage must have occurred to the shipping on the coast, of which we have yet to hear.

FIRES.—Loss of Life in Cambridge.—On Wednesday evening about half-past 6 o'clock, an alarm of fire was given, which proceeded from the residence of Mr James Wallace, on the corner of Appian way and Brattle street, Old Cambridge. Widow Leonard Hunnewell, an old lady of eighty years, and a portion of her family, occupied the upper part of the building. The origin of the fire was as follows : It seems that while the family were in another room at supper, Mrs. Hunnewell absented herself by going into her room adjoining, and while there, the cry of fire was given from the street, which caused the occupants to go to the door to ascertain from whence it proceeded, and horrible to relate, they discovered the fire to be in the room occupied by the old lady. On entering and subduing the flames, the remains of the old lady were found upon the floor, a blackened corpse.

A BRIGHT AMERICAN.—Col. Schouler writes from Washington that one of the best jokes of the season is that when Mr. Dunn of Indiana made his personal explanations the other day, he made use of the words often quoted, "that Cæsar had a party, and Anthony a party, but Rome had no party" in this House. A warm and jubilant member of the American party in New York, who probably is not well read in classical literature, addressed a long letter to Mr. Dunn, in which he wanted to know why Rome should have a party in Congress, when that foreign power had ruled America for the last twenty-five years. Ex-Governor Slade ought to send some "school marms" into the Empire City.

DEATH OF A VENERABLE LADY.—Mrs. Sophia Ann S. Ladd, relict of the late William Ladd of Portsmouth, N. H., President of the American Peace Society, died of lung fever on the morning of the 29th ult., at the residence of Rev. S. H. Winkley, in Bulfinch street, Boston. Her age was 73 years. She came from Portsmouth to Boston ten weeks since, and was taken sick soon after her arrival. Her long illness she bore with Christian fortitude, and her last moments were cheered by the kindest attentions of her friends by whom she was surrounded.—Telegraph.

BUOY ON ALDEN'S ROCK.—We learn that the bell-buoy on Alden's Rock has gone adrift or sunk at its moorings. It was examined by direction of the Superintendent of Lighthouses on this station, a short time since, and its moorings found whole.

As this bell buoy is a great convenience over the old buoy in thick or foggy weather, we hope an appropriation may be obtained of the present Congress to replace it.—Portland Advertiser.

Samuel Coffin, says the Calais Advertiser, died near Calais, Me., on the 30th ult., from a paralytic fit brought on by drinking and exposure to the night air and rain.

WIND FLOUR MILLS ON THE PRAIRIES.—The Rochester (N. Y.) Mill Erecting Company, intend to place in operation fifty mills on the Western prairies during the present year, the motive power of which is to be wind alone.

COMMERCE OF PORTLAND.—During the year ending Dec. 31st, 1855, there have been 364 entries of vessels from Foreign ports—and 502 Foreign clearances. The amount of duties collected same time, was $443,120.45.

The New York papers of last evening report the Plymouth Rock, of the Stonington line, still ashore at Hart Island, and that the wind having shifted to the Westward, she is not likely to be taken off before the next spring tides.

The Following Opinions,

IN regard to MASON & HAMLIN'S Model MELODEON are from distinguished Musicians:

(From Lowell Mason.)

After having carefully examined the Melodeons of Messrs Mason & Hamlin, I am enabled to say that in my opinion they are decidedly superior to any others with which I am acquainted.

New York, July 1, 1854. LOWELL MASON.

(From Geo. F. Root.)

Henry Mason, Esq., Dear Sir,—Having had one opportunity of examining Mason & Hamlin's Model Melodeons, I am happy to bear testimony to their great excellence. In general characteristics, and especially in quality and uniformity of tone and tuning, they seem to me to be superior to any that I have yet examined.

Singer's Sewing Machines.

THESE Machines have long sustained the highest reputation in the United States.

The First Prize—A Gold Medal,

Has recently been awarded to them at the Palace of Industry in Paris, and thus they have the WORLD'S VERDICT OF SUPERIORITY.

The Inventor has just added to these superior Machines an improvement whereby they can work on any kind of

FAMILY SEWING,

They will also Bar and close all kinds of Kid Boots and Shoes, and stitch the finest Gaiter Boots in every part without a skip—making them the most desirable for girls to use at home, or for any who wish to do more than one kind of work.

These Machines are warranted to do all kinds of work in a manner far superior to any other machine in use.

They run without noise, with ease to the Operator, and at double the ordinary speed, so that

Twice as much Work can be done in a Day.

The greatest Shoe Manufacturing and Clothing Establishments in the country use these Machines exclusively, having tried other Machines and found them entirely unfit for their use.

They are simple, and cost scarcely anything to to keep them in repair; and can be operated by a child twelve years old.

THOMAS S. NOWELL,

Local Agent for New Hampshire, at his Shoe Manufactory, McDonough street, Portsmouth, where they may be seen in operation. d29

G. W. STONE'S

LIQUID CATHARTIC,

—OR—

Family Physic,

The most important discovery ever made in Medical Science, being a compound of Barks and Roots, which forms the most powerful, safe and agreeable Physic ever offered to the public.

THE necessity of such a Medicine has long been felt both by the heads of families and Physicians. Its advantages over cathartics given in the form of Pills or Powders, must be obvious to every intelligent person. It operates more immediately and effectually upon the system, and at the same time is infinitely less difficult to administer, being quite agreeable to the taste. It not only produces all the effects where physic is required, but completely removes habitual costiveness, leaving the bowels healthy tone. It expels all humors from the blood, is a certain cure for the Piles, regulates the action of the Liver, frees the Stomach from Bile, invigorates the whole Nervous System, and removes the cause of all local ones such as

It may also be relied upon in all diseases of the Bowels, Dyspepsia, Dutchess and Cholera Morbus yield at once to its magic influence. Again we repeat, TRY IT!—it needs no other recommendation. No family will be without it after they have properly tested its merits. Reader, if you have tried other medicines without success, try this—relief is now at hand. Are you suffering with Scrofula, six bottles of my Liquid Cathartic will cure you. Would you be relieved from habitual Costiveness?—three bottles will effect all that you desire. If you are troubled with Rheumatic, Neuralgic, or other local pains, two bottles will free you from them. All humors will be eradicated from the blood by the use of from one to six bottles. In short, if you require a physic for any purpose, take the most reliable, safe and agreeable to the taste that has ever been placed within the reach of the public.

PRICE $1.00.

Patents.

AMERICAN AND FOREIGN OFFICE.

Agency for business with US Patent Office, Washington, 70 State st. opp. Kilby st. Boston.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO INVENTORS. The Subscriber (late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, under the Act of 1837) determined to present advantages in applying for Patents, superior to those offered inventors by others, has made arrangements for obtaining Patents, prepared and conducted by him, THIRTY DOLLARS (instead of twenty, as paid back by others,) will be remitted by him in case of failure to obtain a patent, and the withdrawal through him within thirty days after the rejection of the Claims. Specifications, Assignments and all necessary papers and drawings, for procuring patents in this and foreign countries prepared, and advice rendered on legal and scientific matters respecting inventions, and infringement of patents.

Inventors can not only here obtain their specifications on the most reasonable terms, (generally about 30 per cent less than others in the profession,) but can here avail themselves of the experience of 20 years' practice, his visits to the Patent Office, an extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and correct accounts of patents granted in this and other countries; besides being saved a journey to Washington, the usual great delay of them as well as personal trouble in obtaining their patents. Copies of claims of any patent furnished by remitting one dollar.—Assignments recorded at Washington. Patents in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries, secured through agents of the highest respectability.

R. H. EDDY,

Solicitor of Patents.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent Office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them a speedy and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,

Late Commissioner of Patents."

From the present Commissioner.

August 17, 1855.—During the time I have held the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq. of Boston, has been extensively engaged in the transaction of business with the Office, as a Solicitor. He is thoroughly acquainted with the law, and the rules of practice of the Office. I regard him as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse.

DR. BURLEIGH SMART'S "Cough" Medicine.

DR. BURLEIGH SMART, of Kennebunk, Me. was well known throughout the New England States, as a Physician whose treatment of Lung Diseases was attended with almost miraculous success. Very few Physicians ever enjoyed a more enviable reputation, or acquired a more extended practice. The Medical Journal, in speaking of him soon after his death, says:

"A man liberally educated, of acute perception, superior judgment, untiring perseverance, and ardently devoted to his profession, Dr. Burleigh Smart was eminently worthy of the enviable position which he held in the estimation of the Medical Faculty at the time of his death. Although skilful in every branch of the Medical Sciences, for many years his attention was given to DISEASES OF THE LUNGS, in the treatment of which he proved himself the most successful Physician who ever practiced in New England."

This medicine was first compounded and made use of by him, and is substantially the same great agent by means of which he accomplished so many wonderful cures of Pulmonary Disease. Its efficacy having been most thoroughly tested, in thousands of cases, by an eminent Physician, all we can say in its praise must, of course, be superfluous. It is offered to the public in its present form, with the most implicit confidence in its powers—a confidence based not wholly upon the above, but upon actual trials of its virtues, the testimony of hundreds of cures witnessed by himself and a knowledge of its ingredients severally considered, as regards their curative properties. Its formula has been submitted to several of the most distinguished chemists in this country, who unite in pronouncing it "A beautiful combination of the most reliable and valuable remedial agents used in treating diseases of the Lungs and other Respiratory Organs."

Unlike all other medicines of the same nature, it immediately allays the Cough, and so operates on the Blood as to remove the Cause, thus effecting a permanent cure. In this respect it is infinitely superior to all other preparations. By its use the appetite is improved, the patient is sustained, tone and vigor imparted to the system, the blood purified, disease subverted, and a healthy action of all the organs attained. In compounding it, the greatest care is observed, every bottle being separately prepared with chemical accuracy, uniform strength, and in strict accordance with the original recipe. No poisonous drugs are used to give it a beautiful color, and impair its virtues, as in nearly all other Cough Medicines, and in every instance the patient can rely on its doing all that medicine can do.

To secure the public against counterfeits, we have the bottles made expressly for us, with the words "DR BURLEIGH SMART'S COUGH MEDICINE, SHAW & CLARK, BIDDEFORD, ME., U. S. A." blown in the glass. Every bottle is enclosed in a wrapper of red enameled paper, printed in the English, French, Spanish and German languages, from a costly engraved plate, of which the copyright has been secured, an inside wrapper, containing full directions for using the Medicine, and a valuable treatise on Diseases of the Lungs, with directions for the cure of Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis and Consumption, compiled from the most reliable medical authorities by a distinguished physician, also accompanying each bottle.

Harrison's Blue Black Writing Fluid.
PROGRESS in the arts has revealed a Writing Fluid which does not, as other Writing Fluids do destroy the points of gold pens, actively corrode steel pens, or chemically decompose the paper or its coloring. I have seen paper where every letter written with English Fluids was eaten entirely through, and a delicate blue tint changed to a dirty yellow. The best make of gold pens have been condemned for losing their points, and the best manufactures of paper returned upon the dealer, where these Fluids were extensively used. Harrison's Fluid is subject to none of these evils. It writes a beautiful blue, and soon turns a jet black, and remains permanent. HARRISON'S is AMERICAN, made by an AMERICAN, and worthy the use of all Americans. It is wholesaled and retailed by

G. W. STONE'S
Cough, Consumption, and Bronchitis ELIXIR.
THE Proprietor would respectfully call the attention of the public to his invaluable Remedy for all Affections of the Throat and Lungs and begs of those who are undecided what to select, from the numerous medicines advertised, and recommended for such complaints, to give his ELIXER a trial. Having done so, they will no longer hesitate what to take themselves, or recommend to others. A single trial will prove to them that this is the most valuable remedy ever discovered for the various affections of the Throat and Lungs; it will immediately relieve the most violent Cough, and in a few hours completely cure the most severe Cold. As a Preventive and Cure for Consumption, it has no equal.—It is purely Vegetable, contains no poisonous ingredients, is quite agreeable to the taste, and may be given with perfect safety to the most delicate child. The numerous testimonials received almost daily from those who have been cured by it, fully justify the assertion that no family should be without this Medicine; let Mothers give it to their Children who have the Whooping Cough or Croup, and they will alleviate at once the sufferings of their little ones. Price 50 cts.

CAPE COD TELEGRAPH.

The Cape Cod Telegraph Company which was chartered for the purpose of constructing and maintaining a line of telegraph from Boston to Provincetown, Holmes' Hole, Tarpaulin Cove, &c., is now completed, with the exception of laying the cable some five miles across Vinyard Sound. The first pole was raised in Boston, the 10th day of July last, by E. O. Laughton, of this city, the contractor and builder of said line, and it now extends over a territory of 225 miles, built with great care and of the best material.

The proprietors and constructor of this line would respectfully solicit attention to the following statements of its Objects:

1st. To report all arrivals and departures at Holmes' Hole, Provincetown, &c.

2d. To notify all vessels passing these points, of the state of the weather, east and west, along the whole extent of coast, and warn them of approaching storms; and also to communicate with vessels passing Chatham and Provincetown, by the same means.

3d. To give prompt report of all disasters occurring on the coast, within reach of the Telegraph.

4th. To facilitate business and social intercourse between the points indicated, and among the several towns along the line.

Advantage of the Line.—1st. Whenever desirable, merchants will be able to communicate with their vessels without delay at Holmes' Hole, change their destination or transmit sailing orders or other information, which cannot now be done with necessary despatch.

2. Thus vessels upon return voyages can be ordered to Holmes' Hole to wait for orders, which may be instantly transmitted, upon their arrival, thus saving great expense and delay.

3d. Evening as well as morning papers can report all vessels at Holmes' Hole, Provincetown, &c. Could the shipping interest have had such advantages years ago, it would have saved a vast amount of property and many lives. Extract of letter:—

BOSTON, April 21, 1855.

"This is a subject of great importance to underwriters and ship owners, as well as to the cause of humanity. It is to be hoped that all will feel disposed to encourage this laudable enterprise." R. B. FORBES.

Stock has been taken along the coast in all principal towns, as far east as Calais, and it is to be hoped that the shipping interest in Portsmouth, Newburyport and Salem will encourage and take a portion of the stock.

The cable to be laid across Vineyard Sound will cost from four to five thousand dollars, and we are in hopes to get stock taken to enable us to accomplish the great object by the first of February. We shall not issue certificates of stock to subscribers in this place or Newburyport until the cable is laid and the stockholders are satisfied of its utility.

We take the liberty to add, that every commercial man can see in a moment, the great occasional value, and the constant utility and convenience of this line. It is to be hoped that a suitable degree of interest and liberality will be manifested here, toward an enterprise of such importance to life and property.

FROM LIBERIA.—The Eastern Argus contains letters to the Rev. R. R. Gurley, of Washington, from President Roberts, on his retirement, and also from Mr Benson, the President elect, the latter of whom is of unmixed African blood. Mr Benson writes hopefully of the prospects of the colony. An unprecedented quantity of rain had fallen; but he states he is more than ever convinced of the availableness of agricultural pursuits in Liberia.

The Rev. J. Morris Pease has been appointed by the Colonization Society to explore the interior and back regions of Monrovia, and explained his scheme on Tuesday evening to the Geographical Society in New York, in hopes of enlisting their countenance and support.

"The proposition is to visit Monrovia, and under the auspices of the Government to commence a practical, scientific and thorough survey of the interior of Western Africa; that is to say, for 800 miles back from the coast, and as much further as time and the openings of Providence shall furnish the facilities and inducements. The settlements in Liberia are all within sixteen miles of the seaboard, and contained in the malarious districts. The benign influences of the government have been felt principally by the colonists and not by the natives. The heathen portion has not been reached at all.

These people are half Mahometan and half heathen. They speak and write the Arabic language. They manufacture paper and cotton. They say they will abandon these two religions if the Liberians will only send them the Bible in the Arabic language. Virgin iron is found there, the ore containing ninety-five per cent. of metal. A city has recently been discovered in the interior with a population second only to London."

Russia is 41 times the size of France, and 138 times that of England.

CAPITAL PUNISHMENT.

The Boston Chronicle speaks of the many murders in Massachusetts and Connecticut—and says:

If our ancestors could visit us, which God forbid, they would look upon us as so many milksops for our temperance, and so many cowards for our dislike of roughness and severity. They had a firm faith in the virtues of the rod and the gallows, and would find it difficult to understand how, with the power of those visible instruments of government so much lessened, we can contrive to keep society together. They would be apt to attribute the great number of murders that have of late occurred to the comparative mildness of our code, but we should be able to show them that such is not the fact, by pointing out that there were more great crimes against persons committed in their day than there are in ours.—Crimes against property are more common now than they formerly were, but this is owing to causes that have no connection with the severity or the mildness of laws.

We think that the last sentence is true,—but we would especially ask attention to the last but one.

We would point to Maine, where the gallows is virtually abolished, and where temperance is something more than a milksop—and ask, have murders there increased in these five or ten years?

The answer is No: and the reader will draw his own inferences.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS
ON THE MESSAGE.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.—No. 21. Saco Democrat.

It is unquestionably equal in point of ability to any state paper that has been laid before the American people for a long time. * *

No part of the Message will be received with greater satisfaction by the friends of the Union than that which treats of the constitutional theory of our government, and the marked ability with which it discusses the relations of slavery as it exists in this country.

No. 22. Salem Register.

"The President's Message establishes one point very satisfactorily. It proves that he "knows no North" in the administration of the government. * * * *

President Pierce, in his recent Message, says the Missouri Compromise was "reluctantly acquiesced in by the Southern States as a sacrifice to the cause of peace and of the Union."

On the other hand, Hon. Charles Pinckney, of South Carolina, writing from Washington at the moment of its passage, claimed it as a Southern triumph. He says it will "give the South, in a short time, an addition of six, and perhaps eight, members to the Senate of the United States. It is considered here, by the slaveholding States, as a great triumph."—Which tells the truth!

No. 23. Exeter News-Letter.

The message begins with a plain statement of the misunderstanding, on the part of Great Britain, of the Clayton-Bulwer treaty, and expresses the determination of the President to adhere to his own construction of it. Some persons predict war as a consequence of this disagreement. We have no fear of such a result. The Southern States will not risk a war with Great Britain. British steamships, running up their rivers or moving near their coast would prove very troublesome visitors in a time of war.

The largest portion of the message is taken up with special pleading in behalf of popular sovereignty and Southern interests;—we cannot say Southern rights. It needed no argument to satisfy most persons that Congress is invested with no constitutional power to abolish slavery in the States where it is already established. But the elaborate declamation of the message will not, we believe, convince any, who were not convinced before, that Congress has not the constitutional power to set limits to the further extension of slavery. If a territory should petition Congress to grant that which it believed would prove a curse, Congress ought not to grant it; to do so would be carrying popular sovereignty to a vicious extreme.

DEATH OF REV. JOHN O. CHOULES.—Died on Saturday evening, January 5, at the residence of Nelson Robinson, Esq., New York, the Rev. John O. Choules, D. D., of Newport, R. I., in the fifty-fifth year of his age.

He was a Baptist clergyman, held in high estimation by his clerical brethren and the churches of his fellowship.

Dr. Choules was well known to a very wide circle of general acquaintances. He formerly preached at Danvers, and since has officiated as clergyman at Jamaica Plains, New Bedford and Newport. He was a man of cheerful temperament, and of much conversational and literary talent, having edited Neal's History of the Pilgrims, Foster's Lives of the Statesmen of the British Commonwealth, and Hinton's History of the United Strtes. He also wrote a work on England, and a history of the cruise of Com. Vanderbilt's North Star, the Doctor being Chaplain of the yacht on her pleasant excursion.

We learn from the Springfield Republican that the cost of the new City Hall, in that city, together with lands, was nearly $100,000 It will contain in the main floor and galleries 7500 people standing. The tower is 130 feet high, and contains a bell weighing 4091 lbs, the largest in the State.

Springfield contained about 12,000 inhabitants in 1850—probably some more at the present time. This expenditure is liberal, perhaps we may say extravagant. If we had to pay $6000 per annum, for rent of city offices, we should think it not exactly prudent.

COLD WEATHER.—The mercury in several thermometers at Jamaica Plain were at 17 to 18 degrees below zero at seven o'clock on Monday morning.

THE INFALLIBILITY OF SURGEONS.—A case has recently been tried before the Kings County Circuit Court, in New York, in which a surgeon was brought up on a charge of malpractice, and a verdict of some three thousand dollars rendered against him. The case was this: About three years ago, one Albert A. Wilson, now about sixteen years old, fell and fractured his elbow. The defendant in the case at that time set the fractured limb, soon after which the fingers of the hand connected with the fractured arm began to mortify so that it became necessary to amputate some of them to prevent worse consequences. The plaintiff in this case contended that the loss of the fingers resulted from too tight bandaging, while the defendant held that the effects of the fracture conduced to that result. The Tribune says that distinguished surgical men from New York and Brooklyn were examined as witnesses in the case, and gave their testimony freely, only one holding that the mortification of the fingers was caused by unskilful bandaging.

A case involving such nice scientific points as this, is rather a delicate one to rest on the decision of an ordinary jury of twelve men, and the result attained in the present instance, certainly has the appearance of taking the infallibility of a proper surgical practice as a result within the attainment of every surgical man. While the community should have a legal protection from surgical quackery, something is certainly due to the well-meant efforts of those who, by careful study and investigation, would endeavor to gain their honest livelihood by ministering to the sudden needs of those whom accident may unfortunately place within their necessarily speedy treatment. Other issues than those above cited may have influenced the jury the case in point; but it is a wrong principle to start upon that surgeons and physicians should be held capable of effecting a cure in every case, and that the failure to do this necessarily implies recklessness, or lack of interest in the welfare of their patients.—Salem Gazette.

ECONOMY IN GAS BURNING.—A friend of the editor of the Bangor Whig mentions a remarkable instance of the saving that may be effected by strict attention and economy in burning of gas. He says the consumer alluded to invariably makes his meter sway a leetle the other way in the long run—and brings the Company in debt to him about 35 cents every quarter!

There are many customers in Portsmouth who would like to learn the secret of the Bangor gentleman.

PATRICK'S WARDROBE.—At a sale of furniture which took place in a country town, among the lookers on were a few Irish laborers, and upon a trunk being put up for sale, one of them said to his neighbor:

"Pat, I think you should buy that trunk."

"An what should I do with it?" replied Pat, with some degree of astonishment.

"Put your clothes in it," was his adviser's reply.

Pat gazed upon him with a look of surprise, and then with that laconic eloquence which is peculiar to a son of the emerald Isle, exclaimed, "An' go naked."

A correspondent of the Philadelphfa Enquirer, who called on President Pierce on the 1st inst. says of him, "I had heard that he was looking ill, but was not prepared to find him such a wreck of his former self. His person has become very thin, and his face wears a hue so ghastly and cadaverous, that one could almost fancy that he was gazing upon a corpse."

COTTON.—Mr Calhoun said that two things must occur to fit a country for the advantageous production of cotton—there must be heat enough to bring the plant to perfection, and frost enough to kill the stalk. There is a belt of latitude around the earth, of narrow extent however, in which those conditions are found. Jamaica is south of it. Not having sufficient frost there to kill the plant, it would, unless grubbed up, appear the second year, and produce cotton of an inferior quality.

Mr Soule, it is reported, has completed his book upon the subject of the Spanish negotiation, and the Ostend Conference, and that it contains rich disclosures. It was his intention to have promulgated the exposition before the meeting of Congress, but sickness prevented him.

A SINGULAR ROBBERY.—A night or two since, after the night train from New Haven hod reached this city, Mr Hobart, the Conductor, ascertained that some one of the passengers had during the trip entered one of the saloons of the cars of this road, and cut out two panels of valuable velvet plush, which had been carried off.—Boston Traveller.

The Mayor of Nashua, on Thursday, was robbed of $2000. The money was taken from his parlor table. It was subsequently recovered, having been found under his barn and scattered in the vicinity. The thief has not been apprehended.

FROM LAWRENCE.—A letter from a staff officer of the free state forces at Lawrence, Kansas, claims a bloodless triumph over Gov. Shannon in the recent treaty, they having yielded no principle at issue. The letter further states that Gov. Shannon and Sheriff Jones talk of resigning if the people of Missouri will not keep quiet, and mind their own business.

Nebraska City, now numbering 850 inhabitants, with all the necessary conveniences of life, has been built up at the old military station, Fort Kearney, within the last twelve months. The census of the territory, taken last fall, indicates a population of 4500. Only 11 slaves. Corn is worth 20 cents per bushel. Pork 4cents per pound. Butter 20 cents.—There is no excitement on the slavery question—all quiet and friendly

PROVIDENCE ITEMS.—The Journal reports that Charles Capron, a man of intemperate habits, was found dead in the barn connected with the Weybosset House, on Friday morning.—Rev. Thomas Williams had his under eyelid severely lacerated, and was wounded in the scalp by the fall upon him of a large body of snow from the roof of a house.

LOCAL.

COURT OF COMMON PLEAS.

TUESDAY, Jan. 8.

The Court was occupied all day with the case Daniels vs Brown, which was begun on Monday and is not yet finished.

☞ Sch. Eliza, Coggins, of Salem, from Boston, bound east, put into Gosport, (Isle of Shoals,) on Saturday, for a harbor, and anchored. The gale increased, and on Sunday morning at half past 7 cut away the masts. The crew remained on board till 11 A. M., when they were taken off by a boat from the island. The life boat at the Shoals was frozen up with ice, and frozen fast aground, for lack of a proper boat house. Had this boat been in such a house, the men might have been taken off hours before, instead of remaining exposed to danger and death. The schooner rode out the gale, and was towed into this harbor on Tuesday. The hull is not injured, and the loss is confined to masts and spars, sails and rigging. No insurance.

THE MUSICAL CONVENTION opened on Tuesday morning, at 11 o'clock, at Hanover Street Chapel. About seventy-five ladies and gentlemen were present, mostly belonging in the city. After a short rehearsal, and a few remarks from Prof. Baker, they adjourned till 2 o'clock.

In the afternoon, the attendance was nearly doubled, many being present from abroad.—The exercises were continued with increasing interest, and all regretted when the time for adjournment arrived.

In the evening, upwards of two hundred were present, including several fine lady singers from other cities, and an efficient Orchestra of eight pieces, besides the Grand Piano, at which Prof. Henderson presided with taste and skill.

After a spirited and improving rehearsal, the Convention adjourned till 10 o'clock this morning.

☞ Rev. John Pierpont's Poem, "The Golden Call," was read by him before the Mechanics' Lyceum on Tuesday evening, with great distinctness and force of utterance, for an orator so aged. Not a sentence nor a line was lost on the audience, who received with favor an effort worthy the reputation so well earned in former years by this well known poet and satirist. We understand he is engaged to lecture through the whole winter season.

The next lecture before this Lyceum will be by Rev. Rollin H. Neale, D.D., of Boston.

DEMOCRATIC COUNCILLOR CONVENTION.—Delegates to the First Councillor Convention met at Exeter on Tuesday forenoon, Jan. 8. Charles L. Woodbury, Esq., was chosen President. The Convention nominated Edson son Hill, Esq., of Concord, as candidate for Councillor. John H. George, of Concord, and Charles L. Woodbury of this city, were appointed delegates to the National Convention to be held at Cincinnati. Dr. Hooper of Canterbury, and Winthrop Pickering of Newington, substitutes. The Convention was very fully attended, and the proceedings very harmonious.

☞ The Democratic Senatorial Convention, for the first district, was held at Rye, on Tuesday. Daniel Marcy, Esq., of this city was nominated as the candidate for Senator.

DANCING.—It will be seen by his advertisement, that Mr Lamprey gives the first of a series of Social Assemblies, at Congres Hall this evening. The course will consist of six Assemblies, one each week, and will without doubt be well attended.

☞ On Monday evening last, the following members of Piscataqua Lodge, No. 6, I. O. of O. F., were installed officers of that lodge for the current term:—A. K. P. Deering, N. G.; Nathaniel K. Raynes, V. G.; Benj. M. Parker, Sec.; Solomon Seymour, Treas.

Their united ages amounted to 836 years; average 55 2-3. Three were under one year, one was 32, two between 50 and 60, three between 60 and 70, one was 79, and five over 80 The average number for the last 121 years has been 15 6-11ths.

INSANE MAN KILLED.—We learn by letter from Concord, N. H., that last Thursday night the keeper of the Insane Asylum in that city was attacked by an inmate, who had been in the institution some sixteen years, and killed him in self defence.—Boston Herald.

It appears by a paragraph from the Sacramento Union that Col. Alphonse Sutter, son of Gen. John A. Sutter, was actively engaged in raising recruits for the purpose of joining Gen. Walker's force in Nicaragua; that he had been quite successful, and that he intended to leave soon with his recruits for Nicaragua.

Three hundred and forty-two Mormons arrived at New York, for Utah, on Saturday last, under the lead of Elder Foster, a native of New York, who has been a missionary abroad for some years, and returns with five wives. This party accept and practice polygamy.

A SAD MEETING.—At a meeting of the veterans of the war of 1812, held in Norfolk, Thursday afternoon, upon calling the roll it was ascertained that twenty-one of those brave men had fallen since their last meeting.

CONGRESS.

One day last week Mr Mace, Representative in Congress, from Indiana, offered a resolution that the acting doorkeeper of the House be required to lock all the doors leading to the hall, instanter, and keep them securely fastened till a Speaker was elected, unless they were opened for the purpose of letting in absent members.

Mr Mace said there was an ecclesiastical precedent, in the election of a Pope to succeed Clement IV, in 1668. The cardinals were for nearly three years unable to agree on the choice of a successor, and were on the point of breaking up, when the magistrates of Rome, by the advice of St. Benjamin, shut the gates of the city, thus locking up the cardinals till they agreed.

The resolution was voted down of course; but had it been adopted it would have brought them to terms very soon.

On Saturday, Jan. 5, in the House, Mr Etheridge (Know Nothing) of Tennessee, said that the action of the House demonstrated two propositions:—

1st—That the gentlemen voted for have enthusiastic friends—and, secondly, if either is elected he will not decline the honor of the Chair. He did not believe any successful candidate would so conduct himself as to occasion just apprehension as to his official conduct, but in the present condition of the public mind, he thought it injurious to elect as Speaker any man of extreme sentiments from either section. He therefore proposed Mr Millson (Democrat) of Virginia as a compromise between the two extremes, and appealed to the moderate men to assist him in putting an end to the strife for Speaker.

Mr Broome of Pennsylvania did not agree with Mr Etheridge. He wanted all who were elected on the paramount issue of Americanism, to come together and agree on a candidate, or else let the House adopt a resolution, which he now offered, namely, that the friends of the prominent candidates for the Speakership be requested to withdraw them, and then each party appoint a committee with the view of selecting a prominent candidate.

Mr Millson requested Mr Etheridge to withdraw his resolution. He had been associated, he said, with his Democratic friends in earnest efforts to elect Mr Richardson, and the proposition placed him and his friends in a position neither wished to assume.

Mr Etheridge then withdrew his motion.

Mr Stephens of Georgia opposed Mr Broome's resolution, as he considered it wholly impracticable.

After a running debate, involving the merits of the several parties, and some talk about Americanism, Mr Broome's resolution for a compromise candidate was tabled. The House then voted twice.

MONDAY, Jan. 7.

SENATE.—In the Senate to-day, Mr Brodhead of Pennsylvania called up his resolution directing the Committee of Finance to inquire into the expediency of reporting the general appropriation bills, or adopting some speedy action on them in order to avoid night sessions at the close of each Congress, and scenes which his sense of delicacy prevented him from describing. He was in favor of doubling the pay of members, if thereby sessions would be shortened.

A discussion followed, participated in by Messrs Clayton, Toombs and Seward. The resolution was adopted. Adjourned until Thursday.

HOUSE.—The House took another vote for Speaker, with the following result:—Banks, 101; Richardson, 73; Fuller, 29; Pennington, 6; scattering 6.

During the proceedings an enlivening episode took place. Mr Eustis of Louisiana, in defining the position of the American party in Louisiana, repudiated the eighth section of the Philadelphia platform; preferring that his right arm should wither than that he should be connected with any party whose purpose was to persecute or proscribe American Catholics.

Mr Smith of Alabama took issue with Mr Eustis. He was opposed to Roman Catholicism because it owed allegiance to the Pope above the Constitution. There never had been a time when the priests in their assemblies did not cast their power against the people.

Mr Florence of Pennsylvania referred Mr Smith to the Irish Catholics under Father Murphy at Vinegar Hill. [Laughter.]

Mr Taylor of Louisiana referred to history to show that in the French Revolution the priests aimed in their successful warfare against the two other estates—nobles and clergy.

Mr Walker of Alabama conceived that the purpose of the American party was political. If he thought religious persecution an element in its composition, he would cut loose from such an organization. Adjourned until Wednesday.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—The Storm, &c.—Last night was the coldest of the season. The thermometer at 8 o'clock this morning indicated 10° above zero. The mails from New York of Saturday arrived here at 9 o'clock this morning. The roads between here and Petersburg, Va., are blocked up. All the southern trains delayed. Snow six inches deep at Raleigh, N. C.

Democratic Caucus.—Between forty and fifty Democrats met in caucus to-day, Mr Jones of Tennessee in the chair. An interchange of views took place. Richardson is willing to be dropped, provided another man could be nominated with a better prospect of success. It was contended, however, that his withdrawal would be an abandonment of the platform. Some of the Democrats think that the caucus was unnecessary. It is probable that nothing definite will be accomplished.

The New York Fire Department is composed of 2,631 men, under one chief and eleven assistant engineers. The chief receives $3000, and the Fire Marshal $2000 per annum; all the rest are volunteers.

The Following Opinions,

IN regard to MASON & HAMLIN'S Model MELODEON are from distinguished Musicians:

(From Lowell Mason.)

After having carefully examined the Melodeons of Messrs Mason & Hamlin, I am enabled to say that in my opinion they are decidedly superior to any others with which I am acquainted.

New York, July 1, 1854. LOWELL MASON.

From Geo. F. Root.)

Henry Mason, Esq., Dear Sir.—Having had one opportunity of examininig Mason & Hamlin's Model Melodeons, I am happy to bear testimony to their great excellence. In general characteristics, and especially in quality and uniformity of tone and tuning, they seem to me to be superior to any that I have yet examined.

Yours very truly, GEO. F. ROOT.

New York, May 25th, 1854.

(From Edwin Bruce.)

Dear Sirs:—I have examined your Model Melodeons with much satisfaction, and am prepared to express my confident opinion that they are the most perfect instruments manufactured.

Yours, &c., EDWIN BRUCE.

Singer's Sewing Machines.

THESE Machines have long sustained the highest reputation in the United States.

The First Prize—A Gold Medal,

Has recently been awarded to them at the Palace of Industry in Paris, and thus they have the WORLD'S VERDICT OF SUPERIORITY.

The inventor has just added to these superior Machines an improvement whereby they can work on any kind of

FAMILY SEWING,

They will also Bar and close all kinds of Kid Boots and Shoes, and stitch the finest Gaiter Boots in every part without a skip—making them the most desirable for girls to use at home, or for any who wish to do more than one kind of work.

These Machines are warranted to do all kinds of work in a manner far superior to any other machine in use.

They run without noise, with ease to the Operator, and at double the ordinary speed, so that

Twice as much Work can be done in a Day.

The greatest Shoe Manufacturing and Clothing Establishments in the country use these Machines exclusively, having tried other Machines and found them entirely unfit for their use.

They are simple, and cost scarcely anything to keep them in repair; and can be operated by a child twelve years old.

These Machines may be had at Manufacturers' prices, of

G W STONE'S

LIQUID CATHARTIC,

—AND—

Family Physic.

The most important discovery ever made in Medical Science, being a combination of Barks and Roots, which forms the most powerful, safe and agreeable Physic ever offered to the public.

THE necessity of such a Medicine has long been felt both by the Families and Physicians. Its advantages over cathartics given in the form of Pills or Powders, must be obvious to every intelligent person. It operates more immediately and effectually upon the system, and at the same time is infinitely less difficult to administer, being quite agreeable to the taste. It not only produces all the effects where physic is required, but completely removes habitual Costiveness, leaving the bowels perfectly free. It expels all humors from the blood, is a certain cure for the Liver, regulates the action of the Liver, frees the Stomach from Bile, invigorates the whole Nervous System, and removes the cause of all local pains, such as

It may also be relied upon in all diseases of the Bowels, Dysentery, Diarrhea and Cholera Morbus yield at once to its wonderful influence. Again we repeat, TRY IT! It needs no other recommendation. No family will be without it after they have tried other remedies, without success, despair not—relief is now at hand. Why do you suffering with Scrofula, six bottles of my Liquid Cathartic will cure you. Would you be relieved from habitual Costiveness?—three bottles will effect all that you desire. If you are afflicted with Rheumatic, Neuralgic, or other local pains, two bottles will free you from them. All humors will be eradicated from the blood by the use of from one to six bottles. In short, if you require a physic for any purpose, this is the most reliable, safe and agreeable to the taste that has ever been placed within the reach of the public.

PRICE $1.00.

Patents.

AMERICAN AND FOREIGN OFFICE.

Agency for business with US Patent Office, Washington,

76 State st, oppo. Kilby st, Boston.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO INVENTORS. The Subscriber late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, under the Act of 1837, determined to present advantages in applying for Patents, superior to those offered inventors by others, has made arrangements whereby on application prepared and conducted by him, FIFTY DOLLARS (instead of twenty,as paid back by others,) will be permitted by him in case of failure to obtain a patent, and the withdrawal through him within thirty days after the rejection. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments and all necessary papers and drawings, for procuring patents in this and foreign countries prepared, and advice rendered on legal and scientific matters respecting inventions, and infringement of patents.

Inventors can not only here obtain their specifications on the most reasonable terms, (generally about 30 per cent less than others in the profession,) but can here avail themselves of the experience of 20 years' practice, his relation to the Patent Office, an extensive library of legal text books, and mechanical works, and correct accounts of patents granted in this and other countries: besides being saved a journey to Washington, the usual great delay there as well as all personal trouble in obtaining their patents. Copies of any patent furnished by remitting one dollar.—Assignments recorded at Washington. Patents in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries, secured through agents of the highest respectability.

R. H. EDDY,

Solicitor of Patents.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent Office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employs person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,

Late Commissioner of Patents."

From the present Commissioner.

ABOVE 17, 1855.—During the time I have held the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, has been extensively engaged in the transaction of business with the Office, as a Solicitor. He is thoroughly acquainted with the law, and the rules of practice of the Office. I regard him as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse.

DR. BURLEIGH SMART'S Cough Medicine.

DR. BURLEIGH SMART, of Kennebunk, Me. was well known to the thousands in the New England States and a Physician whose treatment of Lung Diseases was attended with almost miraculous success. Very few Physicians ever enjoyed a more enviable reputation, or acquired a more extended practice. The Medical Journal, in speaking of him soon after his death, says:

"A man liberally educated, of acute perception, superior judgment, untiring perseverance, and abundently devoted to his profession, Dr. Burleigh Smart was eminently worthy of the envied position to which he held in the estimation of the Medical Faculty at the time of his death. Although skilful in every branch of the Medical Sciences, for many years his attention was given to DISEASES OF THE LUNGS, in the treatment of which he proved himself the most successful Physician who ever practiced in New England."

This medicine was first compounded and made use of by him, and is substantially the same great agent by means of which he accomplished so many wonderful cures of Pulmonary Disease. Its efficacy having been most thoroughly tested, in thousands of cases, by an eminent Physician, all we can say in its praise must, of course, be superfluous. It is offered to the public in its present form, with the most implicit confidence in its powers—a confidence based not wholly upon the above, but upon actual trials of its virtues, the testimony of hundreds of our citizens in its favor and a knowledge of its ingredients severally considered, as regards their curative properties. Its formula has been submitted to several of the most distinguished chemists in this country, who unite in pronouncing it "A beautiful combination of the most reliable and valuable remedial agents used in treating diseases of the Lungs and other Respiratory Organs."

Unlike all other medicines of the same nature, it immediately allays the cough, and so opates on the blood as to remove the Cause, thus effecting a permanent cure. In this respect it is infinitely superior to all other preparations. By its use the strength of the patient is sustained, tone and vigor imparted to the system, the blood purified, disease arrested, and a healthy action of all the organs attained. In compounding it, the greatest care is observed, every bottle being separately prepared with chemical accuracy, in uniform strength, and in strict accordance with the original recipe. No poisonous drugs are used to give it a beautiful color, and impair its virtues, as in nearly all other Cough Medicines, and in every instance the patient can rely on its doing all that medicine can do.

To secure the public against counterfeits, we have the bottles made expressly for us, with the words "DR. BURLEIGH SMART'S COUGH MEDICINE, SHAW & CLARK, BIDDEFORD, ME., U. S. A." blown in the glass. Every bottle is enclosed in a wrapper of red enameled paper, printed in the English, French, Spanish and German languages, from a costly engraved plate, of which the copyright has been secured. An inside wrapper, containing full directions for using the Medicine, and a valuable treatise on Diseases of the Lungs, with directions for the cure of Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis and Consumption, compiled from the most reliable medical authorities by a distinguished physician, also accompanying each bottle.

Harrison's Columbian Ink, Black.
FOR the National Government, State Legislatures, Courts of Record, Banks, Railroads, Post Offices, Insurance Offices, Editors, Authors, Lawyers, Doctors, Clergymen, Commercial and Business men of every sort, Colleges, Academies and Schools, and that great class who sustain all, the Farmers—the GREAT INK of the country. 644,553 bottles sold in 1854, is significant that the AMERICAN PEOPLE appreciate THE AMERICAN INK, made by HARRISON THE AMERICAN MANUFACTURER, and determine its great superiority over all foreign Inks. It is at wholesale and retail by d10 GEO. W. TOWLE, 3 Congress Block.

Harrison's Blue Black Writing Fluid.
PROGRESS in the arts has revealed a Writing Fluid which does not, as other Writing Fluids do destroy the points of gold pens, actively corrode steel pens, or chemically decompose the paper or its coloring. I have seen paper where every letter written with English Fluids was eaten entirely through, and a delicate blue tint changed to a dirty yellow. The best make of gold pens have been condemned for losing their points, and the best manufactures of paper returned upon the dealer, where these Fluids were extensively used. Harrison's Fluid is subject to none of these evils. It writes a beautiful blue, and soon turns a jet black, and remains permanent HARRISON'S is AMERICAN, made by an AMERICAN, and worthy the use of all Americans. It is wholesaled and retailed by d10 GEO. W. TOWLE, 3 Congress Block.

G. W. STONE'S
Cough, Consumption, and Bronchitis ELIXIR.
THE Proprietor would respectfully call the attention of the public to his invaluable Remedy for all Affections of the Throat and Lungs and begs of those who are undecided what to select, from the numerous medicines advertised, and recommended for such complaints, to give his ELIXIR a trial. Having done so, they will no longer hesitate what to take themselves, or recommend to others A single trial will prove to them that this is the most valuable remedy ever discovered for the various affections of the Throat and Lungs; it will immediately relieve the most violent Cough, and in a few hours completely cure the most severe Cold. As a Preventive and Cure for Consumption, it has no equal.—It is purely Vegetable, contains no poisonous ingredients, is quite agreeable to the taste, and may be given with perfect safety to the most delicate child. The numerous testimonials received almost daily from those who have been cured by it, fully justify the assertion that no family should be without this Medicine: let Mothers give it to their Children who have the Whooping Cough or Croup, and they will alleviate at once the sufferings of their little ones. Price 50 cts.
Call for G. W. Stone's Cough Elixir, and see that his name, and Cough Elixir, with the words Boston, Mass, are blown upon the Bottle, without which none will be genuine.

Morning Chronicle.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 11, 1856.

STATE OF THE CASE.

The Washington Union of Jan. 8, says:

At a meeting of democratic members of Congress in the hall of the House of Representatives, on the evening of the 7th of January, 1855, the following resolution was adopted:—

Resolved, That we will adhere to our platform and nominee, and will vote (when the House next assembles) against all motions for a recess or to adjourn until a Speaker shall be elected.

If the reader will look over the doings of Congress on the 9th, which was the next meeting, he will see that a major vote laid on the table a plurality rule—and then, after three votings, (miscalled ballots,) remained in session at 11 P. M., and at 1 A. M.

This looks as if the members of that Caucus kept their word, and as if they expected, or at least hoped, to carry their point.

Next, look at the following item from the Boston Post.

Horace Greely writing from Washington says—"Let the country understand most distinctly that there is not a real majority in the house opposed to the principle and the policy embodied in Douglas' Nebraska bill." And is this the result of all the "glorious triumphs of freedom," in 1854!

To this question we answer No: this is the result of the triumphs of slavery in Congress and in the Executive at Washington. The triumphs of freedom in 1854 were among the people and the States—not in the infected district.

Many battles have been fought on that same ground, between slavery and freedom—and the latter has rarely gained a victory there, never a triumph.

There have been finalities, and compromises made there, by and for slavery—and they have been there violated and annulled, by and for slavery.

The National Intelligencer has a letter from a former member of Congress of high character, residing in a patriotic state of the Atlantic section. He places the blame of the delay of organization on the administration party, and he argues the case with great force; but the Intelligencer differs with him in awarding all the blame to one party, and thinks that it is shared in a greater or less degree by all; and says:—

The members of the House do not deny the general delinquency of the failure to elect, but they differ as to the particular party or faction on which the responsibility properly rests, each throwing it from his own shoulders to those of the others. Who is to blame is the true question. In our humble judgment all parties are to blame for the obstinacy with which each has so persistently adhered, and to all appearance so hopelessly adhered, to their respective candidates.

Now it strikes us that no man is to blame for his honest preference bestowed either on a party or a principle. If ten men or a hundred men really believe that slavery is a blessing to be sought, and an institution to be cherished, why should they not vote in that way?—once, twice, or an hundred times—yes, till they are outvoted, and voted down. We have no sympathy with this opinion, but if any man can believe it, and we think some can—then by all means let him vote as he thinks.

On the other hand, if ten men or a hundred believe slavery to be a calamity and a curse, to be endured no longer than it must be, and to be thrown off at the earliest day possible—shall we blame these men for nailing the flag of liberty to the mast, and going down with it when it sinks? Surely we shall not. We may not have the needful nerve for martyrdom in propria personæ. But when a bondman flees from his oppressor, or when a freeman strikes back at the lordling who would strike him down—our pulses, beat they ever so faintly, are always sure to beat in favor of freedom.

And then, if there be third parties, or parties in any number, formed on honest preferences—why should I blame that third party man for being exactly as obstinate as I am?

Nothing need be said here, of the dishonest, the trickish, of those who sell themselves for place, or power or pell—for they, though they may have opinions, certainly have no sound principle. We do not say that any such men as these are to be found in the present House—but we do say, that if there are just enough of them, slavery will buy them at a large price.

How this may turn out, we have yet to see; but whatever the present result may be, there is no finality in any compromise on the subject. Freedom and slavery can never agree: the latter is restless: and must either kill its antagonist or commit suicide.

SERVANT HIRING.—In Richmond, Va., servants both male and female, are commanding higher prices this year than the past. Messrs. Doswell & Jones had a hiring at the court house of Henrico county yesterday, which was largely attended. Farm hands brought from $130 to $163, and women from $40 to $75 per year. Factory hands have an advance of about fifteen per cent on last year, and first rate female cooks of good character and without incumbrance have advanced even above the ratio.—Dispatch.

DREADFUL WICKEDNESS.

The New Hampshire Patriot says:

They draw, or attempt to draw, a distinction between the black republicans and the abolitionists, by claiming that, while the latter will not allow of slavery any where, the former will not allow of any more. The abolitionists attack slavery everywhere, the black republicans everywhere except in the present slave states.

We have often said that this attempted distinction was a mere pretence, and Mr Henry J. Raymond, a leader of the black republicans, the editor of the New York Daily Times, and Lieutenant Governor of New York, in his recent lecture in Boston, frankly admitted, in the following words, that the objects and aims of the black republicans and abolitionists are identical. He said that "We had now therefore the right to say that, when we had the power in government, we should abolish slavery in every part of the States, whether North or South." "To abolish slavery in every part of the States"—that is the entertainment to which Seward, Raymond, Hale, Chase and Giddings invite the American people! * * *

The repeal of the Missouri restriction, even if it were ten thousand times as bad as represented, is as nothing in comparison with the principles the black republicans avow, the ends they propose—nothing in the vastness of the evils to result, the atrocious wickedness of the objects sought.

Reader! Reader!! wake up! Isn't it dreadful to think of, that these black rascals, the Republicans, should dare to lift a finger or speak a word against the blessed institution!

Freemen of New Hampshire, awake to defend negro slavery against the combined attacks of those abolitionists, Jefferson and Giddings, Madison and Seward, Jay and Hale, Franklin and Williamson.

What a dreadful thing it would be, if a Republican Congress should abolish slavery in the District of Columbia; if a Republican majority of the Virginians should abolish it in Virginia; if a Republican majority in Maryland and Delaware should abolish it in those States! This we presume is precisely what Raymond means—but isn't it dreadful?—Would not New Hampshire secede from the Union right off?

"To abolish slavery in every part of the States!" Will our people reflect a moment upon the objects sought? Will they recall the great legal truth that slavery is an institution guaranteed by the constitution to fifteen states of the republic, by obligations as old as the country, as strong as the common struggle and common triumph of the revolution could make compacts or obligations or constitutions?

Slavery an Institution guaranteed in the Constitution! Mr Madison would not have the word Slavery there: he was ashamed of it! By the way, does not the Declaration of Independence also guarantee slavery, as well as the Constitution?

Will the men of New Hampshire make the case of the South in this relation their own, and then ask themselves if they, with arms in their hands, with a military force so equal to that of their oppressors that the fortunes of civil war would depend alone upon God's gift of a Great Captain to take the command—would consent to be degraded, trampled upon and despoiled of their institutions by sixteen other states! Will they say whether, if this black republican party succeeds with such principles and such purposes, civil war can be avoided, or disunion fail to become an awful reality?

Awful! Isn't it? Only think of General Garrison with an army of black republicans from the south, marching down or rather up into New Hampshire to free our negroes and make slaves of the white men.

What will become of our Institutions, if slavery should happen to be abolished? If the sky should fall, what would become of the larks?

DISCHARGED.—We learn from the Dover Enquirer, that the Justices who have been trying the poisoning case at Farmington, came in last Friday and discharged the prisoners, Jeremiah Ricker and Mary Johnson, nothing sufficient to hold them to answer further, having been proved against them.

There was a general rejoicing at the result, and nearly all present thought it a righteous decision. At the commencement of the examination there was a pretty general belief or fear that one or both of the accused were guilty, but as the investigation proceeded and as the truth came out, the current changed, most citizens who at first believed the parties guilty, are more strongly impressed with the belief of their entire innocence.

A tattling gossip told distorted stories of the probable murder of Mrs. Ricker—but the testimony on the examination has dispelled suspicion, and induced the belief that the poor woman committed suicide.

☞ The Boston Almanac for 1856, is published by Damrell & Moore, and George Coolidge, of that ilk. It is a neat little volume, containing calendar pages, a business directory, statistics, and lots of advrtisements. Also views of sevral fine buildings. It is a convenient book of reference for all connected, by trade or otherwise, with Boston.

MEADVILLE THEOLOGICAL SCHOOL.—We have received the Annual catalogue of this Seminary, in which are three Professors formerly ministering in this State, viz: Rev. Messrs. David Millard, Nathaniel S. Folsom, and A. A. Livermore.

LOCAL.

MUSICAL CONVENTION.

The morning session, on Thursday, in Hanover Street Chapel, was well attended. An excellent rehearsal was had, and a valuable lecture was given by Prof. Baker, on the cultivation of musical talent.

The afternoon session was held in the Temple; and consisted chiefly of critical rehearsals for the Concert in the evening.

The Association was called to order by the President at 4 o'clock; to hear the report of their Committee of nomination, &c.

A Constitution was adopted, (which we shall publish at an early day,) and the following board of officers elected for the ensuing year:—

President,—John Christie, Portsmouth.
Vice President—Amos Pearson, Portsmouth.
Secretary and Treasurer—Frank W. Miller, Ports.
Executive Committee.
John P. Payson, Edmund M. Brown, Wingate N. Illsley, } Portsmouth,
John T. Gordon, J. Henry Folsom, J. S. Robinson, } Exeter,
Eben'r Joy, New Market,
A. K. Poor, Raymond,
Joshua P. Drake, North Hampton,
T. B. Bartlett, Nottingham,
Albion Parsons, Rye.

A vote was passed, that all the clergymen of this city be invited to act as a committee to draft a series of Resolutions for the adoption of the Association—the Pastor longest settled here, who may be present at the Concert on Friday evening, to be invited to act as chairman, and the the committee to report at that time.

At the close of the Concert, Thursday evening, it was voted that all unfinished business be laid over to Friday afternoon, at 4 o'clock.

The Association voted to remain in Convention through Friday, and to give a second Concert (with change of programme) on Friday evening, at the Temple. The price of tickets is to be 15 cents.

THE CONCERT at the Temple, on Thursday evening, by the Rockingham County Musichl Association, was in every respect successful and satisfactory. Upwards of one hundred and fifty singers and players took part in the performances, which were well received by the large and discriminating audience. Prof. Baker is a model teacher and conductor, and nowhere appears to better advantage than when waving the baton at a concert.

The choruses generally were given with spirit and accuracy—to hear the last alone being worth double the price of admission. Some of the songs and glees were finely rendered; but we have not time at present to particularize.

It will be seen that the Association give another Concert this evening, with a new programme. Tickets reduced to 15 cents.

COURT OF COMMON PLEAS.

THURSDAY, Jan. 10.

The case Daniels vs Brown et als is suspended till the termination of Ellis.

No. 415. Jerry Leary et ux vs. Edward Flynn et ux is now on trial. This is an action of trespass. Plaintiff claims $2000 damages. Hatch & Goodall for Plffs. Hackett for Defts.

[This is properly a case of assault and battery between two Irish families living in one house—neither of which could probably pay $20 damages if assessed. The plaintiff, Leary, is the same man on whom a battery was made, for which a policeman of this city was heavily mulcted in a fine and costs.]

☞ We are requested by the Executive Committee of the Old Folks' Choir, to state that the rehearsal appointed for this evening, is postponed till further notice,—on account of the Concert by the Musical Association.

☞ The Ladies' Repository for Jan. 1856, is before us. It is a literary and religious monthly magazine, edited by Rev. Henry Bacon, and published by Abel Tompkins, Boston. Contents:—A Universalist of Cromwell's Time; Shadows; My First Party; To Seem and to Be; The Good Man's Grave; The Christmas Tree; Love in the Sunday School; Tarpia, a Legend of Ancient Rome; A Pastor's Memories; The Child of Faith Sees God; The Power of Tradition; To H.; The Wrecked Ship; Margaret; The Bridal Wreath; Letters from Abroad; The Preacher's Theme; The Eloquent Pastor; The Editor's Table.

☞ The Universalist Quarterly and General Review, for Jan. 1856, is the first number of Vol. 13. Its contents are:—Newman's Hebrew Monarchy; The Chief Appeal of Religion; Skepticism: its Causes; its Cure; The Condition and Prospects of Freedom; Heathen Views of the Punishment of Sin; Literary Notices.

The titles of the articles are a key to their character. Art. 2, the Chief Appeal of Religion, by Rev. T. S. King; and Art. 4, the Condition and prospects of Freedom; are particularly interesting.

Abel Tompkins, publisher, 40 Cornhill, Boston.

Queen Victoria is partly insane, and has to be kept in continual motion. She is jealous of Prince Albert. She has, also, given the French Empress Eugenia some important domestic hints.

PANORAMA ALMANACS for sale by JOSEPH H. FOSTER.

CONGRESS.

WEDNESDAY, Jan. 9

The Senate was not in session.

HOUSE.—In the House to-day, Mr Smith of Tennessee, defended the democratic party and the President from the charge that they are responsible for the non-organization of the House.

Mr Whitney defended the 12th section of the Philadelphia platform, declaring that the American party was not against individuals, but against systems and principles of the Romish church.

Mr Knight offered a resolution, providing for the election of a Speaker by a plurality vote. Laid on the table by 11 majority.

The House then proceeded to take the 99th ballot, with the following result;—

Necessary for a choice 108.

During the voting, various gentlemen defined their positions, vainly endeavoring to draw from Mr Banks whether he is now a member of the American order.

After some personal explanation between Campbell of Ohio, and Giddings, two more ballots were had, the last of which stood as follows:

Necessary to a choice 100

Mr Galoway read a despatch from the Republican and American Senators in the Ohio Legislature approving the course of the majority of the Ohio Congressional delegation.

HOUSE, Continued.—At one o'clock this morning Mr Paine made an ineffectual motion to place Orr, and subsequently Smith of Alabama, temporarily in the chair, until a Speaker is elected.

A discussion, involving the merits of Know Nothingism and Catholicism, and other subjects, ensued.

Two additional votes were had.

Motions to adjourn, with much confusion, followed. A recriminating discussion ensued as to which party belonged the responsibility of the non-organization of the House, at the close of which, at half past eight, the House adjourned to Friday by ten majority.

VETERAN CONVENTION.—Washington, Jan. 9.—At last evening's session of the Convention of soldiers of 1812, George Washington Parke Custis delivered an address. Resolutions were adopted expressive of the opinion that the government is under the most solemn pledge to carry out the promises of the Continental Congress regarding the provision for officers of the revolutionary army. It was also resolved that it was due to the memory of James Madison that an appropriate statue be erected to him in Washington.

A resolution was adopted, that the members of the convention wear crape on their left arm for thirty days, in memory of those who have died since the last convention. A committee of seven was appointed, to present the resolutions to Congress.

The Veterans in a body attended the celebration of the Battle of New Orleans, prepared by the Jackson Association.

The Old Soldier's Convention reassembled this morning. A resolution was adopted for the appointment of a Committee, to consist one from each State, to frame a constitution for the United Brothers of the War of 1812, into which the Convention resolved. Eloquent addresses were afterwards delivered by General Sutherland and Judge Woodward, who spoke in favor of Invalid Pensions. The Convention then adjourned, to meet in Washington on the 8th day of January next.

LOSS OF LIVES.—Poughkeepsie, Jan. 9.—The express train from Albany for New York stopped just below here this afternoon, on account of a defect in the track, and was run into with great force by the Poughkeepsie train, which was bound in the same direction. Two cars of the former train were entirely demolished. Three persons were killed, one of whom was Mrs Green of Utica, the other two a young man and woman, names unknown. Twenty-two were more or less injured—several not expected to recover. Amongst the wounded are Mr and Mrs Roberts and three children, of Albany; Mrs Campbell of Utica, slightly; H. Emmons of Vernon, Oneida county, slightly; Mrs Oscar Hull of New Haven, slightly; Capt Schouler of Albany, badly but not dangerously; George Kloss of Madison county, Ohio, severely; George Harrington of Washington, face scalded and otherwise injured; Daniel Lord of New York, slightly; James Sadlum of New York, slightly, and others, names unknown.

NEW YORK, Jan. 6.—The Tribune's Washington correspondent telegraphs—A decisive step has been taken relative to British enlistments. The long correspondence on the subject between the two governments has been closed by an elaborate and conclusive dispatch to Mr Buchanan, sent last Saturday, requiring the British government to recall Mr Crampton, or leaving the alternative of the administration giving him his passports here. The same paper signifies distinctly the revocation of the exequatures of Consuls Barclay at New York, Mathew at Philadelphia, and Raycraft at Cincinnati, who were implicated in the enlistments.

LATER FROM HAYTI.—New York, Jan. 10.—Advices from Cape Haytien to Dec. 20, announce that nearly the whole male population had been marched off to join Soulouque's army, which was reported to be 30,000 strong, and to be marching against St. Jago. The edict of the Emperor, discontinuing the cutting of mahogany, was strictly enforced.—There was no sickness at the Cape. Provisions dull. Four American vessels were left there.

FIRE AT NEWPORT.—Providence, Jan. 9.—The Touro House, at Newport, belonging to Charles Devens, Jr., together with two dwelling houses adjoining, belonging to Robert D. Coggeshall and Mrs Geoffry, were destroyed by fire last night about 11 o'clock. The Touro House was insured in this city for $10,000.

PITTSBURG, Jan. 9.—Bingham, American, was elected mayor to-day by a plurality vote, over the democratic and fusion candidates.

CITY LIVERY STABLE.

NATHAN JONES would most respectfully announce to his friends and the public, that having fitted a commodious Stable and Office, No. 8 1-2 Vaughan street, procured a stock of the best Horses, and new Carriages and Harnesses, he is ready to furnish as good and safe teams as can be found in the city, at reasonable rates.

The Following Opinions,

IN regard to MASON & HAMLIN'S Model MELODEON are from distinguished Musicians:

(From Lowell Mason.)

After having carefully examined the Melodeons of Messrs Mason & Hamlin, I am enabled to say that in my opinion they are decidedly superior to any others with which I am acquainted.

New York, July 1, 1854 LOWELL MASON.

(From Geo. F. Root.)

Henry Mason, Esq., Dear Sir.—Having had one opportunity of examining Mason & Hamlin's Model Melodeons, I am happy to bear testimony to their great excellence. In general characteristics, and especially in quality and uniformity of tone and voicing, they seem to me to be superior to any that I have yet examined.

Yours very truly, GEO. F. ROOT.

New York, May 25th, 1854.

(From Edwin Bruce.)

Dear Sir:—I have examined your Model Melodeons with much satisfaction, and am prepared to express my confident opinion that they are the most perfect instruments manufactured.

Yours, &c., EDWIN BRUCE.

Singer's Sewing Machines.

THESE Machines have long sustained the highest reputation in the United States.

The First Prize—A Gold Medal,

Has recently been awarded to them at the Palace of Industry in Paris, and thus they have the WORLD'S VERDICT OF SUPERIORITY.

The inventor has just added to these superior Machines an improvement whereby they can work on any kind of

FAMILY SEWING,

They will also Bar and close all kinds of Kid Boots and Shoes, and stitch the finest Gaiter Boots in every part without a skip—making them the most desirable for girls to use at home, or for any who wish to do more than one kind of work.

These Machines are warranted to do all kinds of work in a manner far superior to any other machine in use.

They run without noise, with ease to the Operator, and at double the ordinary speed, so that

Twice as much Work can be done in a Day.

The greatest Shoe Manufacturing and Clothing Establishments in the country use these Machines exclusively, having tried other Machines and found them entirely unfit for their use.

They are simple, and cost scarcely anything to to keep them in repair; and can be operated by a child twelve years old.

These Machines may be had at Manufacturers' prices, of

THOMAS S. NOWELL,

Local Agent for New Hampshire, at his Shoe Manufactory, McDonough street, Portsmouth, where they may be seen in operation. d29

G. W. STONE'S

LIQUID CATHARTIC, AND

Family Physic,

The most important discovery ever made in Medical Science, being a compound of Barks and Roots, which forms the most powerful, safe and agreeable Physic ever offered to the public.

THE necessity of such a Medicine has long been felt both by the heads of families and Physicians. Its advantages over cathartic given in the form of Pills or Powders, must be obvious to every intelligent person. It operates more immediately and effectually upon the system, and at the same time is infinitely less difficult to administer, being quite agreeable to the taste. It not only produces all the effects where physic is required, but completely removes habitual Costiveness, leaving the bowels perfectly free. It expels all humors from the blood, is a certain cure for the Piles, regulates the action of the Liver, frees the Stomach from Bile, invigorates the whole Nervous System, and removes the cause of all local pains, such as

It may also be relied upon in all diseases of the Bowels; Dysentery, Diarrhœa and Cholera Morbus yield at once to its magic influence. Again we repeat, TRY IT!—it needs no other recommendation. No family will be without it after they have properly tested its merits. Reader, if you have tried other remedies, without success, despair not—relief is now at hand. Are you suffering with Scrofula, six bottles of my Liquid Cathartic will cure you. Would you be relieved from habitual Costiveness?—three bottles will effect all that you desire. If you are afflicted with Rheumatic, Neuralgic, or other local pains, two bottles will free you from them. All humors will be eradicated from the blood by the use of from one to six bottles. In short, I feel confident in saying for any purpose, this is the most reliable, safe and agreeable to the taste that has ever been placed within the reach of the public.

PRICE $1.00.

DR. J. W. POLAND'S

HEADACHE KILLER!

PREPARED BY

DR. J. W. POLAND

Goffstown Centre, N. H.

THIS Wonderful Medicine for the Sick and Nervous HEADACHE, as well as for Tic Doloreux, Neuralgia and all forms of Nervous Diseases, after an impartial trial of more than six years, has established itself as a Standard Remedy. Other Headache Remedies have "waxed and waned" since this was introduced to the public, but the Genuine DR. POLAND'S HEADACHE KILLER has been, and is now increasing in sales every month.

Within three months, more than seven tons in weight of the Headache Killer have been sent over the Railroads to fill orders for it.

Please to read the Circular, which the Agents have, and you will get the history of the Medicine.

☞ Price Fifty cents a Bottle.

Patents.

AMERICAN AND FOREIGN OFFICE.

Agency for business with US Patent Office, Washington, 76 State st, oppo. Kilby st, Boston.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO INVENTORS. The Subscriber, late Assistant Examiner of the U. S. Patent Office, under the Act of 1837) determined to present advantages in applying for Patents, superior to those offered inventors by others, has made arrangements whereby on application prepared and conducted by him, THIRTY DOLLARS (instead of twenty, as paid back by others,) will be remitted by him in case of failure to obtain a patent, and the withdrawal through him within thirty days after the rejection. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments and all necessary papers and drawings, for procuring patents in this and foreign countries prepared, and advice rendered on legal and scientific matters respecting inventions, and infringement of patents.

Inventors can not easily here obtain their specifications on the most reasonable terms, (generally about $50 per cent less than others in the profession,) but can here avail themselves of the experience of 10 years' practice, his visits to the Patent Office, an extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and correct accounts of patents granted in this and other countries; besides being saved a journey to Washington, the usual great delay there, as well as all personal trouble in obtaining their patents. Copies of claims of any patent furnished by remitting one dollar.—Assignments recorded at Washington. Patents in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries, secured through agents of the highest respectability.

R. H. EDDY,

Solicitor of Patents.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent Office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,

Late Commissioner of Patents."

From the present Commissioner.

AUGUST 17, 1855.—During the time I have held the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq. of Boston, has been extensively engaged in the transaction of business with the Office, as a Solicitor. He is thoroughly acquainted with the law, and the rules of practice of the Office. I regard him as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse.

DR. BURLEIGH SMART'S

Cough Medicine.

DR. BURLEIGH SMART, of Kennebunk, Me., the well known throughout the New England States, as a Physician whose treatment of Lung Diseases was attended with almost miraculous success. Very few Physicians ever enjoyed a more enviable reputation, or acquired a more extended practice. The Medical Journal, in speaking of him soon after his death, says:

"A man liberally educated, of acute perception, superior judgment, untiring perseverance, and ardently devoted to his profession, Dr. Burleigh Smart was eminently worthy of the enviable position which he held in the estimation of the Medical Faculty at the time of his death. Although skillful in every branch of the Medical Sciences, for many years his attention was given to DISEASES OF THE LUNGS, in the treatment of which he proved himself the most successful Physician who ever practiced in New England."

This medicine was first compounded and made use of by him, and is substantially the same great agent by means of which he accomplished so many wonderful cures of Pulmonary Disease. Its efficacy having been most thoroughly tested, in thousands of cases, by an eminent Physician, all we can say in its praise must, of course, be superfluous. It is offered to the public in its present form, with the most implicit confidence in its powers—a confidence based not wholly upon the above, but upon actual trials of its virtues, the testimony of hundreds of our citizens in its favor and a knowledge of its ingredients severally considered, as regards their curative properties. Its formula has been submitted to several of the most distinguished chemists in this country, who unite in pronouncing it "A beautiful combination of the most reliable and valuable medicinal agents used in treating diseases of the Lungs and other Respiratory Organs."

Unlike all other medicines of the same nature, it immediately allays the Cough, and so operates on the Blood as to cure the disease, thus effecting a permanent cure. In this respect it is infinitely superior to all other preparations. By its use the strength of the patient is sustained, tone and vigor imparted to the system, the blood purified, disease subverted, and a healthy action of all the organs attained. In compounding it, the greatest care is observed, every bottle being separately prepared with chemical accuracy, of uniform strength, and in strict accordance with the original recipe. No poisonous drugs are used to give it a beautiful color, and impair its virtues, as in nearly all other Cough Medicines, and in every instance the patient can rely on its doing all that medicine can do.

To secure the public against counterfeits, we have the bottles made expressly for us, with the words "DR. BURLEIGH SMART'S COUGH MEDICINE, SHAW & CLARK, BIDDEFORD, ME., U. S. A." blown in the glass. Every bottle is enclosed in a wrapper of red enameled paper, printed in the English, French, Spanish and German languages, from a costly engraved plate, of which the copyright has been secured. An inside wrapper, containing full directions for using the Medicine, and a valuable treatise on Diseases of the Lungs, with directions for the cure of Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis and Consumption, compiled from the most reliable medical authorities by distinguished physicians, is also accompanying each bottle.

Harrison's Columbian Ink, Black.
FOR the National Government, State Legislatures, Courts of Record, Banks, Railroads, Post Offices, Insurance Offices, Editors, Authors, Lawyers, Doctors, Clergymen, Commercial and Business men of every sort, Colleges, Academies and Schools, and that great class who sustain all, the Farmers—the GREAT INK of the country. 644,573 bottles sold in 1854, is significant that the AMERICAN PEOPLE appreciate THE AMERICAN INK, made by HARRISON the AMERICAN MANUFACTURER, and determine its great superiority over all foreign inks. It is at wholesale and retail by d10 GEO. W. TOWLE, 3 Congress Block.

Harrison's Blue Black Writing Fluid.
PROGRESS in the arts has revealed a Writing Fluid which does not, as other Writing Fluids do destroy the points of gold pens, actively corrode steel pens, or chemically decompose the paper or its coloring. I have seen paper where every letter written with English Fluids was eaten entirely through, and a delicate blue tint changed to a dirty yellow. The best make of gold pens have been condemned for losing their points, and the best manufactures of paper returned upon the dealer, where these Fluids were extensively used. Harrison's Fluid is subject to none of these evils. It writes a beautiful blue, and soon turns a jet black, and remains permanent. HARRISON'S AMERICAN, made by an AMERICAN, and worthy the use of all Americans. It is wholesaled and retailed by d10 GEO. W. TOWLE, 3 Congress Block.

G. W. STONE'S
Cough, Consumption, and Bronchitis ELIXIR.
THE Proprietor would respectfully call the attention of the public to his invaluable Remedy for all Affections of the Throat and Lungs and begs of those who are undecided what to select, from the numerous medicines advertised, and recommended for such complaints, to give his ELIXER a trial. Having done so, they will no longer hesitate what to take themselves, or recommend to others. A single trial will prove to them that this is the most valuable remedy ever discovered for the various affections of the Throat and Lungs; it will immediately relieve the most violent Cough, and in a few hours completely cure the most severe Cold. As a Preventive and Cure for Consumption, it has no equal.—It is purely Vegetable, contains no poisonous ingredients, is quite agreeable to the taste, and may be given with perfect safety to the most delicate child. The numerous testimonials received almost daily from those who have been cured by it, fully justify the assertion that no family should be without this Medicine: let Mothers give it to their Children when they have the Whooping Cough or Croup, and they will alleviate at once the sufferings of their little ones. Price 50 cts.
Call for G. W. Stone's Cough Elixir, and see that his name, and Cough Elixir, with the words Boston, Mass., are blown upon the Bottle, without which none will be genuine.

Morning Chronicle.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 11, 1856.

STATE OF THE CASE.

The Washington Union of Jan. 8, says:

At a meeting of democratic members of Congress in the hall of the House of Representatives, on the evening of the 7th of January, 1855, the following resolution was adopted:—

Resolved, That we will adhere to our platform and nominee, and will vote (when the House next assembles) against all motions for a recess or to adjourn until a Speaker shall be elected.

If the reader will look over the doings of Congress on the 9th, which was the next meeting, he will see that a major vote laid on the table a plurality rule—and then, after three votings, (miscalled ballots,) remained in session at 11 P. M., and at 1 A. M.

This looks as if the members of that Caucus kept their word, and as if they expected, or at least hoped, to carry their point.

Next, look at the following item from the Boston Post.

Horace Greely writing from Washington says—"Let the country understand most distinctly that there is not a real majority in the house opposed to the principle and the policy embodied in Douglas' Nebraska bill." And is this the result of all the "glorious triumphs of freedom," in 1854!

To this question we answer No: this is the result of the triumphs of slavery in Congress and in the Executive at Washington. The triumphs of freedom in 1854 were among the people and the States—not in the infected district.

Many battles have been fought on that same ground, between slavery and freedom—and the latter has rarely gained a victory there, never a triumph.

There have been finalities, and compromises made there, by and for slavery—and they have been there violated and annulled, by and for slavery.

The National Intelligencer has a letter from a former member of Congress of high character, residing in a patriotic state of the Atlantic section. He places the blame of the delay of organization on the administration party, and he argues the case with great force; but the Intelligencer differs with him in awarding all the blame to one party, and thinks that it is shared in a greater or less degree by all; and says:—

The members of the House do not deny the general delinquency of the failure to elect, but they differ as to the particular party or faction on which the responsibility properly rests, each throwing it from his own shoulders to those of the others. Who is to blame is the true question. In our humble judgment all parties are to blame for the obstinacy with which each has so persistently adhered, and to all appearance so hopelessly adhered, to their respective candidates.

Now it strikes us that no man is to blame for his honest preference bestowed either on a party or a principle. If ten men or a hundred men really believe that slavery is a blessing to be sought, and an institution to be cherished, why should they not vote in that way?—once, twice, or an hundred times—yes, till they are outvoted, and voted down. We have no sympathy with this opinion, but if any man can believe it, and we think some can—then by all means let him vote as he thinks.

On the other hand, if ten men or a hundred believe slavery to be a calamity and a curse, to be endured no longer than it must be, and to be thrown off at the earliest day possible—shall we blame these men for nailing the flag of liberty to the mast, and going down with it when it sinks? Surely we shall not. We may not have the needful nerve for martyrdom in propria personæ. But when a bondman flees from his oppressor, or when a freeman strikes back at the lordling who would strike him down—our pulses, beat they ever so faintly, are always sure to beat in favor of freedom.

And then, if there be third parties, or parties in any number, formed on honest preferences—why should I blame that third party man for being exactly as obstinate as I am?

Nothing need be said here, of the dishonest, the trickish, of those who sell themselves for place, or power or pell—for they, though they may have opinions, certainly have no sound principle. We do not say that any such men as these are to be found in the present House—but we do say, that if there are just enough of them, slavery will buy them at a large price.

How this may turn out, we have yet to see; but whatever the present result may be, there is no finality in any compromise on the subject. Freedom and slavery can never agree: the latter is restless: and must either kill its antagonist or commit suicide.

SERVANT HIRING.—In Richmond, Va., servants both male and female, are commanding higher prices this year than the past. Messrs. Doswell & Jones had a hiring at the court house of Henrico county yesterday, which was largely attended. Farm hands brought from $130 to $163, and women from $40 to $75 per year. Factory hands have an advance of about fifteen per cent on last year, and first rate female cooks of good character and without incumbrance have advanced even above the ratio.—Dispatch.

DREADFUL WICKEDNESS.

The New Hampshire Patriot says:

They draw, or attempt to draw, a distinction between the black republicans and the abolitionists, by claiming that, while the latter will not allow of slavery any where, the former will not allow of any more. The abolitionists attack slavery everywhere, the black republicans everywhere except in the present slave states.

We have often said that this attempted distinction was a mere pretence, and Mr Henry J. Raymond, a leader of the black republicans, the editor of the New York Daily Times, and Lieutenant Governor of New York, in his recent lecture in Boston, frankly admitted, in the following words, that the objects and aims of the black republicans and abolitionists are identical. He said that "We had now therefore the right to say that, when we had the power in government, we should abolish slavery in every part of the States, whether North or South." "To abolish slavery in every part of the States"—that is the entertainment to which Seward, Raymond, Hale, Chase and Giddings invite the American people! * * *

The repeal of the Missouri restriction, even if it were ten thousand times as bad as represented, is as nothing in comparison with the principles the black republicans avow, the ends they propose—nothing in the vastness of the evils to result, the atrocious wickedness of the objects sought.

Reader! Reader!! wake up! Isn't it dreadful to think of, that these black rascals, the Republicans, should dare to lift a finger or speak a word against the blessed institution?

Freemen of New Hampshire, awake to defend negro slavery against the combined attacks of those abolitionists, Jefferson and Giddings, Madison and Seward, Jay and Hale, Franklin and Williamson.

What a dreadful thing it would be, if a Republican Congress should abolish slavery in the District of Columbia; if a Republican majority of the Virginians should abolish it in Virginia; if a Republican majority in Maryland and Delaware should abolish it in those States! This we presume is precisely what Raymond means—but isn't it dreadful?—Would not New Hampshire secede from the Union right off?

"To abolish slavery in every part of the States!" Will our people reflect a moment upon the objects sought? Will they recall the great legal truth that slavery is an institution guaranteed by the constitution to fifteen states of the republic, by obligations as old as the country, as strong as the common struggle and common triumph of the revolution could make compacts or obligations or constitutions?

Slavery an Institution guaranteed in the Constitution! Mr Madison would not have the word Slavery there: he was ashamed of it! By the way, does not the Declaration of Independence also guarantee slavery, as well as the Constitution?

Will the men of New Hampshire make the case of the South in this relation their own, and then ask themselves if they, with arms in their hands, with a military force so equal to that of their oppressors that the fortunes of civil war would depend alone upon God's gift of a Great Captain to take the command—would consent to be degraded, trampled upon and despoiled of their institutions by sixteen other states! Will they say whether, if this black republican party succeeds with such principles and such purposes, civil war can be avoided, or disunion fail to become an awful reality?

Awful! Isn't it? Only think of General Garrison with an army of black republicans from the south, marching down or rather up into New Hampshire to free our negroes and make slaves of the white men.

What will become of our Institutions, if slavery should happen to be abolished? If the sky should fall, what would become of the larks?

DISCHARGED.—We learn from the Dover Enquirer, that the Justices who have been trying the poisoning case at Farmington, came in last Friday and discharged the prisoners, Jeremiah Ricker and Mary Johnson, nothing sufficient to hold them to answer further, having been proved against them.

There was a general rejoicing at the result, and nearly all present thought it a righteous decision. At the commencement of the examination there was a pretty general belief or fear that one or both of the accused were guilty, but as the investigation proceeded and as the truth came out, the current changed, most citizens who at first believed the parties guilty, are more strongly impressed with the belief of their entire innocence.

A tattling gossip told distorted stories of the probable murder of Mrs. Ricker—but the testimony on the examination has dispelled suspicion, and induced the belief that the poor woman committed suicide.

☞ The Boston Almanac for 1856, is published by Damrell & Moore, and George Coolidge, of that ilk. It is a neat little volume, containing calendar pages, a business directory, statistics, and lots of advrtisements. Also views of seveal fine buildings. It is a convenient book of reference for all connected, by trade or otherwise, with Boston.

MEADVILLE THEOLOGICAL SCHOOL.—We have received the Annual catalogue of this Seminary, in which are three Professors formerly ministering in this State, viz: Rev. Messrs. David Millard, Nathaniel S. Folsom, and A. A. Livermore.

MUSICAL CONVENTION.

The morning session, on Thursday, in Hanover Street Chapel, was well attended. An excellent rehearsal was had, and a valuable lecture was given by Prof. Baker, on the cultivation of musical talent.

The afternoon session was held in the Temple; and consisted chiefly of critical rehearsals for the Concert in the evening.

The Association was called to order by the President at 4 o'clock; to hear the report of their Committee of nomination, &c.

A Constitution was adopted, (which we shall publish at an early day,) and the following board of officers elected for the ensuing year:—

President,—John Christie, Portsmouth.
Vice President—Amos Pearson, Portsmouth.
Secretary and Treasurer—Frank W. Miller, Ports.

Executive Committee.

John P. Payson,
Edmund M. Brown,
Wingate N. Illsley, } Portsmouth,
John T. Gordon,
J. Henry Folsom, } Exeter,
J. S. Robinson,
Eben'r Joy, New Market,
A. K. Poor, Raymond,
Joshua P. Drake, North Hampton,
T. B. Bartlett, Nottingham,
Albion Parsons, Rye.

A vote was passed, that all the clergymen of this city be invited to act as a committee to draft a series of Resolutions for the adoption of the Association—the Pastor longest seitled here, who may be present at the Concert on Friday evening, to be invited to act as chairman, and the the committee to report at that time.

At the close of the Concert, Thursday evening, it was voted that all unfinished business be laid over to Friday afternoon, at 4 o'clock.

The Association voted to remain in Convention through Friday, and to give a second Concert (with change of programme) on Friday evening, at the Temple. The price of tickets is to be 15 cents.

THE CONCERT at the Temple, on Thursday evening, by the Rockingham County Musichl Association, was in every respect successful and satisfactory. Upwards of one hundred and fifty singers and players took part in the performances, which were well received by the large and discriminating audience. Prof. Baker is a model teacher and conductor, and nowhere appears to better advantage than when waving the baton at a concert.

The choruses generally were given with spirit and accuracy—to hear the last alone being worth double the price of admission. Some of the songs and glees were finely rendered; but we have not time at present to particularize.

It will be seen that the Association give another Concert this evening, with a new programme. Tickets reduced to 15 cents.

COURT OF COMMON PLEAS.

THURSDAY, Jan. 10.

The case Daniels vs Brown et als is suspended till the termination of 415.

No. 415. Jerry Leary et ux vs. Edward Flynn et ux is now on trial. This is an action of trespass. Plaintiff claims $2000 damages. Hatch & Goodall for Plffs. Hackett for Defts.

[This is properly a case of assault and battery between two Irish families living in one house—neither of which could probably pay $20 damages if assessed. The plaintiff, Leary, is the same man on whom a battery was made, for which a policeman of this city was heavily mulcted in a fine and costs.]

☞ We are requested by the Executive Committee of the Old Folks' Choir, to state that the rehearsal appointed for this evening, is postponed till further notice,—on account of the Concert by the Musical Association.

☞ The Ladies' Repository for Jan. 1856, is before us. It is a literary and religious monthly magazine, edited by Rev. Henry Bacon, and published by Abel Tompkins, Boston. Contents:—A Universalist of Cromwell's Time; Shadows; My First Party; To Seem and to Be; The Good Man's Grave; The Christmas Tree; Love in the Sunday School; Tarpia, a Legend of Ancient Rome; A Pastor's Memories; The Child of Faith Sees God; The Power of Tradition; To H.; The Wrecked Ship; Margaret; The Bridal Wreath; Letters from Abroad; The Preacher's Theme; The Eloquent Pastor; The Editor's Table.

☞ The Universalist Quarterly and General Review, for Jan. 1856, is the first number of Vol. 13. Its contents are:—Newman's Hebrew Monarchy; The Chief Appeal of Religion; Skepticism: its Causes; its Cure; The Condition and Prospects of Freedom; Heathen Views of the Punishment of Sin; Literary Notices.

The titles of the articles are a key to their character. Art. 2, the Chief Appeal of Religion, by Rev. T. S. King; and Art. 4, the Condition and prospects of Freedom; are particularly interesting.

CONGRESS.

WEDNESDAY, Jan. 9

The Senate was not in session.

HOUSE.—In the House to-day, Mr Smith of Tennessee, defended the democratic party and the President from the charge that they are responsible for the non-organization of the House.

Mr Whitney defended the 12th section of the Philadelphia platform, declaring that the American party was not against individuals, but against systems and principles of the Romish church.

Mr Knight offered a resolution, providing for the election of a Speaker by a plurality vote. Laid on the table by 11 majority.

The House then proceeded to take the 99th ballot, with the following result;—

Necessary for a choice 108.

During the voting, various gentlemen defined their positions, vainly endeavoring to draw from Mr Banks whether he is now a member of the American order.

Necessaty to a choice 100

Mr Galoway read a despatch from the Republican and American Senators in the Ohio Legislature approving the course of the majority of the Ohio Congressional delegation.

HOUSE, Continued.—At one o'clock this morning Mr Paine made an ineffectual motion to place Orr, and subsequently Smith of Alabama, temporarily in the chair, until a Speaker is elected.

A discussion, involving the merits of Know Nothingism and Catholicism, and other subjects, ensued.

Two additional votes were had.

Motions to adjourn, with much confusion, followed. A recriminating discussion ensued as to which party belonged the responsibility of the non-organization of the House, at the close of which, at half past eight, the House adjourned to Friday by ten majority.

VETERAN CONVENTION.—Washington, Jan. 9.—At last evening's session of the Convention of soldiers of 1812, George Washington Parke Custis delivered an address. Resolutions were adopted expressive of the opinion that the government is under the most solemn pledge to carry out the promises of the Continental Congress regarding the provision for officers of the revolutionary army. It was also resolved that it was due to the memory of James Madison that an appropriate statue be erected to him in Washington.

A resolution was adopted, that the members of the convention wear crape on their left arm for thirty days, in memory of those who have died since the last convention. A committee of seven was appointed, to present the resolutions to Congress.

The Veterans in a body attended the celebration of the battle of New Orleans, prepared by the Jackson Association.

The Old Soldier's Convention reassembled this morning. A resolution was adopted for the appointment of a Committee, to consist one from each State, to frame a constitution for the United Brothers of the War of 1812, into which the Convention resolved. Eloquent addresses were afterwards delivered by General Sutherland and Judge Woodward, who spoke in favor of Invalid Pensions. The Convention then adjourned, to meet in Washington on the 8th day of January next.

LOSS OF LIVES.—Poughkeepsie, Jan. 9.—The express train from Albany for New York stopped just below here this afternoon, on account of a defect in the track, and was run into with great force by the Poughkeepsie train, which was bound in the same direction. Two cars of the former train were entirely demolished. Three persons were killed, one of whom was Mrs Green of Utica, the other two a young man and woman, names unknown. Twenty-two were more or less injured—several not expected to recover. Amongst the wounded are Mr and Mrs Roberts and three children, of Albany; Mrs Campbell of Utica, slightly; H. Emmons of Vernon, Oneida county, slightly; Mrs Oscar Hull of New Haven, slightly; Capt Schouler of Albany, badly but not dangerously; George Kloss of Madison county, Ohio, severely; George Harrington of Washington, face scalded and otherwise injured; Daniel Lord of New York, slightly; James Sadlam of New York, slightly, and others, names unknown.

NEW YORK, Jan. 6.—The Tribune's Washington correspondent telegraphs—A decisive step has been taken relative to British enlistments. The long correspondence on the subject between the two governments has been closed by an elaborate and conclusive dispatch to Mr Buchanan, sent last Saturday, requiring the British government to recall Mr Crampton, or leaving the alternative of the administration giving him his passports here. The same paper signifies distinctly the revocation of the exequatures of Consuls Barclay at New York, Mathew at Philadelphia, and Raycraft at Cincinnati, who were implicated in the enlistments.

LATER FROM HAYTI.—New York, Jan. 10.—Advices from Cape Haytien to Dec. 20, announce that nearly the whole male population had been marched off to join Soulouque's army, which was reported to be 30,000 strong, and to be marching against St. Jago. The edict of the Emperor, discontinuing the cutting of mahogany, was strictly enforced.—There was no sickness at the Cape. Provisions dull. Four American vessels were left there.

FIRE AT NEWPORT.—Providence, Jan. 9.—The Touro House, at Newport, belonging to Charles Devens, Jr., together with two dwelling houses adjoining, belonging to Robert D. Coggeshall and Mrs Geoffry, were destroyed by fire last night about 11 o'clock. The Touro House was insured in this city for $10,000.

PITTSBURG, Jan. 9.—Bingham, American, was elected mayor to-day by a plurality vote, over the democratic and fusion candidates.

The Following Opinions,

IN regard to MASON & HAMLIN'S Model MELODEON are from distinguished Musicians:

(From Lowell Mason.)

After having carefully examined the Melodeons of Messrs Mason & Hamlin, I am enabled to say that in my opinion they are decidedly superior to any others with which I am acquainted.

New York, July 1, 1854 LOWELL MASON.

From Geo. F. Root.)

Henry Mason, Esq., Dear Sir,—Having had one opportunity of examining Mason & Hamlin's Model Melodeons, I am happy to bear testimony to their great excellence. In general characteristics, and especially in quality and uniformity of tone and tuning, they seem to me to be superior to any that I have yet examined.

Yours very truly, GEO. F. ROOT.

New York, May 25th, 1854.

(From Edwin Bruce.)

Dear Sirs:—I have examined your Model Melodeons with much satisfaction, and am prepared to express my confident opinion that they are the most perfect instruments manufactured.

Singer's Sewing Machines.

THESE Machines have long sustained the highest reputation in the United States.

The First Prize—A Gold Medal,

Has recently been awarded to them at the Palace of Industry in Paris, and thus they have the WORLD'S VERDICT OF SUPERIORITY.

The Inventor has just added to these superior Machines an improvement whereby they can work on any kind of

FAMILY SEWING,

They will also Bar and close all kinds of Kid Boots and Shoes, and stitch the finest Gaiter Boots in every part without a skip—making them the most desirable for girls to use at home, or for any who wish to do more than one kind of work.

These Machines are warranted to do all kinds of work in a manner far superior to any other machine in use.

They run without noise, with ease to the Operator, and at double the ordinary speed, so that

Twice as much Work can be done in a Day.

The greatest Shoe Manufacturing and Clothing Establishments in the country use these Machines exclusively, having tried other Machines and found them entirely unfit for their use.

They are simple, and cost scarcely anything to keep them in repair; and can be operated by a child twelve years old.

These Machines may be had at Manufacturers' prices, of

THOMAS S. NOWELL,

Local Agent for New Hampshire, at his Shoe Manufactory, McDonough street, Portsmouth, where they may be seen in operation. d29

G. W. STONE'S

LIQUID CATHARTIC,

AND

Family Physic,

The most important discovery ever made in Medical Science, being a compound of Barks and Roots, which forms the most powerful, safe and agreeable Physic ever offered to the public.

THE necessity of such a Medicine has long been felt both by the heads of families and Physicians. Its advantages over cathartics given in the form of Pills or Powders, must be obvious to every intelligent person. It operates more immediately and effectually upon the system, and at the same time is infinitely less difficult to administer, being quite agreeable to the taste. It not only produces all the effects where physic is required, but completely removes habitual costiveness, leaving the bowels perfectly free. It expels all humors from the blood, is a certain cure for the Piles, regulates the action of the Liver, frees the Stomach from Bile, invigorates the whole Nervous System, and removes the cause of all local pains, such as

It may also be relied upon in all diseases of the Bowels; Dysentery, Diarrhœa and Cholera Morbus yield at once to its magic influence. Again we repeat, TRY IT!—it needs no other recommendation. No family will be without it after they have properly tested its merits. Reader, if you have tried other remedies, without success, despair not—relief is now at hand. Are you suffering with Scrofula, six bottles of my Liquid Cathartic will cure you. Would you be relieved from habitual Costiveness?—three bottles will effect all that you desire. If you are afflicted with Rheumatic, Neuralgic, or other local pains, two bottles will free you from them. All humors will be eradicated from the blood by the use of from one to six bottles. In short, if you require a physic for any purpose, this is the most reliable, safe and agreeable to the taste that has ever been placed within the reach of the public.

PRICE $1.00.

Agency for business with US Patent Office, Washington,

70 State st., opp. Kilby st, Boston.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO INVENTORS The Subscriber (late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, under the act of 1837) determined to practise patent agency, in applying for Patents, superior to those offered inventors by others, has made arrangements whereby on applications prepared and conducted by him, THIRTY DOLLARS (instead of twenty as paid by others,) will be remitted to him in case of failure to obtain a patent, and the withdrawal through him within thirty days after the rejection. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments and all necessary papers and drawings, for procuring patents in the U. S. and foreign countries prepared, and advice rendered on legal and other questions respecting inventions, and infringement of patents.

Inventors can not only here obtain their specifications on the most reasonable terms, (generally about 30 per cent less than others in the profession,) but can here avail themselves of the experience of 20 years' practice, his visits to the Patent Office, an extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and correct accounts of patents granted in this and other countries: besides being saved a journey to Washington, the usual great delay there, as well as all personal trouble in obtaining their patents. Copies of claims of any patent furnished by remitting one dollar.—Assignments recorded at Washington. Patents in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries, secured through agents of the highest respectability.

R. H. EDDY,

Solicitor of Patents.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent Office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States; they have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,

Late Commissioner of Patents."

From the present Commissioner.

AUGUST 17, 1855.—During the time I have held the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, has been extensively engaged in the transaction of business with the Office, as a Solicitor. He is thoroughly acquainted with the law, and the rules of practice of the Office. I regard him as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse.

CHAS. MASON,

Commissioner of Patents.

Morning Chronicle.

A SOUTH CAROLINA ISM.—Mr Boyce, of S. C., complained, in the U. S. House of Representatives, on Friday, of the formation of a party, "avowing the dogma that Freedom is national and Slavery sectional. As the Constitution recognizes slavery," Mr B. added, "if that party should ever get possession of the government, and he thought they would, disunion must follow."

If this means any thing, it means that, unless the slaveholders can rule at all hazards, and under all circumstances, they will dissolve the Union. We trust that the next President will be a man of nerve enough to deal with Disunionists after the fashion that Gen. Taylor promised. We shall hear but little of Disunionism with a man of his firmness and patriotism as the occupant of the White House. Mr Boyce is evidently not a politician of the Madison and old constitutional stamp; for it will be remembered that Mr Madison "thought it wrong to admit into the Constitution the idea that there could be property in men." But then the children of this generation are wiser than the statesmen who adopted the Declaration of Independence and framed the Constitution, in the "old fogy" times we read of!!—Salem Register.

THE PLYMOUTH ROCK.—The report that this vessel, which went ashore some days since at City Island, went to pieces last Saturday night during the storm, is untrue. Instead of proving a detriment to the vessel, the storm very materially bettered her position.—She was blown thirty feet farther on the shore from where she previously lay, and forty feet further astern, so that at present at high tide only a few feet of her hull is submerged. She lays level and perfectly easy, and by aid of ways which it is proposed to place under her at once, it is thought her safe removal can be effected within two or three days. Meanwhile some twenty of the officers and crew still remain on board. There were nearly fifty on board of her Saturday night during the storm.—New York Daily Times.

NOTICES TO MARINERS.—Harding's Ledge Bell Boat.—Notice is hereby given that the Bell Boat, near Harding's Ledge, in Boston Harbor, is missing from its station. It will be replaced by a black Nun Buoy of the 2d class, as soon as possible.

South Shoals Light Vessel.—The Nantucket New South Shoals Light Vessel will be placed at her station on or about the 25th inst. (January, 1856.) She will be moored in 14 fathoms water, about two miles south of the southern extremity of the New South Shoals of Nantucket.

This light vessel is schooner rigged, and has two lanterns, each having eight lamps and reflectors. She has also two hoop iron daymards (one at each masthead) painted red.

IMPORTANT TO SLAVE OWNERS.—A gentleman informs us that some few mornings since while standing at one of the railroad depots in this city, he saw a free negro go to the ticket office, exhibit his free papers, and then purchase a passage ticket to a neighboring town. Immediately after he saw this same negro furnish a servant with the ticket he had procured, and the slave, instead of the free negro, left on the cars. If impositions of this sort can be practiced on the railroad companies by free negroes, owners of slaves have no earthly security for their property.—Richmond Dispatch.

SEDUCTION.—The Cincinnati Sun says that for some time past charges of seduction have been under investigation against Bishop Hamline of that district. The victim is said to have been Miss Angelina Brooks, since deceased, who held a high position in Cincinnati society. The Sun says this affair promises to grow into open rupture between a portion of the Methodist Church, who believe the Bishop innocent, and those who support Rev. Mr Harlin, who prefers the charges.

HANGING IN KENTUCKY.—The Paris (Ky.) Citizen, in noticing the hanging of one Solomon Smith, for the murder of his father, says it was the third execution in the county with in the last thirteen months, and fully illustrated the positive evil of public executions. Instead of producing a subdued, solemn, and thoughtful state of feeling, it seemed to be the occasion of drinking, merriment, and riot.

Mrs Mary Boyd, while attending the funeral of her husband at Trinity Church, New York, on Thursday, had her pocket picked of a wallet containing $50.

LOVE'S DOINGS.—During the last year, Father Streeter of the First Universalist Society in Boston, united 196 couples in marriage; and during the period that he has served as pastor of the same society, he has solemnized the marriage ceremony of 2959.

A private letter, giving an account of the recent bombardment of Sweaborg, says that the men employed on the gunboats had, as is usual, their ears padded with cotton, and a few cases of deafness are reported, but all employed experienced severe pain in the chest, and in two days some of the men had not recovered their voices.

The people of Copenhagen, says the French paper in New York, are considerably excited about the Sound dues question. They fear "that the obstinate Yankees may yet want to force the passage, and thereby raise up a conflict next summer, in which the two worlds may be involved."

The father of Gen. Tom Thumb, Mr Stratton, who resided near Bridgeport, Conn., died on Friday evening. His mind has been disordered. It is understood that he acquired a fortune by the exhibition of his little general, which will now be divided between the widow, the renowned dwarf, and his two married sisters.

DEPARTURE OF NICARAGUAN RECRUITS. New York, Jan. 9.—Quite a party of fillibusters got off in the Star of the West. Previous to sailing the U S Assistant District Attorney went aboard and searched the ship, but let all passengers go except five who had no tickets. Among these is Capt. Moore, who holds a commission in the fillibuster regiment.

THE NAVY.

The Eastern Argus of the 11th, says, in speaking of the Secretary's Report on the Navy,—

We fully concur in the recommendation to increase the Navy; and we think the character of the increase suggested is equally judicious. The money expended for a few additional steam-sloops of light draft of water, would be an excellent investment. We have great faith in our merchant marine, and in the resources which we possess for improvising a Navy upon emergency. But it is better to be moderately prepared, and to avoid the losses which a want of preparation would inevitably entail at the beginning of a war.—Besides, the steady and reasonable increase of the Navy, is justly regarded by Mr Dobbin as a peace policy; because w r is never lightly undertaken against a nation of brave men, powerful, and ready for the conflict.

This is precisely the old Federal doctrine about the N vy, and precisely the reasoning in its favor, at the time of John Adams.—But this doctrine was opposed, and this reasoning set aside by Mr. Jefferson and the Republican party, who circumscribed the navy within narrow limits, and built gun boats instead. And this opposition to an increased, or considerable navy, was one of the hobbies on which the Republican party rode into power.

During the war of 1812—15, with Great Britain, the little remnant of the old navy, fought itself into favor,—and the Republicans, still in power, went on building ships.

More or less attention was paid to the building of a navy, up to, and including John Quincy Adams' administration.

In Gen. Jackson's time, the naval policy was somewhat changed, viz: from building ships to storing timber—and some ships, then on the stocks, were kept there five and twenty years, until now, we see, the building starts again, and the old Federal Naval Policy is received and endorsed.

Times change—men change—parties change.

MORAL MEANS.

The Massachusetts Temperance Committe have lately issued a Circular, in which they speak favorably of the present law, where enforced;—and think there is no call for any amendment this year;—they advise, keep it as it is,—and say:—

It seems to your committee that there is great need of a radical revival of temperance sentiment and feeling through the State. The people need to be more deeply impressed with the moral and social evils of liquor drinking, that they may be alarmed and flee from the temptation, and sympathise with all just and proper measures to restrain the tempter.

We believe that the doctrine of total abstinence from all intoxicating drinks should be preached anew, and the instrumentality of the pledge, which has been so efficient in every stage of the reform, should be again employed. However much importance may be attached to legal restraints, it must never be forgotten, that in a government where the people rule, the laws must not only be graduated to the public sense of the community, but they must be sustained by it; and even rest upon it as their only foundation and support. When society has advanced so far as to condemn in its criminal code all the crimes in the decalogue, it will not answer to close the pulpit and cease preaching the morality of the gospel and trust alone to the arm of the civil law to restrain the vices and crimes of the community. Both must go together, each sustaining and strengthening the other. Besides it is a great gain to the community when the moral sense of its members is so high that they are a law unto themselves and need no other.

To secure these desirable ends, your committee beg leave to recommend to the friends of temperance in every place where there is no active society, to organize one immediately, providing for the special employment of moral means. They believe that there are many clergymen and others among us, who from prudential considerations have stood aloof in the recent contest, that might be heartily enlisted in an enterprise of this kind, and who would render important service to the cause. Much good may be done also by the distribution of tracts and other documents. And, if we mistake not, many who belonged to former organizations need to be rebledged to total abstinence. At all events, there are multitudes of young people who have never seen a pledge that ought to be fully committed to our principles before they become corrupted with evil habits and associates. Your committee believe that such an organization, under the management of prudent and influential friends of the cause, will secure these particular objects, and greatly quicken and elevate the moral sentiments of the Commonwealth. They would only suggest further that these societies be so arranged as to admit to their fellowship and co-operation all the real friends of temperance without respect to sex or party; and that they take special pains to enlist and bring out all the lecturing talent of their respective neighborhoods during the present season.

FRANKLIN'S BIRTH DAY.—The printers of Concord propose to celebrate the 150th anniversary of the birth day of Benjamin Franklin; the printer and philosopher, on the 17th inst. We are under obligations to the Committee of Arrangements for an invitation to be present; previous engagements will prevent our attendance.

CALL DECLINED.—The Rev George A. Carnes, of West Cambridge, has declined the call of the Unitarian Society of Dover, N. H.

SOUTH CAROLINA.—Among the appropriations made by the Legislature of South Carolina is $250,000 for a new State capitol. A bill requiring naturalized citizens to reside in the State two years after naturalization, before being entitled to a vote, he also passed the South Carolina Legislature.

Please to take notice, that this restriction of suffrage is not imposed by a Know Nothing legislature—but by the model State of South Carolina,—to question whose democracy is treason—to deny it would dissolve the Union.

May South Carolina require a two years' residence before voting? And may not New Hampshire require ten or twenty? If not—why not?

COMMERCE.—The Newburyport Herald remarks:

"There is an article of commerce south, that is not so often reported, disgracing a Christian community, yet just as much an article of commerce as cotton or tobacco; viz., slaves."

This remark is made in reference to the following item:

The St. Louis News reports the sale of a lot in Ross county, Mo., on the 20th ult., as follows:

One girl 18 years old, $1006; one girl 11 years old, $725; one girl 16 years old, $955; one girl 28 years old, $670; one girl 3 years old, $210; one girl 6 years old, $451; one girl 3 years old, $310; one girl 36 years old, and child, $615; one man 40 years old, $1000; one girl 7 years old, $602; one boy ten years old, $650; one boy 13 years old, $905. There were thirteen negroes in all, sold, and brought $8009, or an average of $623.

Yet more: we have men at the north who apologize for this commerce, and who pretend to be horror stricken at the impiety and irreverence of those who denounce an institution so blessed.

THE STORM AT COLUMBIA, S. C.—A letter from Columbia of the 5th inst., states that on the previous night there occurred the heaviest storm of sleet ever known here. Everything out of doors was encased with ice an inch thick. The destruction of fruit was immense. All the telegraph lines suffered.

DOES THE WORLD HATE PIETY.—In answer to this question, the celebrated Sydney Smith says:

It is not true that the world hates piety. That modest and unobtrusive piety which fills the heart with all human charities, and makes a man gentle to others and severe to himself, is an object of universal love and veneration. But mankind hate the lust of power when it is veiled under the garb of piety; they hate cant and hypocrisy; they hate advertisers and quacks in piety; they do not choose to be insulted; they love to tear folly and impudence from the altars which should only be a sanctuary for the righteous and the good.

An interesting circumstance occurred at the recent installation of a German Lodge of Freemasons, in Boston. After the ceremonies of installation, the lodge was addressed by brother Wahbah-Goosh, a Chief of the Seven Nations, who was present in his official costume, and had watched the proceedings throughout with intense interest. The Chief spoke partly in English and partly in German, expressing his delight at what he had observed, and his best wishes for the prosperity of the Lodge. He afterwards conversed fluently with some of the members in French, and it is said he speaks two or three other European languages.

BE CAREFUL WITH COTTON DRESSES.—The editor of the New York Sunday Times mentions that, during the past week, on looking over his exchange papers, he counted no less than eleven infants, within a circle of three hundred miles, that have perished in the flames.

RESULT OF THE FUGITIVE LAW.—J. M. Chapman and his servant, Wm. Rufus Tracy, have been arrested in Chicago on a charge of kidnapping a little girl named Fanny, and selling her in Tennessee for $250. Chapman claimed to have brought the girl, who is only 5 years of age, into the State; that he owned her in Arkansas, and got Tracy to take her down to Tennessee a few weeks since, and sell her there. The case exhibits the evils of slavery in one of the worst features, in thus trading off a poor, innocent child into perpetual bondage, and doing so in a free State, thus outraging the sentiment of our people on this subject.

WASHINGTON'S BIRTHDAY.—Arrangements have been made in various sections of the country to celebrate the 22d of February, Washington's birthday; and in some of the cities it will be kept as a holiday, and all ordinary business suspended. The Republican Association at Washington have invited Hon. Charles Sumner to deliver an address before them on the anniversary, and it is reported that he will perform the service. The Newburyport Herald, in alluding to the Federal associations of former times, known as "Washington Benevolent Societies," says forty and fifty years ago there was no day more generally observed in Newburyport than the 22d of February, and seldom did it pass without an oration, poem, dinner and ball. It adds:

On one of those occasions a young lawyer, since a celebrated divine, in the heat of party feeling threw the portrait of Jefferson out of the window of Washington Hall into the street. That bitterness of feeling has now passed, and while we would do honor to all the past patriots, nothing would be more becoming in us than a suitable commemoration of the birth of him who must ever be first in the hearts of his countrymen.

HOOPS.—The Buffalo Advertiser says that a resolution has been introduced into the City Council, requesting the Trustees of the First Presbyterian Church to remove the posts at the entrance of their grounds on Main and Pearl streets to a sufficient distance to allow ladies wearing hoops to pass through. A committee of five gentlemen was appointed to report on the matter.

THE MUSICAL CONVENTION.

THE ROCKINGHAM COUNTY MUSICAL ASSOCIATION continued in Convention, at the Temple, through Friday—and closed their session with a second Concert in the evening. The exercises consisted chiefly of rehearsals for the Concert; and the interest in the Convention continued to increase to the close.—The Rochingham County Musical Association is certainly a fixed fact. Below we publish their CONSTITUTION.

Article I. This Association shall be called the Rockingham County Musical Association, whose object shall be the cultivation of Sacred and Secular Music, both instrumental and vocal.

Article 2. Any Gentleman may be a member of this Association by paying annually the sum of one dollar; and any Lady may be a member by paying annually fifty cents. The Association may also admit, by major vote, any person as an honorary member. And all clergymen in Rockingham County, shall be honorary members.

Article 3. The officers of this Association shall be, a President, Vice President, Secretary, Treasurer, and an Executive Committee, who together shall constitute a board of Directors. The Executive Committee shall at present consist of ten, but may be hereafter increased or diminished by a vote of this Association at any annual meeting.

Article 4. It shall be the duty of the President to preside at all business meetings of the Association or Board of Directors; he shall direct all musical performances, either in person or by substitution; and in case of his absence the Vice President shall act in his stead.

Article 5. The Secretary shall keep a record of all the transactions of the Association and Board of Directors.

Article 6. The Treasurer shall receive all moneys and pay them out under the direction and by the order of the President, and his accounts as well as the records of the Secretary shall always be open to the inspection of the President and Executive Committee.

Article 7. It shall be the duty of each member of the Executive Committee to use his influence for the promotion of the objects and interests of the Association.

Article 8. This Association shall meet annually in the month of January for the choice of officers, and for practice in music, (and at other times when in the opinion of the Directors it may be advisable,) at such place as the Directors may determine.

Article 9. This constitution may be altered or amended at any annual meeting, provided however that notice of any proposed amendment or alteration be published in the call for said meeting

At the close of the Concert, the following Resolutions were reported and adopted. [A note was received by the Secretary, from Rev. Dr. Burroughs, chairman of the committee on resolutions, regretting his inability to attend.]

Resolved, That the Rockingham County Musical Association, after the second excellent opportunity which we have just enjoyed, of testing the utility and pleasantness of Musical Conventions—do hereby award our highest approbation of such gatherings; as affording opportunities for, and incitements to, improvement in singing; and being seasons of the most agreeable social intercourse.

Resolved, That we renew our expressions of thanks to Prof. B. F. Baker, for the efficient, thorough, and gentlemanly manner in which he has conducted our Convention; and indulge a wish to meet him often again, in like capacity.

Resolved, That our thanks be tendered to Prof. Henderson, of Boston, for his skilful playing and gentlemanly courtesy while with us; and to Miss Carrie Baker of Portland, Me., and Miss Orne, of Topsfield, Mass., for the very important aid they have rendered throughout our Convention; especially at our Concerts;—and shall cherish the remembrance of their friendships, even longer than our musical memories retain their sweet notes.

Resolved, That the thanks of this Association be tendered to our late Board of Officers, for the complete and satisfactory manner in which they arranged for our Convention.

Resolved, That we are deeply impressed with the importance and necessity of a knowledge and appreciation of music to a complete education; and would earnestly recommend the introduction of singing lessons into all our public schools.

It was voted that the Association request their Executive Committee to call the next Convention during the the third week in August next, at Exeter.

COURT OF COMMON PLEAS.

FRIDAY, Jan. 11.

The jury in the trespass [assault and battery] case of Leary and wife vs Flynn and wife,—rendered a verdict against Flynn, giving Leary $14 damages, instead of the $2000 claimed.

Nathan Jones vs. Francis A. Berry. This was a suit to recovar $21 for a cook stove which a pedlar acting in behalf of the pltf. left with the defendant. Verdict for pltf. transferred in a question of law to S. J. Court.

Hatch for pltf., Hackett for deft.

The case Daniels vs Brown, for trespass, (carrying off a cow, &c.) was resumed, and occupied the day.

☞ The lecture before the Young Men's Christian Association, on Sunday evening, is to be by Rev. Dr. Hall, who is said to be able and eloquent. The music on the occasion is to be by a numerous union choir, with grand piano forte accompaniment.

☞ Prof. J. S. Woodman, who is advertised to lecture before the Mercantile Association on Tuesday next, is to speak on the subject of the "Environs of Paris." Mr Woodman lately resigned the Professorship of Mathematics in old Dartmouth, and is a gentleman of much practical ability and fine talent.

A man entered Whipple's Daguerreotype Saloon a few days since, and wished a daguerreotype of his uncle. "I can do it sir but where is he?" "Oh he's dead!" was the simple reply, "but I've got a description of him in an old passport."

GIVE NO PAIN.—Breathe not a sentiment, say not a word, give not an expression of the countenance that will offend another, or send a thrill of pain through his bosom. We are surrounded by sensitive hearts, which a word, a look even, might fill to the brim with sorrow. If you are careless of the opinion and expression of others, remember they are differently constituted from yourself, and never, by a word or sign, cast a shadow on a happy heart, or throw aside the smiles of joy that love to linger on a happy countenance.

The liabilities of Mr Oliver, the large ship owner in Liverpool, who failed some months since, are one million pounds, and it is found that his assets will not realize more than 2s 6d on the pound.

Great American and Foreign Office

For Securing Patents for Inventions.

Agency for business with US Patent Office, Washington,

R. H. EDDY,

No. 76 State st, oppo. Kilby st, Boston.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO INVENTORS. The Subscriber (late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, under the Act of 1837) determined to present advantages, in applying for Patents, superior to those offered inventors by others, has made arrangements whereby on applications prepared and conducted by him, THIRTY DOLLARS (instead of $50 paid back by others,) will be remitted by him in case of failure to obtain a patent, and the withdrawal through him within thirty days after the rejection.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate.—The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining patents.

Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers and Drawings necessary to the procural of patents in this and foreign countries prepared, and advice rendered on legal and scientific matters respecting inventions, or infringement of patents. All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

Copies of claims of any patent furnished for one dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington. Patents secured in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries, through Agents of the highest respectability. R. H. EDDY,

Solicitor of Patents.

Testimonials.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent Office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."

From the present Commissioner.

AUGUST 17, 1855.—During the time I have held the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, has been extensively engaged in the transaction of business with the Office, as a Solicitor. He is thoroughly acquainted with the law, and the rules of practice of the Office. I regard him as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse.

CHAS. MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

Notice.

AT a recent meeting, held by the clergymen and others in this city to see what further can be done to promote temperance, it was agreed to have a series of weekly lectures or addresses from the most able and effective speakers from abroad and from the clergymen in our city, and a Committee was chosen to make the arrangements for carrying the measure into effect.

That Committee have now to announce that they have engaged the services of the Rev. Mr. RICE, of Boston, to give the first lecture on MONDAY next, Jan. 14, at the Temple. Mr. Rice's reputation is such that the Committee can bespeak for him a full house and an interested audience.

CONGRESS.

THURSDAY, Jan. 10.

SENATE.—In the Senate to-day, several memorials from naval officers, complaining of injustice to them by the Naval Retiring Board, were presented.

Mr Brodhead of Pennsylvania concurred with the Secretary of the Navy, that a remedy may be afforded in cases where errors of judgment have deprived the country of the services of meritorious officers. He trusted the Committee on Naval Affairs would give the subject the consideration its importance merited.

Mr Mason of Virginia said the services of competent and gallant officers of his state had been dispensed with by the Naval Board.—The innocent had been confounded with the guilty.

Mr Hale of New Hampshire denounced the bill as utterly abhorrent to every principle of justice.

The action of the Naval Retiring Board was debated with considerable animation by Messrs Hale, Brodhead, Benjamin, Jones of Tennessee, Mallory and Toucy, when the subject was passed over informally, and the Senate adjourned till Monday.

2 WEEKS LATER FROM CALIFORNIA.

ARRIVAL OF THE PROMETHEUS.

NEW ORLEANS, 10th.

The steamer Northern Light sailed from San Juan 4th inst., with $600,000 in treasure.

Affairs at Nicaragua are reported progressing favorably.

Advices from California not very important.

A fillibuster expedition from San Francisco, consisting of five hundred men is reported to have landed in Lower California.

Breadstuffs at San Francisco dull; Mess Pork $35; but little business doing in any article.

From Oregon.—The news from Oregon is of a startling character. Several battles had been fought between the Indians and whites, and numbers killed on both sides. In a battle near Walla River, Capt. Bennett, Lieut. Barrows and three privates were killed and fourteen wounded. An ther battle occurred at Puget Sound, in which Lieut. Slanzhter and several others were killed.

Gen. Wood was arranging the preliminaries for a campaign at an early day.

NEW YORK, Jan. 11.—The schooner Pacific, of Washington, N. C., loaded with tar and turpentine, came ashore at about 11 o'clock last night, during a most tremendous wind and snow storm. All hands perished except the mate.

Near the same place, a foreign ship or barque has gone to pieces. All hands supposed to be lost.

NEW YORK, Jan. 10.—The intense cold which set in on Monday night continues without abatement. The East River is full of floating ice, and the docks are packed full. The ferry boats have much difficulty in crossing.

The Morning Express Train from Albany was detained two hours and a half, about three miles from Poughkeepsie, not far from the scene of the disaster yesterday. The wreck has been cleared away and the fragments piled upon either side of the track.—The little girl mentioned as injured, and unknown, has since died. She proves to be the daughter of one of the brakemen.

CHICAGO, Jan. 10.—The Wisconsin Legislature met at Madison on Monday, but, as yet, they have not organized.

Mr Barstow has been declared elected to the Governorship, but his opponent in the contest, Mr Bashford, had taken the oath of office administered to him in the Supreme Court, in order to bring the case before said Court.

BUFFALO, Jan. 10.—Snow Storm at the West.—The storm continues unabated, weather moderating. Lake shore road blocked. No train through yesterday. Train which left Cleveland on Monday is stuck in the snow 20 miles out. Five locomotives started to-day to clear the track. The Buffalo City road is also completely blocked up. Trains on Central road all behind time.

LIQUOR RIOT AT ST. JOHN, N. B.—We received a private dispatch last evening from St. John, N. B., announcing that a case under the new prohibitive liquor law had come before the courts of that city, and that great excitement had ensued. A mob had attacked the witnesses, and the trial of the case had been deferred. No further particulars are given. The new law went into effect on the 1st inst.—Boston Journal.

THE STORM AT NANTUCKET.—On Saturday evening snow commenced falling, increasing during the night to a regular "smotherer," the wind blowing violently to the eastward, and continued with unabated violence until Sunday noon. The snow drifted badly, some places to the depth of six feet, while portions of the streets were entirely bare. The narrow streets were almost impassable to pedestrians, who had to flounder and struggle hard to get along, while it was out of the question for carriages to go through those thoroughfares. Very few persons ventured out Sunday forenoon, and not a large number in the afternoon; a few restless spirits, who got housetired, straggled forth for a short time. The churches remained closed, men went unshaved; the only branch of business pursued as usual was "courting," no storm having ever yet been known sufficiently severe to interfere with this interesting pursuit. Passages were opened to the different engine houses Sunday afternoon, and on Monday men were employed by the town to make the streets passable.—Though a great quantity of snow fell last year, yet some of the knowing ones say that such a violent gale has not been experienced here for years. Fortunately, no very serious damage was done to property here; a few hundred dollars will cover the damage. The tide rose to a great height, flooding the wharves, sweeping off lumber, wood, &c.—Some of the wharves were injured.—Inquirer.

PRINTING IN RUSSIA.—The first printing office in Russia was established in 1560, but was destroyed by the people from a superstitious fear that it would cause some confusion or change in their religion.

CITY LIVERY STABLE.

The Following Opinions,

IN regard to MASON & HAMLIN'S Model MELODEON are from distinguished Musicians:

(From Lowell Mason.)

After having carefully examined the Melodeons of Messrs Mason & Hamlin, I am enabled to say that in my opinion they are decidedly superior to any others with which I am acquainted.

New York, July 1, 1854. LOWELL MASON.

(From Geo. F. Root.)

Henry Mason, Esq., Dear Sir.—Having had one opportunity of examining Mason & Hamlin's Model Melodeons, I am happy to bear testimony to their great excellence. In general characteristics, and especially in quality and uniformity of tone and tuning, they seem to me to be superior to any that I have yet examined.

Yours very truly, GEO. F. ROOT.

Singer's Sewing Machines.

THESE Machines have long sustained the highest reputation in the United States.

The First Prize—A Gold Medal,

Has recently been awarded to them at the Palace of Industry in Paris, and thus they have the WORLD'S VERDICT OF SUPERIORITY.

The inventor has just added to these superior Machines an improvement whereby they can work on any kind of

FAMILY SEWING,

They will also Bar and close all kinds of Kid Boots and Shoes, and stitch the finest Gaiter Boots in every part, without a skip—making them the most desirable for girls to use at home, or for any who wish to do more than one kind of work.

These Machines are warranted to do all kinds of work in a manner far superior to any other machine in use.

They run without noise, with ease to the Operator, and at double the ordinary speed, so that

Twice as much Work can be done in a Day.

The greatest Shoe Manufacturing and Clothing Establishments in the country use these Machines exclusively, having tried other Machines and found them entirely unfit for their use.

They are simple, and cost scarcely anything to keep them in repair; and can be operated by a child twelve years old.

These Machines may be had at Manufacturers' prices, of

THOMAS S. NOWELL,

Harrison's Blue Black Writing Fluid.

PROGRESS in the arts has revealed a Writing Fluid which does not, as other Writing Fluids do destroy the points of gold pens, actively corrode steel pens, or chemically decompose the paper or its coloring. I have seen paper where every letter written with English Fluids was eaten entirely through, and a delicate blue that would turn to a dirty yellow. The best make of gold pens have been condemned for losing their points, and the best manufactures of paper returned upon the dealer, where these Fluids were extensively used. Harrison's Fluid is subject to no such evils. It writes a beautiful blue, and soon turns a jet black, and remains permanent HARRISON'S is AMERICAN, made by an AMERICAN, and worthy the use of all Americans. It is wholesaled and retailed by

G. W. STONE'S

LIQUID CATHARTIC,

Family Physic.

The most important discovery ever made in Medical Science, being a compound of Barks and Roots, which forms the most powerful, safe and agreeable Physic ever offered to the public.

THE necessity of such a Medicine has long been felt both by the heads of families and Physicians. Its advantages over cathartics given in the form of Pills or Powders, must be obvious to every intelligent person. It operates more immediately and effectually upon the system, and at the same time is infinitely less difficult to administer, being quite agreeable to the taste. It not only produces all the effects where physic is required, but completely removes habitual Costiveness, leaving the bowels perfectly free. It expels all humors from the blood, is a certain cure for the Piles, regulates the action of the Liver, frees the Stomach from Bile, invigorates the whole Nervous System, and removes the cause of all bilious pains such as

It may also be relied upon in all diseases of the Bowels; Dysentery, Diarrhea and Cholera Morbus yield at once to its magic influence. Again we repeat, TRY IT!—it needs no other recommendation. No family will be without it after they have properly tested its merits. Reader, if you have tried other remedies, without success, despair not—relief is now at hand. Are you suffering with Scrofula, six bottles of my Liquid Cathartic will cure you. Would you be relieved from habitual Costiveness?—Six bottles will effect all that you desire. If you are afflicted with Rheumatic, Neuralgic, or other local pains, two bottles will free you from them. All humors will be eradicated from the blood by the use of from one to six bottles, as the case may require. If you require a physic for any purpose, this is the most reliable, safe and agreeable to the taste that has ever been placed within the reach of the public.

PRICE $1.00.

DR. BURLEIGH SMART'S Cough Medicine.

DR. BURLEIGH SMART, of Kennebunk, Me., was well known throughout the New England States, as a Physician whose treatment of Lung Diseases was attended with almost miraculous success. Very few Physicians ever enjoyed a more enviable reputation, or acquired a more extended practice. The Medical Journal, in speaking of him soon after his death, says:

"A man liberally educated, of acute perception, superior judgment, untiring perseverance, and ardently devoted to his profession, Dr. Burleigh Smart was eminently worthy of the enviable position which he held in the estimation of the Medical Faculty at the time of his death. Although skillful in every branch of the Medical Sciences, for many years his attention was given to DISEASES OF THE LUNGS, in the treatment of which he proved himself the most successful Physician who ever practiced in New England."

This medicine was first compounded and made use of by him, and is substantially the same great agent by means of which he accomplished so many wonderful cures of Pulmonary Disease. Its efficacy having been most thoroughly tested, in thousands of cases, by an eminent Physician, all we can say in its praise must, of course, be superfluous. It is offered to the public in its present form, with the most implicit confidence in its powers—a confidence based not wholly upon the above, but upon actual trials of its virtues, the testimony of hundreds of our citizens in its favor and a knowledge of its ingredients severally considered, as regards their curative properties. Its formula has been submitted to several of the most distinguished chemists in this country, who unite in pronouncing it "A beautiful combination of the most reliable and valuable remedial agents used in treating diseases of the Lungs and other Respiratory Organs."

Unlike all other medicines of the same nature, it immediately allays the Cough, and so operates on the Blood as to remove the Cause, thus effecting a permanent cure. In this respect it is infinitely superior to all other preparations. By its use the strength of the patient is sustained, tone and vigor imparted to the system, the blood purified, disease subverted, and a healthy action of all the organs established. In compounding it, the greatest care is observed, every bottle being separately prepared with chemical accuracy, of uniform strength, and in strict accordance with the original recipe. No poisonous drugs are used to give it a beautiful color, and impair its virtues, as in nearly all other Cough Medicines, and in every instance the patient can rely on its doing all that medicine can do.

To secure the public against counterfeits, we have the bottles made expressly for us, with the words "DR. BURLEIGH SMART'S COUGH MEDICINE, SHAW & CLARK, BIDDEFORD, ME., U. S. A." blown in the glass. Every bottle is enclosed in a wrapper of the enameled paper, printed in the English, French, Spanish and German languages, from a costly engraved plate, of which the copyright has been secured. An inside wrapper, containing full directions for using the Medicine, and a valuable treatise on Diseases of the Lungs, with directions for the cure of Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis and Consumption, compiled from the most reliable medical authorities by a distinguished physician, also accompanies each bottle.

CHARADE.

How bright and how lovely my first does appear
When drest up by Flora who reigns every year;
With sunshine and showers expands the red rose,
And ope's early flowers, rich beauties disclose.
My next the Millenium Eternal will be
Where choristers join in sweet melody,
The music wont cloy, it is new ever more,
While Angels and seraphs the Saviour adore.
Look on the green wild wood, the meadow and glade;
What sport on my whole by the youth is displayed;
See each sprightly lad on that joyous morn
Seeks with glee for a garland the Queen to adorn.

BOILING ROCK.

ENGLISH SCHOOL TEACHING.—Cook's Quarto Geography, recently published in London—a work of considerable pretensions—gives some valuable information to "Young England" in regard to this country. It teaches that "in the isle of Orleans, at the mouth of the Mississippi, is the town of New Orleans, the capital of Louisiana." The young men of Virginia "are gamblers, cock-fighters and horse jockeys. Their passion for these diversions, not only inhumanly barbarous, but beneath the dignity of a man of sense, is so predominant that they even advertise their matches in the public papers." It might tell worse things than these of the diversions of the "chivalry." But of New Englanders, it declares that: "From laziness, inattention and want of acquaintance with mankind, many of the people have accustomed themselves to peculiar phrases, and to pronounce certain words in a drawling manner." The people of Maine, "according to appearances, are wretched in the extreme. Their chief provision is a dirty, dark-colored rye meal, and if they use any meat, it is on account of preventing their sheep from becoming more numerous than they desire, rather than for the pleasure of a good meal. Their common beverage is grog, or a mixture of rum and whiskey with water. This state (Massachusetts) is the only one in the Union in which there are no slaves."

ANECDOTE OF THE NEW CHAPLAIN.—The Rev. Henry Clay Dean, the present chaplain to the United States Senate, was some years ago a resident of North-western Virginia.—While preaching one day at a church situated a few miles from Fairmount, he was annoyed by the inattention of his congregation as manifested in turning their heads to see everybody who came in. "Brethren," said he, "it is very difficult to preach when thus interrupted. Now, do you listen to me, and I will tell you the name of every man as he enters the church." Of course this remark attracted universal attention. Presently some one entered:—"Brother William Satterfield!" cried out the preacher, while that "brother" was astonished beyond measure, and endeavored in vain to guess what was the matter. Another person came in—"brother Joseph Miller!" bawled the preacher with a like result; and so perhaps in other cases. After a while the congregation were amazed at hearing the preacher call out in a loud voice—"A little old man with a blue coat and a white hat on! Don't know who he is! You may look for yourselves."—Fairmount Virginian.

POETRY OF SLEIGHING.—The Boston Post of Saturday morning says:

The even street is trodden hard, and the sleighs all glide along, while the bells upon the bracing air give forth their cheerful song, the fastest crabs and slowest drabs are all awake for fun, and o'er the snow, if fast or slow, the ready runners run. All parties of the beautiful, and parties of the gay, flash on the eye like visions—like visions pass away; and jolly boys with fun and noise dash on and nothing reck, vexing the straining "float" to be ahead upon the Neck; and tender pairs, try winter's sire, their cheeks with health aglow, and laugh at chills and frosty ills beneath the buffalo. It is a rousing season and blood grows warm apace; we wish to join the merry bout and try the striving race. But one thought now obtrudes itself with interference rude: many there be who go to sleigh who full as oft get slewed.

MICHIGAN.—An election for Supreme Court Judge has just come off in Michigan. The candidate of the administration party was ex-Governor Ransom, the strongest man the party had in the State. In spite of tremendous efforts to elect him, however, he was defeated, and Mr. Bacon, the Republican candidate, elected over him.

WEALTH OF CITIES.—One eighth of the entire property of this country is owned by the citizens of New York and Boston. Boston alone in its corporate limits owns one twentieth of the property of this entire Union, being an amount equal to the wealth of any three of the New England States, except Massachusetts. In this city is found the richest community, per capita, of any in the United States. The next city in point of wealth according to its population, is Providence, R. I. which city is one of the richest in the Union, having a valuation of fifty-six millions, with a population of fifty thousand. The bare increase per annum of the wealth of Boston is equal to the entire valuation of many of the as minor cities, Portland, Salem, New Bedford, Buffalo, Chicago, Louisville, &c., &c.

A GEOGRAPHICAL AND HISTORICAL ITEM.—A late London paper informs its readers that the "Nebraska territory of the United States is a tract of several millions of acres lately purchased by the Americans for the Mosquito King!" Have the English government got any specimens left of the water casks and machines for turning salt water into fresh, with which they furnished their ships in the war of 1812 on lakes Erie and Ontario? If the Admiralty Board could only bring those articles into profitable use now on the lakes, they might thereby understand something of the force and meaning of the word "occupy" in the Clayton and Bulwer treaty, which Lord Clarendon is now floundering about to reconcile with British prospects in Central America.—Boston Courier.

WHOLESALE LYING.

The Newburyport Union, in an article against the liquor law says:

Indeed, we think that we might prove that, in this section, an evil has grown out of its enforcement more deplorable even than the traffic itself. We refer to perjury in witnesses: a crime as lamentable as the large proportion of those provided for by our statutes. At a recent session of our Common Pleas Court, we heard a distinguished member of the bar remark, that he had never in his practice observed one half the reluctance displayed by witnesses in the trial of a capital offence, where a human being's life was at stake, as he had in a case involving the sale of one gill of intoxicating liquor; and he was of opinion that there was more perjury committed in liquor cases than in all others combined. In the many trials which we have attended, we cannot now recall to mind a single one in which the truth was told by the witnesses upon the stand. We recollect an instance, where at the commencement of the action there was a strong probability of finding an exception to the general custom, but even in this we were disappointed. To show the enormity and the injurious influence of such things, we will relate the circumstances.

A mother, accompanied by her son, a young lad about 14 years of age, of prepossessing appearance, and a countenance indicating an honest and upright character, visited the police office to make a complaint against a trader, for the sale of liquor to her husband, the boy's father. She stated that he was an industrious and kind husband, but would occasionally procure liquor, and have a spree, during which time he was abusive and neglectful of his own and others wants. The lad stated that he had several times accompanied his father to the store of the trader complained of, and heard his father call for one pint of gin each time, and he had seen the gin put into a bottle, the money paid by the father, and the bottle and contents delivered.

This, together with the testimony of the mother, was considered sufficient, and a warrant was issued. At the trial the lad was called upon, and testified without equivocation, that he never knew his father to purchase liquor of the respondent. The court was astonished, and after discharging the accused, interrogated the boy to ascertain the cause which induced him to commit such flagrant perjury. It turned out that the most powerful influences had been to work upon him, and he could not command courage sufficient to testify contrary to his father's wishes. This is not a solitary instance. Numerous cases might be cited where parties have suffered imprisonment rather than testify against the seller. Men of position and character, too, when such appear, evade, in every possible way, the truth. And then again the jury. Even is a case made ever so strong there is not one chance in a thousand of a conviction. There appears to be a potency in liquor that ties the tongue, a power that paralyzes the memory, blunts the conscience and entirely drives out all moral sentiment. Such a system of deception and perjury, craft and trick, as has flowed from the enforcement of this law it is shocking to contemplate.

Very queerly, though, in Milford, Bristol, Plymouth, &c., where the law has been enforced, there have been quite a number of convictions, and there seems to have been no extra lying, no strange tricks,—and no craft which softened the jurors.

SOCIAL EVILS.—Speaking in his late Message, of the Northern States, Pres. Pierce says they—

"Engage in the offensive undertaking of reforming the domestic institutions of other States," "although conscious of their inability to heal admitted and palpable social evils of their own."

A correspondent of the Concord Statesman remarks on this statement,—

The "domestic institution," about which the President has so much concern, is Slavery,—there can be no question about that; but what the "social evils" are at the North, which so much alarm him, is by no means so certain. Is it our system of Education, our free Schools, Academies and Colleges? It is true that Southern gentlemen send their sons to these institutions to be educated, but not in such numbers, probably, as to cause danger of an alarming "social evil." It may be that Mr Pierce dislikes our whole system of education, and prefers those laws by which benevolent women are punished for teaching children to read the Bible. It is true that we call that praiseworthy and Christ-like, which his beloved Slaveholders punish with imprisonment. I know not but what he alludes in some way to our habits of industry; our attention to the arts and to manufactures; our improvements in machinery and the implements of husbandry, &c."

No, nor President Pierce does not mean any of these—he doubtless refers to Intemperance, the greatest social evil of New England, out of which most of her other social evils grow. He knows much about this evil in New Hampshire and New England generally. He knows how sore an evil it is, and how in many cases it bids defiance to all efforts to heal it. There are many minor evils to which he might refer, but he doubtless had chief reference to this gigantic evil, this primary parent sin.

☞ The Manchester printers as well as those at Concord, propose holding a festival on the 17th inst., being the third semi centennial anniversary of the birth-day of Franklin. If we could triplicate ourselves, it would give us great pleasure to accept their polite invitation to be present, and also at Concord, as well as to fulfil our previous engagements for that evening in this city.

EARNEST APPEAL.

A correspondent of the Providence Tribune furnishes an article of which the following is an extract.

A WOMAN'S APPEAL.—West Greenwich, Jan. 2.—I promised you in my communication of yesterday, that I would give you the result of to-day's proceedings, in relation to the Temperance movement in West Greenwich. The interest of those who have taken hold of this reform, is on the increase, while the sympathies of many who have hitherto stood aloof, have been enlisted, and their names now for the first time stand enrolled on the "Temperance Pledge." Already the pledge has received some sixty names of men and women, not only to total abstinence, but pledge to use their influence against the traffic in the active poisons which have ruined so many, and rendered the town a standing byword throughout the State. I have never attended a meeting so full of interest as the meeting held to-day on "Noose Neck Hill." I wish all the rumsellers in the State could have been present to have heard the thrilling appeal made by the widow of the murdered Lewis, as with broken heart and tears she alluded to scenes in life through which she had passed, and while earnestly beseeching the people to arise in the strength and dignity of manhood, and put down the sale and use of intoxicating liquors.

In looking over the "pledge," my eye fell upon the following sentence: "My name,—appealing to the heart and sympathies of the people of Rhode Island—instead of enlarging the State Prison, to build a gallows, and hang rumsellers and murderers. MARY A. LEWIS."

Not knowing at the time who this person was, or that she was in the house, I read the sentence to the congregation, which called the woman to her feet, and she boldly and faithfully vindicated the appeal, with the heart and spirit of the true woman. Ten years ago, she was compelled to leave her husband, with a large family of children, in consequence of the rum traffic, which gratified the depraved appetite of the otherwise kind-hearted husband and father. For these ten long years she has been compelled to see, and hear of the downward course of the companion of her youthful days, and at last to follow him to his grave, murdered under the influence of the maddening drinks, sold contrary to the laws of the State, and contrary to every dictate of humanity. This heart-stricken widow's appeal is addressed to "the people of Rhode Island," to suppress the traffic, by resorting to something like "justice." How many such tragedies will be sufficient to convince the people that rum is at the bottom of all the crimes, and the cause of nine-tenths of all the misery in the State?

A FRENCH ACTOR'S IMPRESSION OF AMERICA.—Monsieur Beauvalle, one of the gentlemen attached to the Rachel troupe, has written home a letter which appears in a Paris paper, giving some of his impressions. We quote the following:

"There is one thing which I cannot avoid telling you—that is, the disproportionate number of fires that take place in this capital. It is a weakness, a monomania, a rage. Seven, eight, nine, ten per day! It is hardly creditable. In fine, they have arrived at that point that in every house there are rope ladders and other suitable instruments. No one can lie down without having an intimate conviction that the house will be on fire in five minutes. House burning has grown to be one of the institutions of the country—it is a habit, a custom. If there were no fires, people would be disappointed. It is one of the most joyous pastimes of the lower class. The boys of the neighborhood gather round the engine houses, to be sure not to miss a single fire. And there's where the row is when a fire breaks out anywhere. They work, they shout, the alarm bell rings, and all the bells are tolled! Really it is something diabolical. What a funny country!"

GEORGIA.—This State, which in the census of 1850, made the best show of wealth and numbers of any of the slave holding States, owing to the introduction of manufactures, looks badly in the census which has just been taken, having suffered greatly by the general depression of the manufacturing interest for several years past. The comparatively new State of Georgia has increased in population in the last five years only 25,619, or a little more than two and a half per cent. The manufactures of the State have in a great degree died out, and those concerned in them been ruined.

The enterprize of the Georgia manufacturers was commendable,—but slavery and true industry are antagonistic terms.

THE ROTHSCHILDS.

Baron Anselem Mayor Rothschild, the eldest of the five original brothers Rothschild, died recently at Frankfort. His property amounts to fifteen millions of dollars, and accordingly we may safely estimate the total wealth of the house of Rothschild to be between seventy-five and one hundred millions of dollars, owned by the five branches of the house, which remained in partnership for about fifty years, the final separation having taken place only a few years since. Three of the original founders of the house have died within the present year, and Baron James Rothschild of Paris is now the last surviving brother of the five. The younger representatives of this great Jewish banking establishment, though shrewd, avaricious enough to keep up the wealth and financial influence of the name, are not equal to their father or to their still more eminent grandfather, who, though unable to read and write, rose from a pedlar to one of the first-rate bankers in Germany. The Scabian Mercury values the fortune of the deceased at from forty to fifty millions of florins, or somewhat higher than the above mentioned figures, and gives particulars about his will. A sum of 1,200,000 florins is destined to continue the weekly alms which the deceased was in the habit of distributing; 50,000 florins are bequeathed to the Institution for giving a dowry to Jewish girls; 50,000 to the Jewish School; 10,000 florins to the Jewish Hospital, and an equal sum to the Institution for the relief of sick Jews. Smaller sums are bestowed on several Christian institutions, while the bulk of the property is bequeathed to the members of the Vienna and Paris and Naples branches of the family.

LOCAL.

COURT OF COMMON PLEAS.

SATURDAY, Jan. 12.

In the case Henry P. Daniels vs. Simeon Brown, for trespass, the jury brought in a verdict for the Plaintiff, of $6 damages. This verdict carries with it $6 costs, so that the defendant must pay $12.—The plaintiff sued for $300—but gets only $6, and must foot the bill of cost.

No. 75. William Claggett vs. Wm. Simes and James W. Emery, is now on trial.

This is an action of trespass for breaking and entering the plaintiff's close. The defts. admit the breaking and entering, but justify under a prior judgment obtained in the action of Simes vs. Claggett.

The plaintiff asserts that there was no such judgment of Court, but that a fraudulent alteration was made on the docket.

Goodall and Claggett for Piff.; Rollins and Emery for Dfts.

[The amount of verdicts obtained this week, have been about $45. Nevertheless, the docket is diminished.]

WINTER.

Winter reigns supreme! Sunday, Jan. 13, was like the preceding one, only much more so,—the severest snow storm yet. How much of danger, suffering or death may have occurred on the coast or in the country during the storm, we cannot know till the railway and telegraph lines are dug out and repaired.

Our churches were thin, and in the afternoon only two or three were open.

One of the best productions of the storm here, is the following appeal for the poor, written on the spur of the moment, and suggested by the severity of the storm.

For the Chronicle.

THE SUFFERING POOR.

List! as the chill winds blow,
And force the drifting snow,
How sad the moan!
Hear, in their mournful wail
Sweeping along his trail,
The poor man's groan!

Let's hasten down the street,
And mark well where his feet
Trace out his home;
Tomorrow may too late,
Reveal his wretched fate—
Death and the tomb!

Nay, rap not at the door,
For stretched upon the floor
Pale forms may lie:
Disease here finds a place,
And in its strong embrace,
Some one may die.

We enter first the hall,
(If such we may it call,)
And pause for breath:
Hush! hear that suppliant tone,
Commingled with a groan—
In fear of death!

And hear him pray—"God save
From hastening to the grave,
My child and wife:
Send some kind hand with aid;
Let this distress be stayed,
Nor take my life.

"O, spare the suffering poor
Who prostrate at thy door
Of mercy call!
O, help in this our need,
And let thy blessing speed,
And on us fall!"

God heard: for we were there,
That he those lives might spare,
And bless them still:
We found, upon the floor
Kneeling, the starving poor!
The room, how chill!

No light, no wood, no bread,
By which they could be fed,
Or warmed or cheered.
We bade them hope and wait,
Then hasted from the gate,
For worse we feared.

So fast, from friend to friend,
Our hurried steps did bend,
And found relief;
Good food, a generous store,
With wood and oil we bore,
And stayed their grief.

Go, then, whoe'er ye be,
That live in luxury,
Go, bless the poor;
Turn not in proud disdain
From suffering and pain,
Close by your door.

There is a mind that knows
Each "mite" you give to those
In want or woe;
To hunger deal your bread
While living;—not when dead
Your good bestow.

Then He, by whose command
The wide extended land
Its fruitage yields,
Will pay in hundred fold,
Your sacrifice of gold,
Through all your fields.

But more, beyond the sky,
Each prayer—each burdened sigh—
Will plead for you;
And at His mercy gate
Angelic guards may wait
To bear you through! M.

☞ Rev Dr Hall, of Providence, who was announced to lecture before the Young Men's Christian Association on Sunday evening, at the Temple, and was prevented by the storm, will deliver his lecture before that Association, this (Monday) evening. Tickets 10 cts. The arrangements for music continue the same as advertised.

POLICE COURT—Saturday, Jan. 12.—Before Justice Odell.—Alexander Latchart plead guilty to a charge of being found drunk in the street—and was fined $3; costs 5.53.

☞ The second Concert by the Musical Association, at the Temple on Friday evening, passed off with even more eclat than the first. The programme was more varied, and contained a larger proportion of light pieces. The chorus was not quite so heavy as on the preceding evening, as some of the performers were obliged to return home. Several pieces were pertinaciously encored to a repetition and besides the grand choruses, some very fine solo singing was enjoyed. We might particularize, but of course all who have much interest in our home music, were there.

HITCH YOUR HORSES.—On Saturday last a horse, with a pung attached, took an erratic course across Market Square, upsetting in his headlong career, a yoke of steers, a man and two cans of milk. No lives were lost. The moral is obvious.

☞ We are indebted to Hon. James Bell, U. S. Senator from this State, for valuable public documents.

MAINE.—Isaac Reed was on Thursday elected Treasurer of State. A bill repealing the laws of naturalization, passed last winter, passed to be enacted in the House by a vote of 86 to 57.

The Speakership of the New York Assembly is yet in abeyance. The House took its 37th vote on Thursday, with about the same result as was had before. Propositions to make Mr Odell, American, Speaker, and to declare the plurality rule, was voted down, and the House is still at sea.

Frederick Muller, the German who was hung at Cumberland, Md., on the 4th inst., for the murder of Dr Hadell and Henry Graef, strongly protested his innocence and declared that, "when his soul had passed from this world he would seek the spirits of the murdered men and stand acquitted by them of all knowledge of their death."

THE WOODBRIDGE MURDER.—The grand jury of New Haven county, Conn., have indicted Charles Sandford for the murder of Enoch Sperry and Ichabod Umberfield, of Woodbridge.

Notice.

AT a recent meeting, held by the clergymen and others in this city to see what further can be done to promote temperance, it was agreed to have a series of weekly lectures or addresses from the most able and effective speakers from abroad and from the clergymen in our city, and a Committee was chosen to make the arrangements for carrying the measure into effect.

That Committee have now to announce that they have engaged the services of the Rev. Mr. RICE, of Boston, to give the first lecture on MONDAY next, Jan. 14, at the Temple. Mr. Rice's reputation is such that the Committee can bespeak for him a full house and an interested audience.

CONGRESS.

FRIDAY, Jan. 12.

HOUSE.—Mr Sneed of Tennessee withdrew a resolution heretofore offered by him, calling Mr Orr to the chair until a Speaker be elected, believing, as the House on Wednesday refused to order the main question, it could not be adopted.

Voting for Speaker was then resumed with the following result;—Banks, 98; Fuller, 32: Richardson, 70; scattering, 5.

Mr Zollikoffer of Tennessee offered a resolution, declaring that in conformity with the fundamental principles of this great and popular government, it is the duty of all candidates for political positions fully to avow their opinions on important political questions involved in their election, especially when interrogated by the electors whose votes they are seeking.

Mr Zollikoffer said his object was to elicit certain replies from Mr Richardson on the slavery question, which Mr Richardson declared himself ready now to answer.

A debate ensued involving the propriety of the passage of the resolution, which was finally adopted by a vote of 155 for to 38 against. This opens a wide field for discussion. Adjourned.

SATURDAY, Jan. 12.

HOUSE.—Mr Campbell, of Ohio, moved that the ten minutes resolution be suspended until Wednesday, in order to give the different candidates for the Speakership an opportunity to define their positions.

FROM WASHINGTON.—New York, Jan. 12—The Herald's correspondent telegraphs from Washington—Mr Clingman of North Carolina will move the plurality rule to-morrow. He intended to have made the move to-day, but was prevented owing to other propositions before the House. Quite a number of Democrats are in favor of giving the Republicans the organization of the House, and among them are Cobb of Georgia, Houston of Alabama, Clingman, and also quite a number who will vote for the plurality rule.

WRECK OF A TEA SHIP AND PILOT BOAT. LOSS OF FIVE LIVES.—New York, Jan. 12.—The ship before reported ashore at Fire Island Light is the ship Stingares (clipper), Kirby, from Canton Sept. 13th, with teas, silks, &c., to Wakeman and Diman. The vessel has bilged, and there is now eleven feet of water in her hold.

Steam tug Titian, with the wrecking schr. H. W. Johnson, left here yesterday at 3 P. M., to render assistance to her and the schooner which went ashore at the same time.

The schooner proves to be the Pilot boat E. K. Collins No. 11. Five of her crew were lost, and three saved—those lost were Mr Robt. B. Mitchell, aged 52 years, and four boys, names not known.

☞The Kathay has been got off, and coming up in tow of the tug Leviathan.

The cargo of the Danish barque Kongthym, on Barnagat Shoals, has been partially saved. The vessel bilged, and will not be worth saving.

The fact has heretofore been announced that the Supreme Court of Louisiana had decided that Mrs. Gaines was entitled to the valuable estate in New Orleans, which formerly belonged to the late Daniel Clark. In order to obtain actual possession of the property, she is now at liberty to institute actions of ejectment against those now in possession of the estate, but it is said she is disposed to make reasonable and liberal compromises with the occupants or owners.—Exchange.

Mrs Gaines can well afford to be liberal, since this decision renders her the richest woman in America, the whole property being valued at from fifteen to twenty million dollars. But she deserves the whole of it, for the spirit and perseverance she has manifested in prosecuting her suit, for more than twenty years. Mrs Gaines is yet young—some forty-five years old—now the second time a widow, and the mother of one son and two daughters.—Newburyport Herald.

MADISON, WIS., Jan. 11.—The Governor's Election Contested.—Governor Barstow delivered his message on Tuesday. In the assembly Mr Mills said he should not recognise Barstow as Governor. Mr Bashford commences proceedings in the Supreme Court to contest Barstow's election.

On Sunday afternoon, some men were engaged in clearing the snow from the sidewalk near Hoe's foundry, and, after digging away a bank of several feet in depth, much to their surprise, they came across a man, sleeping quietly beside his bottle. He had taken lodgings on the walk the evening previous, and got snowed over. His breath had melted a hole through the snow, and thus he was furnished with fresh air. A touch of the snow shovel brought him to consciousness, when he got up and walked off, taking his faithful companion with him.—N. Y. Express.

THE HUDSON RAILROAD ACCIDENT.—Poughkeepsie, Jan. 11.—A verdict was rendered to-night by the Coroner's Jury on the recent Hudson River Railroad accident. The jury attribute the disaster mainly to the stupidity of the flagman, and censure the Company for employing incompetent persons to fill responsible positions.

The engineer of the Poughkeepsie train is slightly censured, but the conductor and engineers of the express train are exonerated from all blame.

REPORTED BURNING OF A STEAMER.—New York, Jan. 12.—There is a rumor current here this morning, that one of the Sound steamers was destroyed by fire last night.—The Fall River and Stonington boats from the East, are safe in dock here, and all the boats on the New York and Boston routes are accounted for. The steamer burned is supposed to be either a propeller or one of the New Haven boats.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—New York, Jan. 12.—A letter from Omah City, Nebraska, states that Col. E. R. Doyle, U. S. Marshal for that territory, was instantly killed on the 20th of December, by a fall down the steps of the U. S. Court room.

Horace Greeley says that "The plurality rule will be gained whenever a leading Democrat moves it, and probably not till then."

PRINCE & CO'S IMPROVED Patent Melodeons.

Between 17,000 and 18,000 of these Instruments have been finished and are now in use.

The latest improvement in our Melodeons is the

DIVIDED SWELL,

Secured to us by Letters Patent, 23d May, 1855. By means of this swell Solo Passages may be played with the full power of the Instrument, while the accompaniment is soft and subdued.—Heretofore, Melodeons could not be furnished with this attachment WITHOUT EXTRA CHARGE.

[Extract from the Com. Advertiser, July 27th.]

Messrs Prince & Co. could realize a handsome fortune by disposing of rights to other manufacturers to use their new improvement, but as they prefer to make it a feature in their Instruments, it can only be obtained by purchasing one of their manufacture.

The styles and prices are—

IN PORTABLE CASE:

4 octave Melodeon, extend'g frm	C to C.....	$45
4½ octave, " "	C to F.....	60
5 octave Melodeon, " "	F to F.....	75
5 octave, double reed, " "	F to F.....	120

IN PIANO CASE:

5 octave Melodeon, extend'g frm	F to F.....	$100
6 octave " " "	F to F.....	130
5 octave, double reed, " " "	F to F.....	150

Organ Melodeon (for churches), 6 octaves, 8 stops, 1½ octave pedals, 4 setts of reeds.....$350

Agents for the sale of our Melodeons may be found in all the principal cities and towns of the United States and Territories.

The Following Opinions,

In regard to MASON & HAMLIN'S Model MELODEON are from distinguished Musicians:

(From Lowell Mason.)

After having carefully examined the Melodeons of Messrs Mason & Hamlin, I am enabled to say that in my opinion they are decidedly superior to any others with which I am acquainted.

New York, July 1, 1854 LOWELL MASON.

From Geo. F. Root.)

Henry Mason, Esq., Dear Sir.—Having had one opportunity of examining Mason & Hamlin's Model Melodeons, I am happy to bear testimony to their great excellence. In general characteristics, and especially in quality and uniformity of tone and tuning, they seem to me to be superior to any that I have yet examined.

Yours very truly, GEO. F. ROOT.

New York, May 25th, 1854.

(From Edwin Bruce.)

Dear Sirs:—I have examined your Model Melodeons with much satisfaction, and am prepared to express my confident opinion that they are the most perfect instruments manufactured.

Yours, &c., EDWIN BRUCE.

FOR the National Government, State Legislatures, Courts of Record, Banks, Railroads, Post Offices, Insurance Offices, Editors, Authors, Lawyers, Doctors, Clergymen, Commercial and Business men of every sort, Colleges, Academies and Schools, and that great class who sustain all, the Farmers—the GREAT INK of the country. 644,573 bottles sold in 1854, is significant that the AMERICAN PEOPLE appreciate THE AMERICAN INK, made by HARRISON ARTISTIC MANUFACTURER, and determine its great superiority over all foreign inks. It is at wholesale and retail by

Harrison's Blue Black Writing Fluid

PROGRESS in the arts has revealed a Writing Fluid which does not, as other Writing Fluids do destroy the points of gold pens, actively corrode steel pens, or chemically decompose the paper or its coloring. I have seen paper where every letter written with English Fluids was eaten entirely through, and a delicate blue hole remained in a dirty yellow. The best make of gold pens have been condemned for losing their points, and the best manufactures of paper returned upon the dealer, where these Fluids were extensively used. Harrison's Fluid is subject to none of these evils. It writes a beautiful blue, and soon turns a jet black, and remains permanent. HARRISON'S AMERICAN, made by an AMERICAN, and worthy the use of all Americans. It is wholesaled and retailed by

Singer's Sewing Machines.

THESE Machines have long sustained the highest reputation in the United States.

The First Prize—A Gold Medal,

Has recently been awarded to them at the Palace of Industry in Paris, and thus they secure the WORLD'S VERDICT OF SUPERIORITY.

The Inventor has just added to these superior Machines an improvement whereby they can work on any kind of

FAMILY SEWING,

From a coarse Cotton fabric to the finest Linen Bosom, in such a perfect manner as no other Machine professes.

They will also Bar and close all kinds of Kid Boots and Shoes, and stitch the finest Gaiter Boots in every part without a skip—making them the most desirable for girls to use at home, or for any who wish to do more than one kind of work.

These Machines are warranted to do all kinds of work in a manner far superior to any other machine in use.

They run without noise, with ease to the Operator, and at double the ordinary speed, so that

Twice as much Work can be done in a Day.

The greatest Shoe Manufacturing and Clothing Establishments in the country use these Machines exclusively, having tried other Machines and found them entirely unfit for their use.

They are simple, and cost scarcely anything to to keep them in repair; and can be operated by a child (twelve years old.

These Machines may be had at Manufacturers' prices, of

ONE WORD FOR THE DOGS.—Messrs. Editors:—If all owners of dogs would at this season of the year, see that these faithful creatures have a sufficiency of water, all danger of hydrophobia, and a vast deal of suffering might be obviated. And this is particularly desirable now that snow and ice cut them off from their usual resorts. Don't neglect them.

ANTI MUZZLING.

—Newburyport Herald.

At Lagrange, Ky., Simpson Johnson was moving a car, in order to fill it with hogs. Another car was standing on the track, and as the moving car was approaching it, Mr Johnson turned to pull a little boy off the track, and was crushed between the cars. He died the next morning.

The Lynn News tells a good story of two boys, one of whom was boasting of the beauties of his father's house. "It has got a cupola," said he, "and it's going to have something else." "What is it?" asked his interested companion "Why, I heard father tell mother this morning that it's going to have a mortgage on it!"

DR. J. W. POLAND'S
HEADACHE KILLER!
PREPARED BY
DR. J. W. POLAND
Goffstown Centre, N. H.

THIS Wonderful Medicine for the Sick and Nervous HEADACHE, as well as for Tic Doloreux, Neuralgia and all forms of Nervous Diseases, after an impartial trial of more than six years, has established its reputation as a Standard Remedy. Other Headache Remedies have "waxed and waned" since this was introduced to the public, but the Genuine DR. POLAND'S HEADACHE KILLER has been, and is now increasing in sales every month.

Within three months, more than seven tons in weight of the genuine Killer have been sent over the Railroads to fill orders for it.

Please to read the Circular, which the Agents have, and you will get the history of the Medicine.

G. W. STONE'S
Cough, Consumption, and Bronchitis
ELIXIR.

THE Proprietor would respectfully call the attention of the public to his invaluable Remedy for all Affections of the Throat and Lungs and begs of those who are undecided what to select, from the numerous medicines advertised, and recommended for such complaints, to give his ELIXIR a trial. Having done so, they will no longer hesitate what to take themselves, or recommend to others A single trial will prove to them that this is the most valuable remedy ever discovered for the various affections of the Throat and Lungs; it will immediately relieve the most violent Cough, and in a few hours completely cure the most severe Cold. As a Preventive and Cure for Consumption, it has no equal.—It is purely Vegetable, containing no poisonous ingredients, is quite agreeable to the taste, and may be given with perfect safety to the most delicate child. The numerous testimonials received almost daily from those who have been cured by it, fully justify the assertion that it is a family medicine which should be without this Medicine: let Mothers give it to their Children who have the Whooping Cough or Croup, and they will alleviate at once the sufferings of their little ones. Price 50 cts.

Call for G. W. Stone's Cough Elixir, and see that his name, and Cough Elixir, with the words Boston, Mass., are blown upon the Bottle, without which none will be genuine.

DR. BURLEIGH SMART'S
Cough Medicine.

DR. BURLEIGH SMART, of Kennebunk, Me. was well known throughout the New England States, as a Physician whose treatment of Lung Diseases was attended with almost miraculous success. Very few Physicians enjoyed a more enviable reputation, or acquired a more extended practice. The Medical Journal, in speaking of him soon after his death, says:

"A man liberally educated, of acute perception, superior judgment, untiring perseverance, and ardently devoted to his profession, Dr. Burleigh Smart was eminently worthy of the enviable position which he held in the estimation of the Medical Faculty at the time of his death. He, though skillful in every branch of the Medical Sciences, for many years his attention was given to DISEASES OF THE LUNGS, in the treatment of which he proved himself the most successful Physician who ever practiced in New England."

This medicine was first compounded and made use of by him, and is substantially the same great agent by means of which he accomplished so many wonderful cures of Pulmonary Disease. Its efficacy having been most thoroughly tested, in thousands of cases, by an eminent Physician, all we can say in its praise must, of course, be superfluous. It is offered to the public in its present form, with the most implicit confidence in its powers—a confidence based not wholly upon the above, but upon actual trials of its virtues, the testimony of hundreds of our citizens in its favor, and a knowledge of its ingredients severally considered, as regards their curative properties. Its formula has been submitted to some of the most distinguished chemists in this country, who unite in pronouncing it "A beautiful combination of the most reliable and valuable remedial agents used in treating diseases of the Lungs and other Respiratory Organs."

Unlike all other medicines of the same nature, it immediately allays the Cough, and so operates on the Blood as to remove the Cause, thus effecting a permanent cure. In this respect it is infinitely superior to all preparations. By its use the strength of the patient is sustained, tone and vigor imparted to the system, the blood purified, disease subverted, and a healthy action of all the organs attained. In compounding it, the greatest care is observed, every bottle being separately prepared with chemical accuracy, of uniform strength, and in strict accordance with the original recipe. No poisonous drugs are used to give it a beautiful color, and impair its virtues, as is nearly all other Cough Medicines, and in every instance the patient can rely on its doing all that medicine can do.

To secure the public against counterfeits, we have the bottles made expressly for us, with the words "DR. BURLEIGH SMART'S COUGH MEDICINE, SHAW & CLARK, BIDDEFORD, ME., U. S. A." blown in the glass. Every bottle is enclosed in a wrapper of red and enameled paper, printed in the English, French, Spanish and German languages, from a costly engraved plate, of which the copyright has been secured. An inside wrapper, containing full directions for using the Medicine, and a valuable treatise on Diseases of the Lungs, with directions for the cure of Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis and Consumption, compiled from the most reliable medical authorities by a distinguished physician, also accompanying each bottle.

ELOPEMENT.—EXTRAORDINARY PROCEEDINGS.

The Claiborne (La.) Advocate of the 31st ult. has an account of an extraordinary account of an extraordinary series of events, which is published under the heading, "Elopement, marriage, civil commotion, and bloodshed," and of which the following is a condensation:

About five weeks ago there eloped from Terryville, in Claiborne parish, one Dr. Clement and one Sarah T. Wafer, an orphan heiress of a wealthy Louisiana planter, being at the time at school at Terryville. To Arkansas they proceeded with the utmost despatch, where the nuptial ceremony was duly performed.

On their return the happy couple were met by the the brother of the bride, who proceeded ty chastise the groom for the abduction of his sister. Finally, however, they were allowed to proceed to the residence of the Doctor in Arcadia, Blenville parish, whence, a few days afterwards, the bride was summoned to the bedside of a sick sister. While at the house Mrs Clement signed a letter written by her brother-in-law, in which she accused her husband of deception, cowardice, age, and ugliness, and avowing her determination not to live with him. She then accompanied her sister to Red River, in the parish of Rossier, and took up her residence in the house of another sister.

Dr Clement followed in pursuit with fifteen stalwart friends armed cap-a-pie, and demanded the person of Mrs Clement, who, under the circumstances, yielded, on condition that she should be taken to the residence of her uncle, Rev. Mr Wafer, an estimable gentleman, and be there allowed two days for reflection as to her future course.

Her brother immediately raised a force of armed men, and undertook to rescue his sister, but on approaching the house of his uncle found it surrounded by the Doctor's army, with cocked guns, and thought fit to retire.

He immediately proceeded to Homer, and made such representation as caused the issuance of a warrant for the arrest of Dr Clement and party for the forcible abduction and imprisonment of his sister. The Deputy Sheriff summoned a posse, to whom the Doctor's party submitted.

Next morning, about nine o'clock, Claiborne was thrown into violent commotion by the sudden appearance in its midst on horseback, and with double-barrelled guns, of the entire body of men, some sixty in number, thrown together, as above stated, on the night previous, and in the centre of the concourse, mirabile dictu, the hero and heroine, seated side by side in a buggy. The bloodshed spoken of above was caused by the accidental discharge of one of the guns of this party, wounding a lawyer who was standing in his office.

The parties were brought before a justice for trial, and a habeas corpus was issued by the Judge of the District Court and served upon the Doctor, commanding him to produce the body of his wife. The result of the trial was that all parties were discharged. But the trouble has not ended here: for, while the excitement was going on, our heroine was spirited away to parts unknown; but the general opinion is that she has been transported to Arkansas, where she is protected or guarded by forty double-barrelled shot-guns and a howitzer! And thither a considerable part of the multitude recently assembled in Claiborne have betaken themselves, "armed and equipped" as the law doesn't direct.

It appeared on the trial of one of the writs that Miss Wafer had been engaged to a brother of her sister-in-law; but some person unknown having forged a letter purporting to be from her fiance wherin she was discarded, her elopement with the Doctor was precipitated, and the unfortunate girl soon found that she was linked to a man whom she could not love, and, in fact, positively disliked.

"Having during the last ten years heard the history of Mr. David Wilson—who formerly resided at Carrolton, Ky.—repeated frequently, and which seemed to me fabulous, or which, at least, taxed my credulity very much, and happening a few days ago to meet with Mr. Alexander Wilson, of North Madison, with whom I have been acquainted for several years, I spoke of his father, and he said what I had heard was correct. He told me that he (Alexander) was the forty-fifth child of David, who was the father of forty-seven lawful children. He lived to the age of 107 years, and during his lifetime had five wives. By his first wife he had eighteen children. A few years before he died he expressed a desire to remove to Indiana, but was opposed by his fifth and last wife. He, however, took a trip to find a new location, to suit him, and when he returned home he found that his wife had packed up some of her goods and chattels and returned to her friends in Kentucky. He went after her and endeavored to persuade her to return to his house, but she would not go. In a short time, however she relented, and then wished to return to his house; but he would have nothing to do with her—and so they remained separated till his death.

"Very few of his children died in their infancy or youth; and there are thirty-five of them living who are men and women full grown. David Wilson was a man of pure health and robust physical constitution. At the age of 105 years he could mow an acre a day for a week at a time without evincing much fatigue. He appeared to have not a rib 'The whole region of his breast was shielded by a plate of solid bone, and he could receive the most severe and powerful blows upon it without being hurt. He frequently, for the gratification of others, suffered them to strike him most violently in the breast without being made to feel the least uncomfortable.

"During our border wars he was taken prisoner by the Indians, and they attempted to stab him in the breast, but found the solid bone invulnerable. His minute history would be interesting, if collected and published. He was one of the most remarkable men that ever lived in America. At the age of 107 years, when he died, none of his faculties of mind or body were materially impaired."

ARISTOCRACY RUN MAD.

The New England reader is requested to read the following fanatical tirade against our Free Schools, and in favor of Virginian Aristocracy of the most intense blue-black shade, which is from the Richmond Examiner, Dec. 28.

THE MODERN ABOMINATION OF FREE SCHOOLS.—We have got to hating everything with the prefix free—from free negroes down and up, through the whole catalogue of abominations, demagoguries, lusts, philosophies, fanaticism and follies, free farms, free labor, free niggers, free society free will, free thinking, free love, free wives, free children and free schools, all belonging to the same brood of damnable isms whose mother is Sin, and whose daddy is the Devil—are all the progeny of that prolific monster which greeted Satan on his arrival at the gates of hell, which,

—Seemed woman to the waist, and fair,
But ended foul in many a scaly fold
Voluminous and vast, a serpent's arms
With mortal sting: about her middle round
A cry of hell-hounds never ceasing bark'd
With wide Cerberean mouths full loud, and many
A hideous peal; yet when they list would creep,
If aught disturbed their noise, into her womb,
And kennel there; yet there still barked and howled
Within unseen —

But the worst of all these abominations—because, when once installed, it becomes the hot-bed propagator of all—is the modern system of free schools. We forget who it is that has charged and proved that the New England system of free schools has been the cause and prolific source of all the legions of horrible infidelities and treasons that have turned her cities into Sodoms and Gomorrahs, and her fair land into the common nestling-place of howling bedlamites. We abominate the system because the schools are free, and because they make that which ought to be the reward of toil, and earnest, ardent, and almost superhuman individual effort, cheap, commonplace, prizeless and uninviting. As there is no regal road to learning, so there ought to be no mob road to learning.

A "little learning" is a dangerous thing—to the individual, to society, to learning itself, to all conservatism of thought and all stability in general affairs. The sole function of the free school is to supply that "little learning;" and thus it is charged to the brim with incendiarisms, heresies, and all the explosive elements which uproot and rend and desolate society.

Boohoo, boohoo, boohoo! Why don't somebody in New England cry over this dreadful evil? We never heard of any body here who did, except a few priests of the Roman Church. But if the Free School be, as this Virginian maintains it is, the root of abolitionism, then all the northern abolition-crushers ought at once to jump on to this Virginia platform, and yell all winter in grand chorus—Great is slavery! Down with the Free Schools! Educate the rich and keep the poor in ignorance to save the Union!

THE ALCHOLIC CONTROVERSY.—We have just received from the publishers, Fowler & Wells, Boston and New York a neat and handsomely printed pamphlet, entitled "The Alchoholic Controversy: a review of the Westminster Review on "The Fysiological Errors of Teetotalism." By R. T. Trall, M. D. New York: Fowler & Wells, publishers, No. 308 Broadway."

The article from the Westminster Review has been extensively noticed in the newspapers, and highly praised by many of the editors who understand little of their subject, and who have given it little thought. And the article is indeed very specious and plausible. But Dr. Trall's Review, contained in this pamphlet, is fair and thorough, scientific and severe.

Is Alcohol a poison, or a food, or both? My opponent contends that it is both; that is to say, either, according to circumstances—sometimes a poison, at other times a food. I contend it is always a poison and never a food.

To my understanding the idea of poisonous food is preposterous. Pereira, who adopts Liebig's notion of respiratory aliments, calls Alcohol an "obnoxious food." It warms and supports the system, and at the same time destroys it! Is not such language, judged by the rule of common sense, flat absurdity? All the difficulty with our authors comes from not having a rule to determine the essential character of an article, whether it be food or poison. Nature has given us this rule, and she has enstamped it on all within us, and written it on all around us, and yet learned men can neither feel it nor see it!

Now food is any material capable of transformation into tissue or structure. It must of course be susceptible of undergoing digestion and assimilation. This is true of both animals and vegetables.

Poison, on the contrary, is any material chemically incompatible with the tissues or structures. This is true, also, of both animals and vegetables.

AN AGED PASTOR.—On Sunday morning last, Rev. Dr. Charles Lowell, the venerated pastor of the West Church, in Lynde street, Boston, went into that city from his residence in Cambridge, notwithstanding the severity of the storm, and delivered his address upon the occasion of his fifty years' settlement over that church and society. The address referred entirely to the incidents connected with his ministry, and at times during its delivery [illegible] visibly FOREIGN NEWS.

On Sunday last the steamer Atlantic arrived at New York at 3 P. M., bringing one week later news from Europe, which is unimportant. The peace propositions of the Western Powers had not yet been replied to by the Czar. It was believed, however, that Russia would accept but for England's demand for indemnity, which Russia refuses. Breadstuffs had considerably declined. There is nothing new from the seat of war.

Sixty merchantmen are reported to have been wrecked off the Sulina mouth, on the 17th ult., and four hundred lives lost.

A despatch from Paris states that the Chamber of Stockbrokers has decided that the new Russian loan shall not be quoted on the Paris Bourse.

The ship Donald McKay, from Melbourne, Oct. 3d, arrived at London on the 29th, bringing £416,000 in gold.

Consols closed firm on Saturday, at a slight advance on Friday's prices, leaving off at 88 1-2 to 88 5-8.

FROM CALIFORNIA.

On Saturday night at New York, the steamship Northern Light arrived at San Juan via Key West, with California dates to Dec. 20th, $640,000 in specie, and 300 passengers. Dates from Australia to Oct. 2d, and Oregon to the 14th ult. The Indian wars were increasing in the latter country.

Prominent points of news have already been received by telegraph via New Orleans. Matters at Nicaragua are said to be improving. San Salvador and Honduras have officially recognized the Government of Rivas, and a minister from Honduras is reported on his way to Granada.

Walker was receiving continual accessions to his forces. Kinney is still at San Juan del Norte; a large number of his men have recently joined Walker.

THE JANUARY STEAMERS.—We present below a complete list of steamers advertised in English papers for the United States to arrive in January. It will be observed that we shall have have semi-weekly accounts throughout the month, which is quite unusual for the winter season:

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—No prospect of an organization of the House. Mr Clingman holds up his plurality resolution, hoping to get other Democrats to support it; only two go with him on it.

Information has been received here that Indiana has elected delegates to the National Convention in favor of Bright for President, and refusing to endorse the administration; this greatly annoys General Pierce.

It is understood that Ohio stands in favor of Buchanan.

NEW YORK, Jan. 12.—The Burning Steamer.—The reported burning of a steamer in the Sound has turned out to be untrue. All the boats have been accounted for. A barn was burnt at New Rochelle at the time, which probably gave rise to the story.

More Gold from California.—From New Orleans we learn by telegraph that the steamship Sonora arrived at San Francisco Dec. 15, with passengers hence Nov. 20. She left on the 20th of Dec. with a million and a half in treasure.

Another Marine Loss.—News is just received that a French ship of seven or eight hundred tons had capsized and gone ashore at Great Swamp. All hands lost except one.

NEW YORK, Jan. 12.—The Nicaragua Trouble.—The Evening Post states that a telegraph despatch was received here from Washington on Wednesday evening, after the sailing of the Star of the West, to fit out the government steamer Arctic to go in pursuit and bring her back. Before the Arctic could be got under weigh she was frozen in at the Navy Yard and the expedition abandoned.

UTICA, Jan. 13.—A young man named John Stanton was shot and dangerously wounded Saturday night while attempting with others to obtain admission into a house of bad repute. A slug and seventeen shot entered just below his heart. He cannot live.

NEW YORK, Jan. 14.—Another accident occurred on the Hudson River Railroad at 10 o'clock last night, on the down train from Albany, drawn by two locomotives, was passing over the bridge at Stuypton Devil Creek, one of the locomotives went through the bridge into the river, taking a passenger car and two baggage cars with it. One engineer, one fireman and a boy are missing. As far as is

LOCAL.

COURT OF COMMON PLEAS.

MONDAY, Jan. 14.

The case Claggett vs. Emery and Simes, which was on trial, was settled by a compromise between the parties—closing the whole controversy of which this suit was a part.

The Court adjourned without day.

A large amount of business has been done, in the way of clearing the docket, since the regular session commenced, of which this day is the close. A great many actions have been settled by the parties,—as well as by the industry of the Court.

☞ The second of Mr Lamprey's series of Assemblies, comes off on Wednesday evening, Jan. 16, at Congress Hall. Dancing commences at 8 o'clock.

COMFORT.—The article with the impossible name, advertised and manufactured by J. E. Chapman, is a capital invention for keeping the feet warm, on a sleigh ride, or in other exposed places. We've tried 'em, and they are much better than "anything else."

LAKE WALTS.—This pleasing composition, by Mr. Wm. F. Lawrence, formerly of this city, and dedicated to Alonzo F. Bond, has passed to its third edition, and become a part of the extensive catalogue of Oliver Ditson, of Boston. We are indebted to the author for a copy, received through Mr. J. H. Head, who has the music for sale.

☞ The Storm of Saturday night and Sunday, which here gave us an abundance of snow—at least a foot, in Boston and southward was chiefly rain with violent wind. The Boston papers begin to give accounts of marine disasters, and we fear we must see a great many. In Boston, the wet streets and avalanches from the houses, made travelling quite dangerous. The Times says:

A most miraculous escape occurred in Morton Place. A man had been engaged in clearing out an eave gutter on a four story brick building, which job he had finished, but on attempting to ascend the roof towards the attic window, from which he had emerged, the snow began to slide, and with it he fell to the ground, a distance of forty feet. He experienced hardly a bruise, and his only demonstration under the circumstances was a glance at where he "heard something drop" from, and a rush for the house for the purpose of brushing off the snow on his clothes.

DEATH OF A FEMALE CENTENARIAN.—Mrs Hannah Bennett died at her residence, No. 2 Vine street, Boston, on Friday, at the advanced age of one hundred years eleven months and sixteen days. Mrs. Bennett was a native of Roxbury, but has spent most of her days in Boston. She was born in 1755, and was, therefore, twenty years old when the American Revolution commenced. "Mother Boston," the colored woman, is now the only centenarian known to be alive in Boston.—Traveller.

☞ A letter from Cincinnati, 7th inst., to the Boston Traveller, says that Hogs have fallen in Cincinnati, from $7 per hundred to $5 15,—and plenty at that.

The Traveller says:

The present aspect of the New York and Boston markets in respect to breadstuffs, provisions, groceries, etc., is favorable for a marked decline in a number of articles which for a long period have been held at very exorbitant prices. Flour is falling in price, which is unusual at this season of the year; and pork, which has been for a month or two past so extravagantly high, has rapidly declined within a week; at Brighton market, this week, the owner of a large lot of good hogs could not get an offer of 7 cents, though a week or two before they sold readily at 8 1-2 and 9 cents. And in articles of grocery, we understand also that there is much less firmness, with a prospect of a decided decline in prices being established. This change for the better will perhaps be slow, but there is reason to hope that it will be sure. Peace in Europe at this crisis would be a great boon to the poorer classes even in this country.

Mr. Benjamin F. Perry of Shrewsbury, Mass., committed suicide by cutting his throat with a razor, on Monday last. The body was discovered in his own house by some of the neighbors, on Tuesday. Mr. Perry was about thirty-two years of age, unmarried, and for some days, had been keeping house alone.

The Coos (N.H.) Democrat says that Mr Oscar Morton of that place was taken ill while riding in a sleigh, on the 7th inst., and died in fifteen minutes after being removed to a dwelling house. He is supposed to have died from the rupture of a blood vessel.

NEW TONIC.—A Yankee doctor has contrived to extract from sausages a powerful tonic, which he says contains the whole strength of the original bark; he calls it the "Sulphate of Canine!" He anticipates a great popularity for it in New York city.—Worcester Transcript.

Five bodies have been brought ashore and buried from the wreck of the schooner Excelsior, lost at Barnegat Inlet. One of them, a passenger named Anthony Jervis, is said to have a wife in New York. The captain says that they got out of fuel, and that all hands on board, except himself and mate, were frozen to death.

There are in the Papal dominions less than 3,000,000 of inhabitants, and, according to a statement in the Piemonte, of Turin, the number of persons in prison has increased from 10,436 in 1850 to 13,006 in 1854.

Great American and Foreign Office

For Securing Patents for Inventions.

Agency for business with US Patent Office, Washington,

R. H. EDDY,

No. 76 State st, oppo. Kilby st, Boston.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO INVENTORS. The Subscriber (late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, under the Act of 1837) determined to present advantages, in applying for Patents, superior to those offered inventors by others, has made arrangements whereby on applications prepared and conducted by him, THIRTY DOLLARS (instead of twenty, as paid back by others,) will be remitted by him in case of failure to obtain a patent, and the withdrawal through him within thirty days after the rejection.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate.—The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining patents.

Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers and Drawings necessary to the procural of patents in this and foreign countries prepared, and advice rendered on legal and scientific matters respecting inventions, or infringement of patents. All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

Copies of claims of any patent furnished for one dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.—Patents secured in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries, through Agents of the highest respectability.
R. H. EDDY,
Solicitor of Patents.

Testimonials.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent Office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."

From the present Commissioner.

AUGUST 17, 1855.—During the time I have held the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq. of Boston, has been extensively engaged in the transaction of business with the Office, as a Solicitor. He is thoroughly acquainted with the law, and the rules of practice of the Office. I regard him as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse.
CHAS. MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

CONGRESS.

SATURDAY, Jan. 12.

HOUSE.—Mr Campbell, of Ohio, moved that the ten minutes resolution be suspended until Wednesday, in order to give the different candidates for the Speakership an opportunity to define their positions.

A debate ensued, in which several members expressed opposition to turning the House into a debating society, and opening the boundless sea of debate.

Mr Richardson thought he could get through with his part of the performance within the prescribed ten minutes. Mr Campbell consequently, and at the request of Mr Richardson, withdrew his motion to suspend.

Mr Humphrey Marshall suggested that the batches of interrogations be filed, and candidates to reply in printed publications at their convenience. [Laughter.]

Mr Richardson replied to a series of interrogations written and propounded by Zollicoffer of Tennessee, commanding the marked attention of the members and a crowded gallery. He said that in voting for the Kansas Nebraska bill he intended that the people of the territories should decide the question of slavery for themselves, and he was in favor of admitting them with or without it. He said that slavery would not go there, but never urged that as a reason why he voted for the bill.—As to the constitutionality of the Wilmot Proviso, he voted for the principle as applicable to our Mexican acquisitions in a spirit of compromise, but he thought it would be unjust to incorporate the proviso in a territorial bill. In his judgment the Constitution does not carry slavery into territories, but protects both sections of the country alike.

Much squabbling ensued as to the order of proceedings. It was finally decided that all the candidates should answer Mr Zollikoffer's queries before others were propounded. Mr Banks was called out, and members drew up their chairs around him. Mr Banks said he did not feel that he was obliged to answer questions. He had not solicited support.—His friends—as Othello said of his wife ——"had eyes and chose him."

He distinctly remarked he did not regard the Kansas bill as promotive of the formation of the free states. He believed in the constitutionality of the Wilmot proviso, and did not believe the constitution carries slavery into the territories. He recognized the right to protect property North and South alike, but not property in man. He believed the Constitution to be an instinct of freedom, and that Congress was wrong in repealing the Missouri Compromise. [Applause from the Republicans.]

There were now cries for Fuller. Mr Fuller rose, and said that he was ready at any time to retire from this protracted contest.—He did not regard the Kansas bill as promotive of the formation of either free or slave states. He had never advocated the constitutionality of the Wilmot Proviso. Slavery exists independently of the Constitution. He contended that Congress had no right to legislate upon slavery in or out of territories; it only had the right to legislate so far as to protect citizens in the enjoyment of their property.

Mr Pennington was then loudly called for. He said he had no idea that so obscure and unpromising a candidate as himself would be required th define his position. He was outside of the triangle. (Laughter.) He must respectfully decline to make a reply, but would do so when the House seriously intended to use his name in connection with the Speakership. It was of no consequence what the individual opinions of the presiding officer were.

Cries from all quarters—"Call the roll."—"Vote, vote."

Mr Barksdale of Missouri asked Mr Banks "Are you a member of the Know Nothing party? Are you in favor of the abolition of slavery in the District of Columbia? Do you wish to promote the equality of the white and black races by legislation? Are you in favor of the entire exclusion of naturalized citizens and Catholics from office? You were in favor of the tariff at the last session, are you so now?

Mr Kennett of Missouri. I should like to know whether either of the candidates believe in a future state, and if so, whether a free or a slave state? [Laughter.]

Mr Barksdale [advancing towards Mr Kennett excitedly]. Do you wish, do you intend to cast a reflection on me. I hurl it back with scorn and contempt.

Deafening calls to order ensued upon this, and nearly all the members were upon their feet. A motion was made to adjourn, but it was unsuccessful.

Mr Kennett. No difficulty in or out of the hall shall intimidate me. I say to the House that my suggestion was merely jocular.

Order was restored, when Mr Richardson replied negatively to Mr Barksdale's queries, with the exception of the last.

Mr Banks then arose, and, in answering Mr Barksdale's inquiries, preferred doing so in his own way, leaving gentlemen to draw their own inferences. He was nominated, he said, by the Democrats and Americans, and by them elected. He referred to the record of last year of his views on the tariff. He had adopted the maxim of Junius—"It is unfortunate for a man to spend any considerable portion of his time in commenting upon his own work." [Laughter.] As to the equality of the white and black races, he believed, in the language of the Declaration of Independence, that "all men were created equal." He had adopted the idea that the weak race will be absorbed in the stronger; that is the universal law. Whether the white or black race were the superior, and would eventually absorb the other, he would not express an opinion, but preferred to wait for a more full development. [Laughter, and cries of "Good, good.] As to the other questions propounded, they are subordinate to that of prohibiting slavery in Kansas, and he would not ask any man what he thought of this or that measure, but would unite with all to interdict slavery in the territories.

Mr Fuller of Pennsylvania answered that he was not in favor of restoring the Missouri Compromise restriction. He was opposed to the abolition of slavery in the District of Columbia. He did not believe in the equality of the black and white races, He thought with Washington that it is the best policy for the government to appoint native born citizens to office in preference to those of foreign birth—to proscribe no man for his religion, but to accord to all the largest liberty of opinion. He did not desire to exclude foreigners from coming hither, and would invite them to come and settle the public territory, and build up for themselves homes, but in all matters pertaining to legislation and administration, Americans should govern America. [Applause from the Americans.]

Each party seemed to be perfectly satisfied with the responses of its candidate, as is shown by the following vote taken immediately after the explanations had been made:—

The House then adjourned after this exciting session.

PRINCE & CO'S IMPROVED Patent Melodeons.

Between 17,000 and 18,000 of these Instruments have been finished and are now in use.

The latest improvement in our Melodeons is the DIVIDED SWELL.

Secured to us by Letters Patent, 22d May, 1855. By means of this swell Solo Passages may be played with the full power of the Instrument, while the accompaniment is soft and subdued.—Hereafter, all Melodeons made by us will be furnished with this attachment WITHOUT EXTRA CHARGE.

[Extract from the Com. Advertiser, July 27th.]

"Messrs Prince & Co. could realize a handsome fortune by disposing of rights to other manufacturers to use their new improvement, but as they prefer to make it a feature in their Instruments, it can only be obtained by purchasing one of their manufacture."

The styles and prices are—

IN PORTABLE CASE:

4 octave Melodeon, extend'g frm	C to C	$45
4½ octave, "	" C to F	60
5 octave Melodeon, "	" F to F	75
5 octave, double reed, "	" F to F	120

IN PIANO CASE:

5 octave Melodeon, extend'g frm	F to F	$100
6 octave " "	" F to F	130
5 octave, double reed, "	" F to F	150

Organ Melodeon (for churches,) five octaves, 8 stops, 1½ octave pedals, 4 setts of reeds. 350

Agents for the sale of our Melodeons may be found in all the principal cities and towns of the United States and the Canadas.

The Following Opinions,

IN regard to MASON & HAMLIN'S Model MELODEON are from distinguished Musicians:

(From Lowell Mason.)

After having carefully examined the Melodeons of Messrs Mason & Hamlin, I am enabled to say that in my opinion they are decidedly superior to any others with which I am acquainted.

New York, July 1, 1854. LOWELL MASON.

From Geo. F. Root.)

Henry Mason, Esq., Dear Sir,—Having had one opportunity of examininng Mason & Hamlin's Model Melodeons, I am happy to bear testimony to their great excellence. In general characteristics, and especially in quality and uniformity of tone and tuning, they seem to me to be superior to any that I have yet examined.

Yours very truly, GEO. F. ROOT.

New York, May 25th, 1854.

(From Edwin Bruce.)

Dear Sirs:—I have examined your Model Melodeons with much satisfaction, and am prepared to express my confident opinion that they are the most perfect instruments manufactured.

Yours, &c., EDWIN BRUCE.

Harrison's Columbian Ink, Black.

FOR the National Government, State Legislatures, Courts of Record, Banks, Railroads, Post Offices, Insurance Offices, Editors, Authors, Lawyers, Doctors, Clergymen, Commercial and Business men of every sort, Colleges, Academies and Schools, and that great class who sustain all the Farmers—the GREAT INK of the country. 644,573 bottles sold in 1854, is significant that the AMERICAN PEOPLE appreciate THE AMERICAN INK, made by HARRISON THE AMERICAN MANUFACTURER, and determine its great superiority over all foreign inks. It is at wholesale and retail by

Harrison's Blue Black Writing Fluid

PROGRESS in the arts has revealed a Writing Fluid which does not, as other Writing Fluids do destroy the points of gold pens, actively corrode steel pens, or chemically decompose the paper on its coloring. I have seen paper where every letter written with English Fluids was eaten entirely through, and a delicate blue tint changed to a dirty yellow. The best make of gold pens have been condemned for losing their points, and the best manufactures of paper returned upon the dealer, where these Fluids were extensively used. Harrison's Fluid is subject to none of these evils. It writes a beautiful blue, and soon turns a jet black, and remains permanent. HARRISON'S AMERICAN, made by an AMERICAN, and worthy the use of all Americans. It is wholesaled and retailed by

Singer's Sewing Machines.

THESE Machines have long sustained the highest reputation in the United States.

The First Prize—A Gold Medal,

Has recently been awarded to them at the Palace of Industry in Paris, and thus they have the WORLD'S VERDICT OF SUPERIORITY.

The inventor has just added to these superior Machines an improvement whereby they can work on any kind of

FAMILY SEWING,

From a coarse Cotton fabric to the finest Linen Bosom, in such a perfect manner as no other Machine professes.

They will also Bar and close all kinds of Kid Boots and Shoes, and stitch the finest Gaiter Boots in every part without a skip—making them the most desirable for girls to use at home, or for any who wish to do more than one kind of work.

These Machines are warranted to do all kinds of work in a manner far superior to any other machine in use.

They run without noise, with ease to the Operator, and at double the ordinary speed, so that

Twice as much Work can be done in a Day.

The greatest Shoe Manufacturing and Clothing Establishments in the country use these Machines exclusively, having tried other Machines and found them entirely unfit for their use.

They are simple, and cost scarcely anything to keep them in repair; and can be operated by a child twelve years old.

These Machines may be had at Manufacturers' prices, of

THOMAS S. NOWELL,

Local Agent for New Hampshire, at his Shoe Manufactory, McDonough street, Portsmouth, where they may be seen in operation. d29

THE AUTHORSHIP OF PETER PARLEY.—There is a controversy going on about the authorship of the Peter Parley series. Goodrich through the New York Times says that Mr Kettell, the late editor of the Boston Courier, had no hand in it, as alleged by the Courier. But a correspondent in to days Courier, signing himself "Veritas," says that Mr Kettell was in fact the anonymous author of nearly all Goodrich's "History of All Nations," and of the School Histories of the United States, School Geographies, &c. The fact is, Mr Kettell was Goodrich's paid hack at one time and did the work while Goodrich amiably took the blushing honors and profit all to himself. Kettell, like all men of genuine literary ability, was of a retiring nature; Goodrich is a conceited, pushing man of the world, and now turns up his nose at his old hack in the true spirit of the old English publishers, who were said to drink their wine out of author's skulls. Let not the living ass Goodrich lift his foot against the dead lion Kettell. There was more intellect in the parings of Kettell's nails than in all Goodrich's phrenological developments.—Lowell Courier.

The coroner's jury in the case of the death, by inhaling pure chloroform, of Miss Morgan in Boston, last week, add this to their verdict: "from the testimony and opinion of medical experts in this case, the jury feel compelled to caution the public against the use of chloroform, as being a dangerous anaesthetic agent." Four persons had used chloroform from the same bottle, with injurious results before, but in this case the physicians testify that it turned her blood to water. The only safe course is to have nothing to do with it.—Newburyport Herald.

DR. J. W. POLAND'S
HEADACHE KILLER!
PREPARED BY
DR. J. W. POLAND
Goffstown Centre, N. H.

THIS Wonderful Medicine for the Sick and Nervous HEADACHE, as well as for Tic Doloreux, Neuralgia and all forms of Nervous Diseases, after an impartial trial of more than six years, has established its reputation as a standard Remedy. Other Headache Remedies have "waxed and waned" since this was introduced to the public, but the Genuine DR. POLAND'S HEADACHE KILLER has been, and is now increasing in sales every month.

Within three months, more than seven tons in weight of the Headache Killer have been sent over the Railroads to fill orders for it.

Please to read the Circular, which the Agents have, and you will get the history of the Medicine.

☞ Price Fifty cents a Bottle.

For sale by Wm. R Preston, J. H. Thacher, D. Kimball and B. Hutchings, Portsmouth; C. A. Merrill, Exeter; J. H Pendergast, New Market; Palmer & Brewster, Dover; J. Mason, Hampton; and by Medicine dealers everywhere. 3awGmjy29

G. W. STONE'S
Cough, Consumption, and Bronchitis
ELIXIR.

THE Proprietor would respectfully call the attention of the public to his invaluable Remedy for all Affections of the Throat and Lungs and begs of those who are undecided what to select, from the numerous medicines advertised, and recommended for such complaints, to give his ELIXER a trial. Having done so, they will no longer hesitate what to take themselves, or recommend to others A single trial will prove to them that this is the most valuable remedy ever discovered for the various affections of the Throat and Lungs; it will immediately relieve the most violent Cough, and in a few hours completely cure the most severe Cold As a Preventive and Cure for Consumption, it has no equal.—Purely Vegetable, contains no poisonous ingredients, is quite agreeable to the taste, and may be given with perfect safety to the most delicate child. The numerous testimonials received almost daily from those who have been cured by it, fully justify the assertion that no family should be without this Medicine: let Mothers give it to their Children who have the Whooping Cough or Croup, and they will alleviate at once the sufferings of their little ones. Price 50 cts.

Call for G. W. Stone's Cough Elixir, and see that his name, and Cough Elixir, with the words Boston, Mass., are blown upon the Bottle, without which none will be genuine.

DR. BURLEIGH SMART'S
Cough Medicine.

DR. BURLEIGH SMART, of Kennebunk, Me. was well known throughout the New England States, as a Physician whose treatment of fatal diseases was attended with almost miraculous success. Very few Physicians ever enjoyed a more enviable reputation, or acquired a more extended practice. The Medical Journal, in speaking of him soon after his death, says:

"A man liberally educated, of acute perception, superior judgment, untiring perseverance, and ardently devoted to his profession, Dr. Burleigh Smart was eminently worthy of the enviable position which he held in the estimation of the Medical Faculty at the time of his death. And though skilful in every branch of the Medical Sciences, for many years his attention was given to DISEASES OF THE LUNGS, in the treatment of which he proved himself the most successful Physician who ever practiced in New England."

This medicine was first compounded and made use of by him, and is substantially the same great agent by means of which he accomplished so many wonderful cures of Pulmonary Disease. Its efficacy having been most thoroughly tested, in thousands of cases, by an eminent Physician, all we can say in its praise must, of course, be superfluous. It is offered to the public in its present form, with the most implicit confidence in its powers—a confidence based not wholly upon the above, but upon 'actual trials of its virtues, the testimony of hundreds of our citizens in its favor and a knowledge of its ingredients severally considered, as regards their curative properties Its formula has been submitted to several of the most distinguished chemists in this country, who unite in pronouncing it "A beautiful combination of the most efficacious and valuable medicinal agents used in treating diseases of the Lungs and other Respiratory Organs."

Unlike all other medicines of the same nature, it immediately allays the Cough, and so operates on the Pulmonary Apparatus as to remove the cause, thus effecting a permanent cure. In this respect it is infinitely superior to all other preparations. By its use the strength of the patient is sustained, tone and vigor imparted to the system, the blood purified, disease arrested, and a healthy action of all the organs attained. In compounding it, the greatest care is observed, every bottle being separately prepared with chemical accuracy, of uniform strength, and in strict accordance with the original recipe. No poisonous drugs are used to give it a beautiful color, and impair its virtues, as in nearly all other Cough Medicines, and in every instance the patient can rely on its doing all that medicine can do

To secure the public against counterfeits, we have the bottles made expressly for us, with the words "DR BURLEIGH SMART'S COUGH MEDICINE, SMART & CLARK, BIDDEFORD, ME., U. S. A." blown in the glass. Every bottle is enclosed in a wrapper of red enameled paper, printed in the English, French, Spanish and German languages, from a costly engraved plate, of which the copyright has been secured. As an inside wrapper, containing full directions for using the Medicine, and a valuable treatise on Diseases of the Lungs, with directions for the cure of Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis and Consumption, compiled from the most reliable medical authorities by a distinguished physician, also accompanying each bottle.

DEATH OF ROGERS, THE BANKER POET.—The Arago brings news of the death of Samuel Rogers the poet, who though not remarkable for his genius or his productions, was from his position and his connections, one of the most remarkable men of the age. As has been remarked of him, it must have been by an extraordinary combination of position, and of wisdom, that the same man who was the freindly rival of Byron, Wordsworth and Scott, talked finance with Huskisson and Peel on equal terms, exchanged bon mots with Talleyrand, and was the freind of all the eminent men and of many of the indigent and miserable who flourished and suffered during three parts of a century.

The precise age of Rogers is, we believe, a matter of some doubt, but it has generally been stated that he was born in the year 1766. Looking back over the years that have flown over the earth since that period, the mind staggers under the recollection of the great events which occurred in the life-time of one man—He was a young man when the battle of Bunker Hill was fought, and nine of the Presidents of the United States were born since his birth. The feeble American Colonies, which, in his early manhood, were struggling for freedom, have now become one of the greatest powers of the earth. He had arrived at man's estate when Dr. Johnson, the great lexicographer, died, and he lived to witness the debut and death of many of the greatest men of the past century. Scott, Moore, Byron, Wordsworth, Southey, Coleridge, Napoleon, were all born after he became old enough to remember their birth. His first published volume appeared in 1787, and was entitled "Superstition and other Poems;" his "Italy," which was his last work, was published thirty-four years ago. His house in London has been famous for half a century for the elegant hospitalities enjoyed there by the great men and famous women of the time. To breakfast with Rogers has been the ambition of Americans visiting London, and many of our eminent countrymen have had the happiness to boast of enjoying that distinguished honor. This Nestor of bankers and poets died at his house in St. James place, in London, on the night of the 17th of December.

The Cincinnati Columbian is half inclined to think that General Pierce ought, by all discreet men, to be supported for the next term of the Presidency. It gives the following reason:—

"Presidents, like Congresses, grow worse and worse. We were once so deluded as to think Mr Van Buren a sad President. But Mr Tyler came, and taught us to admire and regret Van. Well, while Tyler lasted, we never doubted that he was the true perfection of a bad President. Wrong again. When Mr Polk arrived, he seemed to make it his study, by all his actions, to show to all the world what a loss and what an honor to the country John Tyler had been. So, by the time that Mr Polk's reign was come to an end, we had completely wrapt ourself up in the most assured and satisfactory conclusion that now, at least, Fate had done her worst, and that as matters could not deteriorate, they must needs henceforth improve! But, 'O coeca mens mortiatium.' Little did we dream of the woful possibility of a Pierce! How bright he makes Polk appear! Ah! could we but hope ever again to look upon the like of Polk. But no; that was a Golden Age for which 'tis vain to sigh."

FUGITIVE ARRESTED.—Some days since, a young man named Thomas Carter, a clerk for Moses Merrifield, 9 Sea street, collected about $300 for his employer, but instead of paying the amount over, he decamped. Yesterday, a telegraphic dispatch was received at the chief's office from A. S. Maynan, Esq., Chief of Police in New Orleans, stating that Carter was under arrest in that city, and awaiting a requisition from the Governor of this State. The "papers" having been procured, and placed in the hands of Constable Benjamin Heath of this city, that officer leaves this afternoon for New Orleans for the purpose of bringing Carter back for trial.—The expense of going after and returning with Carter, will be just about double the amount he is charged with embezzling, but justice must be satisfied.—Boston Journal 11th.

JENNY LIND.—"I will sing for the benefit of the poor here," said Madame Jenny Lind Goldschmidt when in Vevay, a small town of Switzerland. But before the day appointed for the concert arrived, the Nightingale became hoarse and could not sing. "The poor cannot wait a day," said the singer—and she sent them 2000 francs.

The Providence Tribune says:—"We learn that several of the insurance companies in this state have resolved not to insure buildings, any part of which is occupied for the sale of intoxicating drinks, or for gambling purposes.

THE BRITISH CURRENCY.—It has been finally decided to introduce the decimal currency all over the United Kingdom. The pound will be retained as the unit, and divided into one thousand parts. The half crown will be abolished—the shilling fifty, the sixpence twenty-five, and a new coin will be introduced representing five farthings, while the present farthing will be depreciated one twenty-fifth in value—that is, there will be a thousand to the pound sterling, instead of nine hundred and sixty.

The Advertiser publishes a letter from Valparaiso, contradicting, from the personal knowledge of the author, the reports of rich gold mines in Chili. The writer also tells of a remarkable feat performed by a young man from Medford, Mass., who walked across the Pampas and Cordilleras, more than a thousand miles, unable to speak the language, and with an astonishingly small amount of money. So much for a Yankee.

MELANCHOLY.—Mr John H. Chesley, aged about 37 years, was instantly killed on the 8th instant, on the Cleveland and Toledo Railroad, while in the act of shackling two freight cars loaded with timber, the projecting ends of which fractured his skull. His body was conveyed to Wakefield, N. H., where his aged parents reside, and the funeral took place on Thursday last. Mr Chesley leaves a wife and four young children, whose deep grief under this painful visitation commands heartfelt sympathy.

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 16, 1855.

WARLIKE RUMORS.

A Washington correspondent of the New York Herald, telegraphs, Jan. 14—

A strong impression pervades political circles that our relations with Great Britain are threatened, and serious apprehensions are felt and expressed by many Senators, several of them in the confidence of the Administration, of an early rupture between the two Governments.

The New York Commercial Advertiser, evening paper, of Jan. 14, has the following editorial:—

"We regret to be assured, from a source that precludes all doubt of the correctness of the information, that the President has instructed Mr Buchanan to demand from the British Government the recall of Mr Crampton, on the ground of his participation in the enlistment of men for the war in the Crimea. In common with a large proportion of our intelligent commercial citizens, we have hoped that the reports to this effect hitherto made public were rather conjecture than a well ascertained fact, receiving the more general credence because of their improbability. We are constrained to abandon that hope and to give full credit to the statement which some of our contemporaries some days ago very confidently set forth."

We do not share in the regret. Mr Crampton, if half of what the President alleges against him be true, ought to be sent home. If not true, he can and should deny it. But in his sending home or being recalled, we see no speck of war. A little bluster about a war, may benefit some wire-working politicians on either side of the water—but neither of the nations wish for a war with the other. Especially, on this side the water, our Cotton-growing States would oppose it,—and therefore we shall probably not see it very soon.

THE FILLIBUSTERS. — Despatches from Washington say that certain Foreign Ministers apprehend, on what they consider undoubted authority that the Walker movement embraces within the scope of its ultimate operations the conquest of Cuba, Porto Rico and St. Domingo. Hence their constant watchfulness in that quarter, and frequent communications with our Government on the subject.

The report of Gen. Shields, made a year ago in the Senate, has been reproduced, in which Parker H. French is charged with obtaining two thousand dollars worth of Government stores on a forged letter of credit, and branding him as an impostor. This has materially operated to damage Mr French's prospects here.

THE SACRED PLAINS. By J. H. Headley. Buffalo: Wanzer, McKim & Co. Sold by Fetridge & Co., Boston, and J. F. Shores, jr., Portsmouth.

This is quite a handsome volume, with several interesting illustrations, and is published by a new firm at Buffalo. The author is a lawyer, and not Rev. Joel T. Headley, author of the "Sacred Mountains," and present Secretary of State of New York. Of this book, the Rev. G. W. Heacock says: "As to its subject matter, it is intended to be a companion to the "Sacred Mountains" of the Rev. Secretary of State, J. T. Headley, to whom the author makes honorable allusion in his preface. No reader can fail, under the guidance of our author, to make an interesting acquaintance with these sacred places, each of which hath witnessed some miracle of God—some footsteps of the Eternal. Pitch your tent then, reader, for a few successive nights, with so kindly a guide on these plains, and realize again the vision of glory or of dread which once overshadowed them."

NEW YORK, Jan. 14.—The Herald's Washington correspondent telegraphs: Excitement prevails in the Democratic ranks, owing to the bolting to-day of Messrs. Boyce, Keitt and McQueen of South Carolina. Gen. Quitman also refused to vote again until a caucus should be held, unless his vote should be necessary to prevent the election of Banks, in which case he would throw away his vote. It was feared that the Mississippi delegation would do likewise. The difficulty was Mr Richardson's saying he believed the Wilmot Proviso constitutional.

NEW YORK, Jan. 14.—Wholesale Swindling.—Three of our Exchange drawers have been swindled, in the aggregate, of $20,000, by an up-town impostor, who obtained that amount of exchange and skipped away to England by one of the last steamers, without paying for it.

We also hear of another occurrence of the same kind, to about the same amount, in which three other houses were victimized.

A swindle has also recently been carried out successfully at the West, by a party who has been forging the acceptance of Mr P. T. Barnum to drafts which he negotiated, pocketing the proceeds. The amount of forged paper is variously estimated at from 20,000 to $80,000.

UTICA, Jan. 14.—At 7 o'clock this morning a fire broke out in the store, No. 56 Genesee street, in this city, which with its contents, was wholly consumed. The flames communicated to Thurber & Seward's book store, C. A. Yate's wholesale clothing store, Westcott & Hammond's hat and fur store, and an adjoining building known as the New York store. A large amount of goods was saved, but the aggregate loss cannot be less than $75,000. The store where the fire broke out was filled with the stock of P. V. Kellogg & Co., wholesale clothing dealers, and goods of W. C. Wilcox, dry goods merchant, which firms had just taken possession of the building only a few hours before the fire broke out.

Mr Wilcox's loss is about $25,000. All the property destroyed was insured, but to what extent is not yet known.

GOV. WELLS OF MAINE.

In the Message of the new Governor of Maine, he gives us his views on Temperance and the Liquor Law, which we copy entire as follows:

"The regulation of the sale of intoxicating liquors will claim the early attention of the legislature. The laws upon that subject have undergone frequent changes, and with the light of experience, a new one may be framed, which will suit the wants of the community. The liability to abuse and excess in the consumption of such liquors calls upon society to restrain the sale as far as is consistent with the liberty of the citizen. Intemperance is a great evil, the parent of many sorrows, vices and crimes, and every legitimate and proper means should be used to prevent it. But the true foundation of temperance must be laid in education. Fines and imprisonment terrify and restrain to some extent, but they rarely reform. Every man capable of managing his affairs has the right to determine for himself what shall be eaten or drunk in his own house, and any attempt by law to control him in the exercise of it cannot be justified. But when one undertakes to act upon society, by selling liquor, the law can properly prescribe rules for his government, he then makes himself amenable to the will of others. Society, in the employment of a proper discretion, may protect itself. The use of stimulants containing the intoxicating principle, has prevailed among all nations from the earliest times, and it is not probable that it will ever be entirely abandoned.

Whether a person will or will not use intoxicating liquors is a question for his own determination. One may persuade another as to what he shall do in relation to himself in morals or religion, but coercion in respect to such action is persecution. It is founded in the sentiment, that one knows what is better for his neighbor, than the neighbor knows for himself, and a unity of will must be made by compulsion. An attempt of this kind is at war with the very elements of civil liberty.—The wants of the community will be satisfied with a very restricted sale, by granting licenses in each city, town and plantation to no more sellers than will conveniently accommodate the purchasers. It is a desirable object to place the traffic in the hands of respectable citizens. Innholders furnishing liquors to their guests and travellers alone, would stand in the same situation as the head of families. Importers under the laws of the United States should be allowed to sell in the original packages. And there are some classes of persons to whom sale should be prohibited, those whose habits show them unfit to be trusted with what they are sure to use improperly.

The public good requires that no intoxicating liquors should be allowed to be drank in the shops where they are sold. Such practices lead to breaches of the peace and other conduct injurious to society. It does not accord with wise and consistent laws to forbid the manufacture of an article which is permitted to be sold. No doubt the Legislature will enact a law, with suitable penalties, that will receive the approbation of the people and will accomplish all that legislation can be expected to do, in promoting the cause of temperance.

Although many well meaning persons have approved of the existing law on this subject, believing it to be the best instrumentality to advance a good cause, it seems to me that they have done so without a thorough examination and understanding of it, and that no rational and unprejudiced man, who has studied it attentively, can sanction its tyrannical details, and recommend it as a rule of government to a free people."

Look at this argument for a moment. 1st—Intemperance is a great evil, and must be prevented. 2d—Man has a right to drink what he pleases, and any attempt to control him in the exercise of the right cannot be justified.—3d—There are classes of persons to whom sales should be prohibited. 4th—No intoxicating liquors should be allowed to be drank in the places where sold. 5th—Innholders should be allowed to furnish liquors to their guests; of course to be drank where sold. Who ever saw such an absurd string of incongruities? The second proposition condemns the first, the third is in conflict with the second, and the fourth and fifth are in direct antagonism.—Ballot.

We perceive that Governor Wells admits, or rather asserts the great principle on which the Maine law is founded, in these words:

But when one undertakes to act upon society, by selling liquor, the law can properly prescribe rules for his government, he then makes himself amenable to the will of others. Society, in the employment of a proper discretion, may protect itself.

The law in Maine has never gone beyond this effort. Gov. Wells, however, advises protection only by such a license law as will do it, and make the traffic respectable,—and thereby probably increase it.

COBURN AND DALTON, the murderers of Wm. Sumner, in Boston, have been indicted for manslaughter, and held to bail in $3000 each, with sureties.

No day for the trial in either case was assigned, but it will take place some time during the next week. Manning, Grover & Co. became sureties for Dalton, and he was released from custody. Coburn subsequently obtained bail. Coburn was also arraigned on an indictment charging him with breaking into and stealing $1700 from the store of John Gove & Co.

SHIP BURNT BY HER OWNERS.—The Russian ship Rossia, which has been for some time in Boston harbor, to avoid the perils of the war, was taken back of East Boston, on Saturday afternoon, and burned on account of her owners, for the purpose of saving her iron and copper.

LOCAL.

Editors of the Chronicle—Gentlemen:—Having been wantonly and abusively assailed as Postmaster of this city in the two last issues of the Ballot, I desire to avail myself of your columns simply to pronounce the assaults of the Editor of that sheet, so far as I am accused of official delinquency connected with the circulation of his or any other paper, or any other matter, upon whatever authority based, whether honorable or otherwise, as wholly and unqualifiedly false, in aggregate and detail. I should not have deemed these unfounded and scurrilous attacks worthy of notice, did the public generally as well understand the malicious motives which actuate my assailant towards me, as they are known and appreciated in this community.

Every proper attention is paid by me, as I think you will personally bear me witness, Messrs. Editors, having occasion, as you do, to visit the interior of the Post Office several times daily, to the performance of my duties generally, and to the mailing of the several newspapers printed in this city particularly. The papers are promptly sent out, without distinction as to their political character, by the first mails that depart after they are received, the mails being frequently detained for the purpose until scarcely time sufficient is left to take them to the depot in season for the outward trains, as the carriers will certify.

In conclusion, I would invite the strictest surveillance on the part of the know nothing editor of my official conduct; and while I may take no further public notice of his abusive attacks, he will find me ready and able to meet, in the proper quarter, any charges he may think it worth his while to prefer against me. G. H. RUNDLETT.

Portsmouth, Jan. 16th, 1856.

ODD FELLOWS' LEVEE.—The social Levee by the Odd Fellows in this city, takes place to-morrow evening, at Congress Hall. The arrangements for the occasion are all completed, and there can be no doubt it will be a most pleasant and happy re-union.—These gatherings of the brothers of the order have heretofore been conducted with great propriety, and the result has always been an increased interest on the part of the members in the workings of the institution. The acquaintance of brother with brother, and with the members of each other's family, is ripened into friendship, so that when thrown in their way by the call of sickness or distress, there is less of formality as strangers, and more of real sympathy as brethren.

The arrangements are such that no gentleman will be admitted unless he is a member of the I. O. of O. F., and it is to be hoped that all who can claim the right, will be present. Tickets may be procured of Henry F. Gerrish.

☞ Those persons who propose to attend the Odd Fellows' Levee to-morrow evening, should cut paths through the snow from their doors to the street, otherwise it will be impossible to approach the carriages in which they are to ride to the Hall.

☞ The snow in our streets is superabundant, say three feet on a level, and very solid. The breaking out of paths, which must be done is a very slow, laborious and costly business.

In some of our narrow streets it is extremely difficult to make a sufficient sleigh path without burying the sidewalks. Ladd street contains an unbroken pile of snow from one sidewalk to the other, about five feet deep; and there seems to be no way to make a path there, without carrying off the snow. The streets, however, with well shovelled walks, and the sleighing improving every hour, present a beautiful appearance, decorated as they are with snow mountains of every shape, and with trees and buildings coated and loaded with snow and ice, glittering in the sunshine.

☞ The lecture before the Mercantile Library Association on Tuesday evening, was by John S. Woodman, Esq., of Boston,—On Paris and its environs.

The lecturer's descriptive powers are good; his memory excellent; his language almost faultless; and his self-possession, in speaking without notes, admirable. His elocution, however, though quite distinct and appropriate, is not forcible, and to the distant auditor seemed tame.

The boot heels in the back seats clattered terribly when the orator took his sixth drink of water—and so he, disconcerted as we suppose, with the idea that the auditors were tired, concluded to wind up the lecture, leaving out about a quarter part of what would have been an instructive essay of an hour and a half.

Music on the Grand Piano by Mr Pearson.

SUICIDE.—George B. Covell, of this city committed suicide on Monday night, by taking laudanum. He was about 30 years old, and leaves a wife and one child.

☞ Forty-three carpenters and laborers were discharged from the Navy Yard on Tuesday for want of work.

MARINE DISASTER.—The barque Eagle, King, from Boston 12th inst. for Rio Grande, met the storm near the breakers of White Island, Isle of Shoals, off Portsmouth, on Sunday afternoon. The anchors not holding, the order was given to cut away the masts, but a breeze springing up, the barque was got under weigh & run into Cape Ann harbor. The stern boats and davits were carried away, the deck load started, &c. Allen G. Drody of Hyannis had one of his legs broken while shipping the cables.

☞ Schooner Josephine, of Dover, N. H., with a cargo of flour and corn, went ashore in Gloucester harbor on Sunday afternoon, and became a total loss. Crew saved, as also 229 bbls flour.

DEATH OF THE MAYOR.—We regret to learn that Rufus Clement, Esq., Mayor of Concord, died on Monday morning. He had been sick a number of weeks, and little hope has been entertained of his recovery for some time.—Patriot.

Cough, Consumption, and Bronchitis ELIXIR.

THE Proprietor would respectfully call the attention of the public to his invaluable Remedy for all Affections of the Throat and Lungs and begs of those who are undecided what to select, from the numerous medicines advertised, and recommended for such complaints, to give his ELIXER a trial. Having done so, they will no longer hesitate what to take themselves, or recommend to others. A single trial will prove to them that this is the most valuable remedy ever discovered for the various affections of the Throat and Lungs; it will immediately relieve the most violent Cough, and in a few hours completely cure the most severe Cold. As a Preventive and Cure for Consumption, it has no equal.—It is purely Vegetable, contains no poisonous ingredients, is quite agreeable to the taste, and may be given with perfect safety to the most delicate child. The numerous testimonials received almost daily from those who have been cured by it, fully justify the assertion that no family should be without this Medicine: let Mothers give it to their Children who have the Whooping Cough or Croup, and they will alleviate at once the sufferings of their little ones. Price 50 cts.

Call for G. W. Stone's Cough Elixir, and see that his name, and Cough Elixir, with the words Boston, Mass., are blown upon the Bottle, without which none will be genuine.

CONGRESS.

MONDAY, Jan. 14.

SENATE.—The Senate met and adjourned to Thursday.

HOUSE.—In the House, Mr Traiton corrected a statement made by Mr Campbell on Saturday, that there was no Bible in the Congressional Library.

Adjourned.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—It is reported here that England rather than go to war with the United States on the Central American question, will recede from her assumed protectorate over the Bay Islands and the Mosquito question. It has been incorrectly stated that the last Government despatch transmitted to England was sent through Mr Crampton. If any were sent they went through the regular channel.

The despatches received by Government by the Canada, were of no special importance.

FUGITIVE SLAVES IN CANADA.—A writer in the N. Y. Tribune says:

Determined to ascertain their actual condition, I recently visited parts of the Upper Province, in which numbers of them reside. My efforts were both successful and satisfactory.

Everything appertaining to this people I found had been misrepresented. Evidences in abundance were discovered to show that they are as competent to take care of themselves as the Anglo-Saxons. Their farms, dwellings, workshops, day and Sabbath schools, are as well managed as similar matters and things among our population.—If you should travel from house to house, in any direction from Cleveland, among the New England farmers, you would not find stronger evidences of advancement and comfortable living than were discovered among an equal number of these colored families. On the score of kindness, affability and good manners, it is feared the former would suffer by the comparison.

SUDDEN DEATH.—In Plaistow, Jan. 7, Stephen Currier, aged about 75 years. Mr C. was breaking paths in the forenoon, and about his buildings with his team at noon; but was not afterwards seen until the next day about 11 o'clock, A. M., when he was found dead in the snow near his barn. He probably died instantly of a heart complaint. His wife was at the time confined to the house by disease, and no other person was near, — her anxiety was, of course great, but could not be relieved until the chance arrival of a neighbor by whom he was found. Mr C. was a good neighbor and a good man.—Exeter News-Letter

FATAL COASTING ACCIDENT.—At Hamilton, Mass., last week, three girls were amusing themselves in coasting, when, by some means, their sled, in going down hill, sheered and run against a fence, throwing them off with great violence. Two of them escaped without serious injury. A third, named Lucinda W. Foster, daughter of Wm. Foster, aged 15 years, was so seriously injured that she died in about 48 hours. It is supposed that she ruptured a blood vessel, as she bled constantly after the accident.—Boston Traveller.

JUDICIOUS LIBERALITY.—Dr. Lawrence, the son of the late Amos Lawrence, and author of his memoir, has set apart the profits accruing to himself from the copyright of the work, to various public objects. Among other donations he has contributed five hundred dollars to the funds of the Young Men's Christian Union, and an equal sum to the funds of the Young Men's Christian Association.—Boston Telegraph.

ROBBERY.—John Smith, a sailor, was enticed, he says, by two other sailors, named George Reese and Robert Tugal, down upon Eastern Packet pier, Boston, on Saturday evening at 10 o'clock and robbed by them of his clothing. They left him barefoot and almost entirely naked. Officers Jellison and Cowdry heard Smith's cries for help, and arrested the parties.

A Virginian Postmaster has been inquiring of the Department the meaning of the little "pictures stuck on the letters;" and another official in Iowa, desired the Department to sustain him in a decision he had recently made against a "fellow" who insisted that "them pictures of Washington, on the letters, paid the postage."

THE DIFFERENCE.—The New York House of Assembly have had some fifty ballots for Speaker, without success. The Legislative Assembly of Oregon, on the 4th ult., chose Hon. Delazon Smith, Speaker, on the first ballot, unanimously.

Right glad are we to hear that our old friend "Delusion Smith" has turned up somewhere. He may be a great man yet.

PAPER MAKING.—There are in the United States 750 paper mills in actual operation, having 3000 engines, and producing in the year 250,000,000 pounds of paper, which is worth, at ten cents per pound, $25,000,000. To produce this quantity of paper 437,200,000 pounds of rags are required, 1 3-4 pounds of rags being necessary to make one pound of paper. The value of these rags, at four cents per pound, is $17,500,000.

From present appearances we conclude that the rumsellers on the neighboring islands, are about to change their place of business to our side of the water.—Eastport Sentinel.

The Maine law has just gone into operation in New Brunswick, and the license law men have just come into power in Maine. That is the reason of this immigration of rumsellers.—Bangor Whig.

The whole river and bay are frozen at Baltimore as far as the eye can reach, the ice being about eight inches thick. A steamer from Norfolk could only come within six miles of the city, before she was ice bound. The passengers left her, with their baggage, and walked up safely on the ice.

The Following Opinions,

IN regard to MASON & HAMLIN'S Model MELODEON are from distinguished Musicians:

(From Lowell Mason.)

After having carefully examined the Melodeons of Messrs Mason & Hamlin, I am enabled to say that in my opinion they are decidedly superior to any others with which I am acquainted.

New York, July 1, 1854 LOWELL MASON.

From Geo. F. Root.)

Henry Mason, Esq., Dear Sir,—Having had one opportunity of examininng Mason & Hamlin's Model Melodeons, I am happy to bear testimony to their great excellence. In general characteristics, and especially in quality and uniformity of tone and tuning, they seem to me to be superior to any that I have yet examined.

Yours very truly, GEO. F. ROOT.

New York, May 25th, 1854.

(From Edwin Bruce.)

Dear Sirs:—I have examined your Model Melodeons with much satisfaction, and am prepared to express my confident opinion that they are the most perfect instruments manufactured.

Yours, &c., EDWIN BRUCE.

Harrison's Columbian Ink, Black.

FOR the National Government, State Legislatures, Courts of Record, Banks, Railroads, Post Offices, Insurance Offices, Editors, Authors, Lawyers, Doctors, Clergymen, Commercial and Business men of every sort, Colleges, Academies and Schools, and that great class who sustain all, the Farmers—the GREAT INK of the country. 644,573 bottles sold in 1854, is significant that the AMERICAN PEOPLE appreciate THE AMERICAN INK, made by HARRISON the AMERICAN MANUFACTURER, and determine its great superiority over all foreign inks. It is at wholesale and retail by

d10 GEO. W. TOWLE, 3 Congress Block.

Harrison's Blue Black Writing Fluid

PROGRESS in the arts has revealed a Writing Fluid which does not, as other Writing Fluids do destroy the points of gold pens, actively corrode steel pens, or chemically decompose the paper or its coloring. I have seen paper where every letter written with English Fluids was eaten entirely through, and a delicate blue tint changed to a dirty yellow. The best make of gold pens have been condemned for losing their points, and the best manufactures of paper returned upon the dealer, where these Fluids are extensively used. Harrison's Fluid is subject to none of these evils. It writes a beautiful blue, and soon turns a jet black, and remains permanent. HARRISON'S is AMERICAN, made by an AMERICAN, and worthy the use of all Americans. It is wholesaled and retailed by

Singer's Sewing Machines.

THESE Machines have long sustained the highest reputation in the United States.

The First Prize—A Gold Medal,

Has recently been awarded to them at the Palace of Industry in Paris, and thus they have the WORLD'S VERDICT OF SUPERIORITY.

The Inventor has just added to these superior Machines an improvement whereby they can work on any kind of

FAMILY SEWING,

From a coarse Cotton fabric to the finest Linen Bosom, in such a perfect manner as no other Machine professes.

They will also Bar and close all kinds of Kid Boots and Shoes, and stitch the finest Gaiter Boots in every part without a skip—making them the most desirable for girls to use at home, or for any who wish to do more than one kind of work.

These Machines are warranted to do all kinds of work in a manner far superior to any other machine in use.

They run without noise, with ease to the Operator, and at double the ordinary speed, so that

Twice as much Work can be done in a Day.

The greatest Shoe Manufacturing and Clothing Establishments in the country use these Machines exclusively, having tried other Machines and found them entirely unfit for their use.

They are simple, and cost scarcely anything to to keep them in repair; and can be operated by a child twelve years old.

These Machines may be had at Manufacturers' prices, of

THOMAS S. NOWELL,

Local Agent for New Hampshire, at his Shoe Manufactory, McDonough street, Portsmouth, where they may be seen in operation. d29

G. W. STONE'S

LIQUID CATHARTIC,

AND

Family Physic.

The most important discovery ever made in Medical Science, being a compound of Barks and Roots, which forms the most powerful, safe and agreeable Physic ever offered to the public.

THE necessity of such a Medicine has long been felt both by the heads of families and Physicians. Its advantages over cathartics given in the form of Pills or Powders, must be obvious to every intelligent person. It operates more immediately and effectually upon the system, and at the same time is infinitely less difficult to administer, being quite agreeable to the taste. It not only produces all the effects where physic is required, but completely removes habitual Costiveness, leaving the bowels perfectly free. It expels all humors from the blood, in a certain cure for the Piles, regulates the action of the Liver, frees the Stomach from pile, invigorates the whole Nervous System, and removes the cause of all local pains, such as

It may also be relied upon in all diseases of the Bowels; Dysentery, Diarrhœa and Cholera Morbus yield at once to its magic influence. Again we repeat, TRY IT!—It needs no other recommendation. No family will be without it after they have properly tested its merits. Reader, if you have tried other remedies, without success, despair not—relief is now at hand. Are you suffering with Scrofula, six bottles of my Liquid Cathartic will cure you. Would you be relieved from habitual Costiveness—three bottles will effect all that you desire. If you are afflicted with Rheumatic, Neuralgic, or other local pains, two bottles will free you from them. All humors will be eradicated from the blood by the use of from one to six bottles. In short, if you require a physic for any purpose, this is the most reliable, safe and agreeable to the taste that has ever been placed within the reach of the public.

PRICE $1.00.

HEADACHE KILLER!

PREPARED BY

DR. J. W. POLAND

Goffstown Centre, N. H.

THIS Wonderful Medicine for the Sick and Nervous HEADACHE, as well as for Tic Doloreux, Neuralgia and all forms of Nervous Diseases, after an impartial trial of more than six years, has established its reputation as a Standard Remedy. Other Headache Remedies have "waxed and waned" since this was introduced to the public, but the genuine DR. POLAND'S HEADACHE KILLER has been, and is now increasing in sales every month.

Within three months, more than seven tons in weight of the Headache Killer have been sent over the stages to fill orders.

Please to read the Circular, which the Agents have, and you will get the history of the Medicine.

G. W. STONE'S

Cough, Consumption, and Bronchitis

ELIXIR.

THE Proprietor would respectfully call the attention of the public to his invaluable Remedy for all Affections of the Throat and Lungs and begs of those who are undecided what to select, from the numerous medicines advertised, and recommended for such complaints, to give his ELIXER a trial. Having done so, they will no longer hesitate what to take themselves, or recommend to others. A single trial will prove to them that this is the most valable remedy ever discovered for the various affections of the Throat and Lungs; it will immediately relieve the most violent Cough, and in a few hours completely cure the most severe Cold. As a Preventive and Cure for Consumption, it has no equal—It is purely Vegetable, contains no poisonous ingredients, is quite agreeable to the taste, and may be given with perfect safety to the most delicate child. The numerous testimonials received almost daily from those who have been cured by it, fully justify the assertion that no family should be without this Medicine: let Mothers give it to their Children who have the Whooping Cough or Croup, and they will alleviate at once the sufferings of their little ones. Price 50 cts.

DR. BURLEIGH SMART'S

Cough Medicine.

DR. BURLEIGH SMART, of Kennebunk, Me. was well known throughout the New England States, as a Physician whose treatment of Lung Diseases was attended with almost miraculous success. Very few Physicians ever enjoyed a more enviable reputation, or acquired a more extended practice. The Medical Journal, in speaking of him soon after his death, says:

"A man liberally educated, of acute perception, superior judgment, untiring perseverance, and ardently devoted to his profession, Dr. Burleigh Smart was eminently worthy of the enviable position which he held in the estimation of the Medical Faculty at the time of his death. Although skilful in every branch of the Medical Sciences, for many years his attention was given to DISEASES OF THE LUNGS, in the treatment of which he proved himself the most successful Physician who ever practiced in New England."

This medicine was first compounded and made use of by him, and is substantially the same great agent by means of which he accomplished so many wonderful cures of Pulmonary Disease. Its efficacy having been most thoroughly tested, in thousands of cases, by an eminent Physician, all we can say in its praise must, of course, be superfluous. It is offered to the public in its present form, with the most implicit confidence in its powers—a confidence based not wholly upon the above, but upon actual trials of its virtues, the testimony of hundreds of our citizens in its favor and a knowledge of its ingredients severally considered, as regards their curative properties. Its formula has been submitted to several of the most distinguished chemists in this country, who unite in pronouncing it "A beautiful combination of the most reliable and valuable remedial agents used in treating diseases of the Lungs and other Respiratory Organs."

Unlike all other medicines of the same nature, it immediately allays the Cough, and gives immediate relief, and tends to remove the Disease, thus effecting a permanent cure. In this respect it is infinitely superior to all other preparations. By its use the strength of the patient is sustained, tone and vigor imparted to the system, the blood purified, disease subdued, and a healthy action of all the organs attained. In compounding it, the greatest care is observed, every bottle being separately prepared with chemical accuracy, of uniform strength, and in strict accordance with the original recipe. No poisonous drugs are used to give it a beautiful color, and impair its virtues, as in nearly all other Cough Medicines, and in every instance the patient can rely on its doing all that medicine can do.

To secure the public against counterfeits, we have the bottles made expressly for us, with the words "DR. BURLEIGH SMART'S COUGH MEDICINE, SHAW & CLARK, BIDDEFORD, ME., U. S. A." blown in the glass. Every bottle is enclosed in a wrapper of red enameled paper, printed in the English, French, Spanish and German languages, from a costly engraved plate, of which the copyright has been secured. An inside wrapper, containing full directions for using the Medicine, and a valuable treatise on Diseases of the Lungs, with directions for the cure of Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis and Consumption, compiled from the most reliable medical authorities by a distinguished physician, also accompanying each bottle.

Morning Chronicle.

THE CZAR NICHOLAS.—Mr. Wakley, surgeon and coroner of London, says:—

"In the case of the Emperor Nicholas, his death was put down to paralysis of the lungs and bronchitis, which, according to the symptoms described, was known by as medical men to have been impossible, and to have been stated only to deceive the public mind. The official document describing the Emperor's death stated that, at the last he took leave of his family with a firm voice, a proceeding physically impossible, if he was suffering from the disease stated in the certificate of death. The belief, therefore, on the minds of the medical men in this country was, that the Emperor was poisned; and that is my own opinion, not, at the same time, that he was poisoned by those about him, but that he committed suicide."

The South are waking up to the importance of another attempt to gain control of affairs in Kanzas, by urging toward settlers before the Free Soil influence becomes permanent. Jefferson Buffard of Alabama, has given $20,000 to equip a party, and intends to start with 300 emigrants on the 20th Feb.; a Mr Carlyle went from Georgia a few days since, with 42, and Capt. Allison Nelson from the same State, with 100 more; Virginia has sent large numbers, and will send many more Probably, however, for every hundred that goes from the slave States there are a thousand from the north; and all the free settlers will ask, is the protection of the Nebraska act —a fair field, pure ballot boxes, and the institutions of the State to be formed by actual settlers. There is no fear of the result; and the more Southerners that go there, the more there will be to go back again, or to remain and behave themselves, with no power to buy or sell human beings.—Newburyport Herald.

MARRIAGE WITH A DECEASED WIFE'S SISTER.—In the course of argument by counsel, in the case before the Court of Sessions last week, respecting the legality of a marriage with a deceased wife's sister, one of the counsel said it was a doubtful point whether such marriage was prohibited in the Levitical law; on which Lord Ardmillan remarked, that he was surprised that none of the counsel had referred to Jacob marrying two sisters, and to the fact that our Saviour was descended from one of them.—Glasgow (Scotland) Mail.

It might have been added that the geneology of our Saviour also includes Judah's incest with Tamar. The reference to Jacob proves rather too much.

THE LATE DR. CHOULES.—The Newport News gives the following particulars of the death of the Rev. Dr. Choules:—

"He was perfectly conscious until within five minutes of his death; he conversed freely with his wife and friends; giving to the former the most minute direction in regard to his temporal affairs, and conversed cheerfully and with the most perfect resignation of his death. Within a few moments of the time that the spirit took its flight from earth, he repeated, with great distinctness, a favorite hymn of his commencing—

"Jesus, lover of my soul,
Let me to thy bosom fly," &c.

He died in his chair, without a struggle or a groan, and as gently as an infant would be lost in sleep. On Saturday Mrs Choules arrived in the city; during the day, Dr. Choules made his will and gave full instructions in regard to the most minute affairs."

AN AMERICAN RABBI ON THE MESSIAH.—Dr. Raphael the well known Jewish Rabbi in New York, says:—

"I as a Jew do say that it appears to me that Jesus Christ became the victim of fanaticism, combined with jealousy and lust of power in Jewish hierarchs, even as in later ages Huss and Jerome of Prague, Latimer and Ridley, became the victims of fanaticism, combined with jealousy and lust of power in Christian hierarchs; and while I and the Jews of the present day, protest against being identified with the zealots who were concerned in the proceedings against Jesus of Nazareth, we are far from reviling his character or deriding his precepts."

IMPORTANT DISCOVERY AT BABYLON.—A London paper states, that Col. Rawlinson has just discovered among the ruins of ancient Babylon an extensive library, not indeed printed on paper, but impressed on bricks, containing many and voluminous treatises on astronomy, mathematics, ethnology, and several other most important branches of knowledge. These treatises contain facts and arguments which, in his opinion, will have no small operation on the study of the sciences to which they relate, and which throw great light on biblical history and criticism, and the history of our race.

A gang of notorious rowdies in New York, on Sunday morning, attacked policeman Andree, of the 8th Ward, and beat him most brutally. The miscreants were subsequently arrested, although they threatened to kill any person who laid hands upon them.

A little girl, six years old, had her eyes put out last Thursday evening, at Baltimore, by a brother two years old, who put the end of a stick into the fire, and when it was burnt to a coal, poked it into her eyes in play.

The brick engine-house belonging to the Newburyport Railroad Company was consumed on Friday night, together with the locomotive Merrimac. Loss about $4000.

Robert Thompson, a Scotchman, 35 years of age, a lunatic, escaped from an asylum at Albany on Thursday, and on Friday morning was found in a vacant lot, frozen to death.

☞ Ex-Gov. Bigler, of Pennsylvania, has just been elected U. S. Senator from that State.

Morning Chronicle.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 17, 1855.

A DIALOGUE.

Lycurgus—not the ancient—but the modern Lycurgus of the Dover Gazette, adopts our "Soap Dragon" or dialogue style, with but moderate success. Nevertheless we will hold a short talk with him.

Lycurgus.—The Chronicle, not the ancient Chronicle of sacred events, but a modern Chronicle, published at Portsmouth, in defence of Judge Kane, and in reply to Lycurgus makes some remarks, &c.

Chron.—Stop there a moment. We did make some remarks in reply to Lycurgus—but not one remark in defence of Judge Kane. There is no good defence for him—and scarcely any apology. But Lycurgus is either a dreadful blunderer, or something must ail him, for he certainly does not say what he means. He ought not to mistake the State's Attorney for the Prisoner's Counsel—as he does when he speaks of our defence of Judge Kane! We attacked him! We don't defend him. Wake up, Lycurgus! don't be such a blunderhead.

Ly.—The question of Williamson's imprisonment was made a partizan question in Pennsylvania, and I found you endorsing the views of one political faction.

Chron.—The only views endorsed, were those of liberty,—just such views as the people of New Hampshire took, when the Royal Governor Cranfield imprisoned Joshua Moody and William Vaughan.

If any party in Pennsylvania choose to put their own enslavement into a platform, we don't choose to stand on it. If they choose to make every judge a dictator, and worship him, we don't.

Ly.—The Chronicle must entertain a high opinion of the intelligence of those who elevated to a seat upon the bench of a Court, "a slave and a tyrant at heart—and a blockhead in intellect."

Chron.—Not very high. We have seen it stated within a few days that John Tyler appointed him.

Ly.—Will the Chronicle be kind enough to tell us when, and by whom, Williamson was arraigned before a Grand Jury upon the charge of perjury? To prove him innocent of contempt the Chronicle has to convict him of perjury.

Chron.—No sir. We do no such thing: you either deceive yourself, or mean to deceive your readers when you say so. We said "If all the allegations in Kane's first decision were true, they no more proved Williamson guilty of contempt than of burglary, but of falsehood, which Judge Kane said would be perjury, if the Grand Jury saw fit to indict him. But they didn't."

No grand jury in Philadelphia would pretend that Williamson, who is well known as a man of truth, had perjured himself. He was never arraigned. If he had been, the trial would have broken down. His word was worth vastly more than either Wheeler's or Kane's.

Ly.—For the contempt Judge Kane committed him to prison; for the perjury it was not in his power to punish him. Even Williamson acknowledged the jurisdiction of Judge Kane in the premises, by purging himself of the contempt, as the Judge had required.

Chron.—We too acknowledge his jurisdiction—but we detest his tyranny, despise his judgment, and pity his imbecility.

Ly.—"He judged wrong?" Well, authorities do differ,—the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania said he judged right.

Chron.—They don't say any such thing: they say he had the right to judge—and they (in a cowardly way as we deem it,) refused to go behind his decision, to ask whether he judged right or wrong. We say also that he had the right to judge—but that he blundered as badly as Lycurgus, and construed an alleged falsehood into a contempt.

But Lycurgus does not say whether it is Democratic or Republican, for a Judge first to say that a certain offence is contempt, when we have a law that says expressly it is not,—then to put a man in jail and keep him there as long as he pleases for this constructive contempt.

Ly.—I am not bound to decide every hypothetic case that may be brought forward: there are a great many supposable cases, and if the Chronicle wishes his all decided, he had better refer them to those "slimy petifoggers who fancy themselves statesmen."

Chron.—Well: we refer the above case back again to Lycurgus.

Ly.—I do sincerely believe that the safety and welfare of the country—the perpetuity of our institutions depends upon giving efficiency to the Law, by placing the Judiciary above the influence and dictation of political faction.

Chron.—And do they depend also on letting the judge decide absolutely on his pleasure, without any appeal to the people for liberty? or to Congress for impeachment? We think there are or ought to be no dignitaries, whether judges or jurors, presidents or priests, lawyers or pedagogues, who may not be brought up before the high court of public opinion, and arraigned by the press and the people.

Ly.—That Law of the United States makes it not only the privilege of the Judge, but his imperative duty to imprison without trial, for contempt. This power is wisely lodged in the hands of the judge, since the dignity and efficiency of the Court could be sustained in no other way. It seems to be the law, and not the judge who is blamed by the Chronicle.

Chron.—No: the law is good; but the judge is a tyrant and a blockhead.

Ly.—The question at issue in this controversy is not a party one—but simply whether Judge Kane acted within his jurisdiction in committing Williamson for contempt of court.

Chron.—No: we never questioned his jurisdiction at all—but his judgment: and we answered this question by calling him a bad lawyer for construing an alleged falsehood, (but a real truth,) into a contempt, and by calling him a tyrant for executing his silly decision, in which he made a contempt out of what the U. S. Law says expressly is not and shall not be so considered.

Ly.—Statute enactments affirm what things and acts do constitute crime, but it is certainly an original idea that they ever define what does not.

Chron.—Unluckily for the accuracy of Lycurgus, the U. S. Law of March 2, 1831, does say that certain acts are contempt, and that all others are not. Read the section for yourself.

"Be it enacted, &c. That the power of the several courts of the United States, to issue attachments and inflict summary punishment for contempts of court, shall not be construed to extend to any cases except the misbehavior of any person or persons in the presence of said courts, or so near thereto as to obstruct the administration of justice, the misbehavior of any of the officers of said courts, in their official transactions, and the disobedience or resistance by any officer of said courts, party, juror or witness, or any other person or persons, to any lawful suit, process, order, rule, decree or command of the said courts."

Chron.—No sir: we profess no neutrality. We can sometimes be silent—but never neutral—certainly not with liberty on one side and slavery on the other. These predilections of ours have never been concealed since we wrote for the public eye. Yet we believe ourselves in this matter to be disinterested,—and at least calm enough to look on all sides of the question. The more we look at Judge Kane's law of contempt, the more we dislike it, as being arbitrary and unjust, tyrannical and foolish. We are glad that no political party ir bound to support it;—and hope there are but few men in New Hampshire who are so bad lawyers or so rank aristocrats as to apologize for it.

☞ We notice by a handsome card, and by San Fransisco papers, received by the last steamer, that Mr Charles E. Rand, formerly of Portsmouth, and recently engaged (in firm of Sim & Co.,) in the brokerage, commission and packet business, at San Fransisco, California, has taken the entire control of the affairs of the late firm, and will hereafter conduct the business alone. Mr Rand is a young man of fine abilities, and we are pleased to note his various successes. May no cloud ever darken his path.

THE 22D OF FEBRUARY.—The Order of the Sons of America will hold their annual banquet in Faneuil Hall, Boston, on the evening of Washington's birth-day.

We hope that Washington's birth-day will be kept as a National Holiday,—not merely this year, but in all future years—and kept well—not only by one party—but by all our citizens.

☞ We learn that Hon. Nehemiah Eastman, of Farmington, died suddenly on Friday, Jan. 11. He was out in his sleigh, riding, as usual, and dropped suddenly dead. His funeral was attended at Farmington, on Wednesday of this week, with Masonic honors. Mr Eastman was about 65 years of age, and was formerly a conspicuous and active politician.

The correspondent of the New York Commercial says:

"The remarks of Mr Banks, in reply to the interrogatories put him yesterday, were delivered in an impressive and eloquent manner, and increased the attachment of his friends to his nomination. Nothing will induce them to drop him, and yet he cannot be elected by a majority vote, if the contest be continued, as some members think it will be, till the 30th of June, when the fiscal year expires, and when the appropriations for the next year must be made."

FROM NICARAGUA.—The Cour. & Enquirer publishes the following extract from a private letter from Granada de Nicaragua:

"Business in our city is very bad indeed, and the place is nearly deserted. Heavy contributions are levied on every one, and business has nearly stopped. The cholera, which has again broken out with new force, carries off many, and is especially severe with Americans. Walker's force has been decimated by it."

The Salem Register reports the death of William Govett, of that city, at the age of eighty nine years and six days. He witnessed the march of the British battalion under Leslie, up Lynde street to the north bridge, on the 25th of February, 1775. He was also one of the early members of the Cadet Company. He lived from birth to death in the same house. For a great length of time he was sexton of the North Church, and was a worthy, intelligent and upright man.

THE UNDERGROUND RAILROAD.—The Columbus (Ohio) correspondent of the Cincinnati Commercial says:

A collision came very near occurring here on Friday last, on the Underground Railroad. Two passengers were very closely pursued by their claimants, and the collision was only averted through the energy and vigilance of a well known anti slavery man of this city.—Ten minutes previous warning only saved the fugitives from their pursuers. An Anti-Slavery gentleman of Mt. Vernon, a delegate to the late American Convention, who had accepted of the position of Deputy U. S. Marshal, for the purpose of serving writs on certain counterfeiters, was suddenly called in to officiate in this case. He very promptly refused, and sent in the resignation of his post, which he has permitted me to copy for publication:

COLUMBUS, Jan. 7, 1856.

Hon. Jabez Fitch, U. S. Marshal, Cleveland, Ohio.—Sir,—I hereby tender you peremptorily my resignation as Deputy U. S. M. At the time I accepted that appointment, it did not occur to me that a contingency might arise in which I would be called upon to help execute the odious Fugitive Slave Law.

I believe, sir, these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, and have certain inalienable rights, among which, are life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness, and will not therefore, engage in the pursuit of a negro.

Yours truly, J UNDERWOOD.

THE ASYLUM AFFAIR.—The Police Court of Concord has been engaged, during the last four or five days, in the investigation of the unfortunate affair at the Asylum which resulted in the death of Alfred Wiggin, a patient. After a full examination, the Court ordered two of the attendants concerned in it (William H. Fisk and Edwin Carpenter) to recognize in $600 each for their appearance at the next term of the Supreme Court. The other was discharged. The Court thought that it was due to the public that a further examination should be had in reference to the two respondents named, though this examination was admitted to have been very full and thorough.

The Court took occasion to remark that this examination must satisfy all that the public confidence in the Superintendent of the Asylum and his assistant, and the general management of the Institution, is not misplaced.—Daily Patriot.

VERMONT.—In Windsor count, G Pratt was prosecuted for selling liquor, plead guilty to 30 counts, and paid $300 fine and costs.—R. Breck, of Weathersfield, plead guilty to 15 counts, and was fined $200 and costs; and Nelson P. Woodward plead guilty to 9 counts and was fined $90 and costs—also, Mr. Nash of Bethel, plead guilty to 10 counts, and was fined $100 and costs. Whole amount $840.

The Burlington Free Press states that Joseph Crotu, Patrick Cadagan, F. Lathrop, Warren D. Ayres, and Silas C. Isham, were severally arraigned before Justice Hollenbeck, and fined, the two former $10 each, and the two latter $20 each.

The Boston Advertiser announces the death of the venerable Asa Andrews, who died at Ipswich on Sunday last in the 94th year of his age. Mr Andrews was born in Shrewsbury; his mother was a descendant of Gov. Bradstreet. He graduated at Harvard College in 1783, and at the time of his death was the oldest surviving graduate of Harvard, and the oldest man in Ipswich. In 1796 he was appointed by Washington, Collector of the port of Ipswich, which office he held until 1829, when he was removed by Jackson. Mr Andrews was a man of much ability. He had filled many offices of trust and enjoyed the entire confidence of his fellow citizens.

The New York House of Assembly made a movement towards the election of a Speaker on Monday, which was probably carried into effect on Tuesday. A proposition that three votes should be taken for Speaker on Tuesday, and that the person having the highest vote on the third balloting should be declared speaker, was carried in the House by a vote of 87 to 19. Mr. Odell, the American candidate for Speaker, was probably chosen.

OHIO.—The following resolution was offered in the Ohio Democratic Convention, and withdrawn, because the mover found it could not be passed:

"Resolved, That we have full confidence in the integrity and patriotism of the National Administration, and cordially approve the principles so ably announced and maintained by the President of the United States in his last annual message."

WASHINGTON NEWS.—New York, Jan. 16.—The Tribune's Washington correspondent writes: "It is given out in diplomatic quarters that the British Legation and the sympathizing influences here, take in high dudgeon the dismissal of Mr Crampton and his recruiting confreres, and threaten that the diplomatic and commercial interests shall only be represented by a subordinate."

The rumor of the threatened presence of a French and English fleet near San Juan, and the inference drawn from it of a connection with the Central American question, have not been fortified by any official information received here.

Miss Drew, of Greenbush, while ministering to the sufferings of her father in the recent railroad accident at Poughkeepsie, had her feet so badly frozen that at one time it was feared that amputation would be necessary. There are now hopes, however, that the brave girl will be saved from this sad alternative.

CLERICAL.—The Unitarian Church of Brookline have, with great unanimity, given a call to the Rev. Dr. Hedge of Providence. Mrs. Hedge is the daughter of the Rev. Dr. Pierce, the former pastor of this society.

HOW MARBLES ARE MADE.—The common mode of grinding children's marbles is a curious instance of simplicity in machinery. A number of stone chips, broken to a suitable size, are put together in a tin box and fastened to the rim of a water-wheel, and there left to grind themselves into shape.

LOCAL.

DEMOCRATIC COUNTY CONVENTION.—This Convention was held at Newmarket on Tuesday. Benj. F. Haley, of Newmarket, was nominated for the office of County Treasurer; Thomas Smith, of Exeter, for Register of Deeds; and Josiah G. Hadley of Portsmouth, Moores Bailey of Salem, and Samuel S. Dame of Nottingham, for County Commissioners. These gentlemen were the candidates of the Democrats last year, and were re-nominated by acclamation.

J. SMITH ROBINSON.—Many of our readers will doubtless recollect that in June last we published an account of the larceny of $5000 in specie, from an express messenger, by J. Smith Robinson, while on board a train of cars over the Eastern Railroad from Portsmouth to Boston. Mr Robinson was arrested, the money recovered from him, and he was indicted, arraigned, pleaded not guilty, and gave bail for his appearance at a future day for trial, and immediately returned to Portsmouth.

The matter has thus rested until Wednesday morning, when it was brought up in the Municipal Court, by the counsel for Mr Robinson, who stated that he should move that the indictment against his client be nol pros'd on the ground of the insanity and irresponsibility of the defendant at the time of committing the larceny.

District Attorney Cooley was satisfied, from the evidence produced, that the defendant at the time of the commission of the larceny, was an irresponsible person, and therefore, with the approval of the Court, he would at once enter a nol. pros. upon the indictment.

The Court signified its approval of that course, and the indictment was accordingly nolle prosequied.

☞ The great Exhibition of the Russian War, which has created such an excitement in the Provinces, will open in this City sometime next week.

CONNECTICUT.—The American party of Connecticut, by its resolutions in state convention, adhere to the abolition creed, and recommend to the Representatives of the state the continued support of Mr. Banks as Speaker of the House.

☞ Parker H. French has been arrested at New York, and released in half an hour. Seven or eight of the Fillibusters are indicted.

CONGRESS.

TUESDAY, Jan. 15.

Mr Milson wished it to be understood, that although he was voting for Mr. Richardson, he in no manner was committed to the line of policy laid down by the Democratic caucus. But will hereafter feel free to dispose of his vote where it can be most effectually felt.

Mr Quitman, who had ceased to vote for Mr. Richardson, stated the reasons that influenced him again to support that gentleman.

The House then voted 112th ballot—Banks 92, Richardson 66, Fuller 34, Pennington 8, scattering 8.

Two more votes were had, the last stood: Banks 93, Richardson 66, Fuller 33, Pennington 9, scattering 8.

Adjourned.

WASHINGTON MATTERS. — Washington, Jan. 15.—The rumor that the United States and Russia had entered into a defensive and conditional treaty which as we learned per advices by the Atlantic, had caused so much excitement in European capitals, probably sprung from the fact that Russia has submitted to this Government a draft of a treaty of amity and commerce.

The plurality rule was tabled to-day by the votes of all the Richardson members present, except Barclay, Hicman and Vail, joined by the Fullerites, and L. D. Campbell, Dunn, Harrison, More, Scott and Wheeler.

ARRIVAL OF THE ERICSSON.—New York, Jan. 15. — The steamship Ericsson arrived here this evening, having left Havre, Dec. 30. She brings 27 passengers and Paris papers to the 27th ult., which are later than those received by the Atlantic.

Galignani's says, in spite of the efforts making for the re-establishment of peace, the Piedmontes government is preparing additional forces for a new campaign.

The Minister of war is said to have given orders for a corps of ten thousand men to be got ready without delay.

The Syndicate of the Agents de Change, Paris, had decided that the new Russian loan should never be quoted on the Paris Bourse, and the agents are forbidden to engage in any way in negotiating these securities.

Constantinople dates of the 17th, state that the storm continues. Four merchant vessels had been wrecked at the mouth of the Danube, and several English gun boats were still cruising in the Sea of Azoff, destroying the Russian fisheries.

The retrograde movement of Omar Pasha in Rodout Kale, is confirmed.

There had been a quarrel at Kertsel between the Anglo Ottoman troops and the Turks, but it was put down. In the Paris Bourse on the 28th, a sudden rally took place on a report that a truce of three months had been agreed upon.

MURDER AND RUFFIANISM IN NEW ORLEANS.—Within the last eight weeks there have been more assassinations in the public thoroughfares of the Republican city of New Orleans than we will venture to assert, have occurred in the whole despotic empire of brutalized Austria, a nation of forty millions of people, in the last two years; or indeed, in any other despotic government in Europe, within the same time; or in any other equal period—save a revolutionary era—since the time when it was the custom to employ professional assas-ins in Italy to avenge private wrongs, or gratify individual vengeance.

Up to this time the assassinations here have generally been confined to poor men, obscure sufferers comparatively, persons against whom so far as can be gathered by investigation, nothing could be alleged except that they were living beings whose presence could not be tolerated by the sanguinary fiends, who, abetted by the police, and not discouraged by the higher authorities of the laws, nor denounced by a just, humane and enlightened public opinion, have now fall away, and overawe the courts of justice.

That something may be done to arrest and remedy this fearful state of things, we suggest to our fellow citizens the propriety of a call for a public meeting, to devise ways and means to maintain public order and preserve life and property in this city of New Orleans.

On Monday afternoon last, a few minutes after Judge Robertson, of the First District Court, had dismissed the rule for a new trial, in the case of John M. Bell v. Joseph Hulty, some six or eight persons, standing in the corridor of the court house, were knocked down with slung-shots. For about an hour the building was in the undisputed possession of twenty or thirty persons, who would gather about any man obnoxious to them, knock him down from behind without saying a word, and then proceed to treat another in the same manner, until the building was cleared. No attempt was made to disturb them in their saturnalia. The court house has become one of the most dangerous places in this ruffian-ridden city.—New Orleans Delta.

SHIPWRECK AND LOSS OF LIFE.—The unknown vessel before reported as having struck and gone to pieces on Shag Rock, in Light House Channel, during the gale of Sunday morning, is supposed to be the packet schooner Lewis, Captain Crowell, from New York for Boston. She was in company in the bay, just previous to the gale, with the schooner Wolcott, Captain Bearse, from New York, which anchored below on Sunday. All the crew of the Lewis were drowned. The shipping papers belonging to the schooner Lewis, have been picked up in the bay by a fisherman, which leaves no doubt as to the fate of the vessel.—Boston Bee.

DROWNED.—Early Sunday evening, Patrick McGurney, a young man about 20 years old, accompanied by a friend, was crossing Concord river bridge, when his hat was blown off and into the river. McGurney very imprudently ran round by the Massachusetts mills and down the bank into the river to recover his hat. Though a good swimmer, he soon became chilled, and was of course drowned. His friend made an unsuccessful effort to save him. The body has been recovered.—Lowell Courier.

PENNSYLVANIA SENATOR.—Ex-Governor William Bigler was on Monday elected U. S. Senator for six years, by the Pennsylvania Legislature. The Know Nothings had the power to elect last year, but could not agree upon a candidate.

PRINCE & CO'S IMPROVED
Patent Melodeons.

Between 17,000 and 18,000 of these Instruments have been finished and are now in use.

The latest improvement in our Melodeons is the
DIVIDED SWELL,
Secured to us by Letters Patent. 22d May, 1855. By means of this swell Solo Passages may be played with the full power of the Instrument, while the accompaniment is soft and subdued.—Hereafter, all Melodeons made by us will be furnished with this attachment WITHOUT EXTRA CHARGE.

[Extract from the Com. Advertiser, July 27th.]
"Messrs Prince & Co. could realize a handsome fortune by disposing of rights to other manufacturers to use their new improvement, but as they prefer to make it a feature in their Instruments, it can only be obtained by purchasing one of their manufacture."

The styles and prices are—

The Following Opinions,

IN regard to MASON & HAMLIN'S Model MELODEON are from distinguished Musicians:
(From Lowell Mason.)

After having carefully examined the Melodeons of Messrs Mason & Hamlin, I am enabled to say that in my opinion they are decidedly superior to any others with which I am acquainted.

New York, July 1, 1854. LOWELL MASON.

(From Geo. F. Root.)

Henry Mason, Esq., Dear Sir,—Having had one opportunity of examinning Mason & Hamlin's Model Melodeons, I am happy to bear testimony to their great excellence, in general characteristics, and especially in quality and uniformity of tone and tuning, they seem to me to be superior to any that I have yet examined.

Yours very truly, GEO. F. ROOT.

New York, May 25th, 1854.

(From Edwin Bruce.)

Dear Sir:—I have examined your Model Melodeons with much satisfaction, and am prepared to express my confident opinion that they are the most perfect instruments manufactured.

Yours, &c., EDWIN BRUCE.

Harrison's Blue Black Writing Fluid

PROGRESS in the arts has revealed a Writing Fluid which does not, as other Writing Fluids do destroy the points of gold pens, actively corrode steel pens, or chemically corrode the paper or its coloring. I have seen paper where every letter written with English Fluids was eaten entirely through, and a delicate blue tint changed to a bright yellow. The best of gold pens have been condemned for losing their points, and the best manufactures of paper returned upon the dealer, where these Fluids were extensively used. Harrison's Fluid is subject to none of these evils. It writes a beautiful blue, turns to a jet black, and remains permanent. HARRISON'S is AMERICAN, made by an AMERICAN, and worthy the use of all Americans. It is wholesaled and retailed by

Singer's Sewing Machines.

THESE Machines have long sustained the highest reputation in the United States.

The First Prize—A Gold Medal,

Has recently been awarded to them at the Palace of Industry in Paris, and thus they have the WORLD'S VERDICT OF SUPERIORITY.

The Venetian Jury had not added to these superior Machines an improvement whereby they can work on any kind of

FAMILY SEWING,

From a coarse Cotton fabric to the finest Linen Bosom, in such a perfect manner as no other Machine professes.

They will also Bar and close all kinds of Kid Boots and Shoes, and stitch the finest Gaiter Boots in every part without a skip—making them the most desirable for girls to use at home, or for any who wish to do more than one kind of work.

These Machines are warranted to do all kinds of work in a manner far superior to any other machine in use.

They run without noise, with ease to the Operator, and at double the ordinary speed, so that

Twice as much Work can be done in a Day.

The greatest Shoe Manufacturing and Clothing Establishments in the country use these Machines exclusively, having tried other Machines and found them entirely unfit for their use.

They are simple, and cost scarcely anything to keep them in repair; and can be operated by a child twelve years old.

These Machines may be had at Manufacturers' prices, of

THOMAS S. NOWELL,

Local Agent for New Hampshire, at his Shoe Manufactory, McDonough street, Portsmouth, where they may be seen in operation. d29

Great American and Foreign Office

For Securing Patents for Inventions.

Agency for business with US Patent Office, Washington,

R. H. EDDY,

No. 76 State st, oppo. Kilby st, Boston.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO INVENTORS. The Subscriber (late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, under the Act of 1837) determined to present advantages, in applying for Patents, superior to those offered inventors by others, has made arrangements whereby on applications prepared and conducted by him, THIRTY DOLLARS (instead of twenty, as paid back by others,) will be remitted by him in case of refusal to obtain a patent, and the withdrawal through him within thirty days after the rejection.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate.—The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining patents.

Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers and Drawings necessary to the procural of patents in this and foreign countries prepared, and advice rendered on legal and scientific matters respecting inventions, or infringement of patents. All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

Copies of claims of any patent furnished for one dollar. Assignments recorded in Washington. Patents secured in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries, through Agents of the highest respectability. R. H. EDDY,

Solicitor of Patents.

Testimonials.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent Office, and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."

From the present Commissioner.

AUGUST 17, 1855.—During the time I have held the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq. of Boston, has been extensively engaged in the transaction of business with the Office, as a Solicitor. He is thoroughly acquainted with the law, and the rules of practice of the Office. I regard him as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse.

CHAS. MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

G. W. STONE'S

LIQUID CATHARTIC,

—AND—

Family Physic,

The most important discovery ever made in Medical Science, being a compound of Barks and Roots, which forms the most powerful, safe and agreeable Physic ever offered to the public.

THE necessity of such a Medicine has long been felt both by the heads of families and Physicians. Its advantages over other articles given in the form of Pills or Powders, must be obvious to every intelligent person. It operates more immediately and effectually upon the system, and at the same time is infinitely less difficult to administer, being quite agreeable to the taste. It not only produces all the effects where physic is required, but completely removes habitual Costiveness, leaving the bowels perfectly free. It expels all humors from the blood, is a certain cure for the Piles, regulates the action of the Liver, frees the Stomach from Bile, invigorates the whole Nervous System, and removes the cause of all local pains, such as

It may also be relied upon in all diseases of the Bowels; Dysentery, Diarrhea and Cholera Morbus yield at once to its influence. Again we repeat, TRY IT!—it needs no other recommendation. No family will be without it after they have properly tested its merits. Reader, if you have tried other remedies, without success, despair not—relief is now at hand. If you are suffering with Scrofula, six bottles of my Liquid Cathartic will cure you. Would you be relieved from habitual Costiveness?—three bottles will effect all that you desire. If you are afflicted with Rheumatism, Neuralgia, or other local pains, two bottles will free you from them. All humors will be eradicated from the blood by the use of from one to six bottles. In short, if you require a physic for any purpose, this is the most reliable, safe and agreeable to the taste that has ever been placed within the reach of the public.

CAUTION.—LOTTERY FRAUDS.

THE Commissioner of the Maryland State Lotteries has deemed it his duty to caution the Public against the numerous Swindlers who circulate by mail and otherwise, fraudulent Lottery Schemes, and pretend to be agents for the sale of tickets in Lotteries which are wholly fictitious.

The only legal Lotteries in Maryland are those drawn daily under the superintendence of the Commissioner elected by the people of the State under the new Constitution to examine and approve the schemes and attend to the drawings.

All the tickets in these Lotteries, and all certificates of packages of tickets have the lithograph signature of F. X. BRENAN, General Agent for the Contractor. Office of the Maryland Consolidated Lotteries, Baltimore, Md. All others are fraudulent. For full information on the subject of these frauds, address F. X. BRENAN,

JOB AND CARD PRINTING promptly executed

Morning Chronicle.

DON'T LIKE THE COUNTRY.—Mr. Patrick Shortall, a native of Wexford, who emigrated some time back to the United States, in a letter to a friend in Ireland, and published in the London Times, thus writes:

I often wish to God the Irish would not come here. The prices are high, work scarce, and the cities crowded with idle men and women. Soup houses and poor-houses are as common here as in Ireland, and it is twice as hard to get relief from them.

We hear of a war between England and America, but as to Irishmen in America, Queen Victoria has not more loyal subjects in Great Britain or Ireland, than the Irish Catholics in the United States, and it would be well that all should know it. There is a bad feeling here against England, but certainly not by Irishmen, quite the contrary. The native American, or Know Nothing party rules nearly all America now, and hates all foreigners, especially Irish, Shooting, stabbing, and assaults on persons and houses is the common order of the day. As to Mitchell, Meagher, Doheny, and such, they profess, through their hireling papers, to have wondrous power and influence here, but it is false. The Irish Catholics here hate them.

A HOOSIER AT THE ASTOR.—I met on the train an elderly Hoosier, who had been to the show case exhibition at New York, and who had also seen the hi po dro me, as he called it.

"Did you remain long in New York?" I asked him.

"Well, no," he answered, thoughtfully, "only two days, for I saw there was a right smart chance of starving to death, and I'm opposed to that way of going down. I put up at one of their taverns, and allowed I was going to be treated to the whole."

"Where did you stop?" said I, interrupting him.

"At the Astor House. I allow you don't ketch me in no such place again. They rung a gong, as they called it, four times afore breakfast, and then, when I went in to eat, there wasn't nary vittles on the table."

"What was there?" I ventured to inquire.

"Well," said the old man, enumerating the items cautiously, as if from fear of omission, "there was a clean plate wrong side up, a knife, a clean towel, a split spoon and a hand bill, and what was worse," added my companion, "the insultin' nigger up and asked me what I wanted. 'Vittles,' says I, 'bring in your vittles, and I'll help myself!'"

"Traveller for perdition!" said Mrs. Partington, turning round in State street, as a little boy was proclaiming in dismal tones that he had the "Traveller fourth edition" for sale. It was evident that she had misunderstood him. "Poor child!" said she, with a benignity that would have furnished the capital for four Samaritan societies, "and are you really in so bad a way as that? I knowed there was a good many going that road in this neighborhood, but shouldn't think you was one of 'em, so young. But people begin in sin airly in Boston, and here you are at your age calling yourself a traveller for perdition!" The old lady's voice trembled; there was a tear good for a dime in her eye; her hand was in her spacious reticule in a search for the coin; the little boy stood selecting the paper from the number under his arm; busy merchants stood buying and selling all around her and busy brokers were shaving notes and shaving each other within sound of her voice. The search for the dime went on, but not one cent could she find, and with a benediction on the disappointed boy she left him—hearing his melancholy voice in the distance—"here's the traveller for perdition!" She sighed deeply, and in her abstraction wandered into a snow bank, where Ike had mischievously led her.—Boston Post.

AN OLD SCHOOL LADY.—There is at present in Salem a venerable lady from New Hampshire, more than ninety years of age, on a visit to some of her descendants who reside here. As a specimen of her industry, skill and wonderful physical vigor, we were shown yesterday a pair of nice, double-twist cotton stockings which she had just completed knitting, and which, for evenness of workmanship and general elegance of finish, would do no discredit to the skilful and nimble fingers of the most expert young knitter. This lady, who is a memorable example of the mothers of the olden time, is Mrs Hannah Tobey, and she is connected with the family of Moses G. Farmer, Esq., (a gentleman well known for his ingenious inventions and scientific attainments,) where she is now visiting. Her active habits and industry put to shame the tribe of modern young ladies, who loll on lounges inert and listless, dreaming away life without a thought of doing anything useful, or waste their energies in fashionable amusements.—Salem Register, 10th.

There were thirty-two illegitimate children born at the State Almshouse, in Tewksbury, last year.—Lowell Citizen.

CINCINNATI, Jan. 14.—The store of W. B. Sparks, in Columbia street, was burned on Saturday night. When the walls fell, four firemen were buried beneath them. One, Mr William Videll, was killed; the others were not seriously injured. Loss $8000.

Wm. Orr, the N. Y. engraver, employs about thirty hands, and among them, a reader, who reads the daily journals, and various books, magazines, &c., while the remainder are at work. Orr considers him the most valuable hand in his shop.

CHRISTMAS PRESENTS.—A friend says he had two—a kiss from his wife and another from his daughter. The first he valued for its rarity, the second for its disinterestedness, being given for a bracelet.—Post.

Morning Chronicle.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 18, 1855.

FROM CHINA.

Canton dates to Nov. 15. Chinese politics unchanged. British ship Invincible, Shanghae to London, sunk the American ship A Cheseborough during a squall. No particulars given, but probably one ship ran into the other.

Manilla dates to the 9th of November report a dreadful occurrence that happened on board of the American ship Waverly. She put into Manilla to bury her captain, and some trouble ensued on board, when the mate shot two or three, and drove the rest below, and then went ashore to attend the funeral. On his return the hatches were opened, and out of 450 men 251 were reported dead from suffocation. The mate and crew were imprisoned by the Spanish authorities. It is reported that the American Consul declined to take cognizance of the catastrophe.

Serious difficulty has arisen at Hong Kong between Mr Keenan, American Consul, and the local authorities. The trouble arose by British Police of Port apprehending E. W. Nichols, master of American ship Reindeer, on board his ship, for assault on the carpenter, and for putting him in irons. Nichols was fined $50, with $25 compensation, but refused to pay. Consul Keenan was present during the examination and protested against the jurisdiction of the Court, as the affair took place on board an American ship. The police then proceeded to lock up Capt. Nichols, but Keenan took him by his arm and went quickly to the harbor, whence he took boat and went on the U. S. steamer Powhattan. Superintendent and police followed and demanded the prisoner to be given up. Capt. McCluney, of the Powhattan, replied that without stating whether Nichols was on board the Powhattan or not, he considered the action of the Court illegal, and he would not hesitate to resist by force any attempt of the British authorities to exercise jurisdiction over American citizens in American ships. Nichols afterwards sent the amount of fine to the Court. The Consul was summoned by a warrant to appear and answer, but did not attend, whereon he was apprehended, and committed for trial before the Supreme Court, charged with the rescue of a prisoner.

MATHER BYLES AGAIN.—Mather Byles' famous reasons for not preaching politics, have got loose in the papers again, and we see them in the Eastern Argus, with this introduction:

Dr. Byles, a noted wit, and somewhat of a wag also, of Boston, during the times of the Revolution, on being chided for not introducing political topics and discussions into his pulpit, made the following admirable defence of himself.

[Then follow the reasons, which we published months ago.]

Nevertheless Dr. Byles did preach politics, and prayed them also, and acted them out, rank Tory politics, so that the Revolutionary men of Hollis street church, Boston, would not hear him preach, and he never preached much afterwards. His tory conservatism was not popular in Boston, though it might have been honest. Nor was he much of a model in the preaching line, any way.

THE NEW YORK HOUSE OF ASSEMBLY has organized. Mr Bailey, the Hard Democratic candidate for Speaker, withdrew as a candidate, and afterwards the Republicans and Soft Shell Democrats agreed upon Mr Orville Robinson of the latter party, and he was chosen Speaker. It is understood that the committees will be divided between the Softs and the Republicans. The object is to form the legislative committees in opposition to the new American state officers, who control the government as now constituted.

☞ Hon. Nehemiah Eastman, who died suddenly at Farmington last Saturday—as the Dover Enquirer learns,—"fell dead while walking in the street. Mr Eastman at the time of his decease was, we believe, the oldest member of the Strafford Bar. He has been a member of both branches of the Legislature, and was a representative in Congress two years, during the administration of John Q. Adams, in 1825 7. His age was about 70."

BREAD IN EUROPE.—The New York Express mentions, that private letters from London and Paris, offer some reasons for the fall of Breadstuffs in Europe,—which fall has begun to be felt in making flour a little easier in this country.

A further element of improvement has disclosed itself at Paris, and had materially aided the advance in the stock market. This is the fall in Breadstuffs, and the rush of quantities of home-grown wheat on the markets over the empire. This has given rise to a belief that the defect has been over-estimated.—The sudden appearance in market of so much home-grown wheat was said to be occasioned by the large arrivals from the United States, Spain, and the fear of the French farmers, that they would be superseded in obtaining high prices. The amount of grain said to have been imported from these quarters, is said to be in sufficient quantity to have amply supplied the deficiency in the harvest.

☞ B. B. Bunker, Esq., formerly of Newmarket, but now of Manchester, threatens to flog Mr Abbott, of the American, in a certain contingency. He says:

I said I would flog him as no boy in this city was ever flogged, if he again alluded to me in his paper as he did on Friday last, and I will do it. B. B. BUNKER.

RUM AND RIOT.

AN attentive correspondent at Epping sends us the following item of news. The noble quartette of brothers are doubtless liberals.—But what shall we say of a Town Agent, who sells to such miscreant strangers!

In the early part of last week, four brothers by the name of Willey, from Pittsfield, hired a horse and sleigh to go to Haverhill and thereabouts on a short tour of pleasure, and started on their return on, Wednesday reaching Kingston, where they became the guests of my gentlemanly host Mr Goodrich, who being one of the 'old fogies' unwilling to deny the weary traveller medicine good for the stomach, they indulged a little too freely, and with exhilerated spirits returned via the Brentwood 'Town Agency' where they replenished with some 'Town Gin,' and soon after arrived on the borders of Epping, where for some weeks past they had in company with a buxom widow, 'fat, fair and forty,' exercised the 'Squatter Sovereignty'.

The quiet state of repose at home ill suited their large and liberal feelings. They felt for others, and desired that their neighbors should also enjoy life and have a good time generally. Acting upon these very charitable views they left home in search of adventures; falling in with two neighbors, Thompson and Blockler, in a sleigh, they pulled Thompson out, and after exercising the pugilistic art to their hearts' content, while Blockler ran to a neighbors for help and safety, they proceeded to Blockler's house, which they broke open, and commenced breaking the windows, upsetting the breakfast table and breaking the crodkery, at the same time brandishing chairs over the heads of Mrs Blockler and her daughters, and threatening instant death. The outcry of the women brought two other men, and the Willeys were now compelled to retreat.

It now being car time, the Willeys, after reminding Mrs Blockler and her family that they would return during the night and burn their buildings, left, and proceeded to Pittsfield by the cars, before legal steps could be taken to secure them.

Constable Carr with proper authority soon found one of the brothers near Fremont, whom he secured, and being soon reinforced by Sheriff Clifford, 'the military' and a civil posse, a severe foot-race commenced which resulted in surrounding and capturing another of the Willeys.

At midnight, Sheriff Clifford, accompanied by Mr Samuel Prescott, in a double sleigh, proceeded to Pittsfield, where they arrived at 6 o'clock on Friday morning, and while warming and arranging matters at Drake's tavern, the Willeys, who lived near by, came into the bar-room, and were at once secured and returned to Epping for an examination. Waiving an examination, they were furnished with comfortable lodgings with Mr Sheriff Leavitt of Exeter, who frequently entertains celebrities exercising the largest liberty.

FROM INDIA.—The arrival of the Indian mail brings interesting intelligence. A battle had occurred at Onde between the fanatic insurgents and the British troops, assisting the troops of the King of Ou e, Nov. 2. 500 dead were left on the field, and the insurgents were dispersed, but the country is yet unsettled. Martial law has been proclaimed in the Santal districts. The Santal insurrection is not suppressed, but is no longer dangerous.

Herat has been taken by the Persians.—This causes much excitement, as Herat is the key of Northern India. An expedition up Persian Gulf, to compel Persia to give up her conquest, is talked of.

The order prohibiting the export of saltpetre from India, except to England, is loudly complained against.

It is said that it is now unfashionable in New York, to offer wine to visitors on New Year's day. Probably because visitors prefer "something else."

Quite probable: the drunkard wishes something stronger: the sober man can do without it, and take something that cannot intoxicate—when it's the fashion! Fashion has slain it's thousands, by drinks proffered to friends.

Schooner Mary Nile, (of York, Me.) Low, from Norfolk, for New York, went ashore in the gale of 13th inst., on Long Beach, New Jersey. After the vessel struck the crew sought refuge in the rigging. Here, for four hours, they endured all the privations and agonizing suspense that could fall to the lot of men. The night was a bitter cold one, and it was with the greatest difficulty that the men could hold on to the rigging until the proper moment arrived for their release. At 4 o'clock the attempt to land was successfully made, and the crew found shelter in a dwelling house.

☞ Nathan H. Leavitt, Esq., late Sheriff of Rockingham County, has been appointed Postmaster at New Market, vice James M. Chapman, deceased. We have known Mr Leavitt for over twenty years and never found a truer patriot or firmer friend of Democratic principles.—Dover Gazette.

TO THE LADIES.—Dr. Rogers's Syrup of Liverwort, Tar and Canchalagua, is especially adapted to the delicate constitutions of females; and as it contains no Opium, it will cause no nervous derangement—while the tonic properties of the Canchalagua are invaluable in imparting strength to the system. All Dealers in Medicine keep it.

A man in Philadelphia a day or two ago, fell from the roof of a three story building upon a drift of snow, without hurting him in the least.

LOCAL.

☞ The present great pile of snow brings to remembrance the fact that we had a pile something like it in February, 1818. A snow storm or storms, lasted most of the time from the 3d to the 8th day of that month; and on the 8th day, the stage sleigh, driven by Mr John Mendum, went from this town to Newburyport for the first time. The mail had gone through before in a single sleigh.

The sleigh stage, with four horses, on that 8th day, passed over two or three stone walls on the hard snow between Greenland and Hampton, where the fields were more passable than the high way.

The snow was as great in quantity as our present supply—it was followed by a warm rain of a few hours,—and then by a solid frost. The sleighing was excellent and durable, lasting through February and March, before it all disappeared.

Mr Mendum and Mr J. E. Robinson were the only two drivers of an opposition stage, (got up that year to oppose the Eastern Company,) and they drove their stage sleighs from this place to Newburyport on runners for six or seven weeks.

We had also a great pile of snow at one time in the year 1836 or '37, but it was not so solid, and did not last long.

ODD FELLOWS' LEVEE.—The social gathering of the members of the I. O. of O. F. in this city, on Thursday evening, was a grand affair. About 130 gentlemen and at least 200 ladies participated in the festivities of the occasion. Brother James M. Carr was President of the evening. The brethren present marched into the hall in full regalia at 8 o'clock, and made an imposing appearance.—Among them we noticed several brethren from neighboring town. After a number of short pithy speeches from Bro. C. S. Toppan and others, the attention of the company was directed to the main business of the evening—the merry dance, which was kept up till an early hour this morning. The music was by Bond & Flagg's Boston Quadrille Band, and was of the first order. Congress Hall was beautifully decorated for the occasion with the symbolic pictures and emblems of the several lodges, and completely festooned with the flags of all nations, kindly loaned by Com. Newton, of the Navy Yard.

CITY COUNCIL.

ALDERMEN.—The petition of Chas. Randall for a license for a Bowling Alley—leave to withdraw.

Howard Benevolent Society asked for Jefferson Hall on Thursday next—granted.

☞ The funeral of Mr Geo. B. Covell will take place next Tuesday.

CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16.

HOUSE.—Mr. Thorington offered a resolution that Lewis D. Campbell be declared Speaker. Mr Thorington said his reason for offering this resolution was to contribute this mite towards organization. He had proposed Mr Campbell's name because he had heard him spoken of as less objectionable to some portions of the House than Mr Banks.

Mr Galloway of Ohio, though personally favorable to Mr Campbell, could not change his position until he was assured of a general sentiment in Mr Campbell's favor.

Mr Giddings of Ohio, said the resolution was thrown into the House without consulting those voting for Mr Banks, by whom he would stand until he could see that he could change his vote for the better.

Mr Mace of Indiana said that the fault of the House remaining unorganized was attributable to the anti-Nebraskaites, who, having a majority, can at any time elect a Speaker if they surrender their personal preferences.

Mr Painance attributed the failure to organize to the Democrats.

Messrs. Sage of New York, and Washburn of Maine thought the introduction of the resolution ill-timed and mischievious.

Mr Campbell said his name was used without his knowledge or authority.

The resolution was finally rejected, 50 against 150.

Mr Cumback offered a resolution, which he afterward withdrew, declaring Mr Mace Speaker.

Mr Dunn of Indiana, in explaining his course, said he should submit to no caucus which presented to him the name of Mr Banks.

The remarks of Mr Dunn stimulated Messrs. Gage, Brenton, Pennington and Campbell of Ohio, who participated in the debate, which involved the action of the Republicans respecting their candidates for Speaker.

The House then voted:—Banks 88, Richardson 65, Fuller 29, Pennington 8, scattering 5; necessary for a choice 98. Adjourned.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15.—A large meeting of the American Colonization Society convened in this city this evening. Addresses were made by Mr George P. Marsh of Vermont, the Rev. Dr. DeWitt of New York, and the Rev. Mr Burroughs of Virginia.

The report shows that the receipts during the past year were $55,276. $32,000 of debt has been liquidated, and 207 emigrants sent to Liberia.

The affairs of the Republic are represented as being in a very encouraging condition.

BALTIMORE, Jan 16. — New Orleans papers of the 4th and 5th are received here. At Aransas, on the 21st ult., the steamer Fashion took from the ship James L. Bogart from New York 375 United States troops. They were detained on board the Fashion by heavy northers until the 26th, when they started for Corpus Christi, and arrived there the same day, all well.

Boston, Jan. 18. eod 3m

The Monthly Nautical Magazine,
Devoted exclusively to the Maritime Interests of the United States, embracing Ship Building, Commerce, Navigation and Marine Engineering.
ONE of the leading objects of the Editors will be to furnish correct data, upon which mechanics, merchants and mariners may confidently rely in finding an epitome of mechanical, commercial and nautical intelligence.
It will be the province of the Nautical Magazine to chronicle the march of nautical enterprise, and sketch the achievements of the living age; to aid research and investigation, and present the truths of unfolding science; to combine the experience of the ship-builder and navigator, and direct in harmony their united efforts to elevate the altitude of this excelling art, by diffusing from a nautical press the mechanical wonders of the ship and sea.
The work contains draughts of some of the finest vessels of the age, with other engravings, and is one of the most valuable publications of the country. Lithographs of vessels will be frequently inserted. Terms $5 per annum.

LATER FROM EUROPE.

HALIFAX, Jan. 16.

The royal mail steamship America, from Liverpool about 8.30 A.M., Saturday, Jan. 5th, arrived here at 7 o'clock this evening.

THE NEGOTIATIONS.—There is nothing new of an official character with respect to the peace negotiations, but there is evidently in quarters usually well informed, a growing impression that negotiations will not terminate in a satisfactory manner.

THE CRIMEA.—Gortschakoff reports, Dec. 16th, a body of Cossacks defeated a strong squadron of Gen. Virians Anglo-Turkish cavalry near Kertch. The English commander and 47 men taken prisoners. Nothing else new from the Crimea.

A letter from Katich of the 25th ult., in the Austrian Gazette, says: "According to the latest accounts from the Crimea the Russian troops have been reinforced by a regiment of Hussars of the Guard, and by the Radetzky regiment of Hussars formerly stationed at Odessa. It is therefore evident that no want of provisions is experienced by Prince Gortschakoff."

A letter from Odessa of the 21st ult., in the Austrian Gazette, says: "Large bodies of troops are marching from the Crimea into Bessarabia. There is not, however, any intention of evacuating the former, as their places will be filled by other troops from the reserve and by the militias."

Gen. Gortschakoff will, it is said, be replaced in the Crimea by Count Osten Sacken; the former will resume the command of the troops on the Danube.

The allied gun boats which remained at Kinburne have been frozen in, and all the efforts made to release them have hitherto been fruitless.

It is rumored but not confirmed that Gen. Pelissier is appointed commander of the allied armies, and Admiral Lyons commander of the allied fleets in the East.

Menschikoff has been appointed military Governor of Cronstadt.

ASIA.—Omer Pasha has returned to Soukoum Kaleh, renouncing his intention of attacking Kutais at present.

The Russian General Susoff took possession of the defiles of Hassan Saleh as soon as Selim Pasha retreated to Erzeroum.

Intelligence from Constantinople of the 24th ult., states that many persons had already quitted Erzeroum, fearing that it would be attacked by the Russian army. These persons had sought refuge at Trebizond.

The Invalide Russe publishes a proclamation by Gen. Mouravieg, calling the entire population of Imeretia, Guriel and Mingrelia to wage a war of extermination against the enemies of the cross. It is this measure which is supposed to have caused Omer Pacha's retreat.

RUSSIA.—The Czar has ordered the commandants in Finland, in the Baltic provinces, to report the means of defence to the grand council of war now in session at St. Petersburg. Contracts are advertised for immense quantities of artillery stores, &c. New rifle regiments are being enrolled. Emancipation is offered as a bribe to the serfs, while some restrictions imposed by the Czar Nicholas have been repealed.

The publication of the Austrian Concordat has been prohibited lest it should cause religious discontent. The Czar has also issued a decree conferring on peasants the right to possess landed property in Poland. Personal serfdom is to be replaced by annual payment. Three years are allowed for the execution of the decree.

Letters from Constantinople state that the Austrian government has made a satisfactory explanation to the Porte respecting the seizure of Col. Turr on Ottoman territory. Other accounts from Constantinople say that the popularity of Omar Pasha has been much diminished by reason of the failure of his present expedition.

ENGLAND.—Palmer & Green, bankers in Litchfield, have failed. Liabilities £220,000; Assets £150,000.

FRANCE.—Saturday, 29th ult., was a grand military fete of the entry into Paris of the regiments from the Crimea. Immense crowds thronged the streets, fanners and triumphal arches were abundant, the troops marched amid the enthusiasm of the people, and formed around the column of July. The regiments were the 20th, 39th, and 50th of the line, who distinguished themselves at the Malakoff, Chasseurs, Zouaves, two regiments of Voltigeurs, and artillery of the Guards, ten regiments of Grenadiers, and the Gendarmes of the Guards. The Emperor, accompanied by the Prince Napoleon, rode to the palace De Bastille, and pronounced the following oration:—

Soldiers,—I come to meet you as formerly the Roman Senate went to the gates of Rome to meet its victorious legions. I come to tell you that you have deserved well of your country. My emotion for the happiness of seeing you again is mingled with painful regrets for those who are no more, and with painful disappointment that I was prevented myself from leading you to battle. Soldiers of the guard as well as soldiers of the line, you are welcome. You all of you represent that army of the East whose courage and perseverance have once more glorified our Eagles and reconquered for France the rank that is due to her. Your country is attentive to all that is passing in the East. She receives you with the more pride that she measures your deeds by the obstinate resistance of the enemy. I have recalled you, notwithstanding that the war is not yet over, because it is just to relieve, in their turn, the regiments that have most suffered; thus every man will be able to claim his share in the glory, and the country which keeps up a force of 600,000 men feels interested that there should now be in France a numerous army inured to war, and ready to march whenever it may be necessary. Review, then, your warlike habits, and improve upon the experience you have acquired. Hold yourselves in readiness to respond, if need be, to my call. But on this day forget the trials of a soldier's life. Thank God for having spared you, and march proudly amid your brethren in arms and fellow citizens whose plaudits await you.

The troops afterward defiled before the Emperor and Empress, Marshals Wagnan and Canrobert, and the Court. Every soldier in Paris received two francs gratuity.

PRINCE & CO'S IMPROVED Patent Melodeons.

The oldest Establishment in the United States and the largest in the world.

Between 17,000 and 18,000 of these Instruments have been finished and are now in use.

The latest improvement in our Melodeons is the DIVIDED SWELL.

Secured to us by Letters Patent, 22d May, 1855. By means of this swell Solo Passages may be played with the full power of the Instrument, while the accompaniment is soft and subdued.—Hereafter, all Melodeons made by us will be furnished with this attachment WITHOUT EXTRA CHARGE.

[Extract from the Com. Advertiser, July 27th.]

"Messrs Prince & Co. could realize a handsome fortune by disposing of rights to other manufacturers to use their new improvement, but as they prefer to make it a feature in their Instruments, it can only be obtained by purchasing one of their manufacture."

The styles and prices are—

IN PORTABLE CASE:

4 octave Melodeon, extend'g frm C to C		$45
4½ octave,	" " C to F	60
5 octave Melodeon,	" " F to F	75
5 octave, double reed,	" " F to F	130

IN PIANO CASE:

5 octave Melodeon, extend'g frm F to F		$100
5 octave " " F to F		130
5 octave, double reed,	" " F to F	150
Organ Melodeon (for churches,) five octaves, 8 stops, 1½ octave pedals, 4 setts of reeds		350

Agents for the sale of our Melodeons may be found in all the principal cities and towns of the United States and the Canadas.

The Following Opinions,

IN regard to MASON & HAMLIN'S Model MELODEON are from distinguished Musicians:

(From Lowell Mason.)

After having carefully examined the Melodeons of Messrs Mason & Hamlin, I am enabled to say that in my opinion they are decidedly superior to any others with which I am acquainted.

New York, July 1, 1854 LOWELL MASON.

(From Geo. F. Root.)

Henry Mason, Esq., Dear Sir,—Having had one opportunity of examininng Mason & Hamlin's Model Melodeons, I am happy to bear testimony to their great excellence. In general characteristics, and especially in quality and uniformity of tone and tuning, they seem to me to be superior to any that I have yet examined.

Yours very truly, GEO. F. ROOT.

New York, May 25th, 1854.

(From Edwin Bruce.)

Dear Sirs:—I have examined your Model Melodeons with much satisfaction, and am prepared to express my confident opinion that they are the most perfect instruments manufactured.

Yours, &c., EDWIN BRUCE.

FOR the National Government, State Legislatures, Courts of Record, Banks, Railroads, Post Offices, Insurance Offices, Editors, Authors, Lawyers, Doctors, Clergymen, Commercial and Business men of every sort, Colleges, Academies and Schools, and that great class who sustain all, the Farmers—the GREAT INK of the country. 644,578 bottles sold in 1854, is significant that the AMERICAN PEOPLE appreciate THE AMERICAN INK made by HARRISON the AMERICAN MANUFACTURER, and determine its great superiority over all foreign Inks. It is at wholesale and retail by

Harrison's Blue Black Writing Fluid

PROGRESS in the arts has revealed a Writing Fluid which does not, as other Writing Fluids do destroy the points of gold pens, actively corrode steel pens, or chemically decompose the paper or its coloring. I have seen paper where every letter written with English Fluids was eaten entirely through, and a delicate blue tint changed to a dirty yellow. The best make of gold pens have been condemned for losing their points, and the best manufactures of steel pens, upon the dealer, where these Fluids were extensively used. Harrison's Fluid is subject to none of these evils. It writes a beautiful blue, and soon turns a jet black, and remains permanent. HARRISON'S is AMERICAN, made by an AMERICAN, and should be the use of all Americans. It is wholesaled and retailed by

Singer's Sewing Machines.

THESE Machines have long sustained the highest reputation in the United States.

The First Prize—A Gold Medal,

Has recently been awarded to them at the Palace of Industry in Paris, and thus they have the WORLD'S VERDICT OF SUPERIORITY.

The Inventor has just added to these superior Machines an improvement whereby they can work on any kind of

FAMILY SEWING,

They will also Bar and close all kinds of Kid Boots and Shoes, and stitch the finest Gaiter Boots in every part without a skip—making them the most desirable for article to use at home, or for any who wish to do more than one kind of work.

These Machines are warranted to do all kinds of work in a manner far superior to any other machine in use.

They run without noise, with ease to the Operator, and at double the ordinary speed, so that

The greatest Shoe Manufacturing and Clothing Establishments in the country use these Machines exclusively, having tried other Machines and found them entirely unfit for their use.

They are simple, and cost scarcely anything to to keep them in repair; and can be operated by a child always ready for work.

HENRY S. HARTSHORN would respectfully inform his friends and the public, that he has taken the spacious Room in the centre range of CITY HOTEL building, No 20 Congress street, and fitted and furnished it in the best manner, as the

and will do most honor to those who favor his patrons with less delay than has sometimes been necessary in his old Saloon.

His old place of business will be under his charge, also, as heretofore:

With his increased facilities for performing every operation pertaining to the removal or Dressing of the Human Hair, he feels prepared to give the fullest satisfaction to all who may call on him.

While returning most grateful thanks for the very liberal patronage with which he has ever been favored in Portsmouth, he would solicit a continuance of the same.

Great American and Foreign Office

For Securing Patents for Inventions.

Agency for business with US Patent Office, Washington,

R. H. EDDY,

No. 76 State st, oppo. Kilby st, Boston.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO INVENTORS The Subscriber (late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, under the Act of 1837) determined to present advantages in applying for Patents, superior to those offered inventors by others, has made arrangements whereby on applications prepared and conducted by him, THIRTY DOLLARS (instead of sessenta, as paid back by others,) will be remitted by him in case of failure to obtain a patent, and the withdrawal through him within thirty days after the rejection.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that nowhere is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate.—The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining patents.

Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers and Drawings necessary to the procural of patents in this and foreign countries prepared, and advice rendered on legal and scientific matters respecting inventions, or infringement of patents. All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and be usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

Copies of claims of any patent published for one dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.—Patents secured in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries, through Agents of the highest respectability. R. H. EDDY,

Solicitor of Patents.

Testimonials.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent Office, and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the best informed and most skillful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."

From the present Commissioner.

ATTOCT 17, 1854.—During the time I have held the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq. of Boston, has been extensively engaged in the transaction of business with the Office, as a Solicitor. He is thoroughly acquainted with the law, and the rules of practice of the Office. I regard him as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse.

CHAS. MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

Try it! Try it! Try it!

G. W. STONE'S

LIQUID CATHARTIC,

—AND—

Family Physic.

The most important discovery ever made in Medical Science, being a compound of Barks and Roots, which forms the most powerful, safe and agreeable Physic ever offered to the public.

THE necessity of such a Medicine has long been felt both by the heads of families and Physicians. Its advantages over cathartics given in the form of Pills or Powders, must be obvious to every intelligent person. It operates more immediately and effectually upon the system, and at the same time is infinitely less difficult to administer, being quite agreeable to the taste. It not only produces all the effects where physic is required, but completely removes habitual costiveness, leaving the bowels perfectly free. It expels worms from the blood, is a certain cure for the Piles, regulates the action of the Liver, frees the Stomach from Bile, invigorates the whole Nervous System, and removes the cause of all local pains, such as

It may also be relied upon in all diseases of the Bowels; Dysentery, Diarrhea, Cholera Morbus yield at once to its magic influence. Again we repeat TRY IT!—it needs no other recommendation. No family will be without it after they have properly tested its merits. Reader, if you have tried other remedies, and been unsuccessful, despair not—relief is now at hand. Are you suffering with Scrofula, six bottles of my Liquid Cathartic will cure you. Would you be relieved from habitual Costiveness?—three bottles will effect all that you desire. If you are afflicted with Rheumatic, Neuralgic, or other local pains, two bottles will free you from them. All humors will be eradicated from the blood by the use of from one to six bottles. In short, if you require a physic for any purpose, this is the most reliable, safe and agreeable to the taste that has ever been placed within the reach of the public.

PRICE $1.00.

SAD TERMINATION OF A BRIDAL TOUR.—In an account of the recent disaster on the Hudson River railroad, the N. Y. Tribune gives the following sad incident:

In the hall of the Exchange House we met a gentleman laboring under great mental affliction. Engaging in conversation with him, we learned that his name was Rufus Blanchard, publisher and bookseller, of Chicago, Illinois, and brother of Mr. Blanchard, the publisher, of Nassau street, New York. Mr. Blanchard was married on the 7th of this month to Miss Farr, a most beautiful and accomplished lady, at her home in De Kalb, St. Lawrence County, in this State. The happy couple were on their wedding tour when the accident overtook them. It appears that, owing to the crowded state of the sleighs at Albany, Mr. Blanchard and his bride were separated from Miss Powell, a lady friend, who was travelling with them, and in the society of his wife Mr. Blanchard forgot all about her until they arrived at Poughkeepsie, when Mrs. Blanchard suggested that he should go through the cars and see if he could find her. After the train had left the Poughkeepsie depot, he set out on his errand, and it was during this brief absence the accident occurred. Mr. Blanchard sprang out of the door of the car, and escaped unhurt by leaping into the snow. As soon as the crash was over, he rushed wildly through the wrecked cars, in search of his wife, shrieking for help, and calling on her name. But his words were only echoed by others equally distracted whose relatives and friends were involved in the common ruin, or replied to by the cries and groans of the sufferers. For fifteen minutes, which seemed as many hours, he sought her everywhere without success. At length some one asked if his name was Rufus Blanchard, and then the friend took him to the place where his wife lay. And what a sad spectacle met his view! She who a few minutes before was radiant with beauty, and overflowing with her young joy, now lay before him crushed and maimed and blackened so that he had not recognized her as his wife, although he had passed her a score of times during his search, supposing from her face that she was a colored woman. Half crazed with sorrow he would have thrown himself upon her seemingly lifeless body in his grief, and have bewailed her as dead, had not the bystanders held him back. Then his noble wife manifested her gladness at his safety, and bade him hope that all things would work together for good; that she would yet live to make glad his heart, and to share his love. This was only one of many such scenes at the meeting of friends and relatives after the accident.

The unfortunate lady was taken to the Exchange House and placed under medical skill. Her left leg is fractured in two places, near the ankle. One of her hands is badly cut, and her face and bosom are scorched or scalded nearly black, and her eyes are somewhat injured. The above facts we learned from various parties who witnessed them. Mr. Blanchard took us into the room where his wife lay, and after showing us her sad condition, he took the miniature of a beautiful woman from his bosom and said, "There is what she was this time yesterday." Mrs. Blanchard has manifested, throughout her sufferings, the most heroic fortitude; cheering her husband, and exhibiting a spirit at once hopeful and resigned. Her physicians are doing all that human skill can do, and strong hopes are entertained that she will recover.

REV. DR. LOWELL.—We learn that the first couple, married by Dr. Lowell are both living in Boston. The parties took deep interest in the recent jubilee at the West Church, as they are soon to have a golden wedding celebration.

Many years ago, a countryman, wandering hopelessly through the streets of Boston, was accosted by a stranger who asked him what he wanted. "I want," said he, to find the man who preaches short sermons." The stranger had no hesitation in pointing out the road which led to the West Church; but, anxious to discover what peculiar hold our pastor had taken of this man's mind, he suggested that the sermons at the West Church were very short indeed, and that perhaps the great city might offer to one who seldom entered it, others more worthy of consideration. "Not they," responded the warm-hearted rustic.—"I never heard him preach but once, and that was before the convention the other day; but I remembered every word of his sermon, as if I had preached it myself; and my wife and I had something to talk of for a week after. I tell you, stranger, that after he has preached his short sermon, there is not much more to be said on the same subject."

The profits of a fair recently held in Cincinnati, for the benefit of an Orphan Asylum amounted to $8,000.

A Frenchman has discovered that horseflesh, whether as steaks or a stew, is superior in taste and nutriment to beef. He regaled a select company on food prepared from horseflesh, not letting the company know it, and they all give it the preference to any other kind of meat

SATURDAY, JANUARY 19, 1856.

CRIME IN NEWBURYPORT.—The Herald gathers and publishes from the annual report of the Clerk of the Police Court, to the Legislature, embracing the entire criminal business of the year, the following facts:

Whole number of criminal cases for the year ending Dec. 31, 1855,	432
No. of cases of Drunkenness,	139
" Assault and Battery,	94
" Common Drunkards,	47
" Larceny,	33
" Breaches of the Peace,	18
" Violation of Liquor Law,	17
" Malicious mischief,	10
" Violation of City Ordinances,	7
" Insanity,	7
" Vagrancy,	8
" Stealing fruit,	6
" Running toll,	5
" Embezzlement,	5
" Bastardy,	5
" Lascivious behavior,	5

Stubborn children 4—Search warrant 3—Violation Lord's Day 2—Assault with intent to kill 2—Manslaughter 1—Pound breach 2—Shooting birds 1—Bigamy 2—Sale Lottery tickets 1—Adultery 1—Gaming Lord's day 1—Indecent exposure 1—False pretence 2—Bribing witness 1—Burglary 1—Threatening life 1—Night walking 2.

The Herald then remarks:

The business of the Court as here exhibited, embraces a large range of crime, almost every species designated by the statutes, in the most of which this court has final jurisdiction. Almost every year increased power is given to Police Courts, which now hold an importance nearly equal to that of the Common Pleas a few years since. The record of the court is not a complete catalogue of the crime committed which remains undetected. The number of cases of drunkenness has decreased in the proportion maintained during the past five years. We cannot think it is true that there is less drunkenness now than then, but attribute the falling off to the fact that many of the intoxicated are discharged by the night police, without complaint to the court. Other crimes and offences have increased. The number of assaults and batteries are large, and would have been very much larger, had warrants been granted in all cases of a petty offence. A considerable number of these, we understand, were of an aggravated nature, and between parties of temperate habits. The prosecutions for violation of the liquor law have been few, and most of them the result of disclosures. So far as this city is concerned but little disposition has been manifested to enforce the new act.

There may be less drunkenness there, though the Herald cannot think so. Perhaps the withdrawal of legal sanction, and the dishonor of an illegal traffic may have had some good effect. We do not assert it, as regards that city; but it is true here.

One word of explanation as to the aggravated assaults or batteries by or between persons of temperate habits.

We suppose the Herald means persons in the habit of drinking rum or brandy or wine temperately. We suppose it does not mean total abstinents.

We very well remember a day, when such assaults and batteries, or as they then used to be called, fights, were common among persons of what were then called temperate habits.—Such men then drank their half pint of rum per diem, as regularly as they ate their dinners,—and irregularly or occasionally they drank more. We did not use to say they were drunk; but some men would be started, or sprung—and some half drunken men would be quarrelsome. One of these might attack or provoke a sober man, who had drank his half pint and no more—and then a fight might ensue.

But a pitched battle between two total abstinents, we never saw! We never heard or read a trial of such a case.

THE STORM IN PORTLAND.—The State of Maine" of Monday says:

"The storm began about 5 o'clock yesterday morning, and continued with unabated severity until late in the night. The scene this morning was wild and exciting. The streets were impassably filled with snow, and not a single sleigh or sled track was visible throughout the entire city. Gangs of men and boys were at work clearing the sidewalks, huge works of snow being thrown up far above their heads. Overhead was a dull leaden sky, while a fresh wind kept the snow blowing from the roofs and drifts.

About 10 o'clock, a platoon of men, armed with shovels marched down Middle street, breaking out the road; and this was followed by an eight ox team dragging a large sled for clearing a sleigh track. The shouts of the shovelers, the merry freaks of the snow, the exhilerating sight of the unexampled depth of snow, made every body merry and good natured.

Altogether this is the greatest snow storm we have had for many years. The 'oldest inhabitant' cannot recall its equal. Very few attempts have been made to-day to ride through it—and all which have been made, have been through many labors, dangers and sufferings. We saw several horses fall down in Middle street—harnesses were broken—shafts snapped off,—and everything disarranged promiscuously. It will be several days before our streets will become decently passable."

☞ The Boston Chronicle learns that Dr. Stone of Park street church, has had a very tempting offer to become the pastor of a society in Philadelphia.

SUPREME COURT, ALFRED, MAINE.

The case of Lord & Moore, tried week before last at Alfred, was an action to recover some $3,000 of the Defendant, Moore, on the ground that he, (Moore) counselled, hired and procured Isaac Pray and Charles Curtis to set fire to and blow up the plaintiff's tin shop, in Great Falls, N. H. The cause was opened to the jury on Tuesday of the first week of court, and was not given to the jury until 4 o'clock Saturday following. The jury, after some three hours deliberation, came into court and the foreman stated that it was useless for them to remain out longer, as there was no prospect that by longer deliberation they would agree. The papers were taken from them and the case stands continued until the next term of the court in Alfred.

The Jury, as soon as they went out, took an informl ballot on the question, whether Mr Moore was guilty or not, and the result was that four of the jury were of the opinion that he was, and eight of the jury that he was not guilty. The jury remained of the same opinion during the whole of their deliberation.

Parmelia Field, libelant, v. James Field, of Eliot. Divorce from bed and board decreed, with $125 alimony. Cause of divorce, extreme cruelty. S. B. Allen for Libelant; H. H. Hobbs for James Field.

Elizabeth Hammond, libelant, v. Thomas Hammond, of Eliot. Divorce from the bonds of matrimony decreed, and the custody of Olive Hammond, the minor child of said parties, decreed to the Libelant. Cause of divorce—wilful desertion. S. B. Allen for Libelant.

David R. Yeaton was found guilty on two indictments for liquor selling; David Young two; Mansham Morrls one; and John Woodsum on three. Jane Tuttle was found guilty of assault and battery on John Woodsum, and sentenced to 30 days in jail.

COLORED BALL.—The Boston Times gives an account of a genteel ball of colored persons in Chapman Hall on Wednesday night.

It was a select party composed of respectable colored citizens, who with their ladies had met together to while away a few hours in dancing and social intercourse. All present in a most elegant and refined manner, and the lady portion, especially, showed a taste that would well rival those in assemblies where the generality of people would more expect it to be shown. The strictest and most dignified decorum was preserved throughout, and if we never see a less interesting company our life will be especially fortunate—certainly we cannot expect to see one where more real enjoyment is visible. The hall was tastefully decorated, and a fine band of music rendered the scene complete in every respect.

☞ Hunt's Merchant's Magazine for January 1856, is received from the publisher, Freeman Hunt, New York. Besides the usual great body of intelligence and statistics, it contains 6 Articles, viz.

A System of National Currency; Commerce of the United States; Mercantile Biography: Alexander Henry; Abbott Lawrence: The Man, the Merchant, the Statesman; The True Mercantile Character; The Law Merchant.

The notice of Abbott Lawrence is a laudatory but just notice of that noble merchant and noble man.

CLEARING HOUSE. — The Boston Times says:—

"We would advise the Superintendent of Streets to place our avenues in charge of the recently organized "Boston Clearing House," as we know of no other way the wilderness of coarse salt which pedestrians have to travel through at present.

THE NEW YORK OBSERVER.—This long established religious newspaper has recently been much enlarged and improved in typographical appearance. Its editorial force, corps of foreign correspondents, etc. are to be augmented. It has a Religious and Secular Department,—the latter very full, and ably conducted. Its religious tenets are those of the orthodox congregationalists and presbyterians.

"SAY, BY, DID YEZ SEE EVER A HEARSE IN YER THRAVELS?"—One of the drollest of the series of mishaps which attended the recent snow storm, was the loss of a "hearse and contents," near Quincy, on Sunday. A young man, who left Boston early that morning, for the purpose of repairing the disjointed wires of the Cape Cod telegraph, finding it impossible to penetrate the snow South of Quincy, turned home wards. About a mile this side of that town he met a train of carriages and supposing it to be a funeral procession, turned out to let it pass. When the first carriage came up, the driver thus accosted him:—"Say, by, did yez see ever a hearse in yer thravels?" "No," replied the "boy." By this time eight eyes peered through the door of each carriage, and there was not a little excitement among the mourners "Be gorrs," said the driver, "and it's very sthrange. Shure, we started from Boshton wid it, and now it's gone entirely." The "boy," who, by the way, weighs two hundred, could not give any information, and left the party as he found them.—Courier.

Two men were drowned in St. Lawrence river while crossing in a sleigh, on Friday evening, from Prescott to Ogdensburgh. One was a stranger, who had just arrived by railroad, and the driver, who was intoxicated, was unable to distinguish the air holes and water from sound ice. The horse and sleigh were also lost.

LOCAL.

LADIES' BENEVOLENT LEVEE.—The ladies of Portsmouth propose to hold a Levee at Jefferson Hall on Wednesday evening next, the profits of which are to be added to the funds of that excellent charitable institution the Howard Benevolent Society. This Society administers a judicious and useful charity, which has been so long before this community, and is so well understood by old residents, that to them nothing need be said in its favor. But to new comers and younger citizens, let us remark that its object is the aid and comfort of the sick poor; and that its administration is in the hands of committees, arranged on a systematic plan of personal inspection and visitation.

☞ In our notice of the Odd Fellows' Levee, we should have stated that the supper was prepared by Bro. William S. Hadley, and gave perfect satisfaction, both as to quality and quantity. Literally twelve baskets full of fragments were gathered up after the multitude were fed.

DAILY GAZETTE.—The New Hampshire Gazette of this morning informs us that its editor will next Monday commence the publication of a Daily Evening Newspaper, and continue it regularly, if the enterprise meets with a sufficient support to warrant it. $3 a year. In clubs of ten, 25 cts. till election.

☞ We regret to learn that our friend Wm. A. Fogg, Esq., of late the editor and publisher of the Great Falls Journal, has deemed it advisable to discontinue its publication. Mr Fogg will for the present reside in South Berwick; and we have made arrangements to receive correspondence from his genial pen, respecting matters and things in that vicinity, and his ideas of the world's doings generally.

☞ The City Missionary acknowedges the following receipts:

Jan. 17, Cash, from a friend,	$1
" 18, " from C. C.	$2

ELECTION OF MAYOR.—In Convention of both branches of the City Government on Thursday afternoon, JOHN ABBOT, Esq., of West Concord, was chosen Mayor of Concord in place of Mr. Clement, recently deceased. Whole vote 18, of which Mr. Abbot had 12.

ORDINATION.—Rev. Joshua Pierce will be ordained as Rector over St. Mark's Church at Holderness Village, on Wednesday next, 23d inst., by Right Reverend Bishop Chase, of Claremont. The exercises will commence at half past ten o'clock, A. M.

NEW YORK, Jan. 18.—"Inspector" of the Courier and Enquirer, telegraphs from Washington as follows:

A rumor prevails here that Mr Buchanan has been ordered to demand his passports, as soon as he delivers his last dispatch, peremptorily demanding the recall of Mr Crampton. It is understood that the President has a message in readiness communicating these facts.

The rejection of the plurality rule and the last trial for Speaker to-day indicate another month's anarchy; all parties despair.

RICHMOND, VA., Jan. 16 — Depot Demolished. The depot of the Danville Railroad, in this city, was on Saturday night crushed in by the weight of snow on the roof, and is now a heap of ruins. Twenty five cars, filled with freight were also demolished. Loss is $60,000.

The Salem Register states that a gentleman who failed in business in Danvers about fourteen years ago, paying 25 cts. on a dollar, and receiving a legal discharge, lately received a legacy, and on the first of the present month paid his old creditors the remaining 75 per cent. in full, amounting to about $15,000.

Miss M. Parker, a governess from Lowell, Mass., who was in a family in Norfolk teaching the young ideas, it seems inflamed the eldest son of the family with the "tender passion." He is about twenty years of age, and carrying off his bride to Weldon, they were married.

A People's Mass State Convention will be held in Concord, N. H., on Tuesday, the 5th day of February next; which will be addressed by Senators Hale and Bell, and several others of the most able and eloquent speakers in the Union.—Boston Telegraph.

The ladies of Haverhill propose so raise a monument to the memory of Hannah Dustin, for her heroic achievement in the Indian war of 1698.

There was an explosion of fire works yesterday at Edge's laboratory, Jersey City, by which two young women were killed, and a third so badly injured that she will doubtless die.

CAIRO, Ill., Jan. 17.—There is more ice in the Ohio river than was ever before known.—The river on this side is frozen in this vicinity more than 100 feet from the shore.

NEW HAVEN, Jan. 17.—The Sly Delusion.—The Grand Jury this afternoon have indicted Samuel Sly as principal, and Rhoda Wakeman, the prophetess, and Thankful S. Hersey as accessories to the murder of Justus Matthews. They will soon be tried. Abigail Sables and Josiah Jackson were this evening discharged from prison. The prophetess wept like an infant on being told that she must remain. Hersey said, pointing to the prophetess, they little know what they are about in shutting up that person here.

☞ In Portland the Exhibition of the Russian War drew together the largest audience ever known in that city.

MARRIED

In San Francisco, Mr Alvan Flanders of San Francisco, to Miss Elizabeth G. Smith of Newburyport.

DIED,

The Monthly Nautical Magazine,

Devoted exclusively to the Maritime Interests of the United States, embracing Ship Building, Commerce, Navigation and Marine Engineering.

ONE of the leading objects of the Editors will be to furnish correct data, upon which mechanics, merchants and mariners may confidently rely in finding an epitome of mechanical, commercial and nautical intelligence.

It will be the province of the Nautical Magazine to chronicle the march of nautical enterprise, and sketch the achievements of the living age; to aid research and investigation, and present the truths of unfolding science; to combine the experience of the ship-builder and navigator, and direct in harmony their united efforts to elevate the altitude of this excelling art, by diffusing from a nautical press the mechanical wonders of the ship and sea.

The work contains draughts of some of the finest vessels of the age, with other engravings, and is one of the most valuable publications of the country. Lithographs of vessels will be frequently inserted. Terms $5 per annum.

CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 17.

SENATE. — Petitions from Commodore Stewart, Commanders Lockwood and Long, and Lieutenants Chandler, Harndy, Farner, Bowers and Ellery were presented, complaining of the action of the Naval Board.

On motion of Mr Clayton, the President was requested to communicate all the instructions on Central American affairs not heretofore furnished, and calling for the adjudication of the American Commissioners at Paris on French spoliations of American Commerce.

The presiding officer was authorized to appoint the Committee on Printing. Adjourned to Monday.

HOUSE.—Mr Carliale (Know Nothing) of Virginia made a speech to show that the failure to organize grows out of the disturbance of the compromise measures and the passage of the Nebraska act, the latter giving food to heartless agitation.

Mr McMullen of Virginia defended the Democracy from the attack of Mr Carliale.

Messrs. Stevens, Zolikoffer and Washburn of Maine, debated the question of slavery restrictions, replying one to another.

The House then voted 116th ballot—Banks 94, Richardson 68, Fuller 32, Pennington 6, —Messrs. Orr, Williams and Porter each 1; necessary for a choice 102.

Mr Williams offered a resolution proposing to elect a Speaker by plurality, if after three additional trials no one should receive a majority of the whole number of votes.

The resolution was rejected, 94 ayes 106 nays. Adjourned.

NEW YORK, Jan. 16.—Sad Disaster.—The ship St. Dennis, hence for Havre, foundered at sea on the 6th inst. The captain, second mate, three passengers, and a portion of the crew, in all about thirty souls, went down in her. The first mate, Mr Tafis, third mate, Mr Gardiner, and nine seamen, took to the longboat, were picked up after being twenty-nine hours in it, and brought to this port by the ship Naples, from Leghorn. The St. Dennis was commanded by Capt. Follansbee, and was so badly damaged in the gale of the 5th that the above disaster ensued.

The following are the names of the passengers lost in the St. Dennis:—Cabin, Frederick P. Wass and wife, George Braten ihe; Steerage—Geo. Baker Fish, Jane Heinholdt, Paul Luding, wife, mother and child, John Gray, Gustave Schidenbacker, Philip Luding. There were also lost Capt. Alonzo Follansbee, third mate Henry Gardiner, carpenter F. Smith, steward F. Davies, first cook E. S. Potter, second cook Richard Henry, and sixteen seamen. The last that was seen of the captain, who refused to leave his ship, though begged so to do by all, he was standing on deck winding up his watch, when she went down, about ten minutes after the boat left. Capt. Follansbee had commanded the St. Dennis for nearly twelve yesrs. The rescued seamen were in the boat twenty-nine hours, with but one barrel of sea biscuit, soaked with salt water. They had not one drop of fresh water.

ALBANY, Jan. 16.—Governor Clarke delivered his message to both houses to-day. His financial statements are not very favorable, there being a deficiency during the financial year of upwards of $250,000. The surplus canal revenue over expenditures is $1,650,000. After discussing the various local topics, the Governor closes by an allusion to the Kansas question, denouncing in strong terms the overthrow of the Missouri Compromise, and expressing the hope that the voice of New York will again, as heretofore, be unanimous in assisting the Jeffersonian policy of restricting slavery and extending freedom.

Howard Association, Philadelphia.

IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT.—To all persons afflicted with Sexual diseases, such as Seminal Weakness, Impotence, Gonnorhœa, Gleet, Syphilis, &c. The Howard Association of Philadelphia, in view of the awful destruction of human life and health, caused by Sexual diseases, and the deceptions which are practiced upon the unfortunate victims of such diseases by Quacks, have directed their Consulting Surgeon, as a charitable act worthy of their name, to give medical advice gratis, to all persons thus afflicted, (Male or Female) who apply by letter, with a description of their condition, (age, occupation, habits of life,) &c. and in cases of extreme poverty and suffering to furnish medicines free of charge.

The Howard Association is a benevolent Institution, established by special endowment, for the relief of the sick and distressed, afflicted with "Virulent and Epidemic Diseases," and its funds can be used for no other purpose. It has now a surplus of means, which the Directors have voted to advertise the above notice. It is needless to add that the Association commands the highest Medical skill of the age, and will furnish the most approved modern treatment. Valuable advice also given to sick and nervous females, afflicted with Menstrual weakness, Womb Complaints, Costiveness, Leuccorrhœa, &c.

DOCTOR YOURSELF!
THE POCKET ÆSCULAPIUS:
OR, EVERY ONE HIS OWN PHYSICIAN.

THE FORTIETH Edition, with One Hundred Engravings, showing Diseases and Malformations of the Human System in every shape and form. To which is added a Treatise on the Diseases of Females, being of the high st importance to married people, or those contemplating marriage.

BY WILLIAM YOUNG, M. D.

Let no father be ashamed to present a copy of the Æsculapius to his child. It may save him from an early grave. Let no young man or woman enter into the secret obligations of married life with out reading the POCKET ÆSCULAPIUS. Let no one suffering from a hacknied Cough, Pain in the Side, restless nights, nervous feelings, and the whole train of Dyspeptic sensations, and given up by their Physician, be another moment without consulting the Æsculapius. Have the married, or those about to be married any impediment, read this truly useful book, as it has been the means of saving thousands of unfortunate creatures from the very jaws of death.

☞ Any person sending TWENTY-FIVE cents enclosed in a letter, will receive one copy of this work by mail, or five copies will be sent for one dollar. Address, (post paid,)

PRINCE & CO'S IMPROVED Patent Melodeons.

The oldest Establishment in the United States and the largest in the world.

Between 17,000 and 18,000 of these Instruments have been finished and are now in use.

The latest improvement in our Melodeons is the DIVIDED SWELL.

Secured to us by Letters Patent, 23d May, 1855. By means of this swell a Pianoforte Solo may be played with the full power of the Instrument, while the accompaniment is soft and subdued.—Hereafter, all Melodeons made by us will be furnished with this attachment WITHOUT EXTRA CHARGE.

[Extract from the Com. Advertiser, July 27th.]

"Messrs Prince & Co. could realize a handsome fortune by disposing of rights to other manufacturers to use their new improvement, but as they prefer to make it a feature in their instruments, it can only be obtained by purchasing one of their manufacture"

The styles and prices are—

IN PORTABLE CASE:

4 octave Melodeon, extend'g frm	C to C	.....	$45
4½ octave, "	"	C to F	60
5 octave Melodeon, "	"	F to F	75
5 octave, double reed, "	"	F to F	130

IN PIANO CASE:

5 octave Melodeon, extend'g frm	F to F	.....	$100
6 octave " "	"	F to F	130
5 octave, double reed, "	"	F to F	150
Organ Melodeon (for churches,) five octaves, 8 stops, 1½ octave pedals, 4 sets of reeds		.....	$350

Agents for the sale of our Melodeons may be found in all the principal cities and towns of the United States and the Canadas

The Following Opinions,

IN regard to MASON & HAMLIN'S Model MELODEON are from distinguished Musicians:

(From Lowell Mason.)

After having carefully examined the Melodeons of Messrs Mason & Hamlin, I am enabled to say that in my opinion they are decidedly superior to any others with which I am acquainted.

New York, July 1, 1854 LOWELL MASON.

From Geo. F. Root.)

Henry Mason, Esq., Dear Sir.—Having had one opportunity of examining the Mason & Hamlin's Model Melodeons, I am happy to bear testimony to their great excellence. In general characteristics, and especially in quality and uniformity of tone and tuning, they seem to me to be superior to any that I have yet examined.

Yours very truly, GEO. F. ROOT.

New York, May 25th, 1854.

(From Edwin Bruce.)

Dear Sirs:—I have examined your Model Melodeons with much satisfaction, and am prepared to express my confident opinion that they are the most perfect instruments manufactured.

Yours, &c., EDWIN BRUCE.

Harrison's Columbian Ink, Black.

FOR the National Government, State Legislatures, Courts of Record, Banks, Railroads, Post Offices, Insurance Offices, Editors, Authors, Lawyers, Doctors, Clergymen, Commercial and Business men of every sort, Colleges, Academies and Schools, and that great class who sustain all the Farmers—the GREAT INK of the country. 644,578 bottles sold in 1854, is significant that the AMERICAN PEOPLE appreciate THE AMERICAN INK, made by HARRISON the AMERICAN MANUFACTURER, and determine its great superiority over all foreign INKS. It is at wholesale and retail by

Harrison's Blue Black Writing Fluid

PROGRESS in the arts has revealed a Writing Fluid which does not, and cannot, Writing Fluids do destroy the points of gold pens, actively corrode steel pens, or chemically decompose the paper or its coloring. I have seen paper where every letter written with English Fluids was eaten entirely through, and a delicate mark was changed to a dirty yellow. The best make of gold pens have been condemned for losing their points, and the best manufactures of paper returned upon the dealer, where these Fluids were extensively used. Harrison's Fluid is subject to no of these evils. It writes a beautiful blue, and soon turns a jet black, and remains permanent HARRISON'S is AMERICAN, made by an AMERICAN, and worthy the use of all Americans. It is wholesaled and retailed by

Singer's Sewing Machines.

THESE Machines have long sustained the highest reputation in the United States.

The First Prize—A Gold Medal,

Has recently been awarded to them at the Palace of Industry in Paris, and thus they have the WORLD'S VERDICT OF SUPERIORITY.

The Inventor has just added to these superior Machines an improvement whereby they can work on any kind of

FAMILY SEWING,

They will also Bar and close all kinds of Kid Boots and Gaiter Shoes, and stitch the finest Gaiter Boots in every part without a skip—making them the most desirable for girls to use at home, or for any who wish to do more than one kind of work.

These Machines are warranted to do all kinds of work in a manner far superior to any other machine in use.

They run without noise, with ease to the Operator, and at double the ordinary speed, so that

Twice as much Work can be done in a Day.

The greatest Shoe Manufacturing and Clothing Establishments in the country use these Machines exclusively, having tried other Machines and found them entirely unfit for their use.

They are simple, and not scarcely anything to to keep them in repair; and can be operated by a child twelve years old.

These Machines may be had at Manufacturers' prices, of

THOMAS S. NOWELL,

G. W. STONE'S Cough, Consumption, and Bronchitis ELIXIR.

THE Proprietor would respectfully ca l the attention of the public to his invaluable Remedy for all Affections of the Throat and Lungs and begs of those who are undecided what to select, from the numerous medicines advertised, and recommended for such complaints, to give his ELIXIER a trial. Having done so, they will no longer hesitate what to take themselves, or recommend to others A single trial will prove to them that this is the most valuable remedy ever discovered for the various affections of the Throat and Lungs; it will immediately relieve the most violent Cough, and in a few hours completely cure the most severe Cold As a Preventive and Cure for Consumption, it has no equal.—It is purely Vegetable, contains no poisonous ingredients, is quite agreeable to the taste, and may be given with perfect safety to the most delicate child. The numerous testimonials received almost daily from those who have been cured by it, fully justify the assertion that no family should be without this Medicine: let Mothers give it to their Children who have the Whooping Cough or Croup, and they will alleviate at once the sufferings of their little ones. Price 50 cts.

No. 76 State st, opp. Kilby st, Boston.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO INVENTORS The Subscriber (late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, under the Act of 1837) determined to present advantages in applying for Patents, superior to those offered inventors by others, has made arrangements whereby on applications prepared and conducted by him, THIRTY DOLLARS (instead of twenty, as paid back by others,) will be remitted by him in case of failure to obtain a patent, the withdrawal through him within thirty days after the rejection.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate.—The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and his accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining patents.

Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers and Drawings necessary to the procural of patents in this and foreign countries prepared, and advice rendered on legal and scientific matters respecting inventions, or infringement of patents. All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

Copies of claims of any patent furnished for one dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.—Patents secured in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries, through this agency of the highest respectability. R. H. EDDY,

Solicitor of Patents.

Testimonials.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent Office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."

From the present Commissioner.

AUGUST 17, 1855.—During the time I have held the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq. of Boston, has been extensively engaged in the transaction of business with the Office, as a Solicitor. He is thoroughly acquainted with the law, and the rules of practice of the Office. I regard him as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse.

CHAS. MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

G. W. STONE'S

LIQUID CATHARTIC,

—AND—

Family Physic,

The most important discovery ever made in Medical Science, being a compound of Barks and Roots, which forms the most powerful, safe and agreeable physic ever offered to the public.

THE necessity of such a Medicine has long been felt both by the heads of families and Physicians. Its advantages over cathartics given in the form of Pills or Powders, must be obvious to every intelligent person. It operates more immediately and effectually upon the system, and at the same time is infinitely less difficult to administer, being quite agreeable to the taste. It not only produces all the effects which physic is required, but completely removes habitual Costiveness, leaving the bowels perfectly free. It expels all humors from the blood, is a certain cure for the Piles, regulates the action of the Liver, frees the Stomach from Impurities, invigorates the whole Nervous System, and removes the cause of all local pains, such as

It may also be relied upon in all diseases of the Bowels; Dysentery, Diarrhœa and Cholera Morbus yield at once to its magic influence. Again we repeat, TRY IT!—it needs but a trifle recommendation. No family will be without it after they have properly tested its merits. Reader, if you have tried other remedies, without success, despair not—relief is now at hand. Are you suffering with Scrofula, six bottles of my Liquid Cathartic will cure you. Would you be relieved from habitual Costiveness?—three bottles will effect all that you desire. If you are afflicted with Rheumatic, Neuralgic, or other local pains, two bottles will free you from them. All humors will be eradicated from the blood by the use of from one to six bottles. In short, if you require a physic for any purpose, this is the most reliable, safe and agreeable to the taste that has ever been placed within the reach of the public.

PRINCE & CO'S IMPROVED Patent Melodeons.
The oldest Establishment in the United States and the largest in the world.
Between 17,000 and 18,000 of these Instruments have been finished and are now in use.
The latest improvement in our Melodeons is the
DIVIDED SWELL,
Secured to us by Letters Patent, 23d May, 1855. By means of this swell Solo Passages may be played with the full power of the Instrument, while the accompaniment is soft and subdued.—Hereafter, all Melodeons made by us will be furnished with this attachment WITHOUT EXTRA CHARGE.
[Extract from the Com. Advertiser, July 27th.]
"Messrs Prince & Co. could realize a handsome fortune by disposing of rights to other manufacturers to use their new improvement, but as they prefer to make it a feature in their instruments, it can only be obtained by purchasing one of their manufacture."
The styles and prices are—
IN PORTABLE CASE:
4 octave Melodeon, extend'g frm C to C.....$45
4½ octave, " " C to F.....60
5 octave Melodeon, " " F to F.....75
5 octave, double reed, " " F to F.....130
IN PIANO CASE:

The Following Opinions,
in regard to MASON & HAMLIN'S Model MELODEON are from distinguished Musicians:
(From Lowell Mason.)
After having carefully examined the Melodeons of Messrs Mason & Hamlin, I am enabled to say that in my opinion they are decidedly superior to any others with which I am acquainted.
New York, July 1, 1854 Lowell Mason.
From Geo. F. Root.)
Henry Mason, Esq., Dear Sir,—Having had one opportunity of examining Mason & Hamlin's Model Melodeons, I am happy to bear testimony to their great excellence. In general characteristics, and especially in quality and uniformity of tone and tuning, they seem to me to be superior to any that I have yet examined.
Yours very truly, Geo. F. Root.
New York, May 25th, 1854.
(From Edwin Bruce.)
Dear Sir:—I have examined your Model Melodeons with much satisfaction, and am prepared to express my confident opinion that they are the most perfect instruments manufactured.
Yours, &c., Edwin Bruce.

Harrison's Columbian Ink, Black.
For the National Government, State Legislatures, Courts of Record, Banks, Railroads, Post Offices, Insurance Offices, Editors, Authors, Lawyers, Doctors, Clergymen, Commercial and Business men of every sort, Colleges, Academies and Schools, and that great class who sustain all, the Farmers—the Great Ink of the country. 644,573 bottles sold in 1854, is significant that the American People appreciate the American Ink, made by Harrison the American Manufacturer, and determine the great superiority over all foreign inks. It is at wholesale and retail by d10 GEO. W. TOWLE, 3 Congress Block.

Harrison's Blue Black Writing Fluid
Progress in the arts has revealed a Writing Fluid which does not, as other Writing Fluids do destroy the points of gold pens, actively corrode steel pens, or chemically decompose the paper or its coloring. I have seen paper where every letter written with English Fluids was eaten entirely through, and a delicate blue tint changed to a dirty yellow. The best make of gold pens have been condemned for losing their points, and the best manufactures of paper returned upon the dealer, where these Fluids were extensively used. Harrison's Fluid is subject to none of these evils. It writes a beautiful blue, and soon turns a jet black, and remains permanent. Harrison's is American, made by an American, and worthy the use of all Americans. It is wholesaled and retailed by

TEACHING CHILDREN TO READ.—The editor of the East Boston Ledger, in a late number of that Journal, speaks of the rapid progress of his little girl in learning to read, and remarks as follows:

Doubtless many are incredulous. But they have never tried Sargent's new 'First Reader' for children. We have, and with a success that no old system of teaching makes possible. A fortnight since, the writer's little girl, five years old, did not know more than half a dozen of the small letters and not more than half of the capitals. With the use of Sargent's First Reader, she is now learning to read. She learns letters and words at the same time, and can read a number of sentences in her book. No particular pains is taken with her. Some days she does not see the book at all; and at one time two or three days together passed without a lesson. Her lessons are never more than five minutes long, sometimes, perhaps, not more than two; yet she goes right ahead, and loves to read because she gets ideas and learns. We believe we can easily teach her to read and enjoy a child's story-book in three months by this system. Try it, parents.

Under the system alluded to above, alphabetic teaching is at first dispensed with altogether; the learners at once introduced to words—those words with which they are most familiar being selected at the outset. In Mr Sargent's little book (of which an immense number has already sold) the lessons are illustrated by appropriate wood-cuts, ingeniously adapted to enlighten and interest without ever misleading the young.—Boston Transcript.

We have known a child of two or three years to learn to read, by looking at Watts' Divine and Moral Songs, as they were daily sung in a family, in which singing he joined, and held a book in his hand like the rest.—He first learned to read his favorite hymns, and was presently, without any teaching, able to read common words anywhere.

TEMPERANCE AT THE VINEYARD.—A gentleman from West Tisbury writes that the community in that region are, to use his own language, "thoroughly Maine law in theory and in practice. The use of in oxicating drinks," he continues, "is scarcely known among us as a beverage. The majority abstain from principle, while others do so because they cannot conveniently obtain the liquor." He states that the suggestions of the State Temperance Committe relating to the formation of temperance societies, &c., will be adopted in his town.—Boston Telegraph.

In Boston, we learn from the same paper, that measures have been taken to organize a city temperance society, which shall embrace all classes. As it is not proposed to make the principle of prohibition the main topic of remark at these meetings, no person can object to uniting in the movement. Especially are clergymen of all denominations, members of churches, and all others interested in the suppression of crime, and in aiding the poor and suffering, called upon to assist in this work. The evils of intemperance in the city are prodigious. The organization proposed is designed to meet the case. The platform will be broad, with a plank for every lover of temperance, morality and good order to stand upon.

POLITICAL.—The Democracy of St. Louis, Mo., at their celebration on the 8th of January, passed the following spicy resolutions, condemnatory of the course of President Pierce:

"That the President of the United States, elected as a Democrat, and professing to be governed by Democratic principles, by proscribing and persecuting the friend and counsellors of Andrew Jackson, and, by taking into his confidence Caleb Cushing, a renegade abolitionist, and Hunter and Mason of Virginia, both of whom deserted the administration of Jackson, and labored to advance the disunion schemes of Calhoun, has forfeited all title to the support of the democracy of the nation.

That the violation by President Pierce of his plighted faith to maintain the compromises on the subject of slavery, has re-opened and renewed the agitation of that dangerous question, and brought us to the brink of civil war. His breach of faith is a natural consequence of his abandonment of Democratic principles, and his taking to his bosom the calumniators of Jackson, and the nullification coadjutors of Calhoun."

We would really like to know when and where Caleb Cushing showed himself an abolitionist:—and also, what party there is now in this country, that can go alone without fusion of some sort—what army there is among us that can dispense with the aid of Swiss troops.

MORAL SUASION.—Are there any striking instances of reform to be credited to the operation of the new law, any such glorious illustrations of its good effects and the remarkable wisdom of its framers as were of so frequent occurrence under the old Washingtonian moral suasion movement?—N. H. Gazette.

No indeed—and the man must be a most uncommon dolt who could expect it.

Are there any such striking instances of reform to be credited to our laws against theft and burglary, and murder,—as were of so frequent occurrence under the preaching of Paul and Peter, Luther, Wesley and Whitfield? We trow not.

Penal statutes can not create moral virtue—the most they can do is to protect society somewhat, against overt acts of vice or folly.

FIVE POINTS MISSION.

A New York correspondent of the Boston Courier gives the following graphic and telling account of Mr Pease and his mission It will please like a good story, and edify like a good sermon.

Nobody that has heard of New York but knows of the Five Points, and the House of Industry, under the charge of Mr Pease.

Probably the history of Mr Pease's self denial has been told a thousand times, but it will bear repetition again, and I crave your readers' attention to a short account of what has been done, and is doing, for the poor and sinful denizens of this most degraded place in the great metropolis.

Mr Pease is, or was, a country Methodist minister. While a young boy, unskilled in the ways of the world, on his first visit to New York, he went through the sinks and hells of the city, and so deeply was he impressed with the need of doing something for the needy, that it was an ever present hope that he might labor in New York for the poor: and in the Spring of 1850, with Mrs Pease, he came, under the employ of the Ladies' Mission of the M. E. Church, to the city, as a missionary to the Five Points.

Going right among those he was to work for, he got a house from which he removed forty cart-loads of muck—made it as neat as possible, and went to work. He tried to teach the children the Bible, but soon finding out the mistake of feeding hungry people with spiritual food only, he began giving them bread, playing marbles with them, and winning their affection in one way and another, till he could gently insinuate the counsel, whose open gift they refused. He has now incorporated in the House of Industry what were once six brothels. Three of these houses are mainly used for the residence of families. In the other three are the school-rooms, the office, the bakery, the dining room, &c.

There are now connected with the school some 400 or 500 children, the average attendance being about 275. All of these children are sure of a dinner at the house. About one third live there. The oven is capable of baking 300 large loaves of bread, but the dining-room is so small that the children and others who take meals together are divided into ten sections. While passing through one of the school-rooms, some seventy-five children, standing up with folded hands and closed eyes were singing an evening prayer—for such ragged children, very sweetly. In another room, a class of twenty-five children were sewing—some on patch-work, others on clothing. This habit and practice of industry is one of the first things inculcated. Cleanliness, industry, education, godliness, are the successive rounds of the ladder.

The present building is too small for the accommodation of those who would be inmates, and a new building is nearly completed for the use of Mr Pease's mission. It is built of brick in the most substantial manner. The walls are twenty inches thick.—The stair-cases are of brick, the stairs of stone, the floor timbers are of iron, and the floors are laid on brick. The building has a front of 54 feet and a depth of a little more than 100 feet. The "chapel" is 44 feet square, and has the height of two stories.—Back of the chapel is a room, (21 by 18 feet) which is intended to occupy with papers, books, &c., as a reading room. Here also cheap and wholesome refreshments are to be sold, and it is hoped that many will prefer it to the gaudy rum-hole. Under this, in the basement, is a room designed for a play room for the children. The rest of the building is occupied with school rooms, bath-rooms, dormitories, kitchens, &c. The air used in the building comes from the top of the house, as pure as the city can afford—not from the reeking, filthy gutter. By means of ventilators the air is brought to every room of the building, and the two furnaces in the cellar supply an ample amount of heat. The building is six stories above the basement, and has cost, with the land, $35,000. There is no show about it; all is real, substantial, and fine.

The end of all the instruction here is to fit the inmates for the country. Some eight hundred were last year fitted to begin and lead a life of respectability. This is a noble year's work indeed.

The singular propensity of the Yankees to get out a paper manifests itself very pleasantly in the Monthly Magazine published here. It is only 50 cents a year, bound 75 cents, and is full of incidents of life at the Mission House. There are also some very pleasant pieces of poetry by Richard Realf, who seems to have the poet's true spirit in him, needing cultivation and education to develope it.—Your readers cannot make a better disposal of fifty cents than to send it as a subscription to this magazine.

I came away from the House of Industry thinking whether such charity as this might not possibly be a better way of exemplifying the excellence of Christian attainments, than quarrelling about mooted points of doctrine, or sending missionaries to the Chinese. I regret that I had not time to visit the Ladie's Mission House, where a similar work to Mr. Pease's is prosecuted, as I learn successfully.

NEWBURYPORT ALMSHOUSE.—A correspondent of the Herald says—

That amidst all their fault finding with the Overseers of the Poor, the people should know that it was wholly through the efforts of Messrs. Charles Currier and S. H. Rundlet, that the city farm was made to produce 450 bushels of Potatoes, last year, worth $225.

One of the Overseers of the Poor, denying the reports that have gone abroad of the great expense of supporting the inmates of the Alms House, sends us a 'bill of fare,' that the public may know how the paupers are kept. From that it appears, that upon every day of the week they have for breakfast, white bread, coffee and codfish, excepting Sundays, when butter is substituted for fish; and for supper, each day, they get white bread and chocolate—Their dinners are, on Monday, baked beans, bread and water; on Tuesday, meat, bread and water; on Wednesday, fish, potatoes and bread; on Thursday, bread and butter with water; on Friday, soup and bread; on Saturday, boiled dish; and on Sunday, rice and molasses.

The Fall River News states that a New England gentleman in California, who corresponds with a young lady of that city, sent her a letter, which arrived in the mail of the George Law, on the 28th ult., and which comprised one hundred and forty-six pages of letter paper.

It is not to be supposed that this couple will ever be united in marriage. The tender passion must be smothered under such a load of words.

THE ALLEGED LIQUOR FRAUD.—The case of George S. and Sewell Buffum, who were arrested in December last, in Boston, charged with selling 23 gallons of poor brandy to John H. Davis, as a pure article, obtaining $4 25 for what was worth only 87 cents, came up in the Police Court at Boston on Thursday. It will be remembered that the counsel for the defence had moved that the case be discharged on the ground that as the sale was illegal, the charge of fraud in its sale could not hold. Judge Russell, however, decided that the violation of one law did not excuse a man for the violation of another; that the defendants, by violating the liquor law, did not excuse themselves from the charge of fraud. The motion to dismiss was overruled and the defendants allowed to give bail in $250 each for trial in the Municipal Court.—Boston Chronicle.

BRIEF ITEMS.—The operator of the Cape Cod telegraph at South Boston, played a game of chequers with the operator at Provincetown, on Tuesday evening, the two players using numbered boards, and making their moves by directions sent over the wires. The game lasted about an hour and a half, and resulted in the Provincetown operator winning the game.

On Monday evening, Professor Hale, of Hale's Anatomic l Views, was engaged in showing a gentleman and two young ladies the process of making hydrogen, when, from some unknown cause the generator blew up, carrying the bell through the ceiling above and scattering the fragments. The whole party were drenched in a solution of sulphuric acid, damaging their clothes to the extent of $150, and the whole loss is $300.

COMPLIMENTARY—VERY!—At the recent State Convention of the "soft shell" Democracy of New York, a resolution was adopted, "expressing a becoming regret at the death of its old antagonist, the Whig party, whose manly bearing and high toned ability, contrasted so favorably with the course of the secret, sectional and narrow-minded factions which have succeeded it." This eulogy pronounced upon the deceased Whig party, is exceedingly "becoming" in the Democracy, and must afford great consolation to the surviving friends of that party! Strange that the virtues of this same Whig party were never appreciated until its death.

MUSICAL ENTERTAINMENT.—A very pleasant musical entertainment was enjoyed last week at the Norfolk House, Roxbury, by a select and appreciative audience. Mr Satter, the popular and accomplished pianist, occupied a prominent position on the programme. During the evening he received three encores and played his popular march and the campanella of Willmer's, besides his minuett. His playing was splendid, equalling in effect the performance of an orchestra. The audience was wrought up to a high state of enthusiasm, and Satter's genius showed itself in all its glory.

We must not omit to say a word about the Hallet, Davis & Co. Parlor Grand. It is the first one of their make, and is truly a wonder. We repeat Satter's own words, who pronounces it "not only equal in tone and action to any Grand, but the finest specimen of a Parlor Grand he ever saw." There is one feature in this instrument which we conceive to be of great importance to its durability. The action, strings, &c., all run parallel, and it has three strings instead of two, combining nearly all the qualities of their concert Grands, which have given them much superiority over all others, while it is very much smaller, thus making it a very desirable parlor instrument, for which it is designed. Under Satter's fairy fingers it gave forth those bell like tones peculiar to their pianos. We congratulate the enterprising firm of Hallet, Davis & Co., on this newly achieved triumph of mechanism.—Boston Journal.

Mr Satter exercised one of Hallet, Davis & Co.'s Grand Pianos to its utmost capability—dashing away like a full orchestra and half a dozen anvils, on a Fantasia from Trovatore, and then giving the delightful Minuet from Don Giovanni with the delicacy of touch and expression which befits it.—Transcript.

We are informed that an old lady named Elizabeth Farmer, living in Newton, N. H., who has been widely known for her extreme parsimonious habits, died last week, leaving from seventy five to a hundred thousand dollars worth of property, to be divided among her nearest relatives—embracing some fifteen or twenty cousins. Most of the property consists in very heavy timber lands, some railroad stock, and a large accumulation of gold and silver coin, found snugly stowed away in an old chest.—Amesbury Villager.

HANGING.—A year or two ago the good people of Wisconsin abolished the death penalty in that State. The increase of crime has since been so great that the papers are demanding that the ensuing Legislature shall restore it.—Albany Register.

A year or two ago, the death penalty was re-affirmed in Massachusetts, and the increase of crime has been so great since, that we hardly have jails enough to hold the murderers, to say nothing of other criminals; and this fact proves as much on one side, as the Wisconsin matter does on the other.—Newburyport Herald.

LOCAL.

ROWDYISM.—Messrs. Editors:—I would ask through the medium of your sheet, if nothing can be done by those in authority to stop the disgraceful proceedings which nightly occur on our public streets. It is no use to disguise the fact that rowdyism is on the increase in our midst; and unless our officers do their duty more faithfully, we shall see the fruits of it in time to come. The sidewalk in front of Congress Block, as you are well aware, has long been a favorite place of resort by young men who should have more regard for their character than to insult females and others who chance to pass. But of late Market street has become about as bad, and no careful observer can fail to notice the great change which has taken place in that vicinity within a short time. Market street has until lately been a quiet street, and business has been conducted in the evening as well as in the day time, to the satisfaction of all; but if such actions as have occurred the past week, are allowed to go on, business must be suspended, evenings, for ladies will not enter the street where such low and vicious young men are found congregated and ready to insult them. S. W. C.

REMARKABLE FACT.—Sunday, Jan. 20th was a pleasant day—but rather cool. The thermometer stood at about 4° above 0, at sunrise.

THE GREAT EXHIBITION OF THE RUSSIAN WAR.—Much curiosity is manifested in regard to this great novel Exhibition which has just arrived in this country via Halifax. It was lately exhibited in Bangor aud Portland to very large audiences. It is spoken of in high terms. It opens in this city, on Wednesday evening, at the Temple.

CONGRESS.

FRIDAY, Jan. 18.

The Senate was not in session.

HOUSE.—Mr Mace, addressing himself, as he said, to statesmen, not partisans, offered, in a spirit of compromise, a resolution declaring—

Mr Banks (Republican) Speaker: Mr Cullom (American) Clerk; A. J. Glossbrenner, Sergeant-at-Arms; John M. Johnson, Postmaster; Z. W. McKnew, Door keeper.

The last three are the nominees of the Democratic caucus.

The resolution was tabled by a vote of 111 against 90.

Mr Giddings advocated the adoption of the plurality resolution, declaring that the House cannot organize on any other principle. He called on Democrats to follow their own precedent.

Mr Cobb, of Georgia, said that the Democratic caucus of 1849, rejected the plurality proposition, which was subsequently adopted.

Several members assented to the truth of this proposition, and

Mr Cobb continued—"With the Republicans the issue is Banks and disorganization in preference to Mr Campbell of Ohio, whom they could have elected the other day, if all of them had voted for Mr Thorington's resolution."

Mr Giddings—"I vote as I please, without going to Georgia to learn my duty."

Mr Cobb—"If you did you would be better acquainted with it." [Laughter.]

Mr Tappan, in reply to Mr Cobb, said the vote on Mr Thorington's resolution was not a fair test, as the Republicans had made a nomination other than Mr Campbell, of Ohio.

The debate was confined to the Democrats and Republicans.

Mr Clingman offered a resolution that until the election of a Speaker, the first business each day shall be to vote twice, no debate being allowed under any pretext, until the two votes are taken; and, further, to declare it not in order to vote the third time the same day.

Pending the resolution, the House adjourned.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 18.—The Republicans held a caucus at the Capitol to-night, about 90 members present. Mr Leiter was chairman; several evinced a disposition to drop Mr Banks but the general feeling to sustain him was as strong as heretofore. At eleven o'clock a discussion arose as to the best means of securing his election.

NEW YORK, Jan. 19th.—The Washington correspondent of the Times telegraphs: "It is understood that P. H. French will leave the country next week, and that Col. Walker will send a native Nicaraguan here as Minister.

The carrying of sand to supply the masons of Boston, is quite a business at the mouth of the Merrimac river. Thirty years ago, perhaps all the sand beaches from Ipswich to Hampton would not have brought a thousand dollars, and when all of Plum Island in the town of Newbury was purchased for about half that sum, the public thought it a poor speculation; now the proprietors receive thousands of dollars annually for what is taken away by vessels.—Newburyport Herald.

The Monthly Nautical Magazine,

Devoted exclusively to the Maritime Interests of the United States, embracing Ship Building, Commerce, Navigation and Marine Engineering.

ONE of the leading objects of the Editors will be to furnish correct data, upon which mechanics, merchants and mariners may confidently rely in finding an epitome of mechanical, commercial and nautical intelligence.

It will be the province of the Nautical Magazine to chronicle the march of nautical enterprise, and sketch the achievements of the living age; to aid research and investigation, and present the truths of unfolding science; to combine the experience of the ship-builder and navigator, and direct in harmony their united efforts to elevate the altitude of this excelling art, by diffusing through a nautical press the mechanical wonders of the ship and sea.

Singer's Sewing Machines.

THESE Machines have long sustained the highest reputation in the United States.

The First Prize—A Gold Medal,

Has recently been awarded to them at the Palace of Industry in Paris, and thus they have the WORLD'S VERDICT OF SUPERIORITY.

The Inventor has just added to these superior Machines an improvement whereby they can work on any kind of

FAMILY SEWING,

They will also Bar and close all kinds of Kid Boots and Shoes, and stitch the finest Gaiter Boots in every part without a skip—making them the most desirable for girls to use at home, or for any who wish to do more than one kind of work.

These Machines are warranted to do all kinds of work in a manner far superior to any other machine in use.

They run without noise, with ease to the Operator, and at double the ordinary speed, so that

Twice as much Work can be done in a Day.

The greatest Shoe Manufacturing and Clothing Establishments in the country use these Machines exclusively, having tried other Machines and found them entirely unfit for their use.

They are simple, and cost scarcely anything to to keep them in repair; and can be operated by a child twelve years old.

These Machines may be had at Manufacturers' prices, of

THOMAS S. NOWELL,

G. W. STONE'S Cough, Consumption, and Bronchitis ELIXIR.

THE Proprietor would respectfully call the attention of the public to his invaluable Remedy for all Affections of the Throat and Lungs and begs of those who are undecided what to select, from the numerous medicines advertised, and recommended for such complaints, to give his ELIXER a trial. Having done so, they will no longer hesitate what to take themselves, or recommend to others. A single trial will prove to them that this is the most valuable remedy ever discovered for the various affections of the Throat and Lungs; it will immediately relieve the most violent Cough, and in a few hours completely cure the most severe Cold. As a Preventive and Cure for Consumption, it has no equal.—It is purely Vegetable, contains no poisonous ingredients, is quite agreeable to the taste, and may be given with perfect safety to the most delicate child. The numerous testimonials received almost daily from those who have been cured by it, fully justify the assertion that no family should be without this Medicine: let Mothers give it to their Children who have the Whooping Cough or Croup, and they will alleviate at once the sufferings of their little ones. Price 50 cts.

Call for G. W. Stone's Cough Elixir, and see that his name, and Cough Elixir, with the words Boston, Mass., are blown upon the Bottle, without which none will be genuine.

Great American and Foreign Office

For Securing Patents for Inventions.

Agency for business with US Patent Office, Washington,

R. H. EDDY,

No. 76 State st, oppo. Kilby st, Boston.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO INVENTORS The Subscriber (late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, under the Act of 1837) determined to present advantages in applying for Patents, superior to those offered inventors by others, has made arrangements whereby on applications prepared and conducted by him, THIRTY DOLLARS (instead of twenty, as paid back by others,) will be remitted by him in case of failure to obtain a patent, and the withdrawal through him within thirty days after the rejection.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate.—The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining patents.

Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers and Drawings necessary to the procural of patents in this and foreign countries prepared, and advice rendered on legal and scientific matters respecting inventions, or infringement of patents. All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

Copies of claims of any patent furnished for one dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.—Patents secured in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries, through Agents of the highest respectability. R. H. EDDY,

Solicitor of Patents.

Testimonials.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent Office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."

From the present Commissioner.

AUGUST 17, 1855.—During the time I have held the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq. of Boston, has been extensively engaged in the transaction of business with the Office, as a Solicitor. He is thoroughly acquainted with the law, and the rules of practice of the Office. I regard him as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS. MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

G. W. STONE'S

LIQUID CATHARTIC,

—AND—

Family Physic,

The most important discovery ever made in Medical Science, being a combination of all Barks and Roots, which forms the most powerful, safe and agreeable Physic ever offered to the public.

THE necessity of such a Medicine has long been felt both by the heads of families and Physicians. Its advantages over cathartics given in the form of Pills or Powders, must be obvious to every intelligent person. It operates more immediately and effectually upon the system, and at the same time is entirely free from difficulty to administer, being quite agreeable to the taste. It not only produces all the effects where physic is required, but completely removes habitual Costiveness, leaving the bowels perfectly free. It expels all humors from the blood, is a certain cure for the Piles, regulates the action of the Liver, frees the Stomach from Bile, invigoorates the whole Nervous System, and removes the cause of all local pains, such as

It may also be relied upon in all diseases of the Bowels; Dysentery, Diarrhœa and Cholera Morbus yield at once to its magic influence. Again we repeat, TRY IT!—It needs no other recommendation. No family will be without it after they have properly tested its merits. Reader, if you have tried other remedies, without avail, despair not—relief is now at hand. Are you suffering with Scrofula, six bottles of my Liquid Cathartic will cure you. Would you be relieved from habitual Costiveness?—three bottles will effect all that you desire. If you are afflicted with Rheumatic, Neuralgic, or other local pains, two bottles will free you from them. All humors will be eradicated from the blood by the use of from one to six bottles. In short, if you require a physic for any purpose, this is the most reliable, safe and agreeable to the taste that has ever been placed within the reach of the public.

PRICE $1.00.
